22 ¶ * And it came to passe on a certeine day, that hee went into a ship with his disciples, and he said vnto them, Let vs goe ouer vnto the other side of the lake. And they launched forth.

23 And as they sailed, he fell i asleepe, & there came downe a storme of winde on the lake, and they were filled with water, and were in ieopardie.

24 Then they went to him, and awoke him, saying, Master, Master, we perish. And he arose, and rebuked the winde, and the waues of water: and they ceased, and it was calme.

25 Then hee sayde vnto him, Where is your faith? and they feared, and wondered among themselues, saying, Who is this that commandeth both the windes and water, and they obey him?

26 ¶ * So they sailed vnto the region of the Gadarenes, which is ouer against Galile.

27 And as hee went out to lande, there met him a certaine man out of the citie, which had a deuill long time, and hee ware no clothes, neither abode in house, but in the graues.

28 And when hee sawe Jesus, hee cryed out, and fell downe before him, and with a loud voyce sayd, What haue I to doe with thee, Jesus the sonne of God, the most high? I beseech thee k torment me not.

29 For hee commanded the foule spirit to come out of the man: (for ||oft times hee had caught him: therefore hee was bound with chaines, and kept in fetters: but hee brake the bandes, and was l caryed of the deuill into wildernesses.)

30 Then Jesus asked him, saying, What is thy name? And hee sayde, m Legion, because many deuils were entred into him.

31 And they besought him, that he would not cõmand them to go out into the n deepe.

32 And there was there by, an heard of many swine, feeding on an hill, and the deuils besought him, that he would suffer them to enter into them. So he suffered them.

33 Then went the deuils out of the man, and entred into the swine: & the herde was caried with violence from a steepe downe place into the lake, and was choked.

34 When the herdemen sawe what was done, they fled: and when they were departed, they told it in the citie and in the countrey.

35 Then they came out to see what was done, and came to Jesus, and founde the man, out of whome the deuils were departed, sitting at the feete of Jesus, clothed, and in his right minde: and they were afraide.

36 They also which sawe it, tolde them by what meanes hee that was possessed with the deuill, was healed.

37 Then the whole multitude of the countrey about the Gadarenes, besought him, that hee would depart from them: for they were taken with a great feare: and he went into the ship, and returned.

38 Then the man, out of whome the deuils were departed, besought him that hee might be with him: but Jesus sent him away, saying, 39 ° Returne into thine owne house, and shew what great things God hath done to thee. So hee went his way, and preached throughout all the p citie, what great things Jesus had done vnto him.

40 ¶ And it came to passe when Jesus was come againe, that the people receiued him: for they all waited for him.

41 ¶ * And behold, there came a man named Jairus, and he was the ruler of the q Synagogue, who fell downe at Jesus feete, and besought him that he would come into his house.

42 For hee had but a daughter onely, about twelue yeeres of age, and she lay a dying. (And as he went, the people thronged him.

43 And a woman hauing an issue of blood, twelue yeeres long, which had spent all her substance vpon physitions, and could not be healed of any:

44 When she came behind him, she touched the r hemme of his garment, and immediatly her issue of blood stanched.

45 Then Jesus said, Who is it that hath touched mee? When euery man denied, Peter sayd and they that were with him, Master, the multitude thrust thee, and treade on thee, and sayest thou, Who hath touched me?

46 And Jesus sayd, Some one hath touched me: for I perceiue that vertue is gone out of me.

47 When the woman sawe that she was not hidde, she came trembling, and fell downe before him, and tolde him before all the people, for what cause she had touched him, and howe she was healed immediatly.

48 And he sayd vnto her, Daughter, be of good comfort: thy s faith hath made thee whole: goe in peace.)

28 * And it came to passe about an eight dayes after those wordes, that he tooke Peter and Iohn, and Iames, and went vp into a mountaine to pray.

29 And as he prayed, the fashion of his countenance was changed, & his garment was white and glittered.

30 And behold, two men talked with him, which were Moses and Elias, 31 Which appeared in glory, and told of his i departing, which hee should accomplish at Ierusalem.

i That is, what issue he should haue, and howe he should die.

32 But Peter and they that were with him, him, were heavie with sleepe, and when they awoke, they sawe his glorie, and the two men standing with him.

33 And it came to passe, as they departed from him, Peter said vnto Jesus, Master, it is good for vs to be here: let vs therefore make three tabernacles, one for thee, and one for Moses, and one for Elias, and wist not what he sayd.

34 Whyle hee thus spake, there came a cloud, & [k] ouershadowed them, & they feared when they were entring into the cloude.

35 * And there came a voyce out of the cloud, saying, This is my beloued Sonne, heare him.

36 And when the voyce was past, Jesus was found alone: and they kept it close, and tolde no man in [l] those dayes any of those things which they had seene.

37 ¶ And it came to passe on the next day, as they came downe from the mountaine, much people met him.

38 * And behold, a man of the company cried out, saying, Master, I beseech thee, behold my sonne: for he is all that I haue.

39 And lo, a spirit taketh him, & suddenly he cryeth, and he teareth him, that hee foameth, and with much paine departeth from him, when he hath bruised him.

40 Now I haue besought thy disciples to cast him out, but they could not.

41 Then Jesus answered, and said, [m] O generation faithlesse, and crooked, how long now shall I bee with you, and suffer you? bring thy sonne hither.

42 And whiles hee was yet comming, the deuil rent him, and tare him: and Jesus rebuked the vncleane spirit, and healed the childe, and deliuered him to his father.

43 ¶ And they were all amased at the mightie power of God: and while they all wondred at all things, which Jesus did, he sayd vnto his disciples, 44 ‡ Marke these wordes diligently: for it shall come to passe, that the sonne of man shalbe deliuered into the hands of men.

45 But they [n] vnderstood not that word: for it was hid from them, so that they could not perceiue it: and they feared to aske him of that word.

46 ¶ Then there arose a disputation among them, which of them should be the greatest.

47 When Jesus sawe the thoughtes of their hearts, he tooke a litle childe, & set him by him, 48 And said vnto them, Whosoeuer receiueth this little childe in my Name, receiueth me: and whosoeuer shall receiue me, receiueth him that sent me: for hee that is least among you all, he shall be great.

49 ¶ * And Johan answered and saide, Master, we sawe one casting out deuils in thy Name, and we forbad him, because he followeth thee not with vs.

50 Then Jesus saide vnto him. Forbid ye him not: for he that is not against vs, [o] is with vs.

51 ¶ And it came to passe, when the [p] dayes were accomplished, that he should be receiued vp, he setled himselfe fully to go to Jerusalem.

52 And sent messengers before him: and they went and entred into a towne of the Samaritanes, to prepare him lodging.

53 But they would not receiue him, because his [q] behauiour was, as though hee would goe to Jerusalem.

54 And when his disciples, James and John [s] sawe it, they saide, Lorde, wilt thou that we commaunde, that fire come downe from heauen, and consume them, euen as * Elias did?

55 But Jesus turned about, and rebuked them, and saide, Ye know not of what [r] spirit ye are.

56 For the sonne of man is not come to destroy mens liues, but to saue them. Then they went to another towne.

57 ¶ And it came to passe that as they went in the way, * a certaine man said vnto him, I will follow thee, Lord, whithersoeuer thou goest.

58 And Jesus said vnto him, The [t] foxes haue holes, and the birdes of the heauen haue nests, but the Sonne of man hath not wherein to lay his head.

59 But he sayd vnto another, Followe me. And the same sayd, Lord, suffer me first to goe and [u] bury my father.

60 And Jesus sayde vnto him, * Let the dead bury their dead: but goe thou & preach the kingdome of God.

61 Then another said, I wil follow thee, Lord: but let me first go bid them farewell, which are at mine house.

28 Then he said vnto him, Thou hast answered right: this doe, and thou shalt liue.

29 But hee willing to ‖ ‖ iustifie himselfe, said vnto Iesus, Who r is then my neighbour?

31 And by f chance there came downe a certaine t Priest that same way, and when he sawe him, hee passed by on the other side.

AND it was, that as hee was praying in a certeine place, when he ceased, one of his Disciples sayde vnto him, Master, teach vs to pray, as Iohn also taught his disciples.

Matth.6.9.

2 * And he sayde vnto them, When yee pray, say, Our Father, which art in heauen, halowed bee thy Name: Thy kingdome come: Let thy will be done euen in earth, as it is in heauen:

3 Our daily bread giue vs [a] for the day:

a Or, euery day, or as much as is sufficient for this day.

4 And ‖ forgiue vs our sinnes: for euen wee forgiue euery man that is indebted to vs: And lead vs not into temptation: but deliuer vs from euill.

5 ¶ Moreouer he said vnto thē, [b] Which of you shall haue a friend, and shall goe to him at midnight, and say vnto him, Friend, lend me three loaues:

b By this similitude he teacheth vs that we ought not to be discouraged, if we obteine not incontinently that which we demand.

6 For a friend of mine is come ‖ out of the way to mee, and I haue nothing to set before him:

‖ Or, in passing by the way.

7 And hee within should answere, & say, Trouble me not: the doore is now shut, and my children are with mee in bed: I cannot rise and giue thee thee.

8 I say vnto you, Though he would not rise and giue him, because he is his friend, yet doubtlesse because of his ‖ importunitie, he would rise, and giue him as many as hee needed.

9 * And I say vnto you, Aske, and it shal be giuen you: seeke, and ye shal find: knocke, and it shalbe opened vnto you.

Matth.7.7. and 21.22. mar.11. 24. Ioh.14.13. & 16.23. Iam.1.5.

10 For euery one that asketh, receiueth: and he that seeketh, findeth: & to him that knocketh, it shalbe opened.

Matth.7.9.

11 * If a sonne shall aske bread of any of you that is a father, will hee giue him a stone? or if he aske a fish, will hee for a fish giue him a serpent?

12 Or if he aske an egge, will he giue him a scorpion?

13 If yee then which are euill, can giue good gifts vnto your children, howe much more shall your heauenly Father giue [c] the holy Ghost to them, that desire him?

c The chiefest thing that we can desire of God, is his holy Spirit.

14 ¶ Then he cast out a deuil which was dumme: and when the deuill was gone out, the dumme spake, and the people wondered.

15 But some of them sayde, Hee casteth out deuils through Beelzebub the chiefe of the deuils.

16 And others tempted him, seeking of him a signe from heauen.

17 But hee knewe their thoughts, and said vnto them, * Euery kingdome deuided against it selfe, shall be desolate, and an house deuided against an house, falleth.

Matth.12.25. mar.3.24,25.

18 So if Satan also bee deuided against himselfe, howe shall his kingdome stand, because yee say that I cast out deuils through Beelzebub?

19 If I through Beelzebub cast out deuils, by whome doe your [d] children cast them out? Therefore shall they bee your iudges.

d That is to say, your coniurers.

20 But if I by the [e] finger of God cast out deuils, doubtlesse the kingdome of God is come vnto you.

e The finger of God is taken for the vertue and power of God. And the vertue of the Father and the Sonne is the holy Ghost: for so Matthewe doeth interprete this place.

21 When a strong man armed keepeth his [f] palace, the things that hee possesseth are in ‖ peace.

f The word signifieth an entrie or porch before an house.

22 But when a stronger then hee commeth vpon him, and ouercommeth him: he taketh from him all his armour wherein he trusted, and deuideth his spoyles.

23 Hee that is not s with mee, is against mee: and hee that gathereth not with mee, scattereth.

24 * When the vncleane spirite is gone out of a man, hee walketh through dry places, seeking [g] rest: and when hee findeth none, hee saith, I will returne vnto mine house whence I came out.

g They that doe not wholly apply themselues to destroy the kingdome of Satan, cannot bee counted to bee on Christs side, but are his aduersaries: how much more is he against him, that maketh open warre with him as Satan doeth?

Matth.12.43.

25 And when he commeth, he findeth it swept, and [i] garnished.

i More apt to receiue him then it was afore.

26 Then [k] goeth hee, and taketh to him ‖ seuen other spirits, worse then himselfe: and they enter in, and dwell there, * so the last state of that man is worse then the first.

k If by infidelitie we turne backe from God, Satan hath greater power ouer vs then he had before.

‖ He meaneth an infinite number.

Heb.6.4,2.pet. 2.20.

27 ¶ And it came to passe as hee sayde these things, a certaine woman of the company lifted vp her voyce, and said vnto him, Blessed is the wombe that bare thee, and the pappes which thou hast sucked.

28 But hee sayd, [m] Yea, rather blessed are they that heare the worde of God, and keepe it.

m Christ gaue her a priuy taunt for that she omitted the chiefe prayse which was due vnto him: that was ỹ they are blessed in deede to whome he communicateth himselfe by his worde.

Matth.12.38, Chap.8.16. mar.5.15. mark.4.21. Matth.6.22.

29 ¶ * And when the people were gathered thicke together, he began to say, This is a wicked generation: they seeke a signe, and there shall no signe be giuen them, but the signe of * Ionas the Prophet.

30 For as Ionas was a signe to the Niniuites, so shall also the Sonne of man be to this generation.

31 * The Queene of the South shall rise in iudgement, with the men of this generation, and shall condemne them: for she came from the vttmost parts of the earth to heare the wisedome of Solomon, and beholde, a greater then Solomon is here.

32 The men of Niniue shal rise in iudgement with this generation, and shall condemne it: for they * repented at the preaching of Ionas: and beholde, a greater then Ionas is here.

33 ¶ * No man lighteth a candle, & putteth it in a priue place, neither vnder a bushell: but on a candlesticke, that they which come in may see the light.

34 * ‖ The light of the body is the [n] eye: therefore when thine eye is [o] single, then is thy whole body light: but if thine eye be euill, then thy body is darke.

35 Take heede therefore ỹ the light which is in thee, be not darkenesse.

37 ¶ And as hee spake, a certaine Pharise besought him to dine with him: and he went in, and sate downe at table.

38 And when the Pharise sawe it, hee marueiled that hee had not first washed before dinner.

39 * And the Lord said to him, In deede ye Pharises make cleane the outside of the cup and of the platter: but the inward part is full of rauening and wickednesse.

40 Ye fooles, did not he that made that which is without, make that which is within also?

41 Therefore p giue almes of ‖ those things which are within, and beholde, all things shalbe cleane to you.

42 But woe be to you, Pharises: for yee tithe the mint and the rewe, and all maner herbes, and passe ouer ‖ iudgement and the loue of God: these ought yee to haue done, and q not to haue left the other vndone.

43 * Woe be to you, Pharises: for ye loue the vppermost seates in the Synagogues, and greetings in the markets.

44 Woe be to you, Scribes and Pharises, hypocrites: for ye are as graues which r appeare not, and the men that walke ouer them, perceiue not.

45 ¶ Then answered one of the expounders of the Lawe, & said vnto him, Master, Thus saying thou puttest vs to rebuke also.

46 And he saide, Woe be to you also, yee interpreters of the Law: for yee * lade men with burdens grieuous to be borne, and yee your selues touch not the burdens with one of your fingers.

47 Woe be to you: for ye ſ builde the sepulchres of the Prophets, and your fathers killed them.

48 t Truely ye beare witnesse, and allow the deedes of your fathers: for they killed them, and ye u build their sepulchres.

49 Therefore sayd the wisdome of God, I will send them Prophets and Apostles, and of them they shall slay and ‖ persecute,

50 That the blood of all the Prophets, shed from the foundation of the world, may be required of this generation, 51 From the blood of * Abel vnto the blood of * Zacharias, which was slaine betweene the altar and the Temple: verely I say vnto you, it shall bee required of x this generation.

52 Woe be to you, ye interpreters of the Lawe: for ye haue y taken away the key of knowledge: yee entred not in your selues, and them that came in, ye forbade.

53 And as hee layde these things vnto them, the Scribes and Pharises began to vrge him sore, and to prouoke him to speake of many things, 54 Laying waite for him, and seeking to catch some thing of his mouth, whereby they might accuse him.

Matth. 23. 25.

p Christ heere requireth two things: first, that we come truely by our meate & drinke: and next, that we distribute part to the poore: for charitie is the perfection of the Lawe.

‖ Or, of that that you haue.

‖ Or, moment.

11 * And when they shall bring you vnto the Synagogues, & vnto the rulers & princes, take no c thought howe, or what thing ye shall answere, or what ye shall speake.

d Christ chiefly came to be iudged, and not to iudge: notwithstanding he willeth the Christians to be iudges and decide controuersies betwixt their brethren, 1. Cor. 6. 1.

12 For the holy Ghost shall teach you in the same ‖ houre, what ye ought to say.

13 And one of the company sayde vnto him, Master, bid my brother diuide the inheritance with me.

14 And hee sayde vnto him, Man, who made me a d iudge, or a diuider ouer you?

e Christ condemneth the arrogancie of the rich worldlings, who as though they had God locked vp in their coffers and barnes, set their whole felicitie in their goods, not considering that God gaue them life, and also can take it away when he will.

15 Wherefore he sayd vnto them, Take heed, and beware of couetousnesse: e for though a man haue abundance, yet his life standeth not in his riches.

16 And hee put foorth a parable vnto them, saying, The ‖ ground of a certaine rich man brought foorth fruites plenteously.

17 Therefore he thought with himselfe, saying, What shall I doe, because I haue no roume, where I may lay vp my fruites?

18 And he sayd, This will I doe, I will pull downe my barnes, and builde greater, and therein wil I gather all my fruits, and my goods.

19 And I will say to my soule, Soule, * thou hast much goods layde vp for many yeeres: liue at ease, eate, drinke, and take thy pastime.

20 But

20 But God sayde vnto him, O foole, this night will they fetch away thy soule from thee: then whose shall those things be which thou hast prouided?

21 So is he that gathereth riches to himselfe, and is not rich in f God.

f To depend onely on his prouidence, knowing that he hath ynough for all. Matth.6.25. 1 pet.5.7. psal.55.22.

22 And hee spake vnto his disciples, Therefore I say vnto you, * Take no thought for your life, what yee shall eate: neither for your body, what ye shall put on.

23 The life is more then meate: and the body more then the rayment.

24 g Consider the rauens: for they neither sowe nor reape: which neyther haue storehouse nor barne, and yet God feedeth them: howe much more are ye better then fowles?

g He exhorteth vs to cast our care on God, and to submit our selues to his prouidence.

25 And which of you h taking thought, can adde to his stature one cubite?

26 If ye then be not able to doe the least thing, why take ye thought for the remnant?

h The liberalitie of God, which shineth in the herbes & flowres, surmounteth all that man can doe by his riches or force.

27 h Consider the lilies how they grow: they labour not, neyther spinne they: yet I say vnto you, that Solomon himselfe in all his royaltie was not clothed like one of these.

28 If then GOD so clothe the grasse which is to day in the fielde, and to morow is cast into the ouen, howe much more will he clothe you, O ye of litle faith?

29 Therefore aske not what ye shal eate, or what ye shall drinke, neither ‖ stand in doubt.

‖ Or, make discourses in the aire.

30 For all such things the people of the world seeke for: and your father knoweth that ye haue neede of these things.

31 But rather seeke yee after the kingdome of God, i and all these things shall be ministred vnto you.

i Which are but accessaries, and are common as well to the wicked men as to the godly.

32 Feare not, litle flocke: for it is your fathers pleasure, to giue you the k kingdome.

k Which is the chiefest thing that can be giuen, and therfore you cannot want those thinges which are of lesse importance. Matth.6.20. 1.Pet.1.13.

33 ¶ * Sell that ye haue, and giue almes: make you bagges, which ware not olde, a treasure that can neuer faile in heauen, where no thiefe commeth, neyther mothe corrupteth.

34 For where your treasure is, there will your hearts be also.

35 ¶ * Let your loynes be l girded about, and your lights burning, l Be in a readinesse to execute the charge which is committed vnto you.

36 And yee your selues like vnto men that wayte for their master, when hee will returne from the wedding, that when hee commeth and knocketh, they may open vnto him immediatly.

37 Blessed are those seruants, whome the Lord when he commeth, shal finde waking: verely I say vnto you, hee will m gird himselfe about, and make them to sit downe at table, and will come forth, and serue them.

m Because they did vse long garments, the maner was to girde or truse them vp when they went about any businesse. Matth.24.43. Luke,16.15.

38 And if he come in the second watch, or come in the third watch, and shall finde them so, blessed are those seruants.

39 * Now vnderstand this, that if the good man of the house had knowen at what houre the thiefe would haue come, hee would haue watched, and would not haue suffred his house to be digged through.

40 Be ye also prepared therefore: for the Sonne of man will come at an houre when ye thinke not.

41 Then Peter said vnto him, Master, tellest thou this parable vnto vs, or euen to all?

42 And the Lord said, Who is a faithful stewarde, and wise, whome the master shal make ruler ouer his houshold, to giue them their n portion of meate in season?

n The portion of seruants euery moneth was foure peckes of corne, as Donatus writeth in Phormio.

43 Blessed is that seruant, whom his master when he commeth, shall finde so doing.

44 Of a trueth I say vnto you, that hee will make him ruler ouer all that he hath.

45 But if that seruant say in his heart, My master doeth deferre his comming, and shall begin to smite the seruants, and maydens, & to eate and drinke, & to bee drunken,

46 The master of that seruant will come in a day when hee thinketh not, and at an houre when he is not ware of, and will cut him off, and giue him his portion with the vnbeleeuers.

47 ¶ And that seruant that knewe his masters will, and prepared not himselfe, neither did according to his wil, shal be beaten with many stripes.

48 But he that knew it not, and yet did commit things o worthy of stripes, shall be beaten with fewe stripes: for vnto whomsoeuer p much is giuen, of him shall hee much required, and to whome men much commit, the more of him will they aske.

o Therefore ignorance is inexcusable.

p To whom God hath giuen many graces,

49 ¶ I am come to put q fire on y earth, and what is my desire, if it bee r already kindled?

q The Gospel is as a burning fire most vehement, which maketh a change of things through the world.

50 Notwithstanding I must be s baptized with a baptisme, and how am I grieued till it be ended?

r If there be great troubles and alterations vpon the earth, which things come not by the proprietie of the Gospell, but through the wickednesse of man.

51 * Thinke yee that I am come to giue peace on earth? I tell you, nay, but rather debate.

52 For from henceforth there shalbe fiue in one house deuided, three against two, and two against three.

53 The father shall bee deuided against the sonne, and the sonne against the father: the mother against the daughter, and the daughter against the mother: the mother in lawe against her daughter in lawe, and the daughter in lawe against her mother in lawe.

54 ¶ * Then said he to the people, When ye see a cloud rise out of the West, straightway yee say, A shower commeth: and so it is.

55 And when yee see the South winde blowe, yee say, that it will bee hot: and it commeth to passe.

56 Hypocrites, ye can discerne the face of the earth, and of the skie: but why discerne ye not this time?

57 Yea, and why iudge ye not of your selues what is right?

58 ¶ * While thou goest with thine aduersary to the ruler, as thou art in the way, giue diligence in the way, that thou mayest be t deliuered from him, least hee bring thee to the iudge, and the iudge deliuer thee to the tayler, and the tayler cast thee into prison.

Matth.5.25.

t Though it be to thy losse and hinderance.

59 I tell thee, thou shalt not depart thence, till thou hast payed the vttmost mite.

CHAP. XIII.

1 The cruelnesse of Pilate. 2 We ought not to condemne all to bee wicked men which suffer. 3 Christ exhorteth to repentance. 11 He healeth the crooked woman, 15 Answereth to the master of the Synagogue. 18 By diuers similitudes he declareth what the kingdome of God is, 23 Also that the number of them which shall bee saued, is small. 33 Finally, he sheweth that no worldly policie or force can let the worke and counsell of God.

THere were certaine men present at the same season, that shewed him of the Galileans, whose blood Pilate had [a] mingled with their owne sacrifices.

2 And Iesus answered, and sayde vnto them, Suppose yee that these Galileans were [b] greater sinners then all the other Galileans, because they haue suffered such things?

3 I tell you, nay: but except [c] yee amend your liues, ye shall all likewise perish.

4 Or thinke you that those eighteene, vpon whom the towre in [d] Siloam fell, and slewe them, were ‖ sinners aboue all men that dwell in Ierusalem?

5 I tell you, nay: but except ye amend your liues, ye shall all likewise perish.

6 ¶ He spake also this parable, A certaine man had a figge tree planted in his vineyard: and hee came and sought fruite thereon, and found none.

7 Then said he to the dresser of his vineyard, Beholde, [e] this three yeeres haue I come and sought fruite of this fig tree, and finde none: [f] cut it downe: why keepeth it [g] also the ground barren?

8 And he answered, and sayde vnto him, Lorde, let it alone this yeere also, till I dig round about it, and dung it.

9 And if it beare fruite, well: if not, then after thou shalt cut it downe.

10 ¶ And he taught in one of the Synagogues on the Sabbath day.

11 And beholde, there was a woman which had a [h] spirit of infirmitie eighteene yeres, and was [i] bowed together, and could not lift vp her selfe in any wise.

12 When Iesus saw her, he called her to him, and sayde to her, Woman, thou art ‖ loosed from thy disease.

13 And hee laid his hands on her, and immediatly she was made straight againe, and glorified God.

14 And the ruler of the Synagogue answered with indignation because that Iesus had healed on the Sabbath day, & sayde vnto the people, There are sixe dayes in which men ought to worke: in them therefore come and bee healed, and not on the Sabbath day.

15 Then answered him the Lorde, and sayde, Hypocrite, doeth not eche one of you on the Sabbath day loose his oxe or his asse from the stall, and leade him away to the water?

16 And ought not this daughter of Abraham, whome Satan had bounde, loe, eighteene yeeres, bee loosed from this bond on the Sabbath day?

17 And when he had these things, all his aduersaries were ashamed: but all the people reioyced at all the excellent things, that were done by him.

18 ¶ *Then said he, What is the [k] kingdome of God like? or whereto shall I compare it?

19 It is like a graine of mustard seede, which a man tooke and sowed in his garden, and it grewe, and waxed a great tree, and the foules of the heauen made nestes in the branches thereof.

20 ¶ And againe hee sayde, Whereunto shall I liken the kingdome of God?

21 It is like leauen, which a woman tooke, and hid in three peckes of floure, till all was leauened.

22 ¶ * And hee went thorow all cities and townes, teaching, and iourneying towards Ierusalem.

23 Then said one vnto him, Lorde, are there fewe that shall be saued? And he sayde vnto them, 24 *[l] Striue to enter in at the strait gate: for many, I say vnto you, will seeke to enter in, and shall not be able.

25 When the good man of the house is risen vp, and hath shut to the doore, and yee begin to stand without, and to knocke at the doore, saying, Lord, Lord, open to vs, and hee shall answere and say vnto you, I know you not whence ye are,

26 [m] Then shal ye begin to say, We haue eaten and dunke in thy presence, and thou hast taught in our streetes.

27 But he shall say, I tell you, I knowe you not whence ye are: *depart from me, all ye workers of iniquitie.

28 There shal be weeping and gnashing of teeth, when ye shall see Abraham & Isaac and Iacob, & all the Prophets in the kingdome of God, and your selues thrust out at doores.

29 Then shal come many from the [n] East, and from the West, and from the North, and from the South, and shall sit at table in the kingdome of God.

30 * And beholde, [o] there are last, which shall be first, and there are first, which shall be last.

31 The same day there came certaine Pharises, and sayd vnto him, Depart, and go hence: for Herode will kill thee.

32 Then said he vnto them, Goe ye & tell that fox, Beholde, I [p] cast out deuils, and will heale still to day, and to morow, and the third day [r] I shall be ‖ perfected.

33 Neuertheles I must walke to day, and to morrow, and the day following: for it cannot be, that a Prophet should perish out of Ierusalem.

34 * O Ierusalem, Ierusalem, which killest the Prophets, and stonest them that are sent to thee, howe often would I haue gathered thy children together, as the hen gathereth her brood vnder her wings, and ye would not!

35 Behold, your [s] house is left vnto you a He murthered them as they were sacrificing: and so their blood was mingled with the blood of the beasts which were sacrificed.

CHAP. XIIII.

1 Iesus eateth with the Pharise, 4 Healeth the dropsie vpon the Sabbath, 8 Teacheth to be lowly, and to bid the poore to our table. 15 He telleth of the great Supper. 28 Hee warneth them that will follow him, to lay their accounts before, what it will cost them. 34 The salt of the earth.

AND it came to passe that when he was entred into the house of one of the chiefe Pharises on the Sabbath day, to ‖ eate bread, they watched him.

2 And behold, there was a certaine man before him, which had the dropsie.

3 Then Iesus answering, spake vnto the expounders of the Lawe, and Pharises, saying, Is it lawfull to heale on the Sabbath day?

4 And they helde their peace. Then he tooke him, and healed him, and let him goe,

5 And answered them, saying, Which of you shall haue an asse, or an oxe fallen into a pit, and will not straightway pull him out on the Sabbath day?

6 And they coulde not answere him againe to those things.

7 ¶ He spake also a parable to the ghests, when hee marked howe they chose out the chiefe roomes, and said vnto them, n He reprooueth their ambition, which desire to sit in the hiest places.

8 n When thou shalt bee bidden of any man to a wedding, set not thy selfe downe in the chiefest place, least a more honourable man then thou be bidden of him,

9 And hee that bade both him and thee, come, and say to thee, Giue this man roome, and then thou begin with shame to take the lowest roome.

Prou.25.5.

10 * But when thou art bidden, goe and sit downe in the lowest roome, that when he that bade thee, commeth, he may say vnto thee, Friend, sit vp higher: then shalt thou haue worship in the presence of them that sit at table with thee.

Chap.18.14. mat.23.12.

11 * For whosoeuer exalteth himselfe, shalbe brought lowe, and hee that humbleth himselfe, shalbe exalted.

12 ¶ Then o said he also to him that had bidden him, * When thou makest a dinner or a supper, call not thy friends, nor thy brethren, neither thy kinsemen, nor the rich neighbours, lest they also bid thee againe, and a recompence be made thee.

b Christ reprehendeth onely the blinde affection of man, which regardeth nothing but a worldly recompence.

Pro.3.9.tob.4.7. Matt.22.2. reuel.19.9.

13 But when thou makest a feast, call the poore, the maimed, the lame, and the blinde, 14 And thou shalt bee blessed, because they cannot recompense thee: for thou shalt bee recompensed at the resurrection of the iust.

c He casteth the Iewes in the teeth with their ingratitude, which would not eate of those holy meates of Gods word, which was presented vnto them, and whereunto they were bid a long time before.

15 ¶ Nowe when one of them that sate at table, heard these things, hee sayde vnto him, Blessed is hee that eateth bread in the kingdome of God.

16 Then said he to him, * c A certaine man made a great supper, and bade many,

17 And sent his seruant at supper time to say to them that were bidden, Come: for all things are nowe readie.

18 But they all with one minde began to make excuse: The first saide vnto him, I haue bought a farme, and I must needes go out and see it: I pray thee haue me excused.

19 And another said, I haue bought fiue yoke of oxen, and I goe to proue them: I pray thee haue me excused.

20 And another sayde, I haue maried a wife, and therefore I cannot come.

21 So that seruant returned, and shewed his master these things. Then was the good man of the house angrie, and said to his seruant, d Goe out quickely into the places and streetes of the citie, and bring in hither the poore, and the maimed, and the halt, and the blinde.

d Here is signified the calling of the Gentiles.

22 And the seruant sayd, Lord, it is done as thou hast commanded, and yet there is roome.

e God wil rather receiue all the rascall people of the world to his banquet, then them which are vnthankefull.

23 Then the master said to the seruant, Goe out into the e high wayes, and hedges, and f compell them to come in, that mine house may be filled.

f This compulsion commeth of the feeling of the power of Gods word, after that his word hath bene preached. Matt.10.37. and 16.24.

24 For I say vnto you, that none of those men which were bidden, shall taste of my supper.

25 Nowe there went great multitudes with him, and hee turned and sayde vnto them, 26 * If any man come to me, and g hate not his father, and mother, and wife, and children, and brethren, and sisters: yea, and his owne life also, hee cannot bee my disciple.

g That is, he that casteth not off all affections and desires which drawe vs from Christ. Chap.9.23. matt. 16.24. mar.8.34.

27 * And whosoeuer beareth not his crosse, and commeth after mee, cannot bee my disciple.

h He that will professe the Gospel, must diligently consider what his profession requireth, and not rashly take in hand so great an enterprise: neither yet when he hath taken it in hand, in any case forsake it.

28 For which of you minding to builde a towre, sitteth not downe before, and h counteth the cost, whether hee haue sufficient to perfourme it,

29 Lest that after he hath laid the foundation, and is not able to perfourme it, all that behold it, begin to mocke him, 30 Saying, This man began to builde, and was not able to make an ende?

31 Or what king going to make warre against another King, sitteth not downe first and taketh counsell, whether he be able with tenne thousande, to meete him that commeth against him with twentie thousand?

i He that is not perswaded to leaue all at euery houre to bestowe himselfe frankely in Gods seruice. Matth.5.13. mar.9.50.

32 Or els while hee is yet a great way off, hee sendeth an ambassage, and desireth conditions of peace.

33 So likewise, whosoeuer he be of you, that i forsaketh not all that he hath, he cannot be my disciple.

34 * Salt is good: k but if salt haue lost his sauour, wherewith shall it be ‖ salted?

k Matt.5.13. mar.9.49. luke 12.33.

35 It is neither meete for the land, nor yet for the dunghill, but men cast it out. He that hath eares to heare, let him heare.

CHAP. XV.

2 The Pharises murmure because Christ receiueth sinners. 4 The louing mercie of God is openly set foorth in the parable of the hundreth sheepe. 7 Ioy in heauen for one sinner. 12 Of the prodigal sonne.

THen resorted vnto him all the Publicanes and sinners, to heare him.

2 Therefore the Pharises and Scribes murmured, saying, Hee receiueth sinners, and eateth with them.

3 Then spake hee this parable to them, saying,

Matth. 18.12. 4 *What man of you hauing an hundreth sheepe, if he lose one of them, doth not leaue ninetie and nine in the wildernesse, and goe after that which is lost, vntil hee finde it?

5 And when he hath found it, hee layeth it on his shoulders with ioy.

6 And when hee commeth home, hee calleth together his friendes and neighbours, saying vnto them, Reioyce with mee: for I haue found my sheepe, which was lost.

7 I say vnto you, that likewise ioy shall be in heauen for one sinner that conuerteth, more then for ninetie and nine * iust men, which needs none amendment of life.

a Which iustifie themselues, and know not their owne faults.

8 Either what woman hauing tenne b pieces of siluer, if shee lose one piece, doth not light a candle, and sweepe the house, and seeke diligently till she finde it?

b The word is drachma, which is somewhat more in value then fiue pence of old sterling money, and was equall with a Romane penie.

9 And when shee hath found it, shee calleth her friendes, and neighbours, saying, Reioyce with mee: for I haue founde the piece which I had lost.

10 Likewise I say vnto you, there is ioy in the presence of the Angels of God, for one sinner that conuerteth.

11 ¶ He said moreouer, A certaine man had two sonnes.

12 And the yonger of them sayde to his father, Father, giue me the c portion of the goods that falleth to mee. So hee deuided vnto them his substance.

c This declareth that we ought not to desire to haue our portion separate from God, except we will lose all.

13 So not long after, when the yonger sonne had gathered all together, hee tooke his iourney into a farre countrey, and there hee wasted his goods with d riotous liuing.

d The Greeke word signifieth so to waste all, that a man reserueth nothing to himselfe.

14 Nowe when hee had spent all, there arose a great dearth throughout that land, and he began to be in necessitie.

15 Then he went and claue to a citizen of that countrey, and he sent him to his farme, to feede swine.

16 And hee would faine haue filled his belly with the huskes, that the swine ate: e but no man gaue them him.

e For no man had pitie vpon him.

17 Then hee came to himselfe, and sayd, Howe many hired seruants at my fathers haue bread enough, and I die for hunger?

f That is, against God.

18 I will rise, and goe to my father, and say vnto him, Father, I haue sinned against f heauen, and before thee, g God preuenteth vs and heareth our gronings before we crie to him.

19 And am no more worthie to be called thy sonne: make me as one of thy hired seruants.

h He was touched with the feeling of his sinne, and therefore was ashamed thereof, and heauie in heart.

20 So hee arose, and came to his father, and when he was yet g a great way off, his father sawe him, and had compassion, and ranne and fell on his necke, and kissed him.

21 And the sonne sayde vnto him, h Father, I haue sinned against heauen, and before thee, I am no more worthy to be called thy sonne.

22 Then the father said to his seruants, Bring forth the best robe, and put it on him, and put a ring on his hand, and shoes on his feete, 23 And bring the fat calfe, and kill him, and let vs eate, and be merry.

24 For this my sonne was dead, and is aliue againe: and hee was lost, but hee is found. And they began to be merry.

25 Nowe the i elder brother was in the fielde, and when hee came and drewe neere to the house, he heard melodie, and dauncing, i God reproueth the enuie of such as grudge when God receiueth sinners to mercie.

26 And called one of his seruants, and asked what those things meant.

27 And hee said vnto him, Thy brother is come, and thy father hath killed the fatted calfe, because hee hath receiued him safe and sound.

28 Then hee was angrie, and would not goe in: therefore came his father out and intreated him.

29 But hee answered and said to his father, Loe, these many yeeres haue I done thee seruice, neither brake I at any time thy commaundement, and yet thou neuer gauest mee a kid, that I might make merie with my friends.

k Thy part which art a Iewe, is nothing diminished by ỹ, that Christ was also killed for the Gentiles: for he accepteth not the person, but feedeth indifferently all them that beleeue in him, with his body and blood to life euerlasting.

30 But when this thy sonne was come, which hath deuoured thy goods with harlots, thou hast for his sake killed the fat calfe.

31 And hee said vnto him, k Sonne, thou art euer with mee, and all that I haue, is thine. It was meete that wee should make merie, and be glad: for this thy brother was dead, and is aliue againe: and he was lost, but he is found.

CHAP. XVI.

1 Christ exhorteth vs to wisedome and liberality by the example of the steward. 13 None can serue two masters. 14 He reproueth the couetousnesse and hypocrisie of the Pharises. 16 Of the ende and force of the Law. 18 Of the holy state of mariage. 19 Of the rich man, and Lazarus.

AND hee sayde also vnto his disciples, a There was a certaine rich man, which had a steward, and hee was accused vnto him, that he wasted his goods.

a Christ teacheth hereby, that likewise as he which is in authoritie and hath riches, if he get friends in his prosperitie, may be relieued in his aduersitie: so our liberalitie towards our neighbour shall stand vs in such stead at the day of iudgement, that God will accept it as done vnto him.

2 And he called him, and saide vnto him, Howe is it that I heare this of thee? Giue an accounts of thy stewardship: for thou mayest be no longer steward.

3 Then the stewarde sayde within himselfe, What shall I doe: for my master will take away from mee the stewardship? I cannot dig, and to beg I am ashamed.

4 I knowe what I will doe, that when I am put out of the stewardship, they may receiue me into their houses.

5 Then called hee euery one of his masters debters, and said vnto the first, Howe much owest thou vnto my master?

6 And he sayde, An hundreth measures of oyle. And he sayd to him, Take thy writing, and sitte downe quickely, and write fiftie.

7 Then said he to another, Howe much owest thou? And hee sayde, An hundreth measures measures of wheate. Then hee sayde to him, Take thy writing, and write foure score.

8 And the Lorde commended [b] the vniust stewarde, because hee had done wisely. Wherefore the children of this worlde are in their generation wiser then the children of light.

9 And I say vnto you, Make you friends [c] with the riches of iniquitie, that when ye shall want, they may receiue you into euerlasting habitations.

10 He that is faithfull in the least, [*] he is also faithfull in much: and hee that is vniust in the least, is vniust also in much.

11 If then yee haue not bene faithfull in [d] the wicked riches, who will trust you in the true treasure?

12 And if yee haue not bene faithfull in [e] another mans goods, who shall giue you that which is [f] yours?

13 [*] No seruiant can serue two masters: for either he shall hate the one, and loue the other: or els hee shall leane to the one, and despise the other. Ye cannot serue God and riches.

14 All these thinges heard the Pharises also which were couetous, and they mocked him.

15 Then he sayd vnto them, Ye are they, which [h] iustifie your selues before men: but God knoweth your hearts: for that which is highly esteemed among men, is abomination in the sight of God.

16 [*] The Law and the Prophets endured vntil Iohn: and since that time the kingdome of God is preached, and euery man [i] preaseth into it.

17 [*] Now it is more easie that heauen & earth should passe away, then that one title of the lawe should fall.

18 ¶ [*] Whosoeuer putteth away his wife, and marrieth another, committeth adultery: and whosoeuer marrieth her that [k] is put away from her husband, committeth adultery.

19 ¶ There was a [l] certaine rich man, which was clothed in purple, and fine linnen, and fared well and delicately euery day.

20 Also there was a certaine begger named Lazarus, which was layd at his gate full of sores, 21 And desired to bee refreshed with the crummes that fell from the rich mans table: yea, and the dogs came and licked his sores.

22 And it was so that the begger died, & was carried by the Angelles into [m] Abrahams [n] bosome. The riche man also died and was buried.

23 And being in hell in torments, he lift vp his eyes, and sawe Abraham afarre off, and Lazarus in his bosome.

24 Then he cryed, & sayd, Father Abraham, haue mercy on me, and send Lazarus, that yee may dip the tip of his ° finger in water, and coole my tongue: for I am tormented in this flame.

25 But Abraham sayd, [p] Sonne, remember that thou in thy life time receiuedst thy ‖ pleasures, and likewise Lazarus ‖ paines: nowe therefore is hee comforted, and thou art tormented.

26 Besides all this, betweene you and vs there is a great ‖ gulfe set, so that they which woulde goe from hence to you, can not, neither can they come from thence to vs.

27 Then he sayde, I pray thee therefore father, that thou wouldest send him to my fathers house, 28 (For I haue fiue brethren) that hee may testifie vnto them, least they also come into this place of torment.

29 Abraham said vnto him, They haue Moses and the [q] Prophets: let them [r] heare them.

30 And he sayd, Nay, father Abraham: but if one came vnto them from the dead, they will amend their liues.

31 Then he sayd vnto him, If they heare not Moses and the Prophets, neither will they bee perswaded, though one rise from the dead againe.

b God, who doeth here represent the master of the house, doth rather commend the prodigall waste of his goods, and the liberall giuing of the same to the poore, then the straite keeping & hording of them.

c That is, either wickedly gotten, or wickedly kept or wickedly spet: and hereby we be warned to suspect riches, which for the most part are an occasion to their possessours of great wickednesse.

d They which can not well bestowe worldly goods, will bestowe ill spirituall treasures: & therefore they ought not to be committed vnto them.

e As are riches and such like things, which God hath giuen, not for your selues onely, but to bestowe vpon others.

f Christ calleth the gifts which he giueth vnto vs, ours.

g Because they iudged no man happie, but those that were riche.

k That is, which is not lawfully diuourced.

l By this storie is declared, what punishment they shall haue, which liue deliciously & neglect the poore.

m As the fathers in the olde Lawe, were sayd to be gathered into the bosome of Abraham, because they receiued ỹ fruit of the same faith with him: so in ỹ new Testament we say ỹ the members of Christ are ioyned to their head, or gathered vnto him.

n Wherby is signified ỹ most blessed life, which they that die in the faith of Abraham did, shal enioy after this world.

q Which declareth that it is too late to be instructed by the dead, if in their life time they cannot profit by the liuely worde of God.

r As faith commeth by Gods word, so is it maintained by the same. So that we neither ought to looke for Angels from heauen, or the dead to confirme vs therein, but onely the worde of God is sufficient to life euerlasting.

CHAP. XVII.

a Christ teacheth his disciples to auoyde occasions of offence, 3 One to forgiue another. 5 We ought to pray for the increase of faith. 6 He magnifieth the vertue of faith, 10 And sheweth the vnabilitie of man, 11 Healeth tenne lepers, 20 Speaketh of the latter dayes, and of the ende of the worlde.

THen sayde hee to the disciples, [*] It can not be auoyded, but that offences will come, but woe bee to him by whome they come. Matth. 18.7. mar. 9.42.

a That is, to turne him backe from the knowledge of God, & his saluation.

2 It were better for him that a great millstone were hanged about his necke, and that hee were cast into the sea, then that he should [a] offend one of these litle ones.

3 ¶ Take heede to your selues: if thy brother trespasse against thee, rebuke him: and if he repent, forgiue him. Matth. 18.21.

b That is, many times: for by a certaine number he meaneth an vncertaine.

4 [*] And though he sinne against thee seuen times in a day, and seuen times in a day turne againe to thee, saying, It repenteth me, thou shalt forgiue him.

5 ¶ And the Apostles sayd vnto the Lord, Increase our faith. Matth. 17.20.

c That is, if they had neuer so little of pure and perfite faith.

6 And the Lorde sayd, [*] If ye had faith, as much as is [c] a graine of mustarde seede, and shoulde say vnto this Mulberie tree, [d] Plucke thy selfe vp by the rootes, and plant thy selfe in the sea, it shoulde euen obey you.

d Meaning, they shoulde doe wonderfull and incredible things.

n Christ describeth spirituall things by such maner of speach, as is most proper to our vnderstanding: for our soules haue neither fingers nor eyes, neither are they thirsty, or speake: but the Lord, as it were in a table painteth forth the state of the life to come, as our capacitie is able to comprehend it.

p In calling him sonne, he taunteth his vaine boasting, who in his life vaunted himselfe to be the sonne of Abraham: warning vs also hereby how litle glorious titles auaile.

7 ¶ Who is it also of you, that hauing a seruant plowing or feeding cattell, woulde say vnto him by and by, when he were come from the fielde, Goe, and sit downe at table?

8 And woulde not rather say to him, e Dresse wherewith I may suppe, and gird thy selfe, and serue mee, till I haue eaten and dronken, and afterward eate thou, and drinke thou?

9 Doth he thanke that seruant, because he did that which was commaunded vnto him? I trow not.

10 So likewise ye, when ye haue done al those things, which are commaunded you, say, Wee are f vnprofitable seruants: we haue done that which was our duety to do.

11 ¶ And so it was when he went to Ierusalem, that he passed through the middes of Samaria and Galile.

12 And as hee entred into a certaine towne, there met him ten men that were lepers, which stoode afarre off.

13 And they lift vp their voyces & sayde, Iesus Master, haue mercy on vs.

14 And when he sawe them, he sayd vnto them, * Goe, shewe your selues vnto the g Priests. And it came to passe, that as they went, they were cleansed.

15 Then one of them, when he saw that hee was healed, turned backe, and with a loude voyce praysed God, 16 And fel down on his face at his feete, and gaue him thankes: and hee was a Samaritan.

17 And Iesus answered, & said, Are there not ten cleansed? but where are the h nine?

18 There are none found that returned to giue God prayse, saue this stranger.

19 And he sayd vnto him, Arise, Goe thy way, thy faith hath made thee whole.

20 ¶ And when he was demaunded of the Pharises, when the kingdome of God should come, he answered them, and sayde, The kingdome of God commeth not i with obseruation.

21 Neither shall men say, Lo here, or loe there: for behold, the kingdome of God is ‖ k within you.

22 And he sayd vnto the disciples, The dayes will come, when ye shall desire to see l one of the dayes of the Sonne of man, and ye shall not see it.

23 * Then they shall say to you, Behold here, or behold there: but goe not thither, neither follow them.

24 For as the lightning that lighteneth out of the one part vnder heauen, shineth vnto the other part vnder heauen, so shall the Sonne of man be in his m day.

25 But first must hee suffer many things, and be reproued of this generation.

26 * And as it was in the n dayes of Noe, so shall it be in the dayes of the Sonne of man.

27 They ate, they dranke, they marryed wiues, and gaue in marriage vnto the day that Noe went into the Arke: and the flood came, and destroyed them all.

28 * Likewise also, as it was in the daies of Lot: they ate, they dranke, they bought, they solde, they planted, they built.

29 But in the day that Lot went out of Sodome, it rained fire and brimstone from heauen, and destroyed them all.

30 After these ensamples shall it be in the day when the Sonne of man shall bee reuealed.

31 At that day, he that is vpō the o house, and his stuffe in the house, let him not come downe to take it out: and hee that is in the fielde likewise, let him not turne backe to that he left behinde.

32 * Remember Lots wife.

33 * Whosoeuer will seeke to saue his soule, shall lose it: and whosoeuer shall lose it, p shall get it life.

34 * I tell you, in that night there shalbe two in one q bed: the one shall be receiued, and the other shall be left.

35 Two women shal be grinding together: the one shall be taken, and the other shalbe left.

36 Two shall be in the fielde: one shalbe receiued, and another shall be left.

37 And they answered, and sayd to him, Where, Lorde? And hee sayde vnto them, *r Where soeuer the body is, thither will also the Egles reuort.

they shall gather vnto him, as the rauening birdes about a cation.

e Hereby is declared that it is not ynough to doe a piece of our duety for a time, but also we must continue to the ende.

9 Hee spake also this parable vnto certaine which trusted in themselues that they were iust, and despised other,

10 Two men went vp into the Temple to pray: the one a Pharise, and the other a Publicane.

12 I fast twise in the weeke: I giue tithe of all that euer I possesse.

13 But the Publicane standing afarre off, would not lift vp so much as his e eyes to heauen, but smote his brest, saying, O God, be merciful to me a sinner.

14 I tell you, this man departed to his house iustified, ‖ rather then the other: * For euery man that exalteth himselfe, shall bee brought lowe, and hee that humbleth himselfe, shalbe exalted.

15 ¶ * They brought vnto him also f babes, that hee should touche them. And when his disciples saw it, they rebuked the.

16 But Iesus called g them vnto him, and sayde, Suffer the babes to come vnto me, and forbid them not: for of h such is the kingdome of God.

17 Verely I say vnto you, whosoeuer receiueth not the kingdome of God, as i a babe, he shall not enter therein.

18 * Then a certaine ruler asked him, saying, Good master, what ought I to doe, to inherite eternall life?

19 And Iesus sayd vnto him, Why callest thou me k good? none is good, saue one, euen God.

20 Thou knowest the commandements, * Thou shalt not commit adultery: Thou shalt not kill: Thou shalt not steale: Thou shalt not beare false witnesse: Honour thy father and thy mother.

21 And he sayde, All these haue I kept from my youth.

22 Nowe when Iesus heard that, hee sayd vnto him, Yet lackest thou one thing. Sell all that euer thou hast, and distribute vnto the poore, and thou shalt haue treasure in heauen, and come, followe me.

23 But when he heard those things, hee was very heauy: for hee was marueilous rich.

24 And when Iesus sawe him sorowfull, he sayde, With what difficultie shall they that haue riches, enter into the kingdome of God?

25 Surely it is easier for a ‖ camell to go through a needles eye, then for a rich man to enter into the kingdome of God.

26 Then sayde they that heard it, And who then can be saued?

27 And he sayde, The things which are vnpossible with men, are l possible with God.

28 ¶ * Then Peter sayd, Loe, we haue left all, and haue followed thee.

29 And he sayd vnto them, Verily I say vnto you, there is no man that hath left house, or parents, or brethren, or wife, or children for the kingdome of Gods sake, 30 Which shall not receiue m much more in this world, and in the world to come life euerlasting.

31 ¶ * Then Iesus tooke vnto him the twelue, and sayde vnto them, Beholde, wee goe vp to Ierusalem, and all things shalbe fulfilled to the Sonne of man, that are written by the Prophets.

32 For hee shall bee deliuered vnto the Gentiles, and shall be mocked, and shall be spitefully intreated, and shall be spitted on.

33 And when they haue scourged him, they will put him to death: but the thirde day he shall rise againe.

34 But they vnderstoode none of these things, & this saying was hid from them, neyther perceiued they the things, which were spoken.

35 ¶ * And it came to passe, that as hee was come neere vnto Iericho, a certaine blinde man sate by the way side begging. Mat.20.29. mar.10.46.

36 And when he heard the people passe by, he asked what it meant.

37 And they sayde vnto him, that Iesus of Nazareth passed by.

38 Then hee cryed, saying, Iesus the sonne of Dauid, haue mercy on me.

39 And they which went before, rebuked him, that hee should hold his peace, but he cryed much more, O n Sonne of Dauid, haue mercie on me.

40 And Iesus stoode still, and commanded him to be brought vnto him. And when he was come neere, he asked him, 41 Saying, What wilt thou that I do vnto thee? And he sayde, Lord, that I may receiue my sight.

42 And Iesus sayde vnto him, Receiue thy sight: thy faith hath saued thee.

43 Then immediately hee receiued his sight, and followed him, o praysing God: and all the people when they saw this, gaue praise to God.

2 Of Zacchaeus. 12 The tenne pieces of money. 28 Christ rideth to Ierusalem, and weepeth for it. 45 He chaseth out the merchants, 47 And his enemies seeke to destroy him.

NOwe when Iesus entred and passed through Iericho,

2 Beholde, there was a man named Zaccheus, which was the chiefe receiuer of the tribute, and he was rich.

3 And he sought to see Iesus, who hee should be, and could not for the preasse, because he was of a lowe stature.

4 Wherefore he ran before, and climed vp into a wild figge tree, that he might see him, for he should come that way.

5 And when Iesus came to the place, hee looked vp, and sawe him, and sayd vnto him, Zaccheus, come downe at once: for to day I must abide at thine house.

6 Then he came downe hastily, and receiued him ioyfully.

7 And when all they sawe it, they murmured, saying, that he was gone in to lodge with a ‖ sinfull man.

8 And Zaccheus stoode forth, and sayde vnto the Lorde, Beholde, Lord, the halfe of my goods I giue to the poore: and if I haue taken from any man by ‖ forged cauillation, I restore him foure fold.

9 Then Iesus sayd to him, This day is saluation come vnto this a house, forasmuch as he is also become the b sonne of Abraham.

11 And whiles they heard these things, hee continued and spake a parable, because hee was neere to Ierusalem, and because also they thought that the kingdome of God should shortly appeare.

12 He saide therefore, * A certaine noble man went into c a farre countrey, to receiue for himselfe a kingdome, and so to come againe.

13 And he called his owne seruants, and deliuered them ten d pieces of money, and said vnto them, e Occupie till I come.

14 Now his citizens hated him, and sent an ambassage after him, saying, We will not haue this man to raigne ouer vs.

15 And it came to passe, when hee was come f againe, and had receiued his kingdome, that hee commanded the seruants to be called to him, to whome hee gaue his money, that he might knowe what euery man had gained.

16 Then came the first, saying, Lord, thy piece hath increased ten pieces.

17 And he said vnto him, Well, good seruant: because thou hast beene faithfull in a very little thing, take thou authoritie ouer ten cities.

18 And the second came, saying, Lorde, thy piece hath increased fiue pieces.

19 And to the same he said, Be thou also ruler ouer fiue cities.

20 So the other came and said, Lord, behold thy piece, which I haue laide vp in a napkin.

21 For I feared thee, because thou art a strait man: thou takest vp, that thou laydest not downe, and reapest that thou diddest not sowe.

22 Then hee saide vnto him, Of thine owne g mouth will I iudge thee, O euill seruant. Thou knewest that I am a strait man, taking vp that I laid not downe, and reaping that I did not sowe.

23 Wherefore then gauest not thou my money into the banke, that at my comming I might haue required it with vantage?

24 And he sayde to them that stoode by, Take from him that piece, and giue it him that hath ten pieces.

25 (And they sayde vnto him, Lord, hee hath ten pieces.)

26 * For I say vnto you, that vnto all them that haue, it shalbe h giuen: and from him that hath not, euen that he hath, shalbe taken from him.

27 Moreouer, those mine enemies, which woulde not that I shoulde reigne ouer them, bring hither, and slay them before mee.

28 ¶ And when he had thus spoken, hee went foorth i before, ascending vp to Ierusalem.

29 * And it came to passe, when he was come neere to Bethphage, and Bethania, beside the mount which is called the mount of Olives, hee sent two of his disciples, 30 Saying, Goe ye to the towne which is before you, wherein, assoone as ye are come, ye shall finde a colt tyed, whereon neuer man sate: loose him, & bring him hither.

31 k And if any man aske you, why yee loose him, thus shall yee say vnto him, Because the Lord hath neede of him.

32 So they that were sent, went their way, and found it as he had sayd vnto them.

33 And as they were loosing the colte, the owners thereof sayde vnto them, Why loose ye the colte?

34 And they sayd, The Lord hath neede of him.

35 ¶ * So they brought him to Iesus, and they cast their garments on the colte, and set Iesus thereon.

36 And as he went, they spred their clothes in the way.

37 And when he was nowe come neere to the going downe of the mount of Olives, the whole multitude of the disciples began to reioyce, and to praise God with a loude voyce, for all the great woorkes that they had seene, 38 Saying, Blessed bee the King that commeth in the name of the Lorde: l peace in heauen, and glory in the hiest places.

39 Then some of the Pharises of the company sayde vnto him, Master, rebuke thy disciples.

40 But he answered and sayd vnto them, I tell you, that if these shoulde holde their peace, the stones would cry.

41 ¶ * And when he was come neere, he beheld the citie, and wept for it, 42 Saying, m O if thou haddest euen knowen at the least in this thy day n those things, which belong vnto thy peace! but nowe are they o hid from thine eyes.

43 For the dayes shall come vpon thee, that thine enemies shall cast a trench about thee, and compasse thee rounde, and keepe thee in on euery side, 44 And shall make thee euen with the grounde, and thy children which are in thee, and they shall not leaue in thee a stone vpon a stone, because thou knewest not the time of thy p visitation.

45 ¶ * Hee went also into the Temple, and began to cast out them that solde therein, and them that bought, 46 Saying vnto them, It is written, * Mine house is the house of prayer, * but ye haue made it a denne of theeues.

47 And he taught daily in the Temple. And the high Priests and the Scribes, and the chiefe of the people sought to destroy him.

what authoritie thou doest these thinges, or who is hee that hath giuen thee this authoritie?

3 And he answered, and said vnto them, I also will aske you one thing: tell me therefore:

4 The a baptisme of Iohn, was it from heauen, or of men?

5 And they reasoned within themselues, saying, If wee shall say, From heauen, hee will say, Why then beliued yee him not?

6 But if we shal say, Of men, all the people will stone vs: for they be perswaded that Iohn was a Prophet.

7 Therefore they answered, that they could not tell whence it was.

8 Then Iesus saide vnto them, b Neither tell I you, by what authoritie I doe these thinges.

9 ¶ Then began he to speake to the people this parable, * A certaine man planted a c vineyard, and d let it forth to husbandmen: and went into a strange countrey, for a great season.

10 And at a time hee sent a e seruant to the husbandmen, that they should giue him of the fruite of the vineyard, but the husbandmen did beate him, and sent him away emptie.

11 Againe hee sent yet an other seruant: and they did beate him, and foule intreated him, and sent him away emptie.

12 Moreouer, he sent the third, and him they wounded, and cast out.

13 Then saide the Lord of the vineyard, What shall I doe? I will send my beloued Sonne: it may bee that they will doe reuerence, when they see him.

14 But when the husbandmen saw him, they reasoned with them selues, saying, This is the heire: come, let vs kill him, that the inheritance may be ours.

15 So they cast him out of the vineyard, and killed him. What shall the Lord of the vineyard therefore doe vnto them?

16 He will come and destroy these husbandmen, and will giue out his vineyarde to others. But when they heard it, they said, God forbid.

17 ¶ And he beheld them, and said, What meaneth this then that is written, * The stone that the builders refused, that is made the head f of the corner?

18 g Whosoeuer shal fall vpon that stone, shalbe broken: and on whomsoeuer it shall fall, it will grinde him to powder.

19 Then the hie Priestes & the Scribes the same houre went about to laye handes on him: (but they feared the people) for they perceiued that he had spoken this parable against them.

20 * And they h watched him, and sent foorth spies, which should faine themselues iust men, to take him in his talke, and to deliuer him vnto the power and authoritie of the gouernour.

21 And they asked him, saying, Maister, we know that thou sayest, & teachest right, neither doest thou accept mans person, but teachest the way of God truely.

22 Is it i lawfull for vs to giue Cesar tribute, or no?

23 But he perceiued their craftines, and said vnto them, Why tempt ye me?

24 Shew me a penie. Whose image and superscription hath it? They answered and said, Cesars.

25 Then he said vnto them, * k Giue then vnto Cesar the thinges which are Cesars, and to God those which are Gods.

26 And they could not reproue his saying before the people: but they marueiled at his answere, and held their peace.

27 * Then came to him certaine of the Sadduces, (which deny that there is any resurrection) and they asked him, 28 Saying, Maister, * Moses wrote vnto vs, If any mans brother die hauing a wife, and hee die without children, that his brother should take his wife, and raise vp seede vnto his brother.

29 Now there were seuen brethren, and the first tooke a wife, and hee died without children.

30 And the second tooke the wife, and he died childlesse.

31 Then the third tooke her: and so likewise the seuen died, and left no children.

32 And last of all, the woman died also.

33 Therefore at the resurrection, whose wife of them shal she be? for seuen had her to wife.

34 Then Iesus answered, and said vnto them, The l children of this worlde marrie wiues, and are married.

35 But they which shall be counted worthie to enioy that world, and the resurrection from the dead, neither marry wiues, neither are married.

36 m For they can die no more, forasmuch as they are equall vnto the Angels, and are the sonnes of God, n since they are the children of the resurrection.

37 And that the dead shall rise againe, euen * Moses shewed it besides the bush, when he said, The Lord is the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Iacob.

38 For hee is not the God of the o dead, but of them which liue: p for all liue vnto him.

39 Then certaine of the Pharises answered, & said, Maister, thou hast well said.

40 And after that, durst they not aske him any thing at all.

41 ¶ * Then said he vnto them, How say they that Christ is Dauids sonne?

42 And Dauid himselfe saith in the booke of the Psalmes, * The Lord saide vnto my Lord, Sit at my right hand, 43 Till I shall make thine enemies thy footestoole.

44 Seeing Dauid calleth him Lord, how is he then his q sonne?

45 ¶ Then in the audience of all the people, he said vnto his disciples,

2 And the hie Priests & Scribes sought how they might kill him: for they feared the people.

3 Then entred Satan into Iudas, who was called Iscariot, and was of the number of the twelue.

4 And he went his way, and commmed with the hie Priests and b captaines, how he might betray him to them.

5 So they were c glad, & agreed to giue him money.

6 And hee consented, and sought opportunitie to betray him vnto them, when the people were away.

7 ¶ * Then came the day of vnleauened bread when the Passeouer d must be sacrificed.

8 And he sent Peter and John, saying, Goe, and prepare vs the Passeouer, that we may eate it.

9 And they sayde to him, Where wilt thou that we prepare it?

10 Then he laide vnto them, Beholde, when ye be entred into the citie, there shall a man meete you, bearing a pitcher of water: followe him into the house that hee entreth in,

11 And say vnto the good man of the house, The master saith vnto thee, Where is the lodging where I shal eate the Passeouer with my disciples?

12 Then he shall shewe you a great high chamber trimmed: there make it ready.

13 So they went, and founde as hee had said vnto them, and made ready the Passeouer.

14 * And when the e houre was come, he sate downe, and the twelue Apostles with him.

15 Then he said vnto them, I haue earnestly desired to eate this Passeouer with you before I suffer.

16 For I say vnto you, f Henceforth I will not eate of it any more, vntill it be fulfilled in the kingdome of God.

17 And hee tooke the cuppe, and gaue thankes, and sayde, Take this, and deuide it among you.

18 For I say vnto you, I will not drinke of the fruite of the vine, vntill the kingdome of God be come.

19 * And he tooke bread, and when he had giuen thanks, he brake it, and gaue to them, saying, g This is my body, which is giuen for you: do this in the remembrance of me.

20 Likewise also after Supper he tooke the cup, saying, This cup is the newe h Testament in my blood, which is shed for you.

21 * Yet beholde, the hand of him that betrayeth me, is with me at the table.

22 And truely the sonne of man goeth as it is i appointed: but woe bee to that man, by whom he is betrayed.

23 Then they began to enquire among themselues which of them it should be, that should doe that.

24 ¶ * And there arose also a strife among them, which of them should seeme to be the greatest.

25 But hee sayde vnto them, The Kings of the Gentiles reigne ouer them, and they that beare rule ouer them, are called k Gracious lords.

26 But ye shall not be so: but let the greatest among you bee as the ‖ least: and the chiefest as he that serueth.

27 For who is greater, he that sitteth at table, or he that serueth? is not hee that sitteth at table? And I am among you as hee that serueth.

28 And yee are they which haue continued with me in my tentations.

29 Therefore I ‖ appoynt vnto you a kingdome, as my Father hath appoynted to me, 30 * That ye may l eate, & drinke at my table in my kingdome, and sit on seates, and iudge the twelue tribes of Israel.

31 ¶ And the Lord said, Simon, Simon, beholde, * Satan hath desired you, m to winow you, as wheate.

32 But I haue prayed for thee, that thy faith n faile not: therefore when thou art conuerted, strengthen thy brethren.

33 * And he sayd vnto him, Lord, I am ready to goe with thee into prison, and to death.

34 But he sayd, I tell thee, Peter, the cocke shall not crowe this day, before thou hast thrise denied that thou knewest me.

35 ¶ And he sayd vnto them, * When I sent you without bagge, and scrip, & shoes, lacked ye any thing? And they sayde, Nothing.

36 Then he sayd to them, But nowe hee that hath a bagge, let him take it, & likewise a scrip: and he that hath none, let him sel his coate, and o buy a sword.

37 For I say vnto you, that yet the same which is written, must bee perfourmed in me, * Euen with the wicked was hee numbred: for doubtlesse those things which are written of me, haue an ende.

38 And they sayd, Lord, beholde, here are p two swords. And he sayd vnto them, It is inough.

39 ¶ * And he came out, and went (as he was wont) to the mount of Olives: and his disciples also followed him.

40 * And when he came to the place, hee sayd to them, Pray, least ye enter into tentation.

41 And he gate himselfe frō them about a stones cast, & kneeled downe, and prayed, 42 Saying, Father, if thou wilt, take away this q cup from me: neuertheless, not my will, but thine be done.

43 And there appeared an Angell vnto him from heauen, comforting him.

44 But being in r agonie, he prayed more earnestly: & his sweate was like drops of blood, trickling downe to the ground.

48 And Iesus saide vnto him, Iudas, betrayest thou the Sonne of man with a kisse?

49 Nowe when they which were about him, sawe what would followe, they saide vnto him, Lord, shall we smite with swoord?

50 And one of them smote a seruant of the hie Priest, & strooke off his right eare.

51 Then Iesus answered & said, Suffer them thus farre: and he touched his eare, and healed him.

52 Then Iesus said vnto ỳ hie Priests, and captaines of the Temple, and the Elders which were come to him, Be ye come out as vnto a theefe with swoords & staues?

53 When I was dayly with you in the Temple, ye stretched not forth the handes against me: but this is your very houre, and the [f] power of darkenesse.

60 And Peter saide, Man, I know not what thou sayest. And immediatly while he yet spake, the cocke crewe.

CHAP. XXIII.

1 Iesus is brought before Pilate & Herod. 18 Of Barabbas. 26 Of Simon the Cyrenian. 27 The women make lamentation. 33 Christ crucified. 34 Hee prayeth for his enemies. 40 He conuerteth the theefe and many others at his death, 53 And is buried.

THen * the whole multitude of them arose, and led him vnto [a] Pilate.

Matth.22.21. marke 12.17.

a Who was the chiefe gouernour, and had the examination of matters of life and death. Matth.27.11. marke 15.2. iohn 18.33.

2 And they began to accuse him, saying, Wee haue founde this man peruerting the people, and forbidding to pay tribute to Cesar, saying, That he is Christ a King.

3 * And Pilate asked him, saying, Art thou the King of the Iewes? And hee answered him, and sayd, Thou sayest it.

4 Then sayd Pilate to the hie Priestes, and to the people, I finde no fault in this man.

5 But they were the more fierce, saying, He moueth the people, teaching throughout all Iudea, beginning at Galile, euen to this place.

6 Nowe when Pilate heard of Galile, he asked whether the man were a Galilean.

7 And when hee knewe that hee was of Herodes iurisdiction, hee [b] sent him to Herod, which was also at Ierusalem ‖ in those dayes.

b To ridde his handes, & to gratifie Herode.

8 And when Herod sawe Iesus, he was exceedingly glad: for he was [c] desirous to see him of a long season, because hee had heard many things of him, and trusted to haue seene some ‖ signe done by him.

c Of a certaine curiositie.

9 Then questioned he with him of many things: but he answered him [d] nothing.

d For Christ came not to defend himselfe, neither yet would please the vaine curiositie of this tyrant.

10 The hie Priests also & Scribes stood forth, and accused him vehemently.

11 And Herode with his ‖ men of warre despised him, and mocked him, and arayed him in [e] ‖ white, and sent him againe to Pilate.

e Commonly this was a robe of honour or excellencie: but it was giuen to Christ in mockage.

‖ Or, in bright colour.

12 And the same day Pilate and Herod were made friends together: for before they were enemies one to another.

13 ¶ Then Pilate called together the hie Priests, and the rulers, and the people,

14 * And said vnto them, Ye haue brought this man vnto me, as one that peruerted the people: and beholde, I haue examined him before you, and * haue found no fault in this man, of those things whereof ye accuse him:

Matth.27.23. marke 15.14. Iohn 18.38, and 19.4.

15 No, nor yet Herode: for I sent you to him: and loe, nothing worthie of death is done ‖ to him.

16 I will therefore chastise him, and let him loose.

17 (For of [f] necessitie hee must haue let one loose vnto them at the feast.)

f For the Romanes had giuen such franchise & liberties to the Iewes, which was but a tradition, and not according to the word of God.

18 Then all the multitude cryed at once, saying, Away with him, and deliuer to vs vs Barabbas:

19 Which for a certaine insurrection made in the citie, and murther, was cast in prison.

20 Then Pilate spake againe to them, willing to let Jesus loose.

21 But they cryed, saying, Crucifie, crucifie him.

g The iudge giueth sentence with Christ, before he condemneth him, wherby plainly appeareth Iesus innocencie.

22 And he said vnto them the third time, But what euill hath he done? I finde s no cause of death in him: I will therefore chastise him, and let him loose.

23 But they were instant with loude voyces, and required that he might be crucified: and the voyces of them, and of the hie Priests preuailed.

24 So Pilate gaue sentence, that it should be as they required.

25 And hee let loose vnto them him that for insurrection and murther was cast into prison, whome they desired, and deliuered Jesus to doe with him what they would.

Mat.27.32, mar.15.21.

26 ¶ * And as they ledde him away, they caught one Simon of Cyrene, comming out of the fielde, and on him they layd the crosse, to beare it after Jesus.

27 And there followed him a great multitude of people, and of women, which women bewayled and lamented him.

‖Or, women of Ierusalem.

28 But Jesus turned backe vnto them, and sayd, ‖ Daughters of Jerusalem, weepe not for me, but weepe for your selues, and for your children.

Isa.2.19. hose.10.8. reuel.6.16. 1.Pet.4.17.

Mat.27.38. mar.15.27. iohn 19.18.

31 t For if they doe these things to a greene tree, what shall be done to the drie?

32 * And there were two others, which were euill doers, led with him to be slaine.

i Whom God hath before all others appointed to be the Messias: otherwise the scriptures calleth them the elect of God, whome he hath chosen before all beginning to life euerlasting.

33 And when they were come to the place which is called ‖ Caluarie, there they crucified him, and the euill doers: one at the right hand, and the other at the left.

34 Then saide Jesus, Father, forgiue them: for they knowe not what they doe. And they parted his raiment, and cast lots.

35 And the people stood, and beheld: and the rulers mocked him with them, saying, He saued others: let him saue himselfe, if he be the Christ, the i Chosen of God.

k Mixt with myrrhe and gall to hasten his death.

36 The souldiers also mocked him, and came and offered him k vineger, 37 And said, If thou be the King of the Iewes, saue thy selfe.

l That the thing might be knowē to all nations, because these three languages were most common.

38 And a superscription was also written ouer him, in l Greeke letters, and in Latine, and in Hebrewe, THIS IS THE KING OF THE IEWES.

m The condemnation which thou now sufferest, causeth it thee not to feare God?

39 ¶ And one of the euill doers, which were hanged, rayled on him, saying, If thou be the Christ, saue thy selfe and vs.

40 But the other answered, & rebuked him, saying, m Fearest thou not God, seeing thou art in the same condemnation?

41 We are in deede righteously here: for we receiue things worthie of that wee haue done: but this man hath done nothing amisse.

42 And he saide vnto Jesus, Lorde, remember me, when thou commest into thy kingdome.

43 Then Jesus saide vnto him, Verely I say vnto thee, to day shalt thou bee with me in Paradise.

44 ¶ And it was about the n first houre: and there was a darkenes ouer all the land, vntill the ninth houre.

n Which was midday.

45 And the Sunne was darkened, and the vaile of the Temple rent through the middes.

46 And Jesus cryed with a loude voyce, and saide, * Father, into thine handes I commend my spirite. And when hee thus had said, he gaue vp the ghost.

Psalm.31.5.

47 ¶ Now when the ‖ o Centurion saw what was done, he glorified God, saying, Of a surete this man was iust.

o The Romane Captaine, who had charge ouer an hundreth men.

48 And all the people that came together to that sight, beholding the thinges, which were done, smote their breastes & returned.

49 And all his acquaintance stood afar off, and the women that followed him from Galile, beholding these thinges.

50 ¶ * And beholde, there was a man named Joseph, which was a Counseller, a good man and a iust.

Mat.27.57. mark.15.43. iohn 19.38.

51 He did not consent to the counsell and deede of them, which was of Arimathea, a citie of the Iewes: who also himselfe ‖ p waited for the kingdome of God.

p He looked for the redeemer, by whom all should be restored.

52 Hee went vnto Pilate, and asked the body of Jesus, 53 And tooke it downe, and wrapped it in a linnen cloth, and laid it in a tombe hewen out of a rocke, wherein was neuer man yet layd.

54 And that day was the q Preparation, and the Sabbath r drewe on.

q When men prepared all things ready for the feast.

r That is, began the same euening.

55 And the women also that followed after, which came with him from Galile, beholde the sepulchre, and howe his body was layd.

56 And they returned, and prepared odours, and oyntmentes, and rested the Sabbath day, according to the commaundement.

CHAP. XXIIII.

b Two Angels in forme of men.

5 And as they were afrayd, and bowed

downe their faces to the earth, they sayd to them, Why seeke ye him that liueth, among the dead?

6 He is not here, but is risen: remember
Chap.9.22.mat. 17.23.mar.9.31. * how he spake vnto you, when he was yet in Galile, 7 Saying, that the sonne of man must be deliuered into the handes of sinfull men, and be crucified, & the third day rise againe.

8 And they remembred his wordes,

9 And returned from the sepulchre, and told all these things vnto the eleuen, and to all the remnant.

10 Nowe it was Marie Magdalen, and Joanna, and Marie the mother of James, and other women with them, which tolde these things vnto the Apostles.

11 But their wordes seemed vnto them, as a fained thing, neither beleeued they them.

12 Then arose Peter, and ranne vnto the sepulchre, and looked in, and sawe the linnen clothes layd by themselues, and departed wondering in himselfe, at that which was come to passe.

Marke 16.12. 13 ¶ * And beholde, two of them went that same day to a towne which was from Jerusalem about c threescore furlongs, called Emmaus.

c Which is about seuen miles and a halfe.

14 And they d talked together of al these things that were done.

d Hereby appeareth that they had faith, although it was weake.

15 And it came to passe, as they communed together, and reasoned, that Jesus himselfe drewe neere, and went with them.

16 But their eyes e were holden, that they could not know him.

e This declareth that we can neither see, nor vnderstand till God open our eyes.

17 And he said vnto them, What maner of communications are these that yee haue one to another as ye walke, and are sad?

18 And ỳ one (named Cleopas) answered, and said vnto him, Art thou onely a f stranger in Jerusalem, and hast not knowen the things which are come to passe therein in these dayes?

f For the thing was so notorious, that all men might haue knowen it.

19 And hee sayde vnto them, What things? And they sayd vnto him, Of Jesus of Nazaret, which was a Prophet mightie in deede and in word before God, and al the people, 20 And howe the hie Priestes and our rulers deliuered him to bee condemned to death, and haue crucified him.

21 But wee g trusted that it had bene he that shoulde haue deliuered Israel, and as touching all these things, to day is the third day that they were done.

g They vnderstoode not yet what was the deliuerance that Iesus Christ purchased for vs, but looked for some worldly prosperitie.

22 Yea, and certaine women among vs made vs astonied, which came earely vnto the sepulchre, 23 And when they found not his body, they came, saying, that they had also seene a vision of Angels, which saide that he was aliue.

24 Therefore certaine of them which were with vs, went to the sepulchre, and found it euen so as the women had said, but him they saw not.

h Infidelitie is reproued.

25 Then he saide vnto them, h O fooles, and slowe of heart to beleeue all that the Prophets haue spoken, 26 Ought not Christ to haue suffered these thinges, and to enter into his glory?

27 And he began at i Moses, and at all the Prophets, and interpreted vnto them in all the Scriptures the things which were written of him.

i Christ onely is the interpreter of scriptures: for both the beginning, and end thereof direct vs to him because he is the Sauiour that is promited.

28 And they drew nere vnto the towne, which they went to, but hee k made as though he would haue gone further.

k Because Christ did both shut their eyes and open them, he would keepe them in suspence till his time came to manifest himselfe vnto them.

29 But they constrayned him, saying, Abide with vs: for it is towardes night, and the day is farre spent. So he went in to tary with them.

30 And it came to passe, as he sate at table with them, he tooke the bread, l & gaue thankes, and brake it, and gaue it to them.

l According to the custome: the which maner of praying before meales they vse to this day.

31 Then their eyes were opened, & they knew him: but hee was taken out of their sight.

32 And they said betweene themselues, Did not our hearts burne within vs, while he talked with vs by the way, and when he opened to vs the Scriptures?

33 And they rose vp the same houre, and returned to Jerusalem, and found the eleuen gathered together, and them that were with them, 34 Which sayde, The Lorde is risen in deede, and hath appeared to Simon.

35 Then they tolde what things were done in the way, and how hee was knowne of them in m breaking of bread.

m So soone as he began to breake bread. Marke 16.14. iohn 20.19.

36 ¶ * And as they spake these things, Jesus himselfe stoode in the mids of them, and sayd vnto them, Peace be to you.

37 But they were abashed and afrayde, supposing that they had seene a spirit.

38 Then he sayd vnto them, Why are ye troubled? and wherefore doe doubts arise in your hearts?

39 Beholde mine handes and my feete: for it is I my selfe: handle me, and see: for a spirite hath not flesh and bones, as yee see me haue.

40 And when he had thus spoken, hee shewed them his hands and feete.

41 And while they yet beleeued not for ioy, and wondered, he said vnto them, Haue ye here any meate?

42 And they gaue him a piece of a broyled fish, and of an hony combe.

43 And he tooke it, and did eate before them.

44 And he said vnto them, These are the wordes, which I spake vnto you while I was yet with you, That all must be fulfilled which are written of me in the Lawe of Moses, and in the Prophetes, and in the Psalmes.

45 Then opened he their vnderstanding, that they might vnderstand ỳ Scriptures, 46 And said vnto them, Thus is it written, & thus it behooued Christ to suffer, and to rise againe from the dead the third day, 47 And that repentance, & remission of sinnes should bee preached in his name among all nations, beginning at Jerusalem.

Iohn 15.26. actes 1.4.

51 And it came to passe, that as he blessed them, *he departed from them, and was carried vp into heauen.

6 ¶ * There was a man sent from God, whose name was Iohn.
7 The same came for a witnesse, to beare witnesse of the light, that all men through him might beleeue.
8 He was not that light, but was sent to beare witnesse of the light.
9 That was ỹ true light, which lighteth euery man that ‖ commeth into the world.
10 He was in the world, and the world was * made by him: and the world g knewe him not.
11 Hee came vnto h his owne, and his owne receiued him not.
12 But as many as receiued him, to them hee gaue i power to be the sonnes of God, euen to them that beleeue in his Name, 13 Which are borne not of blood, nor of the will of the flesh, nor of the will of man, but of God.
14 *And the Worde was made k flesh, & dwelt among vs, (& we * saw ỹ glory thereof, as the glory of the onely begotten Sonne ‖ of the Father) * full of grace and trueth.
15 ¶ Iohn bare witnesse of him, & cryed, saying, This was he of whome I sayd, He that commeth after mee, is preferred before me: for he was ‖ before me.
16 And of his fulnesse haue all we receiued, and l grace for grace.
17 For ỹ Law was giuen by Moses, but grace and trueth came by Iesus Christ.
18 *No man hath seene God at any time: the only begotten sonne, which is in ỹ m bosome of the Father, he hath n declared him.
19 ¶ Then this is ỹ record of Iohn, when the Iewes sent Priests and Leuites from Ierusalem, to aske him, Who art thou?
20 And he confessed and denied not, and sayd plainely, I * am not the Christ.
21 And they asked him, What then? Art thou Elias? And hee sayd, I am not. Art thou the o Prophet? And he answered, No.
22 Then sayd they vnto him, Who art thou, that we may giue an answere to them that sent vs? what sayest thou of thy selfe?
23 He said, I * am ỹ voyce of him ỹ crieth in the wildernesse, Make straight the way of the Lord, as sayd the Prophet Esaias.
24 Nowe they which were sent, were of the Pharises.
25 And they asked him, & said vnto him, Why baptizest thou then, if thou be not the Christ, neither Elias, nor the Prophet?
26 Iohn answered them, saying, I baptize with water: but there is one among you, whome ye know not.
27 * Hee it is that commeth after mee, which is preferred before mee, whose shoe latchet I am not worthy to vnloose.
28 These things were done in Bethabara beyond Iordā, where Iohn did baptize.
29 ¶ The next day Iohn seeth Iesus comming vnto him, and sayth, Beholde the Lambe of God, which taketh away the p sinne of the world.
30 This is he of whom I sayd, After me commeth a man, which is preferred before me: for he was before me.
31 And I knewe q him not: but because he should be declared to Israel, therefore am I come, baptizing with water.
32 So Iohn bare record, saying, I sawe * the Spirit come downe from heauen, like a doue, and it abode vpon him.
33 And I knewe him not: but hee that sent me to baptize with water, he sayd vnto me, Upon whome thou shalt see the Spirit come downe, and tary still on him, that is he which baptizeth with the r holy Ghost.
34 And I saw, and bare record that this is the sonne of God.
35 ¶ The next day, Iohn stood againe, and two of his disciples:
36 And hee beholde Iesus walking by, and sayd, Beholde the s lambe of God.
37 And the two disciples heard him speake, and followed Iesus.
38 Then Iesus turned about, and sawe them followe, and sayd vnto them, What seeke yee? and they sayde vnto him, Rabbi (which is to say by interpretation, Master) t where dwellest thou?
39 Hee sayd vnto them, Come, and see. They came and sawe where he dwelt, and abode with him that day: for it was about the u tenth houre.

8 Christ turneth the water into wine. 14 Hee driueth the buyers and sellers out of the Temple. 19 Hee forewarneth his death and resurrection. 23 He conuerteth many, and distrusteth man.

AND the third day, was there a marriage in Cana a towne of Galile, and the mother of Jesus was there.

2 And Jesus was called also, & his disciples vnto the marriage.

3 Nowe when the wine failed, the mother of Jesus sayd vnto him, They haue no wine.

a Who vsed continuall washings to purifie themselues. Which superstition Hebion the heretike would haue brought into the Church, & nowe the Papists haue receiued it.

4 Jesus sayd vnto her, Woman, what haue I to doe with thee? mine houre is not yet come.

5 His mother sayde vnto the seruants, Whatsoeuer he sayth vnto you, doe it.

6 And there were set there, fiue water pots of stone, after the maner of the a purifying of the Iewes, conteining two or three ‖b firkins a piece. ‖Or, measures.

b Whereof euery one conteined 25. galons.

7 And Jesus sayd vnto them, Fill the waterpots with water. Then they filled them vp to the brimme.

8 Then he sayd vnto them, Drawe out nowe and beare vnto the ‖gouernour of the feast. So they bare it. ‖Or, steward.

9 Now when the gouernour of the feast had tasted the water that was made wine, (for he knewe not whence it was: but the seruants, which drewe the water, knewe) the gouernour of the feast called the bridegroome,

10 And sayde vnto him, All men at the beginning set foorth good wine, and when men haue well dronke, then that which is worse: but thou hast kept backe the good wine vntill nowe.

11 This beginning of ‖miracles did Jesus in Cana a towne of Galile, and shewed foorth his glory: and his disciples beleeued on him. ‖Or, signes.

12 After that hee went downe into Capernaum, he and his mother, and his ‖brethren, and his disciples: but they continued not many dayes there. ‖Or, cousins.

13 For the Iewes Passeouer was at hand. Therefore Jesus went vp to Jerusalem.

14 * And hee found in the Temple those that solde oxen, and sheepe, and doues, and changers of money, sitting there. Matth. 21. 12, marke 11. 15. luke 19. 45.

15 Then he made a scourge of small cords, and draue them all out of the Temple with the sheepe & oxen, and powred out the changers money, and ouerthrewe the tables, 16 And sayd vnto them that solde doues, Take these things hence: make not my Fathers house an house of merchandise.

17 And his disciples remembred, that it was written, * The c zeale of thine house hath eaten me vp. Psal. 69. 9.

c This affection was so burning in him, that it surmounted and swallowed vp all the others.

18 Then answered the Iewes, and sayd vnto him, What ‖signe shewest thou vnto vs, that thou doest these things? ‖Or, miracle.

19 Jesus answered and sayd vnto them, * Destroy this Temple, and in three dayes I will raise it vp againe. Matth. 26. 61. & 27. 40. mark. 14. 58. and 15. 29.

20 Then sayd the Iewes, Fourtie and sixe yeeres was this Temple in building, and wilt thou reare it vp in three dayes?

21 But hee spake of the Temple of his d body.

d Christes body might iustly be called the Temple, because the fulnesse of the Godhead dwelleth in it corporally, Col. 2. 9.

22 Assoone therefore as he was risen frō the dead, his disciples remembred that hee thus sayd vnto them: and they beleeued the Scripture, and the worde which Jesus had sayde.

23 Nowe when he was at Jerusalem at the Passeouer in the feast, many beleeued in his Name, when they sawe his miracles which he did.

24 But Jesus e did not commit himselfe vnto them, because he knewe them all, e For he tooke not them for true disciples, as hee knewe by their inward thoughts, what religion soeuer they did pretend outwardly.

25 And had no neede that any should testifie of man: for he knew what was in man.

3 Christ instructeth Nicodemus in the regeneration. 15 Of faith. 16 Of the loue of God towards the world. 23 The doctrine and baptisme of Iohn. 28 And the witnesse that he beareth of Christ.

THere was nowe a man of the Pharises named Nicodemus, a ruler of the Iewes.

2 He came to Jesus by night, and sayde vnto him, Rabbi, we knowe that thou art a teacher come from God: for no man could doe these miracles that thou doest, except God were with him.

3 Jesus answered, and sayde vnto him, Verely, verely I say vnto thee, except a man be borne againe, hee cannot a see the b kingdome of God.

a To enter therin.
b Which thing is to be assembled and incorporate into the Church of God.

4 Nicodemus said vnto him, Howe can a man bee borne which is olde? can hee enter into his mothers wombe againe, and be borne?

5 Jesus answered, Verely, verely I say vnto thee, except that a man bee borne of c water and of the Spirit, he can not enter into the kingdome of God.

c Which is the spirituall water where the holy Ghost doth wash vs into newnesse of life.

6 That which is borne of the flesh, is flesh: and that that is borne of the spirit, is spirit.

7 Marueile not that I sayde to thee, Ye must be borne againe.

8 The d winde bloweth where it listeth, and thou hearest the sounde thereof, but canst not tell whence it commeth, and whither it goeth: so is euery man that is borne of the Spirit.

d As the power of God is manifest by the mouing of the ayre, so is it in changing and renuing vs, although the maner be hid from vs.

9 Nicodemus answered, and said vnto him, How can these things be?

10 Jesus answered, and saide vnto him, Art thou a teacher of Israel, and e knowest not these things?

e Although he was excellently learned, yet knew hee not those things which the very babes in Christes schoole ought to know.

11 Verely, verely I say vnto thee, wee speake that we f knowe, and testifie that we haue seene: but ye g receiue not our witnesse.

26 And they came vnto John and sayd vnto him, Rabbi, r hee that was with thee beyonde Jordan, to whome * thou hareste witnesse, beholde, he baptizeth, and all men come to him.

7 There came a woman of Samaria to draw water. Jesus sayd vnto her, Giue me drinke.

8 For his disciples were gone away vnto the citie, to buy meate.

9 Then sayde the woman of Samaria vnto him, Howe is it, that thou being a Iewe, askest drinke of me, which am a woman of [d] Samaria? For the Iewes medle not with the Samaritanes.

10 Iesus answered, and sayde vnto her, If thou knewest the [e] gift of God, and who it is that saith to thee, Giue me drinke, thou wouldest haue asked of him, and he would haue giuen thee [f] water of life.

11 The woman said vnto him, Sir, thou hast nothing to drawe with, and the well is deepe: from whence then hast thou that water of life?

12 Art thou greater then our father Iacob, which gaue vs the wel, and he him selfe drancke thereof, and his children, and his cattel?

13 Iesus answered, and sayde vnto her, Whosoeuer drinketh of this water, shall thirst againe:

14 But whosoeuer drinketh of the [g] water that I shall giue him, shall neuer be more [h] a thirst: but the water that I shall giue him, shall be in him a well of water, springing vp into euerlasting life.

15 The woman said vnto him, Sir, giue mee of that water, that I may not thirst, neither come hither to drawe.

16 Iesus saide vnto her, Goe, call thine husband, and come hither.

17 The woman answered, and sayde, I haue no husband. Iesus sayde vnto her, Thou hast well sayd, I haue no husband.

18 For thou hast had fiue husbands, and hee whom thou nowe hast, is not thine husband: that saidest thou truely.

19 The woman saide vnto him, Sir, I [i] see that thou art a Prophet.

20 Our fathers worshipped in this mountaine, and yee say, that in * Ierusalem is the place where men ought to worship.

21 Iesus said vnto her, Woman, beleeue me, the houre commeth, when yee shall neither in this mountaine, nor at Ierusalem, worship the father.

22 Ye worship that which yee * knowe not; we worship that which we knowe: for saluation is of the Iewes.

23 But the houre commeth, and nowe is, when the true worshippers shall worship the Father in spirit, and trueth: for the Father requireth euen such to worship him.

24 * God is a [k] Spirite, and they that worship him, must worship him in Spirite, and trueth.

25 The woman sayd vnto him, I know well that Messias shall come, which is called Christ: when he is come, he will tell vs all things.

26 Iesus sayd vnto her, I am hee, that speake vnto thee.

27 ¶ And vpon that came his disciples, and marueiled that hee talked with a woman: yet no man said vnto him, What askest thou? or why talkest thou with her?

28 The woman then left her water pot, and went her way into the citie, and sayd to the men, 29 Come, see a man which hath told me all things that euer I did: is not hee the Christ?

30 Then they went out of the citie, and came vnto him.

31 ¶ In the meane while, the disciples prayed him, saying, Master, eate.

32 But he sayd vnto them, I haue meate to eat, that ye know not of.

33 Then said the disciples betweene themselues, Hath any man brought him meate?

34 Iesus sayde vnto them, [l] My meate is that I may doe the will of him that sent me, and finish his worke.

35 Say not ye, There are yet foure moneths, and then commeth harueste? Behold, I say vnto you, lift vp your eyes, and looke on the regions: * for they are white already vnto haruest.

37 For herein is the ‖ saying true, that one soweth and another reapeth.

38 I sent you to reape that, whereon yee bestowed no labour: [n] other men laboured, and ye are entred into their labours.

39 Nowe many of the Samaritans of that citie [o] beleeued in him, for the saying of the woman which testified, He hath told me all things that euer I did.

40 Then when the Samaritanes were come vnto him, they besought him, that hee would tary with them: and hee abode there two dayes.

41 And many mo [p] beleeued because of his owne worde.

42 And they sayde vnto the woman, Nowe wee beleeue, not because of thy saying: for we haue heard him our selues, and knowe that this is in deede the Christ the Sauiour of the world.

43 ¶ So two dayes after, hee departed thence, and went into Galile.

44 For Iesus himselfe had * testified that a Prophet hath none honour in his [q] owne countrey.

‖ Or, the sheepe market.

2 And there is at Ierusalem by ‖ the place of the sheepe, a poole called in Ebrewe b Bethesda hauing fiue porches:

a Where the sheepe were washed, that should be sacrificed.

b Which signifieth the house of powring out, because the water ranne out by conduites.

3 In the which lay a great multitude of sicke folke, of blinde, halt, and withered, wayting for the mouing of the water.

4 For an Angel went downe at a certaine season into the poole, and troubled the water: whosoeuer then first, after the stirring of the water, stepped in, was made whole of whatsoeuer disease he had.

5 And a certaine man was there, which had bene diseased eight and thirtie yeeres.

6 When Iesus sawe him lie, and knewe that hee nowe long time had bene diseased, hee sayde vnto him, Wilt thou bee made whole?

7 The sicke man answered him, Syr, I haue no man, when the water is troubled, to put mee into the poole: but while I am comming, another steppeth downe before me.

e This was, to the ende that the miracle might be so euident, that no man coulde speake against it.

8 Iesus saide vnto him, Rise: e take vp thy bed, and walke.

9 And immediatly the man was made whole, and tooke vp his bed, and walked: and the same day was the Sabbath.

10 The Iewes therefore saide to him that was made whole, It is the Sabbath day: * it is not lawfull for thee to carry thy bed.

Ierem.17.22.

11 Hee answered them, He that made me whole, he sayde vnto me, Take vp thy bed, and walke.

12 Then asked they him, What man is that which saide vnto thee, take vp thy bed, and walke?

13 And he that was healed, knewe not who it was: for Iesus had conueyed himselfe away from the multitude that was in that place.

14 And after that, Iesus found him in the Temple, and sayd vnto him, Beholde, thou art made whole: d sinne no more, least a worse thing come vnto thee.

d The afflictions that we endure, are chastisements for our sinnes.

15 ¶ The man departed, and tolde the Iewes that it was Iesus, which had made him whole.

16 And therefore the Iewes did persecute Iesus, and sought to slay him, because hee had done these things on the Sabbath day.

17 But Iesus answered them, My father worketh hitherto, and I worke.

18 Therefore the Iewes sought the more to kill him: not onely because hee had broken the Sabbath, but saide also that God was e his f Father, and made himselfe equall with God.

e That is, proper and peculiar to him alone.

f It was lawfull for all Israel to call God their father, Exod.4. 22. but because Christ did attribute to himselfe that he had power ouer all things, and wrought as his Father did, they gathered that Christ did not onely make himselfe the Sonne of God, but also equall with him.

19 Then answered Iesus, and sayd vnto them, Verely, verely I say vnto you, The Sonne can doe nothing of himselfe, saue that hee seeth the Father doe: for whatsoeuer things he doeth, the same things doeth the Sonne also.

20 For the Father loueth the Sonne, and g sheweth him all things, whatsoeuer he himselfe doeth, and hee will shewe him greater workes then these, that yee should marualle.

g That is, he doth communicate with him, hauing the same power and the same will.

21 For likewise as the Father rayseth vp the dead, and quickeneth them, so the Sonne quickeneth whom he will.

22 For the Father iudgeth no man, but hath committed all h iudgement vnto the Sonne, h In giuing him power and rule ouer all.

23 Because that all men should honour the Sonne, as they honour the Father: he that honoureth not the Sonne, the same honoureth not the Father, which hath sent him.

24 Verely, verely I say vnto you, hee that heareth my word, and beleeueth in him that sent me, hath euerlasting life, and shall not come into condemnation, but hath passed from death vnto life.

25 Verely, verely I say vnto you, the houre shall come, and nowe is, when the dead shall heare the voyce of the Sonne of God: and they that i heare it, shall liue.

i They that receiue it by faith.

26 For as the Father hath life in k himselfe, so likewise hath he giuen to the Sonne to haue life in himselfe, k To communicate it with vs.

27 And hath giuen him power also to execute l iudgement, in that hee is the sonne of man.

l That is, to gouerne and rule all things.

28 Marualle not at this: for the houre shall come in the which all that are in the graues, shall heare his voyce.

29 And they shall come forth, * that haue done good, vnto the resurrection of life: but they that haue done euill, vnto the resurrection of condemnation.

Matth.25.46.

30 I can doe nothing of mine owne selfe: as I heare, I iudge: and my iudgement is iust, because I seeke not mine owne will, but the will of the Father who hath sent me.

36 But I haue greater witnesse then the witnesse of Iohn: for the workes which the Father hath giuen mee to finish, the same workes that I doe, beare witnesse of me, that the Father sent me.

37 And the *Father himselfe, which hath sent me, ° beareth witnesse of me. Yee haue not heard his voyce at any time, *neither haue ye seene his shape.

45 Doe not thinke that I will accuse you to my Father: there is one that ʳ accuseth you, euen Moses, in whom ye trust.

10 Iesus feedeth fiue thousand men with fiue loaues and two fishes. 15 He departeth away, that they should not make him king. 26 He reproueth the fleshly hearers of his word. 41 The carnall are offended at him. 63 The flesh profiteth not.

AFter these things, Iesus went his way ouer the ª sea of Galile, or of ᵇ Tiberias.

2 And a great multitude followed him, because they sawe his miracles, which hee did on them that were diseased.

3 Then Iesus went vp into a mountaine, and there he sate with his disciples.

4 Nowe the Passeouer, a *feast of the Iewes, was neere.

5 *Then Iesus lift vp his eyes, and seeing that a great multitude came vnto him, he sayde vnto Philip, ᶜWhence shall we buy bread, that these might eate?

6 (And this he said to proue him: for he himselfe knew what he would doe)

7 Philip answered him, ᶜ Two hundred penniworth of bread is not sufficient for them, that euery one of them may take a little.

8 Then saide vnto him one of his disciples, Andrew, Simon Peters brother, 9 There is a little boy here, which hath fiue barley loaues, and two fishes: but what are they among so many?

10 And Iesus sayde, Make the people sit downe. (Now there was much grasse in that place.) Then the men sate downe in number, about fiue thousand.

11 And Iesus tooke the bread, and ᵈ gaue thankes, and gaue to the disciples, and the disciples to them that were set downe: and likewise of ᵖ fishes as much as they would.

12 And when they were satisfied, he sayd vnto his disciples, Gather vp the broken meate which remaineth, that ᵉ nothing be lost.

13 Then they gathered it together, and filled twelue baskets with the broken meat of the fiue barley loaues, which remained vnto them that had eaten.

14 Then the men when they had seene the miracle that Iesus did, sayd, This is of a truth the Prophet that should come into the world.

15 ¶ When Iesus therefore perceiued that they would come, and take him to make him ᶠ King, he departed againe into a mountaine himselfe alone.

16 ¶ When euen was nowe come, his disciples went downe vnto the sea, 17 *And entred into a shippe, and went ᵍ ouer the sea towards Capernaum: and nowe it was darke, and Iesus was not come to them.

18 And the sea arose with a great winde that blewe.

19 And when they had rowed about fiue and twentie, or thirtie ʰ furlongs, they sawe Iesus walking on the sea, and drawing neere vnto the ship: so they were afrayd.

20 But he sayd vnto them, ⁱ It is I: be not afrayd.

21 Then willingly they receiued him into the ship, and the ship was by and by at the land, whither they went.

22 ¶ The day following, ᵖ people which stood on the other side of the sea, sawe that there was none other ship there, saue that one, whereinto his disciples were entred, and that Iesus went not with his disciples in the ship, but that his disciples were gone ⁱ alone,

23 And that there came other ships from Tiberias neere vnto the place where they ate ᵖ bread, after ᵖ Lord had giuen thanks.

24 Nowe when the people saw that Iesus was not there, neither his disciples, they also tooke shipping, and came to Capernaum, seeking for Iesus.

25 And when they had found him on the ᵏ other side of the sea, they sayd vnto him, Rabbi, when camest thou hither?

26 Iesus answered them, and sayd, Verely, verely I say vnto you, ye seeke me not, because ye saw the miracles, but because yee ate of the loaues, and were filled.

27 Labour not for the meate which perisheth, but for the meate that ˡ endureth vnto euerlasting life, which the sonne of man shall giue vnto you: for him hath *God the Father ᵐ sealed.

28 Then said they vnto him, ᶜWhat shall we doe, that we might worke the ª workes of God?

29 Iesus answered, and said vnto them, *This is the worke of God, that ye beleeue in him, whom he hath sent.

30 They said therefore vnto him, ᶜWhat signe shewest thou then, that we may see it, and beleeue thee? what doest thou worke?

59 These things spake hee in the Synagogue, as he taught in Capernaum.

60 Many therefore of his disciples (when they heard this) sayde, This is an hard saying, who can a heare it?

a That is, vnderstand it.

61 But Iesus knowing in himselfe, that his disciples murmured at this, sayde vnto them, Doth this offend you?

62 What then if ye should see the Sonne of man b ascend vp * where hee was before?

b Hee meaneth not ỹ his humanitie descended from heauen: but he speaketh touching ỹ vnion of both natures, attributing to the one, that which appertayneth to the other.

66 From that time, many of his disciples went backe, and walked no more with him.

c To wit, if it be separated from the Spirit, whereof it hath the force: for it commeth of the power of the spirite, that the flesh of Christ giueth vs life.

5 For as yet his brethren beleeued not in him.

6 Then Iesus sayd vnto them, My time is not yet come: but your time is alway readie.

7 The worlde cannot hate you: but me it hateth, b because I testifie of it, that the workes thereof are euill.

8 Goe ye vp vnto this feast: I will c not goe vp yet vnto this feast: for my time is not yet fulfilled.

9 ¶ These things he said vnto them, and abode still in Galile.

10 But assone as his brethren were gone vp, then went he also vp vnto the feast, not openly, but as it were priuily.

11 Then the Iewes sought him at the feast, and sayd, Where is he?

12 And much murmuring was there of him among the people. Some sayd, He is a good man: other sayd, Nay: but hee deceiueth the people.

13 Howbeit no man spake openly of him for feare of the d Iewes.

14 Now when halfe the feast was done, Iesus went vp into the Temple e taught.

15 And the Iewes marueiled, saying, Howe knoweth this man the ‖ Scriptures, seeing that he neuer learned?

17 If any man will doe his will, he shall know of the doctrine, whether it be of God, or whether I speake of my selfe.

19 * Did not Moses giue you a Law, and yet none of you keepeth the Lawe? * Why goe ye about to kill me?

20 The h people answered, and sayd, Thou hast a deuill: who goeth about to kil thee?

21 Iesus answered, and sayde to them, I haue done one worke, and yee all i marueile.

22 * Moses therefore gaue vnto you circumcision, (not because it is of Moses, but of the * fathers) and ye on the Sabbath day circumcise a man.

23 If a man on the Sabbath receiue circumcision, that the Lawe of Moses shoulde not be broken, be ye angry with me, because I haue made a man euery whit whole on the Sabbath day?

24 * Iudge not according to the appearance, but iudge righteous iudgement.

25 ¶ Then sayd some of them of Ierusalem, Is not this he, whome they goe about to kill?

26 And beholde, hee speaketh ‖ openly, and they say nothing to him: doe the rulers knowe in deede that this is the very Christ?

‖Or, freely.

27 Howbeit we know this man whence he is: but when the Christ commeth, no man shall know whence he is.

28 ¶ Then cryed Iesus in the Temple as he taught, saying, Ye k both knowe mee, and knowe whence I am: yet am I not come of myselfe, but hee that sent mee, is true, whom ye know not.

29 But I knowe him: for I am of him, and he hath sent me.

30 Then they thought to take him, but no man layde his handes on him, because his houre was not yet come.

31 Nowe many of the people l beleeued in him, and sayde, When the Christ commeth, will he doe moe miracles then this man hath done?

32 The Pharises heard that the people murmured these things of him, and the Pharises and hie Priestes sent officers to take him.

33 Then sayd Iesus vnto them, Yet am I m a litle while with you, and then goe I vnto him that sent me.

34 * Ye shal seeke me, and shall not finde me, and where I ‖ am, can ye not come.

35 Then sayde the Iewes among themselues, Whither will he goe, that we shall not finde him? Will hee goe vnto them that are ‡ dispersed among the n Grecians, and teach the Grecians?

36 What saying is this that he sayde, Ye shall seeke mee, and shall not finde mee: and where I am, can ye not come?

37 Now in the last and * great day of the feast, Iesus stoode and cryed, saying, If any man thirst, let him come vnto mee, and drinke.

38 He that o beleeueth in mee, * as sayth the Scripture, out of his belly shall flowe riuers of water p of life.

39 (* This spake he of the Spirit which they that beleeued in him, shoulde receiue: for the q holy Ghost was not yet giuen, because that Iesus was not yet glorified.)

40 So many of the people, when they heard this saying, sayde, Of a trueth this is the r Prophet.

41 Other said, This is the Christ: ‡ some sayd, But shall Christ come out of Galile?

42 * Saith not the Scripture that the Christ shall come of the seede of Dauid, and out of the towne of Beth-lehem, where Dauid was?

43 So was there dissension among the people for him.

44 And some of them would haue taken him, but no man layde hands on him.

45 Then came the officers to the high Priests and Pharises, and they sayd vnto them, Why haue ye not brought him?

46 The officers answered, ‡ Neuer man spake like this man.

6 And this they sayde to tempt him, that they might haue whereof to [a] accuse him. But Jesus stouped downe, and with his finger wrote on the ground.

7 And while they continued asking him, he lift himselfe vp, and said vnto them, *Let him that is among you without sinne, cast the first stone at her.

8 And againe hee stouped downe, and wrote on the ground.

9 And when they heard it, being accused by their owne conscience, they went out one by one, beginning at the eldest euen to the last: so Jesus was left alone, and the woman standing in the middes.

10 When Jesus had lift vp himselfe againe, and sawe no man, but the woman, hee sayd vnto her, Woman, where are those thine accusers? hath no man condemned thee?

11 She sayd, No man, Lord. And Jesus sayde, [b] Neither doe I condemne thee: goe and sinne no more.

12 Then spake Jesus againe vnto them, saying, I * am the light of the world: hee that followeth me, shall not walke in darkenesse, but shall haue the ‖light of life.

13 The Pharises therefore sayde vnto him, Thou bearest record of thy selfe: thy record is not ‖true.

14 *Jesus answered, and said vnto them, [c] Though I beare record of my selfe, yet my record is true: for I know whence I came, and whither I go: but ye cannot tel [d] whence I come, and whither I goe.

15 Ye iudge after the flesh: [e] I iudge no man.

16 And if I also iudge, my iudgement is true: for I am not alone, but I and the Father, that sent me.

17 And it is also written in your Lawe, * that the testimonie of two men is true.

18 I am [f] one that beare witnesse of my selfe, and the Father that sent me, beareth witnesse of me.

19 Then saide they vnto him, Where is thy Father? Jesus answered, Ye neither knowe mee, nor my Father. If yee had knowen mee, yee shoulde haue knowen my Father also.

20 These wordes spake Jesus in the [g] treasurie, as he taught in the Temple, and no man layd handes on him: for his houre was not yet come.

21 Then sayde Jesus againe vnto them, I goe my way, and yee shall seeke mee, and shall die in your [h] sinnes. Whither I goe, can ye not come.

22 Then sayde the Iewes, Will hee kill himselfe, because hee saith, Whither I goe, can ye not come?

23 And he said vnto them, [i] Ye are from beneath: I am from aboue: ye are of this world: I am not of this world.

24 I sayde therefore vnto you, That yee shall die in your sinnes: for except yee beleeue, that I am hee, yee shall die in your sinnes.

25 Then sayde they vnto him, Who art thou? And Jesus sayde vnto them, ‖Euen the same thing that I sayde vnto you [k] from the beginning.

26 I haue many things to say, and to iudge of you: but he that sent mee, is true, and the things that I haue heard of him, those speake I to the world.

27 They vnderstood not that he spake to them of the Father.

28 Then sayde Jesus vnto them, When yee haue [l] lift vp the Sonne of man, then shall ye [m] knowe that I am [n] hee, and that I do nothing of my selfe, but as my Father hath taught me, so I speake these things.

29 For he that sent me is with mee: the Father hath not left mee alone, because I doe alwayes those things that please him.

30 ¶ As he spake these things, many beleeued in him.

31 Then said Jesus to the Iewes which beleeued in him, If yee continue in my word, ye are verely my disciples, 32 And shall knowe the trueth, and the trueth [o] shall make you free.

33 They answered him, [p] We be Abrahams seede, and were neuer bond to any man: why sayest thou then, Ye shalbe made free?

34 Jesus answered them, Verely, verely I say vnto you, that whosoeuer committeth sinne, is the * seruant of sinne.

35 And the seruant abideth not in the house for euer: but the Sonne abideth for euer.

36 If the Sonne therefore shall make you free, ye shalbe free in deede.

37 I [q] knowe that yee are Abrahams seede, but yee seeke to kill mee, because my word hath no place in you.

38 I speake that which I haue seene with my Father: and ye doe that which yee haue seene with your father.

39 They answered, and saide vnto him, Abraham is our father. Jesus sayde vnto them, 5 As long as I am in the world, *I am the light of the world.

6 Assoone as hee had thus spoken, hee c spat on the ground, and made clay of the spettle, and anoynted the eyes of the blinde with the clay,

c This was not for any vertue that was in the earth, in the spettle, or in the clay, to make one see: but it onely pleased him to vse these signes and meanes.

7 And sayde vnto him, Goe wash in the poole of Siloam (which is by interpretation, d Sent.) He went his way therefore and washed, and came againe seeing.

d Hereby was prefigured the Messias, who should be sent vnto them.

8 Nowe the neighbours and they that had seene him before, when hee was blinde, said, Is not this he that sate and begged?

9 Some sayde, This is hee: and others sayd, He is like him: but he himselfe sayd, I am he.

10 Therefore they sayde vnto him, How were thine eyes opened?

11 He answered, and said, The man that is called Iesus, made clay, and anoynted mine eyes, and sayde vnto mee, Goe to the poole of Siloam, and wash. So I went and washed, and receiued sight.

12 Then they saide vnto him, Where is he? He said, I cannot tell.

13 ¶ They brought to the Pharises him that was once blinde.

14 And it was the Sabbath day, when Iesus made the clay, and opened his eyes.

15 Then againe the Pharises also asked him, howe hee had receiued sight. And hee sayde vnto them, Hee layde clay vpon mine eyes, and I washed, and doe see.

16 Then sayde some of the Pharises, This man is not of God, because he keepeth not the Sabbath day. Others sayde, Howe can a man that is a sinner, doe such miracles? and there was a dissension among them.

17 Then spake they vnto the blinde againe, What sayest thou of him, because hee hath opened thine eyes? And he sayde, Hee is a Prophet.

18 Then the Iewes did not beleeue him (that hee had bene blinde, and receiued his sight) vntill they had called the parents of him that had receiued sight.

19 And they asked them, saying, Is this your sonne, whom ye say was borne blinde? How doeth he now see then?

20 His parents answered them, and said, We knowe that this is our sonne, and that he was borne blinde:

21 But by what meanes he nowe seeth, wee knowe not: or who hath opened his eyes, e can wee not tell: hee is olde ynough: aske him: hee shall answere for himselfe.

e They durst not speake the trueth for feare they should be excommunicate.

22 These wordes spake his parents, because cause they feared the Iewes: for the Iewes had ordained already, that if any man did confesse that hee was the Christ, hee shoulde be excommunicate out of the Synagogue.

23 Therefore sayd his parents, He is old ynough: aske him.

24 Then againe called they the mā that had bene blinde, and sayde vnto him, f Giue glory vnto God: wee knowe that this man is a sinner.

25 Then he answered & sayde, Whether hee be a sinner or no, g I can not tell: one thing I know, that I was blinde, and now I see.

26 h Thē sayd they to him againe, What did hee to thee? howe opened hee thine eyes?

27 He answered them, I haue tolde you already, and ye haue not heard it: wherefore would yee heare it againe? i will ye also be his disciples?

28 Then checked they him, and sayd, Be thou his disciple: wee be Moses disciples.

29 We know that God spake with Moses: but this man wee knowe not from whence he is.

30 The man answered, and sayde vnto them, Doubtles this is a marueilous thing, that ye k know not whence hee is, and yet he hath opened myne eyes.

31 Now we know that God heareth not sinners: but if any man be a worshipper of God, and doeth his wil, him heareth hee.

32 Since the world beganne was it not heard that any man opened the eyes of one that was borne blinde.

33 If this man were not of God, hee could haue done nothing.

34 They answered and sayde vnto him, Thou art altogether borne in sinnes, and doest thou teach vs? so they cast him out.

35 Iesus heard that they had ‖ cast him out: and when he had found him, hee sayde vnto him, doest thou beleeue in the Sonne of God?

36 He answered, and sayde, Who is hee, Lord, that I might beleeue in him?

37 And Iesus sayd vnto him, Both thou hast seene him, and he it is that talketh with thee.

38 Then he sayd, Lorde, I beleeue, and m worshipped him.

39 And Iesus sayde, I am come vnto n iudgement into this worlde, that they which see not, might see: and that they * which see, might be made blinde.

40 And some of ỹ Pharisees which were with him, heard these things, and sayd vnto him, Are we blinde also?

41 Iesus sayde vnto them, If yee were blinde, o ye should not haue sinne: but now ye say, We see: therefore your sinne remaineth.

11 Christ is the true shepheard, and the doore. 19 Diuers opinions of Christ. 24 Hee is asked, if he be Christ. 32 His workes declare that hee is God. 34 The Princes called gods.

VErely, verely I say vnto you, He that entreth not in by ỹ doore into the sheepefolde, but climeth vp another way, hee is a thiefe, and a robber.

2 But hee that goeth in by the dooze, is the shepheard of the sheepe.

3 To him the porter openeth, and the sheepe heare his voyce, and he a calleth his owne sheepe by name, and leadeth them out.

4 And when he hath sent foorth his owne sheepe, he goeth before them, and the sheepe followe him: for they know his voyce.

5 And they wil not follow a stranger, but they flee from him: for they knowe not the voyce of strangers.

6 This parable spake Iesus vnto them: but they vnderstoode not what things they were which he spake vnto them.

7 Then sayde Iesus vnto them againe, Verely, verely I say vnto you, I am the dooze of the sheepe, 8 All b that euer came before mee, are theeues and robbers: but the sheepe did not heare them.

9 I am the dooze: by mee if any man enter in, he shal be saued, and shall c goe in and goe out, and finde pasture.

12 But an hireling, and hee which is not the sheepheard, neither the sheepe are his owne, seeth the wolfe comming, and hee leaueth the sheepe, and fleeth, and the wolfe catcheth them, and scattereth the sheepe.

13 So the hireling fleeth, because he is an hireling, and careth not for the sheepe.

14 I am the good sheepheard, and d know mine, and am knowen of mine.

15 e As the father f knoweth me, so know I the Father: and I lay downe my life for my sheepe.

16 g Other sheepe I haue also, which are not of this fold: them also must I bring, and they shall heare my voyce: and * there shall be one sheepefold, and one shepheard.

17 h Therefore doeth my Father loue me, because * I lay downe my life, that I might take it againe.

18 No man taketh it from mee, but I lay it downe of my selfe: I haue power to lay it downe, and haue power to take it againe: this * commaundement haue I receiued of my Father.

21 Other sayd, These are not the wordes of him that hath a deuil: can the deuill open the eyes of the blinde?

43 Christ rayseth Lazarus from death. 47 The hie Priestes and Pharises gather a councell against him. 50 Caiaphas prophecieth. 54 Christ getteth him out of the way.

AND a certaine man was sicke, named Lazarus of Bethania, the town of Marie, and her sister Martha.

2 (And it was that * Marie which anoynted the Lord with ointment, and wiped his feete with her haire, whose brother Lazarus was sicke.)

Chap.12.3. matth.26.7.

3 Therefore his sisters sent vnto him, saying, Lorde, behold, he whome thou louest, is sicke.

4 When Iesus heard it, he sayde, This sickenesse is not a vnto death, but for the glory of God, that the Sonne of God might be glorified thereby.

a For although he died, yet being restored so soone to life, it was almost no death in comparison.

5 ¶ Now Iesus loued Martha, and her sister, and Lazarus.

6 And after hee had heard that hee was sicke, yet abode he two daies still in the same place where he was.

7 Then after that, sayd hee to his disciples, Let vs goe into Iudea againe.

8 The disciples sayd vnto him, Master, the Iewes lately sought to * stone thee, and doest thou go thither againe?

Chap.7.30.& 8. 59. and 10.31.

9 Iesus answered, Are there not b twelue houres in the day? if a man walke in the day, he stumbleth not, because hee seeth the light of this world.

b He that walketh in his vocation, & hath the light of God for his guide, needeth to feare no dangers. The day also, both sommer and winter was with the Iewes deuided into xii. houres.

10 But if a man walke in the night, hee stumbleth, because there is no light in him.

11 These things spake he, & after he said vnto them, Our friend Lazarus sleepeth: but I goe to wake him vp.

12 Then sayde his disciples, Lord, if hee sleepe, he c shall be safe.

c They laboured to stay Christ from going into Iudea, as though there had bene no neede.

13 Howbeit, Iesus spake of his death: but they thought that he had spoken of the naturall sleepe.

14 Then sayd Iesus vnto them plainely, Lazarus is dead.

15 And I am glad for your sakes, that I was not there, that ye may beleeue: but let vs goe vnto him.

16 Then sayd Thomas (which is called d Didymus) vnto his fellow disciples, Let vs also goe, that we may die with him.

d Which signifieth in our tongue, a twin in birth.

17 ¶ Then came Iesus, and found that hee had lyen in the graue foure dayes alreadie.

18 (Now Bethania was neere vnto Ierusalem, about e fiftteene fourlongs off.)

e Which were almost two mile.

19 And many of the Iewes were come to Martha and Marie to comfort them for their brother.

20 Then Martha, when shee heard that Iesus was comming, went to meete him: but Marie sate still in the house.

21 Then said Martha vnto Iesus, Lord, if thou hadst bene here, my brother had not bene dead.

22 But now f I knowe also, that whatsoeuer thou askest of God, God will giue it thee.

f She sheweth some faith, which notwithstanding was almost ouercome by her affections.

23 Iesus sayd vnto her, Thy brother shal rise againe.

24 Martha sayd vnto him, I know that he shall rise againe in the resurrection at the last day.

25 Iesus said vnto her, g I am the resurrection and the life: he that beleeueth in me, though he were dead, yet shall he liue.

g Christ restoreth vs from death to giue vs euerlasting life.

26 And whosoeuer liueth, and beleeueth in mee, shall neuer die. Beleeuest thou this?

27 She sayd vnto him, Yea, Lord, I beleeue that thou art the Christ the Sonne of God, which should come into the world.

28 ¶ And when she had so said, she went her way, and called Marie her sister secretly, saying, The Master is come, and calleth for thee.

29 And when shee heard it, shee arose quickely, and came vnto him.

30 For Iesus was not yet come into the towne, but was in the place where Martha met him.

31 The Iewes then which were with her in the house, and comforted her, when they sawe saw Marie, that shee rose vp [h] hastily, and went out, followed her, saying, She goeth vnto the graue, to weepe there.

32 Then when Marie was come where Iesus was, and saw him, shee fell downe at his feete, saying vnto him, Lorde, if thou haddest bene here, my brother had not bene dead.

33 When Iesus therfore saw her weepe, and the Iewes also weepe which came with her, he [i] groned in the spirit, and was troubled in himselfe, 34 And sayd, Where haue ye layd him? They sayd vnto him, Lord, come and see.

35 And Iesus [k] wept.

36 Then sayd the Iewes, Beholde, how he loued him.

37 And some of them sayde, Could not hee, which opened the eyes of the blinde, haue made also that this man should not haue died?

38 Iesus therefore againe groned in him selfe, and came to the graue. And it was a caue, and a stone was layd vpon it.

39 Iesus sayd, Take ye away the stone. Martha the sister of him that was dead, sayd vnto him, Lorde, he stinketh already: for he hath bene dead foure dayes.

40 Iesus sayd vnto her, Sayde I not vnto thee, that if thou diddest beleeue, thou shouldest see the [l] glory of God?

41 Then they tooke away the stone from the place where the dead was layde. And Iesus lift vp his eyes, and sayde, Father, I thanke thee, because thou hast heard me.

42 I knowe that thou hearest mee alwayes, but because of the people that stand by, I sayd it, that they may beleeue, that thou hast sent me.

43 As hee had spoken these things, hee cryed with a loude voyce, Lazarus, come forth.

44 Then he that was dead, came forth, bound hand and foote with bandes, and his face was bound with a napkin. Iesus sayd vnto them, Loose him, and let him goe.

45 ¶ Then many of the Iewes which came to Marie, and had seene the things, which Iesus did, beleeued in him.

46 But some of them went their way to the Pharises, and tolde them what things Iesus had done.

47 Then gathered the hie Priestes, and the Pharises a counsell, and sayde, What shall wee doe? For this man doeth many miracles.

48 If [m] wee let him thus alone, all men will beleeue in him, and the Romanes will come and take away both our place, and the nation.

49 Then one of them named Caiaphas, which was the high Priest [n] that same yeere, sayd vnto them, Ye perceiue nothing at all,

50 Nor yet doe you consider that it is expedient for vs, that one man die for the people, and that the whole nation perish not.

51 This spake hee not of himselfe: but being hie Priest that same yeere, he [o] prophecied that Iesus should die for the nation:

52 And not for the nation only, but that hee should gather together in one the children of God, which were scattered.

53 Then from that day forth they consulted together, to put him to death.

54 Iesus therefore walked no more openly among the Iewes, but went thence vnto a countrey neere to the wildernesse, into a citie called Ephraim, and there continued with his disciples.

55 ¶ And the Iewes Passeouer was at hand, and many went out of the countrey vp to Ierusalem before the Passeouer, to [p] purifie themselues.

56 Then sought they for Iesus, & spake among themselues, as they stoode in the Temple, What thinke ye, that he commeth not to the feast?

57 Nowe both the high Priestes and the Pharises had giuen a commaundement, that if any man knewe where he were, hee should shewit, that they might take him.

3 Then tooke Marie a pound of ointment of spikenard very costly, and anoynted Iesus [a] feete, and wiped his feete with her haire, and the house was filled with the sauour of the ointment.

4 Then sayde one of his disciples, euen Iudas Iscariot Simons sonne, which should betray him,

5 Why was not this ointment solde for [b] three hundreth pence, and giuen to the poore?

6 Nowe hee sayd this, not that he cared for the poore, but because hee was a theefe, and *had the bagge, and bare that which was giuen. *Chap.13.29.

28 Father, glorifie thy Name. Then came there a voyce from heauen, saying, I both haue glorified it, and will glorifie it againe.

29 Then sayd the people that stood by and heard, that it was a thunder: others sayd, An Angel spake to him.

35 Then Iesus sayde vnto them, Yet a litle while is * the light with you: walke while ye haue light, lest the darkenesse come vpon you: for he that walketh in the darke, knoweth not whither he goeth. Chap.1.9.

4 He riseth from supper, and layeth aside his vpper garments, and tooke a towell, and girded himselfe.

5 After that, hee powred water into a basin, and began to wash the disciples feete, and to wipe them with the towell, wherewith he was girded.

6 Then came he to Simon Peter, who said to him, Lord, doest thou wash my feete?

7 Iesus answered and sayde vnto him, What I doe thou knowest not nowe: but thou shalt knowe it hereafter.

8 Peter sayde vnto him, Thou shalt neuer wash my feete. Iesus answered him, If I [c] wash thee not, thou shalt haue no part with me.

9 Simon Peter sayde vnto him, Lord, not my feete onely, but also the hands, and the head.

10 Iesus sayde to him, Hee that is washed, needeth not, saue to [d] wash his feete, but is cleane euery whit: and ye are *cleane, but not all.

11 For he knew who should betray him: therefore said he, Ye are not all cleane.

12 ¶ So after he had washed their feete, and had taken his garments, and was set downe againe, he sayde vnto them, Knowe ye what I haue done to you?

13 Ye call me Master, and Lord, and ye say well: for so am I.

14 If I then your Lord, and Master, haue washed your feete, yee also ought to wash [e] one anothers feete.

20 *Verely, verely I say vnto you, If I send any, hee that receiueth him, receiueth me, and he that receiueth me, receiueth him that sent me.

21 When Iesus had said these things, he was [h] troubled in the spirit, and [i] testified, and sayde, Verely, verely I say vnto you, that one of you shall betray me.

22 *Then the disciples looked one on another, doubting of whome he spake.

23 Now there was one of his disciples, which leaned on Iesus [k] bolome, whome Iesus loued.

24 To him beckened therefore Simon Peter, that hee should aske who it was of whome he spake.

25 He then, as he leaned on Iesus breast, sayd vnto him, Lord, who is it?

26 Iesus answered, He it is, to whome I shal giue a soppe, whe I haue dipped it: and he wet a soppe, and gaue it to Judas Iscariot, Simons sonne.

27 And after the soppe, [l] Satan entred into him. Then said Iesus vnto him, That thou doest, doe quickely.

28 But none of them that were at table, knewe for what cause hee spake it vnto him.

29 For some of them thought because Judas had the bagge, that Iesus had sayd vnto him, Buy those things which we haue neede of against the feast: or that hee should giue some thing to the poore.

30 Assone then as hee had receiued the soppe, he went immediatly out, and it was night.

31 ¶ When he was gone out, Iesus sayd, [m] Nowe is the Sonne of man glorified, and God is glorified in him.

32 If God be glorified in him, God shall also glorifie him in himselfe, & shal straightway glorifie him.

36 Simon Peter sayd vnto him, Lorde, whither goest thou? Iesus answered him, Whither I goe, thou canst not follow mee nowe: but thou [o] shalt folow me afterwards.

37 Peter sayd vnto him, Lord, why can I not follow thee nowe? *I will lay downe my life for thy sake.

l That is, in the holy Scriptures. Psal.35.19.

26 But when the comforter shall come, * whome I wil send vnto you from the Father, euen the Spirit of trueth, which proceedeth of the Father, he shal testifie of me.

Chap.14.26. Luke 24.49.

27 And ye shall witnesse also, because yee haue bene with me from the beginning.

CHAP. XVI.

2 He putteth them in remembrance of the crosse, and of their owne infirmitie to come, 7 And therefore doeth comfort them with the promise of the holy Ghost. 16 Of the comming againe of Christ. 17 Of his ascension. 23 To aske in the Name of Christ. 33 Peace in Christ, and in the world affliction.

THese things haue I sayd vnto you, that ye should not be a offended.

a And so shrinke from me.

2 They shall ‡ excommunicate you: yea, the time shall come, that whosoeuer killeth you, will thinke that hee doeth God seruice.

‡ Greeke, put you out of the Synagogues.

3 And these things will they doe vnto you, because they haue not knowen the Father, nor me.

4 But these things haue I tolde you, that when the houre shall come, yee might remember, that I tolde you them. And these things b sayde I not vnto you from the beginning, because I was with you.

b He bare with them because they were but weakelings.

5 But nowe I goe my way to him that sent me, and none of you asketh me, c Whither goest thou?

c For if you did consider, yee would reioyce.

6 But because I haue sayd these things vnto you, your hearts are full of sorowe.

7 Yet I tell you the trueth, It is expedient for you that I goe away: for if I go not away, the Comforter will not come vnto you: but if I depart, I will send him vnto you.

8 And when he is come, he wil d reproue the world of sinne, and of righteousnes, and of iudgement.

d Or, conuince. This is to be vnderstood of the comming of the holy Ghost when his vertue and strength shall shine in the Church.

9 Of e sinne, because they beleeue not in mee:

e His enemies which contemned him, and put him to death, shalbe conuict by their owne conscience, for that they did not beleeue in him, Actes 2.37. and shall knowe that without Iesus Christ there is nothing but sinne.

10 Of f righteousnesse, because I goe to my Father, and ye shall see me no more:

f Wherefore the wicked must needes confesse that he was iust, and beloued of his father, and not condemned by him as a blasphemer or transgressor.

11 Of g iudgement, because the prince of this world is iudged.

g When they shall know that I (whome they called the carpenters sonne, and willed to come downe from the crosse) am the very sonne of God which haue ouercome all the powers of hell, and reigne ouer all, Ephes. 1.19, 20.

12 I haue yet h many things to say vnto you, but ye cannot beare them nowe.

h These things are conteined in the doctrine of the Apostles which onely is sufficient.

13 Howbeit, when hee is come which is the Spirit of trueth, hee will leade you into all trueth: for hee shall not speake of himselfe, but whatsoeuer he shall heare, shall he speake, and he wil shew you the things i to come.

i As touching the spirituall kingdome of God: For the Apostles knewe not that, till after the resurrection.

14 Hee shall glorifie mee: for he shall receiue of mine, and shall shewe it vnto you.

15 All things that the Father hath, are mine: therefore sayd I, that he shall take of mine, and shewe it vnto you.

16 k A little while, and ye shall not see me: and againe a little while, and ye shall see me: for I l goe to my Father.

k Mine absence shall not bee long: for I will sende you the holy Ghost, who shall remaine with you for euer.

l From death I passe to glory, and so will I indue you with mine heauenly vertue.

17 Then said some of his disciples among themselues, What is this that he saith vnto vs, A little while, and ye shall not see me, and againe, a litle while, and ye shall see me, and, For I goe to my Father?

18 They sayde therefore, What is this that he sayth, A litle while? wee knowe not what he sayth.

19 Nowe Iesus knew that they would aske him, and sayd vnto them, Doe yee enquire among your selues, of that I sayd, A litle while, and yee shall not see me: and againe, a litle while, and ye shall see me?

20 Verely, verely I say vnto you, that ye shall weepe and lament, and the world shall reioyce: and ye shall sorowe, but your sorowe shalbe turned to ioy.

21 A woman when she trauaileth, hath sorowe, because her houre is come: but as soone as she is deliuered of the childe, she remembreth no more the anguish, for ioy that a man is borne into the world.

22 And ye now therefore are in sorowe: but I will see you m againe, & your hearts shall reioyce, and your ioy shall n no man take from you.

m By the power and vertue of the holy Ghost. n For it shall be grounded vpon my resurrection and the grace of the holy Ghost.

23 And in that day shall ye aske me o nothing. * Verily, verily I say vnto you, whatsoeuer yee shall aske the Father in my Name, he will giue it you.

o For yee shall haue perfect knowledge, and shal no more doubt as ye were wont. Chap.14.13. matt.7.7. and 21.22. mar.11.24. luke 11.9. iames 1.5.

24 Hitherto haue ye asked p nothing in my Name: aske, and ye shall receiue, that your ioy may be full.

p In respect of that, that you shal obteine, if you aske in faith.

25 These things haue I spoken vnto you in parables: but the time will come, when I shall no more speake to you in parables: but I shall shewe you plainely of the Father.

26 At that day shal ye aske in my name, and I say not vnto you, that I will q pray vnto the Father for you.

27 For the Father himselfe loueth you, because ye haue loued me, * and haue beleeued that I came out from God.

28 I am come out from the Father, and came into the world: againe I leaue the world, and goe to the Father.

29 His disciples sayd vnto him, Lo, now speakest thou plainely, and thou speakest no parable.

30 Nowe knowe wee that thou knowest all things, and needest not that any man should aske thee. By this we beleeue, that thou art come out from God.

31 Iesus answered them, Doe you beleeue nowe?

32 * Beholde, the houre commeth, and is already come, that ye shalbe scattered euery man into his owne, and shal leaue me alone: but I am not r alone: for the Father is with mee.

33 These things haue I spoken vnto you, that s in mee yee might haue peace: in the world ye shall haue affliction, but be of good comfort: I haue ouercome the world.

q Christ denieth not that he is the Mediatour, but sheweth that they shall obteine their request without difficultie or any paine. Chap. 17. 8.

Matth. 26. 31. marke 14. 27.

r Although men forsake Christ, yet is hee no whit diminished: for he and his Father are one.

s We haue rest & comfort when we are truely graffed in Christ.

CHAP. XVII.

1 The prayer of Christ vnto his Father, both for himselfe and his Apostles, and also for all such as receiue the truth.

THese things spake Iesus, and lift vp his eyes to heauen, and sayde, Father, the houre is come: glorifie thy Sonne, that thy Sonne also may glorifie thee,

2 * As thou hast giuen him a power ouer all flesh, that he should giue eternall life to all b them that thou hast giuen him.

3 And this is life eternall, that they knowe thee to be the onely very God, and whome thou hast sent, Iesus c Christ.

4 I haue d glorified thee on the earth: I haue finished the worke which thou gauest me to doe.

5 And nowe glorifie mee, thou Father, with thine owne selfe, with the glory which I had with thee before the world was.

6 I haue declared thy Name vnto the men which thou gauest me out of the world: e thine they were, and thou gauest them me, and they haue kept thy word.

7 Nowe they know that all things whatsoeuer thou hast giuen me, are of thee.

8 For I haue giuen vnto them ỳ words, which thou gauest me; and they haue receiued them, * and haue knowen surely that I came out from thee, and haue beleeued that thou hast sent me.

9 I pray for them: I pray not for f the world, but for them which thou hast giuen me: for they are thine.

10 And all mine are thine, and thine are mine, and I am glorified in them.

11 And now am I no more in the world, but these are in the world, and I come to thee. Holy Father, keepe them in thy Name, euen them whome thou hast giuen me, that they may be g one, as we are.

12 While I was with them in ỳ world, I kept them in thy Name: those that thou gauest me, haue I kept, and none of them is lost, but the h childe of perdition, that the * Scripture might be fulfilled.

13 And nowe come I to thee, and these things speake I in the world, that they might haue my ioy fulfilled in themselues.

14 I haue giuen them thy worde, and the world hath hated them, because they are i not of the world, as I am not of the world.

15 I pray not that thou shouldest take them out of the world, but that thou keepe them from euill.

16 They are not of the world, as I am not of the world.

17 ‖ k Sanctifie them with thy trueth: thy worde is trueth.

18 As thou diddest send mee into the world, so haue I sent them into the world.

19 And for their sakes sanctifie I my selfe, that they also may bee l sanctified through the trueth.

20 I pray not for these alone, but for them also which shal beleeue in me, through their worde, 21 That they all may be one, as thou, O Father, art in me, and I in thee: euen that they may be also one in vs, that the m world may beleeue that thou hast sent me.

22 And the glory that thou gauest me, I n haue giuen them, that they may be one, as we are one,

23 I in them, and thou in mee, that they may be made perfite in one, and that the world may knowe that thou hast sent mee, and hast loued them, as thou hast loued me.

24 * Father, I will that they which thou hast giuen me, be o with mee euen where I am, that they may beholde my glory, which thou hast giuen me: for thou louedst mee before the foundation of the world.

25 O righteous Father, the world also hath not knowen thee, but I haue knowen thee, and these haue knowen, that thou hast sent me.

26 And I haue declared vnto them thy Name, and will declare it, that the loue wherewith thou hast loued mee, may be in them, and I in p them.

g That they may be ioyned in vnitie of faith and spirit.

h He was so called, not onely for that he perished, but because God had appointed and ordeined him to this ende, Acts. 1. 16, 18. and 4 27, 28. Psal. 109. 7.

i But are separated by the spirit of regeneration.

k Renue them with thine heauenly grace, that they onely may seeke thy will.

l Which thing declareth that Christes holinesse is ours.

m That the infidels may by experience be conuicted to confesse my glory.

n I haue shewed them the example and paterne of perfite felicity Chap. 12. 26.

o That they may profit, and growe vp in such sort, that in the ende they may enioy the eternall glory with me.

p For without him we cannot comprehend the loue wherewith God loueth vs.

CHAP. XVIII.

3 Christ is betrayed. 9 The wordes of his mouth smite the officers to the ground. 10 Peter smiteth off Malchus eare. 13 Iesus is brought before Annas and Caiaphas. 25 Where Peter denieth him. 36 He telleth Pilate what his kingdome is.

WHen Iesus had spoken these things, a hee went forth with his disciples ouer the b brooke * Cedron, where was a garden, into the which he entred, and his disciples.

2 And Iudas which betrayed him, knew also the place: c for Iesus oft times resorted thither with his disciples.

a Which was a deepe valley through ỳ which a streame ran after a great raine. 1. King. 15. 13. matth. 26. 36. mar. 14. 32. luke 22. 39.

Matt. 26. 47. mar. 14. 43. luke 22. 47.

3 *Iudas then after hee had receiued a [b] bande of men and officers of the high Priestes, and of the Pharises, came thither with lanternes, and torches, and weapons.

4 Then Iesus, knowing all things that shoulde come vnto him, went forth and said vnto them, Whom seeke ye?

5 They answered him, Iesus of Nazaret. Iesus said vnto them, I am he. Nowe Iudas also which betrayed him, stoode with them.

6 Assoone then as hee had sayde vnto them, I am he, they went backwards, and fell to the ground.

7 Then he asked them againe, Whome seeke ye? And they said, Iesus of Nazaret.

8 Iesus answered, I said vnto you, that I am he: therefore if ye seeke me, let these goe their way.

9 This was that the word might be fulfilled which he spake, *[c] Of them which thou gauest me, haue I lost none.

Chap. 17. 12.

b The which he had obteined of the gouernour of the temple.

c He both spareth their bodies and also saueth their soules.

10 Then Simon Peter hauing a sword, drew it, and smote the hie Priests seruant, and cut off his right eare. Nowe the seruants name was Malchus.

11 Then said Iesus vnto Peter, Put vp thy sword into the sheath: shall I not drinke of the cup which my Father hath [g] geuen me?

12 Then the bande and the captaine, and the officers of the Iewes tooke Iesus, and bound him,

13 And led him away to *[d] Annas first (for hee was father in lawe to Caiaphas, which was the hie Priest [e] that same yeere)

Luke 3. 2.

d Who sent Christ vnto Caiaphas the hie Priest bound.

e Although this office was for terme of life by Gods ordinance, yet the ambition and dissention of the Iewes caused the Romanes from time to time to change it either for bribery or fauour.

14 *And Caiaphas was hee, that gaue counsell to the Iewes, that it was expedient that one man should die for the people.

Chap. 11. 50. Matth. 26. 58. mar. 14. 54. luke 22. 54.

15 ¶ *Nowe Simon Peter followed Iesus, and another disciple, and that disciple was knowen of the hie Priest: therefore hee went in with Iesus into the hall of the hie Priest.

16 But Peter stoode at the doore without. Then went out [h] other disciple, which was knowen vnto the high Priest, and spake to her that kept the doore, & brought in Peter.

17 Then sayd the maid that kept [h] doore, vnto Peter, Art not thou also one of this mans disciples? he sayd, I am not.

18 And the seruants and officers stoode there, which had made a fire of coales: for it was colde, and they warmed themselues. And Peter also stoode among them, and warmed himselfe.

19 ¶ The high Priest then asked Iesus of his disciples, and of his doctrine.

20 Iesus answered him, I spake [f] openly to the worlde: I euer taught in the Synagogue and in the Temple, whither the Iewes resort continually, and in secrete haue I sayd nothing.

f That is, frankly and plainely.

21 Why askest thou me? aske them which heard me what I sayd vnto them: beholde, they knowe what I sayd.

22 When hee had spoken these thinges, one of the officers which stood by, smote Iesus with his rod, saying, Answerest thou the hie Priest so?

23 Iesus answered him, If I haue euill spoken, beare witnesse of the euill: but if I haue well spoken, why smitest thou me?

24 ¶ Nowe Annas had [g] sent him bound vnto Caiaphas the hie Priest)

Matth. 26. 57. mar. 14. 53. luke 22. 54.

g After that Caiaphas had first sent him to him.

25 *And Simon Peter stoode and warmed himselfe, and they sayde vnto him, Art not thou also of his disciples? He denied it, and sayd, I am not.

26 One of the seruants of the hie Priest, his cousin whose eare Peter smote off, sayde, Did not I see thee in the garden with him?

Mat. 26. 69, 70. mar. 14. 67. luke 22. 55, 56, 57.

27 Peter then denied againe, and immediatly the cocke crewe.

28 ¶ *Then led they Iesus from Caiaphas into the common hall. Nowe it was morning, and they themselues went not into the common hall, least they shoulde bee *defiled, but that they might eate the Passeouer.

Matt. 27. 2. mar. 15. 1. luke 23. 1.

Actes 10. 28. and 11. 3.

29 Pilate then went out vnto them, and sayde, What accusation bring yee against this man?

30 They answered and sayd vnto him, If he were not an euill doer, we would not haue deliuered him vnto thee.

31 Then sayde Pilate vnto them, Take [h] yee him, and iudge him after your owne Lawe. Then the Iewes sayd vnto him, It is not [i] lawfull for vs to put any man to death.

h He spake this disdainefully, because they were so bent against all right and equitie.

i As if they should say, Thou wilt not suffer vs to doe it: for he knewe that it was not permitted to them by the Romanes to punish with death.

32 It was that the *worde of Iesus might be fulfilled which he spake, signifying what death he should die.

Matt. 20. 19. Matth. 27. 11. mar. 15. 2. luke 23. 3.

33 *So Pilate entred into the common hall againe, and called Iesus, and said vnto him, Art thou the King of the Iewes?

34 Iesus answered him, Sayest thou that of thy selfe, or did other tel it thee of me?

35 Pilate answered, Am I a Iewe? Thine owne nation, and the high Priests haue deliuered thee vnto mee. What hast thou done?

36 Iesus answered, My kingdome is not of this [k] world: if my kingdome were of this world, my seruants would surely fight, that I should not be deliuered to the Iewes: But nowe is my kingdome not from hence.

k It standeth not in strength of men nor in worldly defence.

37 Pilate then sayd vnto him, Art thou a King then? Iesus answered, Thou sayest that I am a King: for this cause am I borne, and for this cause came I into the world, that I should beare witnesse vnto the trueth: euery one that is of the trueth, heareth my voyce.

38 Pilate sayde vnto him, [l] What is trueth? And when he had sayd that, he went out againe vnto the Iewes, and sayd vnto them, I finde in him no cause at all.

l This was a mocking and disdainefull question.

Matth. 27. 15. marke 15. 6. luke 23. 17.

39 *But you haue a [m] custome, that I should deliuer you one loose at the Passeouer: will ye then that I loose vnto you the King of the Iewes?

m This was one of their blinde abuses: for the Lawe of God gaue no libertie to quit a wicked trespasser.

40 *Then cryed they all againe, saying, Not him, but Barabbas: nowe this Barabbas was a murtherer.

Actes 3. 14.

CHAP. XIX.

1 When Pilate could not asswage the rage of the Iewes against Christ, hee deliuereth him vp with his his superscription to be hanged betweene two theeues. 23 They cast lottes for his garments. 26 He commendeth his mother vnto Iohn, 28 Calleth for drinke, 33 Dieth,and his side is pearced,& taken downe from the crosse. 38 He is buried.

Matt.27.29. mar.15.16,17.

THen * Pilate tooke Iesus and a scourged him.

a He thought to haue pacified the furie of the Iewes by some indifferent correction.

2 And the souldiers platted a crowne of thornes, and put it on his head, and they put on him a purple garment,

3 And sayde, Haile, King of the Iewes. And they smote him with their roddes.

4 Then Pilate went foorth againe, and said vnto them, Behold, I bring him foorth to you, that ye may knowe, that I finde no fault in him at all.

5 Then came Iesus foorth wearing a crowne of thornes, and a purple garment. And Pilate sayde vnto them, b Beholde the man.

b He spake in mockerie, because Christ called himselfe King.

6 Then when the hie Priestes and officers sawe him, they cryed, saying, Crucifie, crucifie him. Pilate said vnto them, Take ye him and crucifie him: for I finde no fault in him.

7 The Iewes answered him, We haue a lawe, and by our lawe hee ought to die, because hee made himselfe the c Sonne of God.

c Christ was in deede the Sonne of God, and therefore might iustly call himselfe so without breach of the Lawe: wherefore their coloured accusation was falsly applied.

8 ¶ When Pilate then heard that word, he was the more afraid,

9 And went againe into the common hall, and said vnto Iesus, Whence art thou? But Iesus gaue him none answere.

10 Then saide Pilate vnto him, Speakest thou not vnto me? Knowest thou not that I haue power to crucifie thee, and haue power to loose thee?

11 Iesus answered, Thou couldest haue no d power at all against mee, except it were giuen thee from aboue: therefore hee that deliuered me vnto thee, hath the greater sinne.

d Hereby he sheweth him, that he ought not to abuse his office and authoritie.

12 From thencefoorth Pilate sought to loose him, but the Iewes cried, saying, If thou deliuer him, thou art not Cesars friende: for whosoeuer maketh himselfe a King, speaketh against Cesar.

13 ¶ When Pilate heard that worde, he brought Iesus foorth, and sate downe in the iudgement seate in a place called the e Pauement, and in Hebrewe, Gabbatha.

e A place somewhat high and raised vp.

14 And it was the Preparation of the Passeouer, and about the f sixth houre: and hee sayde vnto the Iewes, Beholde your King.

f Which was midday.

15 But they cryed, Away with him, away with him, crucifie him. Pilate sayde vnto them, Shall I crucifie your King? The high Priestes answered, We haue no King but Cesar.

16 Then deliuered he him vnto them, to be crucified. * And they tooke Iesus, and led him away.

Mat.27.32. mar.15.21. luke 23.26.

17 And he bare his crosse, and came into a place named of dead mens skulles, which is called in Hebrewe, g Golgotha:

g Which was the place of execution.

18 Where they crucified him, and two other with him, on either side one, and Iesus in the middes.

19 ¶ And Pilate wrote also a title, and put it on the crosse, and it was written, IESVS OF NAZARET THE KING OF THE IEWES.

20 This title then read many of the Iewes: for the place where Iesus was crucified, was neere to the citie: and it was written in h Hebrewe, Greeke, and Latin.

h Because all nations might vnderstand it.

21 Then sayde the high Priests of the Iewes to Pilate, Write not, the King of the Iewes, but that he sayde, I am King of the Iewes.

22 Pilate answered, What I haue written, I haue written.

23 ¶ Then the * souldiers, when they had crucified Iesus, tooke his garments, and made foure partes, to euery souldier a part, and his coate: and the coate was without seame, wouen from the toppe throughout.

Matt.27.35. marke 15.24. luke 23.24.

24 Therefore they sayde one to another, Let vs not deuide it, but cast lottes for it, whose it shalbe. This was that the i scripture might be fulfilled, which saith, * They parted my garments among them, and on my coate did cast lottes. So the Souldiers did these things in deede.

i That which was prefigured in Dauid, was accomplished in Iesus Christ. Psal.22.18.

25 ¶ Then stood by the crosse of Iesus his mother, and his mothers sister, Marie the wife of ‖ Cleopas, and Marie Magdalene.

‖ Or, Clopas.

26 And when Iesus sawe his mother, and the disciple standing by, whome he loued, he sayd vnto his mother, Woman, beholde thy sonne.

Psalm.69.22.

27 Then sayd he to the disciple, Beholde thy mother: and from that houre, the disciple tooke her home vnto him.

28 ¶ After, when Iesus knewe that all things were performed, that the * Scripture might be fulfilled, he sayd, I thirst.

k Or fastened it vpon an hysope stalke.

29 And there was set a vessell full of vineger: and they filled a sponge with vineger, and k put it about l an hysope stalke, and put it to his mouth.

l It may appeare that the crosse was not hie, seeing a man might reach Christes mouth with an hysope stalke, which as appeareth, 1.Kin.4.3 was the lowest among hearbes, as the cedar was highest among trees.

30 Nowe when Iesus had receiued of the vineger, hee sayd, m It is finished, and bowed his head, and gaue vp the Ghost.

m Mans saluation is perfected by the onely sacrifice of Christ, and all ȳ ceremonies of the Law are ended.

31 The Iewes then (because it was the Preparation, that the bodies should not remaine vpon the crosse on the Sabbath day: for that Sabbath was an n hie day) besought Pilate that their legs might be broken, and that they might be taken downe.

n Because ȳ day of the Passeouer fell on the Sabbath day.

32 Then came the souldiers, and brake the legs of the first, and of the other, which was crucified with Iesus.

33 But when they came to Iesus, and sawe that he was dead already, they brake not his legs.

34 But one of the souldiers with a speare o pearced his side, and foorthwith came there out blood and water.

o Which declareth that he was dead in deede, & he rose againe from death to life. Exod.12.46. numb.9.12. Zech.12,10.

35 And he that sawe it, bare record, and his record is true: and he knoweth that he sayth true, that ye might beleeue it.

36 For these things were done, that the Scripture should be fulfilled, * Not a bone of him shalbe broken.

37 And againe another Scripture saith, * They shall see him whome they haue thrust thrust through.

38 *And after these things, Ioseph of Arimathea, (who was a disciple of Iesus, but p secretly for feare of the Iewes) besought Pilate that hee might take downe the body of Iesus. And Pilate gaue him licence. Hee came then and tooke Iesus body.

39 And there came* also Nicodemus (which first came to Iesus by night) and brought of myrrhe and aloes mingled together about an hundreth pound.

40 q Then tooke they the body of Iesus, and wrapped it in linnen clothes with the odours, as the manner of the Iewes is to bury.

41 And in that place where Iesus was crucified, was a garden, and in the garden a new sepulchre, wherein was neuer man yet laide.

42 There then laide they Iesus, because of the Iewes Preparation day, for the sepulchre was neere.

*Mat.27.57. mar.15.42,43. luke 23.50,51.

p That is to say, before Christes death, but now he declareth himselfe manifestly.

2 Then she ranne, and came to Simon Peter, and to the other disciple, whom Iesus loued, and saide vnto them, They haue taken away the Lorde out of the sepulchre, and wee knowe not where they haue laide him.

3 Peter therefore went foorth, and the other disciple, and they came vnto the sepulchre.

4 So they ran both together, but the other disciple did outrunne Peter, and came first to the sepulchre.

5 And he stouped downe, and sawe the linnen clothes lying: yet went he not in.

6 Then came Simon Peter following him, and went into the sepulchre, and sawe the linnen clothes lie, 9 For as yet they knewe not the Scripture, that he must rise againe from the dead.

12 And sawe two Angels in white, sitting, the one at the head, & the other at the feete, where the body of Iesus had layen.

13 And they said vnto her, Woman, why weepest thou? She sayde vnto them, They haue taken away my Lorde, and I knowe not where they haue laid him.

14 When shee had thus said, she turned her selfe backe, and saw Iesus standing, and knew not that it was Iesus.

15 Iesus sayth vnto her, Woman, why weepest thou? whom seekest thou? Shee supposing that he had bene the gardiner, said vnto him, Sir, if thou hast borne him hence, tell me where thou hast layde him, and I will take him away.

16 Iesus saith vnto her, Marie. She turned her selfe, and said vnto him, Rabboni, which is to say, Master.

17 Iesus saith vnto her, Touch me not: for I am not yet d ascended to my Father, but go to my brethren, and say vnto them, I ascend vnto my Father, and to your Father, and to my God, and your e God.

d Because she was too much addicted to the corporall presence, Christ teacheth her to lift vp her minde by faith into heauen, where only after his Ascension he remaineth, and where we sit with him at the right hand of the father.

19 ¶* The same day then at night, which was the first day of the weeke, and when the doores were shut where the disciples were assembled for feare of the Iewes, came Iesus and stood in the midst, and said to them, h Peace be vnto you.

g So that no man opened him the doores, but by his diuine power he caused them to open of their owne accorde, as of Peter is read, Act.5.19. and 12.10.

20 And when he had so sayd, hee shewed vnto them his handes, and his side. Then were the disciples glad, when they had seene the Lord.

21 Then sayde Iesus to them againe, Peace be vnto you: as my Father sent me, so send I you.

22 And when he had said that, he i breathed on them, and said vnto them, Receiue the holy Ghost.

24 ¶ But Thomas one of the twelue, called Didymus, was not with them when Iesus came.

25 The other disciples therefore said vnto him, We haue seene the Lord: but he sayd vnto them, Except I see in his handes the ‖ print of the nailes, and put my finger into the ‖ print of the nailes, and put mine hand into his side, I will not beleeue it.

‖Or, plyce.

26 ¶ And eight dayes after againe his disciples were within, and Thomas with them. Then came Iesus when the doores were shut, and stood in the mids, and sayd, Peace be vnto you.

27 After, sayd he to Thomas, Put thy finger here, and see mine handes, & put forth thine hand, and put it into my side, and bee not faithlesse, but faithfull.

28 Then Thomas answered, and sayde vnto him, Thou art my Lord, and my God.

29 Iesus sayd vnto him, Thomas, because thou hast seene me, thou beleeuest: blessed are they that haue * not seene, and haue beleeued.

30 ¶* And many other signes also did Iesus in the presence of his disciples, which are not written in this booke.

31 But these things are written, that ye might beleeue, that Iesus is the Christ the Sonne of God, and that in beleeuing yee might haue life through his Name.

CHAP. XXI.

1 Christ appeareth to his disciples againe. 15 He commandeth Peter earnestly to feede his sheepe. 18 Hee forewarneth him of his death. 25 Of Christs manifold miracles.

AFter these things, Iesus shewed himselfe againe to his disciples at the ‖sea of Tiberias: and thus shewed he himselfe.

‖Or, lake of Genesareth.

2 There were together Simon Peter, and Thomas, which is called Didymus, and Nathanael of Cana in Galile, and the sonnes of Zebedeus, and two other of his disciples.

3 Simon Peter said vnto them, I go a fishing. They said vnto him, Wee also will goe with thee. They went their way, and entred into a shippe straightway, and that night caught they nothing.

4 But when the morning was nowe come, Iesus stood on the shore: neuertheles the disciples knew not that it was Iesus.

‖Or, children.

5 Iesus then said vnto them, ‖Sirs, haue ye any meate? They answered him, No.

6 Then he said vnto them, Cast out the net on the right side of the shippe, and yee shall finde. So they [a] cast out, and they were not able at all to drawe it, for the multitude of fishes.

7 Therefore said the disciple whom Iesus loued, vnto Peter, It is the Lord. When Simon Peter heard that it was the Lord, he girded his [b] coate to him (for he was naked) and cast himselfe vnto the sea.

8 But the other disciples came by ship (for they were not far from land, but about two hundreth cubites) and they drewe the net with fishes.

9 As soone then as they were come to land, they sawe hote coales, and fish laide thereon, and bread.

10 Iesus said vnto them, Bring of the fishes, which ye haue now caught.

11 Simon Peter stepped forth and drew the net to land full of great fishes, an hundreth, fiftie and three: and albeit they were so many, yet was not the net broken.

12 Iesus saide vnto them, Come, and dine. And none of the disciples durst aske him, Who art thou, seeing they knewe that he was the Lord.

13 Iesus then came, and tooke bread, and gaue them, and fish likewise.

14 This is nowe the third time that Iesus shewed himselfe to his disciples, after that he was risen againe from the dead.

15 ¶ So when they had dined, Iesus said to Simon Peter, Simon the sonne of Iona, [c] louest thou me more then these? He said vnto him, Yea Lord, thou knowest that I loue thee. Hee saide vnto him, Feede my lambes.

16 Hee saide to him againe the second time, Simon the sonne of Iona, louest thou mee? Hee saide vnto him, Yea Lorde, thou knowest that I loue thee. He said vnto him, Feede my sheepe.

17 Hee saide vnto him the [d] third time, Simon the sonne of Iona, louest thou mee? Peter was sory because hee saide to him the third time, Louest thou me: and saide vnto him, Lord, thou knowest all thinges: thou knowest that I loue thee. Iesus saide vnto him, Feede my sheepe.

18 Verely, verely I say vnto thee, Whe thou wast yong, thou girdedst thy selfe and walkedst whither thou wouldest: but when thou shalt be olde, thou shalt stretch foorth thine hands, and another shall [e] gird thee, and leade thee whither thou wouldest not.

19 And this spake he, signifying by what death hee should glorifie God. And when he had layde this, he layd to him, Followe me.

20 Then Peter turned about, and sawe the disciple whom Iesus loued, following, which had also * leaned on his breast at supper, and had sayde, Lorde, which is he that betrayeth thee?

21 Whe Peter therefore saw him, he said to Iesus, Lord, what shall this man doe?

22 Iesus sayd vnto him, If I will that he tarie till I come, what is it to thee? followe thou me.

23 Then went this word abroad among the brethren, that this disciple should not die. Yet Iesus sayd not to him, He shall not die: but if I will that hee tary till I come, what is it to thee?

24 This is that disciple, which testifieth of these things, and wrote these things, and we knowe that his testimonie is true.

25 * Nowe there are also many other things which Iesus did, the which if they should be written euery one, [f] I suppose the world could not conteine the bookes that should be written. Amen.

a Albeit they knewe him not, yet they followed his counsell, because they had all night taken paines in vaine.

b It was some linnen garment, which fishers vse to weare, which being trussed vnto him, couered his nether parts, and also letted not his swimming.

c The Minister cannot wel teach his congregation, except hee loue Christ effectually, which loue is not in them that feede not the flocke.

d Because Peter shoulde be established in his office of an Apostle, Christ caused him by these three times confessing, to wipe away the shame of his three times denying.

e Instead of a girdle, thou shalt be tied with bands and coardes: and whereas nowe thou goest at libertie, then thou shalt be drawen to punishment, when thy flesh shall after asore resist.

The Actes of the holy Apostles, written by Luke the Euangelist.

THE ARGVMENT.

CHrist, after his ascension, performed his promise to his Apostles, and sent them the holy Ghost, declaring thereby, that he was not only mindful of his Church, but woulde bee the heade and maintainer thereof for euer. Wherein also his mightie power appeareth, who notwithstanding that Satan and the worlde resisted neuer so much against this noble worke, yet by a fewe simple men of no reputation, replenished all the world with the founde of his Gospel. And here, in the beginning of the Church, and in the increase thereof, wee may plainely perceiue the practise and malice which Satan continually vseth to suppresse and ouerthrow the Gospell: he raiseth conspiracies, tumultes, commotions, persecutions, slanders, and all kinde of crueltie. Againe we shall here beholde the prouidence of God, who ouerthroweth his enemies enterprises, deliuereth his Church from the rage of tyrants, strengtheneth and encourageth his most valiantly and constantly to follow their captaine Christ, leauing as it were by this historie a perpetuall memorie to the Church, that the crosse is so ioyned with the Gospel, that they are fellowes inseparable, and that the ende of one affliction, is but the beginning of another. Yet neuerthelesse God turneth the troubles, persecutions, imprisonings and tentations of his, to a good issue, giuing them as it were, in sorow, ioy: in bonds, freedome: in prison, deliuerance: in trouble, quietnesse: in death, life. Finally, this booke conteyneth many excellent sermons of the Apostles and disciples, as touching the death, resurrection, and ascension of Christ. The mercie of God. Of the grace, and remission of sinne through Iesus Christ. Of the blessed immortalitie. An exhortation to the ministers of Christes flocke. Of repentance, and feare of God, with other principall pointes of our faith: so that this onely historie in a maner may be sufficient to instruct a man in all true doctrine and religion.

CHAP. I.

7 The wordes of Christ and his Angels to the Apostles. 9 His ascension. 14 Wherein the Apostles are occupied til the holy Ghost be sent. 26 And of the election of Matthias.

THe former treatise, O Theophilus, of all that Iesus beganne to a doe, and teach,

2 Untill the day, that hee was taken vp, after that hee through the holy Ghost, had giuen b commandements vnto the c Apostles, whome he had chosen:

3 To whome also hee presented himselfe aliue after that hee had suffered, by many infallible tokens, being seene of them by the space of fourtie dayes, and speaking of those thinges which appertaine to the d kingdome of God.

4 And when hee had e gathered them together, hee commaunded them, that they should not depart from Ierusalem, but to waite for the promise of the father, * which (said he) ye haue heard of me.

5 * For Iohn in deede baptized with water, but ye shall be baptized with the f holy Ghost within these fewe dayes.

6 When they therefore were come together, they asked of him, saying, Lorde, wilt thou g at this time restore the kingdome to Israel?

7 And hee said vnto them, It is not for you to knowe the h times, or the seasons, which the Father hath put in his owne power,

8 But ye shall receiue power of the holy Ghost, when he shall come on you: and ye shall be i witnesses vnto me both in Ierusalem, and in all Iudea, and in Samaria, and vnto the k vttermost part of the earth.

9 *And whe he had spoken these things, while they beheld, he was l taken vp: for a cloude tooke him vp out of their sight.

10 And while they looked stedfastly toward heaven, as hee went, beholde, m two men stoode by them in white apparell, 11 Which also said, Yee men of Galile, why stand yee n gasing into heauen? This Iesus which is taken vp from you into heauen, shal o so come, as ye haue seene him goe into heauen.

12 ¶ Then returned they vnto Ierusalem from the mount that is called the mount of Olives, which is neere to Ierusalem, conteyning a p Sabbath dayes iourney.

13 And when they were come in, they went vp into an vpper chamber, where abode both Peter, & Iames, and Iohn, and Andrewe, Philip, and Thomas, Bartlemewe, and Matthewe, Iames the sonne of Alpheus, and Simon Zelotes, and Iudas Iames brother.

14 These also continued with one q accorde in r prayer and supplication with the ‖ women, and Marie the mother of Iesus, and with his brethren.

15 ¶ And in those dayes Peter stoode vp in the middes of the disciples, and saide, (nowe the number of ‖ names that were in one place, were about an hundreth and twentie.)

16 Ye men and brethren, this s Scripture must needes haue bene fulfilled, which the * holy Ghost by the mouth of Dauid spake before of Iudas, which was * guide to them that tooke Iesus.

18 He therefore hath purchased a fielde with the t rewarde of iniquitie: and when he * had throwen downe himselfe headlong, he brast asunder in the middes, and all his bowels gushed out.

19 And it is knowen vnto all the inhabitants of Ierusalem, in so much that that fielde is called in their owne language, Aceldama, that is, The fielde of blood.

20 For it is written in the Booke of Psalmes, *Let his habitation be voyde, and let no man dwell therein: *also, Let another take his ‖ charge.

21 Wherefore, of these men which haue companied with vs, all the time that the Lord Iesus was ‡ conuersant among vs, 22 Beginning from the Baptisme of Iohn, vnto the day that hee was taken vp from vs, must one of them bee made a witnesse with vs of his u resurrection.

CHAP. II.

3 The Apostles hauing receiued the holy Ghost, make their hearers astonished. 14 When Peter had stopped the mouthes of the mockers, he shewed by the visible graces of the holy Spirit that Christ is come. 41 He baptizeth a great many that were conuerted. 42 The godly exercise, charitie, and diuers vertues of the faithfull.

AND when the a day of Pentecost was come, they were b all with one accorde in one place.

2 And * suddenly there came a sound frō heauen, as of a rushing & mightie c winde, and it filled all the house where they sate.

3 And there appeared vnto them clouen d tongues, like e fire, and it sate vpon eache of them.

4 And they were all filled with the holy Ghost, and began to speake with other tongues, as ‡ the spirite gaue them ‖ vtterance.

5 And there were dwelling at Jerusalem
Jewes, men that feared God, of euery nation vnder heauen.

6 Now when this was f noysed, ‡ multitude came together, & were astonied, because that euery man heard them speake his owne language.

7 And they wondered all, and marueiled, saying among themselues, Behold, are not all these which speake, of Galile?

8 How then heare wee euery man our speake in our owne tongues the wonderfull

12 They were all then amazed, & doubt-ted, saying one to another, What may this be?

13 And others k mocked, and said, They are full of ‖ newe wine.

14 ¶ But Peter standing with the eleuen, lift vp his voyce, and saide vnto them, Ye men of Judea, and yee all that inhabite Jerusalem, be this knowen vnto you, and hearken vnto my wordes.

15 For these are not drunken, as ye suppose, since it is but the third houre of the 16 But this is that, which was spoken by the l Prophet * Joel,

17 And it shall be in the last dayes, saith God, I will powre out of my spirit vpon all m flesh, and your sonnes, and your daughters shall prophecie, and your yong men shall see visions, and your n olde men shall cie.

fore that great and notable day of the Lorde

21 And it shal be, that * whosoeuer shall saued.

22 Ye men of Israel, heare these wordes, Jesus of Nazaret, a man approued of God among you with great workes, and wonders, and signes, which God did by him in the middes of you, as yee your selues also knowe:

23 Him, I say, haue ye taken by the hands of r the wicked, being deliuered by the ſ de-terminate counsell, and ‖ foreknowledge of God, and haue crucified and slaine:

24 Whome God hath raised vp, & loosed the t sorrowes of death, because it was vn-possible that he shoulde be holden of it.

25 For Dauid saith concerning him, * I beheld the Lord alwayes before mee: for hee is at my u right hand, that I should not be shaken.

26 Therefore did mine heart reioyce, & my tongue was glad, and moreouer also my flesh shall rest in x hope,

27 Because ‡ wilt not leaue my ‖ soule in 28 Thou hast shewed mee the y wayes

29 Men and brethren, I may boldely speake vnto you of the Patriarke Dauid,
* that he is both dead and buried, and his se-

30 Therefore, seeing he was a z Prophet, and knew that God had * sworne with an resurrection of Christ, that * his ‖ soule should not be left in a graue, neither his flesh should ‖ see corruption.

7 The lame is restored to his feete. 12 Peter preacheth Christ vnto the people.

NOwe Peter and John went vp together into the Temple, at the [a] ninth houre of prayer.

a Which is with vs three a clocke after noone, which was their euening sacrifice, at which the Apostles were present to teach that the shadowes of the Law were abolished by that Lambe that tooke away the sinnes of the world.

2 And a certaine man which was a creeple from his mothers wombe, was caried, whome they layde dayly at the gate of the Temple called Beautifull, to aske [b] almes of them that entred into the Temple.

3 Who seeing Peter and John, that they would enter into the Temple, desired to receiue an almes.

4 And Peter earnestly beholding him with John, said, Looke on vs.

5 And he gaue heede vnto them, trusting to receiue some thing of them.

6 Then saide Peter, Siluer and golde haue I none, but such as I [c] haue, that giue I thee: In the [d] Name of Iesus Christ of Nazaret, rise vp, and walke.

7 And he tooke him by the right hand, and lift him vp, and immediatly his feete and ankle bones receiued strength.

8 And he leaped vp, stoode, and walked, and entred with them into the Temple, walking and leaping, and praising God.

9 And all the people sawe him walke, and praysing God,

10 And they knewe him, that it was he which sate for the almes at the Beautifull gate of the Temple: and they were amazed, and sore astonied at that which was come vnto him.

11 ¶ And as the creeple which was healed, held Peter and John, all the people ran amazed vnto them in the porch which is called Salomons.

12 So when Peter sawe it, he answered vnto the people, Ye men of Israel, why marualle ye at this? or why looke yee so stedfastly on vs, as though by our owne [e] power or godlinesse, wee had made this man goe?

3 Peter and Iohn deliuered out of prison preach the Gospel boldly. 10 They confesse plainely the Name of Christ. 16 They are commanded to preach no more in that Name. 24 They pray for the good successe of the Gospel. 32 The encrease, vnitie, and charitie of the Church.

g Meaning, Priests, Elders, and gouernours.

h For to vphold the weight and force of the building.

AND as they spake vnto the people, the Priests and the a Captaine of the temple, and the Sadducees came vpon them,

2 Taking it grieuously that they taught the people, and preached in Iesus Name the b resurrection from the dead.

3 And they layde handes on them, and put them in holde, vntill the next day: for it was now euentide.

4 Howbeit, many of them which heard the word, beleeued, and the number of the men was about c fiue thousand.

5 ¶ And it came to passe on the morow, that their rulers, and Elders, and Scribes were gathered together at Ierusalem,

6 And Annas the chiefe Priest, & Caiaphas, & Iohn, & Alexander, and as many as were of the kinred of the hie Priests.

7 And when they had set them before them, they asked, By what power, or d in what Name haue ye done this?

8 Then Peter full of the e holy Ghost, said vnto them, Ye rulers of the people, and Elders of Israel,

9 Forasmuch as wee this day are examined of the f good deede done to the impotent man, to wit, by what meanes he is made whole,

10 Be it knowen vnto you all, and to all the people of Israel, that by the Name of Iesus Christ of Nazaret, whome yee haue crucified, whome God raised againe from the dead, euen by him doeth this man stand here before you, whole.

11 * This is the stone cast aside of you g builders, which is become the head of the h corner.

12 Neither is there saluation in any other: for among men there is giuen none other name i vnder heauen, whereby wee must be saued.

i That is, none other cause or meane.

13 Now when they saw the boldnesse of Peter and Iohn, and vnderstood that they were vnlearned men, and without knowledge, they marueiled, and knew them, that they had bene with Iesus:

14 And beholding also the man which was healed standing with them, they had nothing to say against it.

15 Then they commaunded them to goe aside out of the Councill, and k conferred among themselues, k The wicked full rage against Christ, though their owne conscience doe condemne them.

16 Saying, What shall wee do to these men? For surely a manifest signe is done by them, and it is openly knowen to al them that dwell in Ierusalem: and wee can not denie it.

17 But that it bee noysed no farther among the people, let vs threaten & charge them, that they speake hencefoorth to no man in this l Name.

l They gaue commandement to preach Christ no more.

18 So they called them, and commaunded them, that in m no wise they shoulde speake or teach in the name of Iesus.

m They preferre their authoritie to the ordinance of God.

19 But Peter and Iohn answered vnto them, and sayde, Whether it be right in the sight of God, to obey you rather then God, iudge ye.

n To the intent that we should beare witnes, and preach them.

20 For we cannot but speake the things which we haue n seene and heard.

o God hath put a ring thorow the wickeds nose, so that he slayeth them from their mischieuous purposes.

21 So they o threatned them, and let them go, and found nothing how to punish them, because of the people: for all men prayed God for that which was done.

p To encourage one another, and to glorifie God.

22 For the man was aboue fourty yeere old, on whom this miracle of healing was shewed.

23 Then assoone as they were let goe, they came to their p fellowes, and shewed all that the high Priestes and Elders had said vnto them.

q They ground their prayers vpon Gods promise, who had assured that he would enlarge the kingdome of Christ. Psal 2.1.

24 And when they heard it, they lift vp their voyces to God with one accord, and sayde, O Lord, thou art the God which hast made the heauen and the earth, the sea, and all things that are in them.

25 Which q by the mouth of thy seruant Dauid hast sayd, * Why did the Gentiles rage, and the people imagine vaine things?

r This is the verifying of the prophecie.

26 The kings of the earth assembled, and the rulers came together against the Lord, and against his Christ.

27 For r doubtlesse, against thine holy Sonne Iesus, whom thou hadst s anoynted, both Herode & Pontius Pilate, with the Gentiles and the people of Israel gathered themselues together, 28 To doe whatsoeuer thine t hand, and thy u counsell had determined before to be done.

x Assuage their rage and malice which they enterprise against thee.

29 And nowe, O Lorde, beholde their x threatnings, and y graunt vnto thy seruants with all boldnes to speake thy word, y They seeke not how to liue at ease, but whereby they may most glorifie God.

30 So that thou stretch forth thine hand, that healing, and signes, and wonders may bee done by the name of thine holy Sonne Iesus.

31 And when as they had prayed, the place was shaken where they were assembled z This was a signe of Gods presence and the performance of his promise.

assembled together, and they were all [z] filled with the holy Ghost, and they spake the word of God [a] boldly.

32 And the multitude of them that beleeued, were of one heart, and of one [b] soule: neither any of them saide, that any thing of that which he possessed, was his [c] owne, but they had all things [*] common.

33 And with great power gaue the Apostles witnesse of the resurrection of the Lord Iesus: and great grace was vpon them all.

34 Neither was there any among them, that [d] lacked: for as many as were possessours of landes or houses, solde them, and brought the price of the thinges that were solde,

35 And laide it downe at the Apostles feete, and it was distributed vnto euery man, [e] according as he had neede.

36 Also Ioses, which was called of the Apostles, Barnabas (that is by interpretation, the sonne of consolation) being a Leuite, and of the countrey of Cyprus, 37 Whereas he had land, sold it, and brought the money, and layde it downe at the Apostles feete.

CHAP. V.

5 The hypocrisie of Ananias and Saphira is punished. 12 Miracles are done by the Apostles. 17 They are taken, but the Angell of God bringeth them out of prison. 29 Their bolde confession before the Councell. 34 The counsel of Gamaliel. 40 The Apostles are beat, and reioyce in trouble.

BVt a certaine man named Ananias, with Saphira his wife, solde a possession,

2 And [a] kept away part of the price, his wife also being of counsell, and brought a certaine part, and layde it downe at the Apostles feete.

3 Then said Peter, Ananias, why hath Satan filled thine heart, that thou shouldest lie vnto the holy [b] Ghost, and keepe away part of the price of the possession?

4 Whiles it remained, [c] appertained it not vnto thee? and after it was sold, was it not in thine owne [d] power? how is it that thou hast conceiued this thing in thine heart? thou hast not lyed vnto men, but vnto God.

5 Nowe when Ananias heard these wordes, he fell downe, & gaue vp the Ghost. Then great feare came on all them that heard these things.

6 And the yong men rose vp, and tooke him vp, and caried him out, and buried him.

7 And it [e] came to passe about the space of three houres after, that his wife came in, ignorant of that which was done.

8 And Peter said vnto her, Tell me, sold ye the lande for so much? And she saide, Yea, for so much.

9 Then Peter said vnto her, [f] Why haue yee agreed together, to tempt the Spirit of the Lord? behold, the feete of them which haue buried thine husband, are at the doore, and shall cary thee out.

10 Then fell she downe straightway at his feete, & yeelded vp the ghost: & the yong men came in, and found her dead, and caried her out, and buried her by her husband.

11 And great feare came on all the Church, and on as many as heard these things.

12 Thus by the handes of the Apostles were many signes and wonders shewed among the people (and they were all with one accord in Solomons porch.

13 And of the others durst no man ioyne himselfe to them: neuertheless the people [h] magnified them.

14 Also the number of them that beleeued in the Lord, both of men and women, grewe more and more)

15 In so much that they brought the sicke into the streetes, and laide them on beds, and couches, that at the least way the shadowe of Peter, when he came by, might shadowe some of them.

16 There came also a multitude out of the cities rounde about vnto Ierusalem, bringing sicke folkes, and them which were vexed with vncleane spirits, who were all healed.

17 ¶ Then the chiefe Priest rose vp, and all they that were with him (which was the sect of the [i] Sadducees) and were full of [k] indignation, 18 And laid handes on the Apostles, and put them in the common prison.

19 But the Angel of the Lord by night opened the prison doores, & brought them foorth, and said, 20 Goe your way, and stand in the Temple, and speake to the people all the words of this life.

21 So when they heard it, they entred into the Temple early in the morning, and taught. And the chiefe Priest came, and they that were with him, and called the Councell together, and al the Elders of the children of Israel, and sent to the prison, to cause them to be brought.

22 But when the officers came, and found them not in the prison, they returned and tolde it,

23 Saying, Certainely wee founde the prison shut as sure as was possible, and the keepers [m] standing without before the doores: but when we had opened, we found no man within.

24 Then when the chiefe Priest, and the captaine of the Temple, and the hie Priestes heard these things, they doubted of them, whereunto this would growe.

25 Then came one and shewed them, saying, Behold, the men that yee put in prison, are standing in the Temple, and teach the people.

26 Then went the captaine with the officers, and brought them without violence (for they feared the people, least they should haue bene stoned)

27 And when they had brought them, they set them before the Councell, and the chiefe Priest asked them, f And to mocke him as if hee should not haue knowen your craftie fetch, which declareth that when men doe any thing of an euil conscience, they doe not onely pronounce the sentence of damnation vpon themselues, but also prouoke the wrath of God, because they doe proue, as it were purposely, whether God be righteous and almightie.

g Because of their owne euill consciences which made them to tremble: for they that were not assured of Gods mercies in Christ, were astonished at these his strange iudgements.
h That is, they gaue them great prayse.
i Which then were the chiefe among them.
k They were full of blinde zeale, emulation, and ielousie, in defence of their superstition.
l That is of the liuely doctrine, whereby the way to life is declared.
m So that there was no fraude nor deceite, nor negligence: but it liuely setteth foorth the power of God and his prouidence for his.

28 Saying, Did not wee straitly commaund you, that ye should not teach in this Name? and behold, ye haue filled [a] Ierusalem with your doctrine, and yee would bring this mans [o] blood vpon vs.

29 Then Peter and the Apostles answered, and saide, We ought rather to obey God then [p] men.

30 The * God of our Fathers hath raised vp Iesus, whome yee slew, and hanged on a tree.

31 Him hath God lift vp with his right hand, to bee a [q] prince and a [q] Sauiour, to giue repentance to Israel, and forgiuenesse of sinnes.

32 And wee are his witnesses concerning these things which we say; yea, [r] the holy Ghost, whom God hath giuen to them that obey [s] him.

33 Now when they heard it, they [t] brast foranger, and consulted to slay them.

34 Then stood there vp in the Council a certaine Pharise named Gamaliel, a doctour of the law, honoured of all the people, and commanded to put the Apostles forth a little space, 35 And said vnto them, Men of Israel, take heede to your selues, what yee intend to doe touching these men.

36 For before these times, rose vp [u] Theudas boasting himselfe, to whom resorted a number of men, about a foure hundreth, who was slaine: and they all which obeyed him, were scattered, and brought to nought.

37 After this man, rose vp [x] Iudas of Galile, in the dayes of the tribute, & drewe away much people after him: he also perished, and all that obeyed him, were scattered abroad.

38 And now I say vnto you, Refraine your selues from these men, and let them alone: for if this counsell, or this worke bee of men, it will come to nought:

39 But if it be of [a] God, ye cannot destroy it, lest ye bee found euen fighters against God.

40 And to him they agreed, and called the Apostles: and when they had beaten them, they commaunded that they shoulde not speake in the Name of Iesus, and let them goe.

41 So they departed from the Council, reioycing that they were counted worthie to suffer rebuke for his Name.

42 And dayly in the Temple, and from house to house they ceased not to teach, and preach Iesus Christ.

AND in those dayes, as the nomber of the disciples grewe, there arose a murmuring of the [a] Grecians towardes the Hebrewes, because their widowes were [b] neglected in the dayly ministring.

2 Then the twelue called the multitude of the disciples together, and said, It is not meete that wee should leaue the worde of God to serue the [c] tables.

3 Wherefore brethren, looke yee out among you seuen men of honest report, and full of the holy Ghost, and of wisdome, which we may appoint to this businesse.

4 And we will giue our selues continually to prayer, and to the ministration of the word.

5 And the saying pleased the whole multitude: and they chose Steuen a man ful of [d] faith and of the holy Ghost, and * Philip, and Prochorus, and Nicanor, and Timon, and Parmenas, and Nicolas a [e] proselyte of Antiochia, 8 ¶ Now Steuen ful of faith and power, did great wonders and miracles among the people.

9 Then there arose certaine of the [h] Synagogue, which are called Libertines, and Cyrenians, and of Alexandria, and of them of Cilicia, and of Asia, and disputed with Steuen.

THen saide the chiefe Priest, Are these things so?

2 And he saide, Ye [a] men, brethren, and fathers, hearken. The God of [b] glory appeared vnto our father Abraham, while he was in [c] Mesopotamia, before he dwelt in Charran, a Steuen was accused that he denied God, and therefore he is more diligent to purge this crime.

b He eby he is discerned from the false gods.
c He speaketh here of Mesopotamia, as it conteineth Babylon and Chaldea in it.

3 * And sayde vnto him, Come out of thy countrey, and from thy kinred, & come into the land, which I shall shew thee.

4 Then came he out of the lande of the Chaldeans, & dwelt in Charran. And after that his father was dead, God brought him from thence into this lande, wherein ye now dwell.

5 And hee gaue him none inheritance in it, no, not the breadth of a foot: yet he promised that hee would giue it to him for a possession, and to his seede after him, when as yet he had no childe.

6 But God spake thus, that his * seede should be a sojourner in a strange land, and that they should keepe it in bondage, and entreate it euill [d] foure hundreth yeres.

7 But the nation to whome they shalbe in bondage will I * iudge, saith God: and after that, they shall come forth and serue me in this place.

8 * He gaue him also the couenant of circumcision: and so Abraham begate * Isaac, and circumcised him the eight day: and Isaac begate * Jacob, and Jacob the twelue * Patriarks.

9 And the Patriarks mooued with enuie, solde * Joseph into Egypt: but God was [f] with him,

10 And deliuered him out of all his afflictions, and * gaue him fauour and wisdome in ỹ sight of Pharao king of Egypt, who made him gouernour of Egypt, and ouer his whole house.

11 ¶ Then came there a famine ouer all the land of Egypt and Canaan, and great affliction, that our fathers found no sustenance.

12 But when * Jacob heard that there was corne in Egypt, hee sent our fathers first.

13 * And at the second time, Joseph was knowen of his brethren, and Josephs kinred was made knowen vnto Pharao.

14 Then sent Joseph and called his father to be brought, and all his kinred, euen [g] threescore and fiftеene soules.

15 So * Jacob went downe into Egypt, and he * died, and our fathers, 16 And were remooued into * Sychem, and were put in the sepulchre, that [h] Abraham had bought * for money of the sonnes of Emor, sonne of Sychem.

17 But when the time of the promise drewe neere, which God had [i] sworne to Abraham, the people * grewe and multiplied in Egypt, 18 Till another king arose, which knew not Joseph.

19 The same dealt [i] subtilly with our kinred, and euill entreated our fathers, and made them to cast out their yong children, that ‖ they should not remaine aliue.

20 * The same time was Moses borne, and was acceptable vnto God, which was nourished vp in his fathers house three moneths.

21 And when he was cast out, Pharaos daughter tooke him vp, and nourished him for her owne sonne.

22 And Moses was learned in all the wisedome of the Egyptians, and was mightie in wordes and in deedes.

23 Now when he was full fourtie yeere olde, it came into his heart to visite his brethren the children of Israel.

24 * And when he saw one of them suffer wrong, hee defended him, and auenged his quarel that had the harme done to him, and smote the Egyptian.

25 For hee supposed his brethren would haue vnderstoode, that God by his hand should giue them deliuerance: but they vnderstood it not.

26 * And the next day, he shewed him- Exod.2.13.

27 But hee that did his neighbour wrong, thrust him away, saying, Who made thee a prince, and a iudge ouer vs?

28 Wilt thou kill mee, as thou diddest the Egyptian yesterday?

29 Then fled Moses at that saying, and Exod.3.2.

30 And when fourtie yeeres were expired, there appeared to him in the * wildernesse of mount Sina, an Angel of the Lorde in a flame [k] of fire, in a bush.

31 And when Moses saw it, he wondered at the sight: and as he drewe neere to consider it, the voyce of the Lord came vnto him, saying, 32 I am the [l] God of thy fathers, the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob. Then Moses trembled, and durst not beholde it.

33 Then the Lord said to him, [m] Put off thy shoes from thy feete: for the place where thou standest, is holy ground.

34 I haue seene, I haue seene the affliction of my people, which is in Egypt, and I haue heard their groning, and am come downe to deliuer them: and nowe come, and I will send thee into Egypt.

35 This Moses whome they forsooke, saying, Who made thee a prince, & a iudge? the same God sent for a prince, and a deliuerer by the hand of the Angel, which appeared to him in the bush.

36 He * brought them out, doing wonders and miracles in the land of Egypt, and in the red sea, and in the wildernesse * fourtie yeeres.

37 This is that Moses which sayd vnto the children of Israel, * A Prophet shall the Lorde your God raise vp vnto you, euen of your brethren, like vnto me: him shall ye heare.

38 * This is he that was in the Congregation in the wildernesse with the [o] Angel, which spake to him in mount Sina, & with our fathers, who receiued the liuely oracles to giue vnto vs.

2 Steuen is lamented and buried. 3 The rage of the Iewes & of Saul against them. 4 The faithfull scattered preach here and there. 9 Samaria is seduced by Simon the sorcerer, but was conuerted by Philip, and confirmed by the Apostles. 19 The couetousnesse and hypocrisie of Simon, 26 And conuersion of the Eunuch.

AND Saul consented to his death, and at that time there was a great persecution against the Church which was at Ierusalem, and they were all scattered abroad through the regions of Iudea and of Samaria, except the Apostles.

2 Then certaine men fearing God, a caried Steuen among them, to be buried, and made great b lamentation for him.

3 But Saul made hauocke of the Church, and entred into every house, and drewe out both men and women, and put them into prison.

4 Therefore they that were scattered abroad, went to and fro preaching the word.

5 ¶ Then came Philippe into the citie c of Samaria, and preached Christ vnto them.

6 And the people gaue heede vnto those things which Philip spake, with one accord, hearing, and seeing the miracles which he did.

7 For vncleane spirits crying with a loude voyce, came out of many that were possessed of them: and many taken with palsies, and that halted, were healed.

8 And there was great ioy in that citie.

9 And there was before in the citie a certaine man called Simon, which vsed witchcraft, and bewitched the people of Samaria, saying, That hee himselfe was some great man.

10 To whom they d gaue heede from the least to the greatest, saying, This man is the great e power of God.

11 And they gaue heede vnto him, because that of long time hee had bewitched them with sorceries.

12 But assoone as they beleeued Philippe, which preached the things that concerned the kingdom of God, and the Name of Iesus Christ, they were baptized both men and women.

13 Then Simon himselfe f beleeued also and was baptized, and continued with Philip, and wondred, when hee sawe the signes & great miracles which were done.

14 ¶ Nowe when the Apostles, which were at Ierusalem, heard say, that Samaria had receiued the worde of God, they sent vnto them Peter and Iohn.

15 Which when they were come downe, prayed for them, that they might receiue the g holy Ghost.

d. This declareth how much more we are inclined to follow the illusions of Satan, then the trueth of God.
e This is the craft of Satan, to couer all the illusions vnder the Name of God.
f The maiestie of Gods worde forced him to confesse the trueth: but yet was hee not regenerate therefore.
g Meaning the particular gifts of the holy Spirit.
h They had onely receiued the common grace of adoption and regeneration, which are offred to all the faithfull, in baptisme, and as yet had not receiued the gift to speake in diuers languages and to doe miracles,

17 Then

17 Then laid they their handes on them, and they receiued the holy Ghost.

18 And when Simon saw, that through laying on of the Apostles handes the holy Ghost was giuen, he offered them money, 19 Saying, Giue mee also this power, that on whomsoeuer I lay the handes, hee may receiue the holy Ghost.

20 Then said Peter vnto him, Thy money perish with thee, because thou thinkest that the gift of God may be obtained with money.

21 Thou hast neither part nor [i] fellowship in this businesse: for thine heart is not right in the sight of God.

22 [k] Repent therefore of this thy wickednesse, and pray God, that if it be [l] possible, the thought of thine heart may bee forgiuen thee.

23 For I see that thou art [m] in the gall of [*] bitternes, and in the bond of iniquitie.

24 Then answered Simon, & said, Pray ye to the Lord for me, [ỹ] none of these things which ye haue spoken, come vpon me.

25 ¶ So they, when they had testified, and preached the word of the Lorde, returned to Jerusalem, and preached the Gospel in many townes of the Samaritanes.

26 Then the Angell of the Lorde spake vnto Philippe, saying, Arise and goe toward the South vnto the way that goeth downe from Jerusalem vnto Gaza, which is [n] waste.

27 And he arose, & went: and behold, a certaine [o] Eunuch of Ethiopia, Candaces the Queene of the Ethiopians chiefe Gouernour, who had the rule of all her treasure, and came to Jerusalem to worship:

28 And as hee returned sitting in his charet, he read Esaias the Prophet.

29 Then the Spirit sayde vnto Philip, Go neere & ioyne thy selfe to yonder charet.

30 And Philip ranne thither, and heard him reade the Prophet Esaias, & sayd, But vnderstandest thou what thou readest?

31 And he sayde, Howe can I, except I had a guide? And he desired Philip, that he would come vp and sit with him.

32 Now the place of the Scripture which he read, was this, [*] He was led as a sheepe to the slaughter: and like a lambe dumme before his shearer, so opened he not his mouth.

33 [p] In his humilitie his [q] iudgement hath bene exalted: but who shall declare [r] his generation? for his life is taken from the [s] earth.

34 Then the Eunuch answered Philip, and sayde, I pray thee of whome speaketh the Prophet this? of himselfe, or of some other man?

35 Then Philippe [t] opened his mouth, and beganne at the same Scripture, and preached vnto him Jesus.

36 And as they went on their way, they came vnto a certaine water, and the Eunuch said, See, here is water: what doeth let me to be baptized?

37 And Philip said vnto him, If thou beleeue with [u] all thine heart, thou mayest. Then he answered, and said, I beleeue that Jesus Christ is the Sonne of God.

38 Then he commaunded the charet to stand still: and they went downe both into the water, both Philip and the Eunuch, and he baptized him.

39 And assoone as they were come vp out of the water, the Spirit of the Lorde caught away Philip, that the Eunuch [x] saw him no more: so he went on his way reioycing.

40 But Philip [ỹ] was found at [y] Azotus, and hee walked to and fro preaching in all the cities, till he came to Cesarea.

AND [*] Saul yet [a] breathing out threatnings and slaughter against the disciples of the Lord, went vnto the hie Priest,

2 And desired of him letters to Damascus to the Synagogues, that if hee founde any that were of that [b] way (either men or women) hee might bring them bound vnto Jerusalem.

3 Now as he iourneyed, it came to passe, that as he was come nere to Damascus, [*] suddenly there shined rounde about him a light from heauen.

4 And hee fell to the earth, and heard a voyce, saying to him, Saul, Saul, why persecutest thou me?

5 And he saide, Who art thou, Lorde? And the Lord sayd, I am Jesus whom thou persecutest: it is hard for thee to kicke against [c] pickes.

6 [*] He then both trembling and astonied, said, Lord, what wilt thou that I doe? And the Lord said vnto him, Arise and goe into the citie, and it shalbe tolde thee what thou shalt doe.

9 Where hee was three dayes without sight, and neither [g] ate nor dranke.

10 And there was a certaine disciple at Damascus named Ananias, and to him said the Lord in a vision, Ananias. And hee sayd, Behold, I am here, Lord.

12 (And he sawe in a vision a man named Ananias comming in to him, and putting his hands on him, that hee might receiue his sight.)

13 Then Ananias answered, Lorde, I haue heard by many of this man, howe much euill hee hath done to thy Saints at Jerusalem.

14 Moreouer here he hath authoritie of the hie Priests, to binde all that call on thy Name.

15 Then the Lord said vnto him, Go thy way: for he is a [h] chosen vessell vnto me, to beare my name before the Gentiles, and kings, and the children of Israel.

16 For I will shewe him, howe many things he must suffer for my Names sake.

17 Then Ananias went his way, and entred into the house, and put his handes on him, and said, Brother Saul, the Lorde hath sent me (euen Jesus that appeared vnto thee in the way as thou camest) that thou mightest receiue thy sight, and bee filled with the holy Ghost.

18 And immediately there fell from his eyes as it had bene scales, and suddenly hee receiued sight, and arose, and was baptised, 19 And receiued meate, and was strengthened. So was Saul certaine dayes with the disciples which were at Damascus.

20 And straightway he preached Christ in the Synagogues, that hee was the Sonne of God.

21 So that all that heard him, were amased, and sayde, is not this hee, that destroyed them which called on this Name in Jerusalem, and came hither for that intent, that he should bring them bound vnto the hie Priests?

22 But Saul increased the more in strength, and confounded the Jewes which dwelt at Damascus, [k] confirming that this was the Christ.

23 And after [l] that many dayes were fulfilled, the Jewes tooke counsell together to kill him.

24 But their laying awaite was knowen of Saul: now they [*m] watched the gates day and night, that they might kill him.

25 Then the disciples tooke him by night, and put him through the wall, and let him downe in a basket.

26 And when Saul was come to Jerusalem, hee assayed to ioyne himselfe with the disciples: but they were all afraide of him, and beleeued not that hee was a disciple.

27 But Barnabas tooke him, [‡] brought him to the Apostles, and declared to them, how he had seene the Lorde in the way, and that hee had spoken vnto him, and how hee had spoken boldly at Damascus in the Name of Jesus.

28 And he [‡] was conuersant with [n] them at Jerusalem, 29 And spake boldly [o] in the Name of the Lord Jesus, and spake and disputed with the [p] Grecians: but they went about to slay him.

30 But when the brethren knew it, they brought him to Cesarea, and sent him forth to [q] Tarsus.

31 Then had the Churches rest through all Judea, and Galile, and Samaria, and were edified, and walked in the feare of the Lord, and were multiplied by the comfort of the holy Ghost.

32 And it came to passe, as Peter walked throughout all quarters, he came also to the Saints which dwelt at Lydda.

33 And there hee found a certaine man named Aeneas, which had kept his bed eight yeeres, and was licke of the palsie.

34 Then said Peter vnto him, Aeneas, Jesus Christ maketh thee whole: arise and [‖] make vp thy bed. And hee arose immediatly.

35 And [r] all that dwelt at Lydda, and [s] Saron saw him, and turned to the Lord.

36 There was also at Joppa, a certaine woman a disciple named Tabitha (which by interpretation is called [t] Dorcas) shee was [‖] full of good workes and almes which she did.

37 And it came to passe in those dayes, that she was licke and died: and when they had [u] washed her, they laid her in an vpper chamber.

38 Nowe for as much as Lydda was neere to Joppa, & the disciples had heard that Peter was there, they sent vnto him two men, desiring that he would not delay to come vnto them.

39 Then Peter arose & came with them: and when he was come, they brought him into the vpper chaber, where all [y] widowes stoode by him weeping, and shewing the coates and garments, which Dorcas made, while she was with them.

40 But Peter put them all forth, and kneeled downe, and praied, and turned him to the body, and said, Tabitha, arise. And she opened her eyes, and when shee sawe Peter, sate vp.

41 Then hee gaue her the hand and lift her vp, and called the [x] Saintes and widowes, and restored her aliue.

42 And it was knowen throughout all Joppa, and many beleeued in the Lord.

43 And it came to passe that hee tarried many dayes in Joppa with one Simon a [‖] tanner.

9 On the morrow as they went on their iourney, and drew neere vnto the citie, Peter went vp vpon the house to pray, about the [c] sixt houre.

17 ¶ Now while Peter doubted in himselfe what this vision which hee had seene, meant, beholde, the men which were sent from Cornelius, had inquired for Simons house, and stood at the gate, 20 Arise therefore, and get thee downe, and goe with them, and [g] doubt nothing: for I haue sent them.

21 ¶ Then Peter went down to the men, which were sent vnto him from Cornelius, and sayd, Behold, I am he whom ye seeke: what is the cause wherefore ye are come?

22 And they sayde, Cornelius the captaine, a iust man, and one that feareth God, and of good report among all the nation of the Iewes, was warned from heauen by an holy Angel, to send for thee into his house, and to heare thy words.

23 Then called ‖ hee them in, and lodged them, and the next day, Peter went forth with them, and certaine brethren from Joppa accompanied him.

24 ¶ And the day after, they entred into Cesarea. Now Cornelius waited for them, and had called together his kinsemen, and speciall friends.

25 And it came to passe, as Peter came in, that Cornelius met him, and fell downe at his feete, and [h] worshipped him.

26 But Peter tooke him vp, saying, Stand vp: for euen I my selfe am a man.

27 And as he talked with him, hee came in, and found many that were come together.

28 And he said vnto them, Ye know that it is an vnlawfull thing for a man that is a Iewe, to company or come vnto one of an other nation: but God hath shewed mee, that I should not call any man ‖ polluted, or vncleane.

4 Peter sheweth the cause wherefore he went to the Gentiles. 18 The Church approueth it. 21 The Church increaseth. 22 Barnabas and Paul preach at Antiochia. 28 Agabus propheseth dearth to come, 29 and the remedie.

NOw the Apostles and the brethren that were in Iudea, heard that the Gentiles had also receiued the word of God.

2 And when Peter was come vp to Ierusalem, they of the circumcision a contended against him, a For they could not yet comprehend this secret which was hid from the Angels themselues, euen from the creation of the worlde, Ephes. 3. 8, 9. Col. 1. 26.

3 Saying, Thou wentest in to men vncircumcised, and hast eaten with them.

4 Then Peter began, and expounded the thing in order to them, saying,

5 I was in the citie of Ioppa, praying, and in a trance I saw this vision, A certeine vessel comming downe as it had bene a great sheete, let downe from heauen by the foure corners, and came to me.

6 Toward the which when I had fastened mine eyes, I considered, and saw foure footed beasts of the earth, and wild beasts, and creeping things, and foules of the heauen.

7 Also I heard a voyce, saying vnto me, Arise, Peter: slay and eate.

8 And I said, God forbid, Lord: for nothing polluted or vncleane hath at any time entred into my mouth.

9 But the voice answered me the second time from heauen, The things that God hath purified, pollute thou not.

10 And this was done three times, and all were taken vp againe into heauen.

11 Then behold, immediately there were three men already come vnto the house where I was, sent from Cesarea vnto me.

12 And the Spirit said vnto me, that I should goe with them, without doubting: moreouer these sixe brethren came with me, and we entred into the mans house.

13 And he shewed vs, how hee had seene an Angel in his house, which stood and said to him, Send men to Ioppa, and call for Simon whose surname is Peter.

14 Hee shall speake words vnto thee, whereby both thou and all thine house shall be saued.

15 And as I began to speake, the holy Ghost fell on them, *euen as vpon vs at the beginning. Chap. 2. 4. and 4. 31.

22 Then tidings of these things came vnto the eares of the Church, which was in Ierusalem, and they sent forth Barnabas, that he should go vnto h Antiochia.

h This was the most famous citie of Syria, and bordered vpon Cilicia.

23 Who when he was come & had seene the grace of God, was glad, and exhorted all, that with purpose of heart they would ‖ cleaue vnto the Lord.

‖ Or, continue with the Lord.

24 For he was a good man, and full of the holy Ghost, and faith, and much people ioyned themselues vnto the Lord.

25 ¶ Then departed Barnabas to Tarsus to seeke Saul:

26 And when hee had found him, hee brought him into Antioch a, and it came to passe, that a whole yeere they were conuersant with the Church, and taught much people, in so much, that the disciples were first called i Christians in Antiochia.

i Whereas before they were called disciples, nowe they are named Christians.

27 In those dayes also came Prophets from Ierusalem vnto Antiochia.

28 And there stoode vp one of them named Agabus, and signified by the k Spirit, that there should be great famine throughout all the world, which also came to passe vnder Claudius Cesar.

k This prophecie was an occasion to the Antiochians to relieue the necessitie of their brethren in Ierusalem.

1 Herode persecuteth the Christians. 2 He killeth Iames, 4 And putteth Peter in prison, 7 Whome the Lord deliuereth by an Angel. 23 The horrible death of Herode. 24 The Gospel flourisheth. 25 Barnabas and Saul returning to Antiochia, take Iohn Marke with them.

NOwe about that time, a Herode the king stretched forth his handes to vexe certaine of the Church.

a Who was called Agrippa the sonne of Aristobulus: hee was nephewe vnto Herode the great, and brother of Herodias.

2 And hee killed Iames the [b] brother of Iohn with the sword.

3 And when he sawe that it [c] pleased the Iewes, he proceeded further to take Peter also (then were the dayes of vnleauened bread.)

4 And when he had caught him, hee put him in prison, and deliuered him to [d] foure quaternions of souldiers to be kept, intending after the Passeouer to bring him forth to the people.

5 So Peter was kept in prison, but earnest prayer was made of the Church vnto God for him.

6 And when Herod would haue brought him out vnto the people, the same night slept Peter betweene two souldiers, bound with two chaines, and the keepers before the doore, kept the prison.

7 *And beholde, the Angell of the Lord came vpon them, and a light shined in the house, and he smote Peter on the side, and raised him vp, saying, Arise quickly. And his chaines fell off from his hands.

8 And the Angell sayde vnto him, Gird thy selfe, and binde on thy [e] sandales. And so hee did. Then he sayde vnto him, Cast thy garment about thee, and followe me.

9 So Peter came out and followed him, and knew not that it was true, which was done by the Angell, but thought hee had seene a vision.

10 Nowe when they were past the first and the second watch, they came vnto the yron gate, that leadeth vnto ỹ citie, which opened to them by it owne accorde, and they went out, and passed through one streete, and by and by the Angell departed from him.

11 ¶ And when Peter was come to himselfe, he sayde, Nowe I knowe for a trueth, that the Lord hath sent his Angel, and hath deliuered me out of the hand of Herode, and from all the [f] waiting for of the people of the Iewes.

12 And as hee considered the thing, hee came to the house of Mary, the mother of Iohn, whose surname was Marke, where many were gathered together, and prayed.

13 And when Peter knocked at the entrie doore, a maide came forth to hearken, named Rhode.

14 But when she knewe Peters voyce, she opened not the entrie doore for gladnes, but ran in, and tolde howe Peter stoode before the entrie.

15 But they saide vnto her, Thou art mad. Yet shee affirmed it constantly, that it was so. Then said they, It is his [g] Angel.

16 But Peter continued knocking, and when they had opened it, and saw him, they were astonied.

17 And he beckened vnto them with the hande, to holde their peace, and tolde them how the Lorde had brought him out of the prison. And hee saide, Goe shewe these thinges vnto Iames and to the brethren: and hee departed and went into [h] another place.

18 ¶ Nowe assoone as it was day, there was no small trouble among the souldiers, what was become of Peter.

19 And when Herode had sought for him, & found him not, he examined the keepers, and commaunded them to be led to be punished. And he went downe from Iudea to Cesarea, and there abode.

20 Then Herode intended to make warre against them of Tyrus and Sidon, but they came all with one accorde vnto him, and [i] perswaded Blastus the kings chamberlaine, and they desired peace, because their countrey was nourished by the kings land.

21 And vpon a day appointed, Herode arayed himselfe in royall apparell, and sate on the iudgement seate, and made an oration vnto them.

22 And the people gaue a shoute, saying, The voyce of God, and not of man.

23 But immediatly the Angell of the Lord smote him, because he [k] gaue not glory vnto God, so that he was eaten [l] of wormes, and gaue vp the ghost.

24 And the word of God [m] grewe, and multiplied.

THere were also in the Church that was at Antiochia, certaine Prophets & teachers, as Barnabas, & Symeon called Niger, and Lucius of Cyrene, and [a] Manahen (which had bene brought vp with Herode the Tetrarch) and Saul.

2 Now as they [b] ministred to the Lord, and fasted, the holy Ghost sayde, Separate mee Barnabas and Saul, for the worke whereunto I haue called them.

5 And when they were at Salamis, they preached the worde of God in the Synagogues of the Iewes: and they had also Iohn to their minister.

6 So when they had gone throughout the yle vnto Paphus, they found a certaine sorcerer, a false prophet, being a Iewe, named Barieus,

9 Then Saul (which also is called Paul) being full of the holy Ghost, set his eyes on him, 11 Now therefore beholde, the hand of the Lorde is vpon thee, and thou shalt bee blinde, and not see the sunne for a season. And immediatly there fell on him a mysts and a darkenesse, and he went about, seeking some to leade him by the hand.

12 Then the Deputie when he saw what was done, beleeued, and was astonyed at the doctrine of the Lord.

13 Nowe when Paul and they that were with him were departed by shippe from Paphus, they came to Perga a citie of Pamphylia: then Iohn departed from them, and returned to Ierusalem.

14 But when they departed from Perga, they came to [d] Antiochia a citie of Pisidia, and went into the Synagogue on the Sabbath day, and sate downe.

15 And after the lecture of the law and Prophets, the rulers of the Synagogue sent vnto them, saying, Ye men & brethren, if ye haue any word of [e] exhortation for the people, say on.

16 Then Paul stoode vp and beckened with the hand, and said, Men of Israel, and ye that feare God, hearken.

17 The God of this people of Israel chose our fathers, and exalted the people when they dwelt in the land of * Egypt, and with an * high arme brought them out thereof.

18 And about the time * of fourty yeres, suffered he their [f] maners in the wildernesse.

19 And he destroyed seuen nations in the land of Chanaan, and * deuided their lande to them by lot.

20 Then afterward he gaue vnto them * Iudges [g] about foure hundreth and fifte yeres, vnto the time of Samuel the Prophet.

21 So after that they desired a * king, and God gaue vnto them * Saul, the sonne of Cis, a man of the tribe of Beniamin, by the space of fourtie yeres.

22 And after he had taken him away, he raised vp * Dauid to be their king, of whome he witnessed, saying, I haue founde Dauid the sonne of Iesse, a man after mine owne heart, which will doe all things that I will.

23 Of this mans seede hath God * according to his promise raised vp to Israel, the Sauiour Iesus:

24 When * Iohn had first preached before his comming the baptisme of repentance to all the people of Israel.

25 And when Iohn had fulfilled his [h] course, he said, * Whome ye thinke that I am, I am not he: but beholde, there commeth one after me, whose shoe of his feete I am not worthie to loose.

26 Ye men and brethren, children of the generation of Abraham, and whosoeuer among you feareth God, to you is the [i] word of this saluation sent.

27 For the inhabitants of Ierusalem, & their rulers, because they [k] knew him not, nor yet the wordes of the Prophets, which are [l] read euery Sabbath day, they haue fulfilled them in condemning him.

28 And though they founde no cause of death in him, * yet desired they Pilate to kil him.

29 And when they had [m] fulfilled all things that were written of him, they tooke him downe from the tree, and put him in a sepulchre.

30 But God * raised him vp from the dead.

31 And hee was seene many dayes of them, which came vp with him from Galile to Ierusalem, which are his witnesses vnto the people.

32 And we declare vnto you, that touching the promise made vnto the fathers, 33 God hath fulfilled it vnto vs their children, in that he [n] raised vp Iesus, euen as it is written in the seconde Psalme, * Thou art my Sonne: this day haue I begotten thee.

34 Nowe as concerning that hee raised him vp from the dead, no more to returne to the graue, he hath layd thus, * I will giue you the [o] holy things of Dauid, which are faithfull.

35 Wherefore hee sayeth also in another place, * Thou wilt not suffer thine holy one to see corruption.

36 Howbeit, Dauid after he had serued his time by the counsell of God, hee * slept, and was layde with his fathers, and sawe corruption.

37 But he whome God raysed vp, sawe no corruption.

38 Bee it knowen vnto you therefore, men and brethren, that through this man is preached vnto you the forgiuenesse of sinnes.

39 And from all things from which yee could not bee iustified by the lawe of Moses, by him euery one that beleeueth, is iustified.

40 Beware therefore, least that come vpon you, which is spoken of in the Prophets, 41 * Behold, ye [p] despisers, and wonder, and vanish away: for I worke a [q] worke in your dayes, a worke which yee shall not beleeue, if a man woulde declare it you.

42 ¶ And when they were come out of the Synagogue of the Iewes, the Gentiles besought, that they would preach these words to them the next Sabbath day.

43 Now when the Congregation was dissolued, many of the Iewes, and Proselytes that feared God, followed Paul and Barnabas, which spake to them, and exhorted them to continue in the grace of God.

CHAP. XIIII.

3 God giueth successe to his word. 6 Paul and Barnabas preach at Iconium & are persecuted. 13 At Lystra they would do sacrifice to Barnabas and Paul, which refuse it, and exhort the people to worship the true God. 19 Paul is stoned. 22 They confirme the disciples in faith, and patience, 23 Appoint ministers, 26 And passing through many places, make report of their diligence at Antiochia.

AND it came to passe in Iconium, that they went both together into the Synagogue of the Iewes, and so spake, that a great multitude both of the Iewes and of the Grecians beleeued.

2 But the [a] vnbeleeuing Iewes stirred vp, and corrupted the mindes of the Gentiles against the brethren.

3 So therefore they abode there a long time, and spake boldly in the Lorde, which gaue testimonie vnto the word of his grace, and caused signes and wonders to bee done by their hands.

4 But the people of the citie were deuided: and some were with the Iewes, and some with the Apostles.

5 And when there was an assault made both of the Gentiles, and of the Iewes with their rulers, to doe them violence, and to stone them,

6 They were ware of it, and fled vnto Lystra, and Derbe, cities of Lycaonia, and vnto the region round about,

7 And there were preaching the Gospel.

8 ¶ Nowe there sate a certaine man at Lystra, impotent in his feete, which was a creeple from his mothers wombe, who had neuer walked.

a Which would not obey the doctrine, neither suffer themselues to be perswaded to beleeue the trueth and to imbrace Christ.

† In so much that all the people were mooued at the doctrine. So both Paul and Barnabas remained at Lystra.

9 He heard Paul speake: who behelding him, and perceiuing that he had faith to be healed, 10 Sayde with a loude voyce, † Stand vpright on thy feete. And he leaped vp, and walked.

11 Then when the people sawe what Paul had done, they lift vp their voyces, saying in the speach of Lycaonia, Gods are come downe to vs in the likenesse of men.

12 And they called Barnabas, Iupiter, and Paul, Mercurius, because he was the chiefe speaker.

13 Then Iupiters Priest, which was before their citie, brought bulles with [b] garlands vnto the [c] gates, and would haue sacrificed with the people.

14 But when the Apostles Barnabas and Paul heard it, they rent their clothes, and ranne in among the people, crying, 15 And saying, O men, why doe yee these things? Wee are euen men [e] subiect to the like passions that ye be, and preach vnto you, that ye should turne from these vaine idoles vnto the liuing God, * which made heauen and earth, and the sea, and all things that in them are.

16 Who in times past *suffered all the Gentiles to walke in their owne [f] wayes.

17 Neuertheless, he left not him selfe without [g] witnesse, in that he did good, and gaue vs rayne from heauen, and fruitfull seasons, filling our hearts with foode and [h] gladnesse.

18 And speaking these things, scarce restrained they the people, that they had not sacrificed vnto them.

19 Then there came certaine Iewes from Antiochia & Iconium, which when they had perswaded the people, † *stoned Paul, and drewe him out of the citie, supposing he had bene dead.

20 Howbeit, as the disciples stood round about him, he arose vp, and came into the citie, and the next day he departed with Barnabas to Derbe.

21 And after they had preached to that citie, and had taught many, they returned to Lystra, and to Iconium, and to Antiochia, 22 Confirming the disciples hearts, and exhorting them to continue in the faith, affirming that wee must through many afflictions enter into the kingdome of God.

23 And when they had ordayned them Elders by [i] election in euery Church, and prayed, and fasted, they commended them to the Lord in whom they beleeued.

24 Thus they went throughout Pisidia, and came to Pamphylia.

25 And when they had preached ỳ word in Perga, they came downe to Attalia, 26 And thence sayled to Antiochia, *from whence they had bene commended vnto the grace of God, to the worke which they had fulfilled.

27 And when they were come, and had gathered the Church together, they rehearsed all the things that God had done [k] by them, and how he had opened the doore of faith vnto the Gentiles.

1 Variance about circumcision. 22 The Apostles send their determination to the Churches. 35 Paul and Barnabas preach at Antiochia. 39 And separate company because of John Marke.

a As Cerinthus and others: so writeth Epiphanius against the Cerinthians: also the fame of the place whence they came, did much preuaile to perswade abroad. Gal.5.1,2.

THen came downe a certaine from Iudea, and taught the brethren, saying, *Except ye be circumcised after the maner of Moses, ye cannot be saued.

2 And when there was great dissention and disputation by Paul and Barnabas against them, they ordeyned that Paul and Barnabas, and certaine other of them shoulde goe vp to Ierusalem vnto the Apostles and Elders about this question.

3 Thus being sent forth by the Church, they passed through Phenice, and Samaria, declaring the conuersion of the Gentiles: and they brought great ioy vnto all the brethren.

4 And when they were come to Ierusalem, they were receiued of the church, and of the Apostles and Elders, and they declared what thinges God had done by them.

b Which were factious, & giuen to dissention.

5 But rise they, certaine of the sect of the b Pharises, which did beleeue, rose vp, saying, that it was needefull to circumcise them, and to commaund them to keepe the Lawe of Moses.

6 Then the Apostles and Elders came together to looke to this matter.

*Ch.9.10.20. and 11.13.

7 And when there had bin great disputation, Peter rose vp, and saide vnto them, *Ye men and brethren, yee knowe that a good while agoe, among vs God chose out mee, that the Gentiles by my mouth should heare the worde of the Gospell, and beleeue.

8 And God which knoweth the hearts, bare them witnesse, in giuing vnto them the holy Ghost, euen as he did vnto vs.

c As touching adoption and eternall life.

d By faith God purifieth the heart. 2.Cor.1.2. chap.10.43.

9 And hee put no c difference betweene vs, and them, after that by faith hee d had *purified their hearts.

e They purposely tempt God, which lay greater charge on mens consciences, then they are able to beare. Matt.23.4.

10 Now therefore, why e tempt ye God, to *lay a yoke on the disciples necks, which neither our fathers, nor wee were able to beare?

f And not by the Law: for it is a clog to the conscience, and we cannot be deliuered thereby. 2.Pet.1.1. Amos 9.11.

11 But wee beleeue, through the f grace of the Lord Iesus Christ to be saued, euen as they doe.

12 Then all the multitude kept silence, and heard Barnabas and Paul, which told what tignes and wonders God had done among the Gentiles by them.

13 And when they helde their peace, Iames answered, saying, Men and brethren, hearken vnto me.

14 *Simeon hath declared, how God first did visite the Gentiles, to take of them a people vnto his Name.

15 And to this agree the wordes of the Prophets, as it is written,

16 *After this, I will returne, and will builde againe the g tabernacle of Dauid, which is fallen downe, and the ruines thereof will I builde againe, and I will set it vp, g That is, the Church whereof the Temple was a figure.

17 That the residue of men might seeke after the Lorde, and all the h Gentiles vpon whom my Name is called, sayth the Lord which doeth all these things.

h Which are gathered into one familie with the Iewes, to the intent they should acknowledge all one God, and one Sauiour Christ Iesus.

18 From the beginning of the worlde God knoweth all his workes.

19 Wherefore my sentence is, that wee trouble not them of the Gentiles that are turned to God, 20 But that we write vnto them, that they abstaine themselues from i filthinesse of idoles, and k fornication, and that, that is strangled, and from blood†.

i For some thought it none offence to be present in the idoles temples, & there to banket: which S. Paul saith, is to drinke the cup of the deuils, 1.Cor.10.21.

k The heathen though this no vice, but made it a common custome. As touching a strangled thing and blood, they were not vnlawfull of themselues, and therefore were obserued but for a time.

† And whatsoeuer they would not should be done to themselues, that they should not doe it to others.

21 For l Moses of old time hath in euery citie them that preach him, seeing he is read in the Synagogues euery Sabbath day.

l Therefore the ceremonies commanded by God coulde not so soone be abolished, till the liberty of the Gospell were better knowen.

22 Then it seemed good to the Apostles and Elders with the whole Church, to sende chosen men of their owne company to Antiochia with Paul and Barnabas: to wit, Iudas whose surname was Barsabas, and Silas, which were chiefe men among the brethren, 23 And wrote letters by them after this maner, THE APOSTLES, and the Elders, and the brethren, vnto the brethren which are of the Gentiles in Antiochia, and in Syria, and in Cilicia, send greeting.

24 For as much as we haue heard, that certaine which departed from vs, haue troubled you with wordes, and combred your mindes, saying, Ye must bee circumcised and keepe the Law: to whom we gaue no such commandement,

25 It seemed therefore good to vs, when we were come together with one accord, to send chosen men vnto you, with our beloued Barnabas and Paul, 26 Men that haue giuen vp their liues for the Name of our Lord Iesus Christ.

27 We haue therefore sent Iudas and Silas, which shall also tell you the same things by mouth.

28 For it seemed good to the holy Ghost, and m to vs, to lay no more burden vpon you, then these necessary things, 29 That is, that ye abstayne from things offered to idoles, and blood, and that, that is strangled, and from fornication: † from which if ye keepe your selues, yee shall doe well. Fare ye well.

m Whome the holy Ghost hath mooued and directed to ordaine, and write these things, not as the authors of this doctrine, but as the ministers of Gods ordinance, Exod.14.31. iudg.7.20. hag.1.12.

30 Nowe when they were departed, they came to Antiochia, and after that they had assembled the multitude, they deliuered the Epistle.

31 And when they had read it, they reioyced for the consolation.

32 And Iudas and Silas being Prophets, ‖ exhorted the brethren with many words, and strengthened them.

33 And after they had tarried there a space, they were let goe in n peace of the brethren vnto the Apostles.

34 Notwithstanding o Silas thought good to abide there still†.

† And whatsoeuer yee would not that men shoulde doe vnto you, doe not to others.

n Hauing desired leaue of the Church, the brethren prayed God to prosper their iourney. o Who, for iust causes, changed his minde.

† And onely Iudas went.

35 Paul also and Barnabas continued in Antiochia, teaching and preaching with many other the worde of the Lorde.

36 ¶ But after certaine dayes, Paul said vnto Barnabas, Let vs returne, and visite our brethren in euery citie, where we haue preached the word of the Lord, and see how they doe.

37 And Barnabas † counselled to take with them John called Marke.

38 But Paul thought it not meete to take han vnto their companie, which departed from them from Pamphylia, and went not with them to the worke.

39 Then were they so stirred, that they p departed asunder one from the other, so that Barnabas tooke Marke, and sayled vnto Cyprus.

40 And Paul chose Silas and departed, being commended of the brethren vnto the grace of God.

41 And he went through Syria and Cilicia, stablishing the Churches.

CHAP. XVI.

1 When Paul had circumcised Timothie, hee tooke him with him. 7 The spirit calleth them from one countrey to another. 14 Lydia is conuerted. 28 Paul and Silas imprisoned, conuert the layler, 37 And are deliuered as Romanes.

THen came hee to Derbe and to Lystra: and beholde, a certa ne disciple was there, named * Timotheus, a womans sonne, which was a Jewesse and beleeued, but his father was a Grecian.

2 Of whome the brethren which were at Lystra and Iconium, reported well.

3 Therefore Paul would that hee should go forth with him, and tooke and † circumcised han, because of the Jewes, which were in those quarters: for they knewe all, that his father was a Grecian.

4 And as they went through the cities, they deliuered them the decrees to keepe ordayned of the Apostles & Elders, which were at Jerusalem.

5 And so were the Churches stablished in the faith, & increased in number daily.

6 ¶ Now when they had gone throughout Phrygia, and the region of Galatia, they were b forbidden of the holy Ghost, to preach the word in c Asia.

7 Then came they to Mysia, and sought to goe into Bithynia: but the Spirite † suffered them not.

8 Therefore they passed through Mysia, and came downe to d Troas, 9 Where a vision appeared to Paul in the night. There stoode a man of Macedonia, and prayed him, saying, Come into Macedonia, and helpe vs.

10 And after hee had seene the vision, immediately we prepared to goe into Macedonia, beeing e assured that the Lorde had called vs to preach the Gospell vnto them.

11 Then went wee foorth from Troas, and with a straight course came to Samothracia, and the next day to f Neapolis.

12 ¶ And from thence to Philippi, which is the chiefe citie in the parts of Macedonia, and g whose inhabitants came from Rome to dwell there, and we were in that citie abiding certaine dayes.

13 And on the Sabbath day, we went out of the citie, besides a riuer where they were wont to h pray: and wee sate downe, and spake vnto the women, which were come together.

14 And a certaine woman named Lydia, a seller of purple, of the citie of the Thyatirians, which worshipped God, heard vs: whose heart the Lord opened, that shee attended vnto the things which Paul spake.

15 And when shee was baptized and her household, she besought vs, saying, If ye haue iudged me to be faithfull to the Lorde, come into mine house and abide there: and she constrained vs.

16 And it came to passe, that as we went to prayer, a certaine maide hauing * a spirite i of diuination, met vs, which gate her masters much vantage with diuining.

17 She followed Paul & vs, and cried, saying, These men are the seruants of the most high God, which shewe vnto vs the k way of saluation.

18 And this did she many dayes: but Paul being grieued, l turned about, & saide to the spirit, I command thee in the name of Jesus Christ, that thou come out of her. And he came out the same houre.

19 Now when her masters saw that the hope of their gaine was gone, they caught Paul and Silas, and drewe them into the market place vnto the Magistrates,

20 And brought them to the Gouernors, saying, These men which are Jewes, trouble our citie, 21 And preach ordinances, which are not lawfull for vs to receiue, neither to obserue, seeing we are Romanes.

22 The people also rose vp together against them, and the Gouernours rent m their clothes, and * commaunded them to be beaten with roddes.

23 And when they had beaten them sore, they cast them into prison, commanding the layler to keepe them surely.

24 Who hauing receiued such commandement, cast them into the ‖ inner prison, and made their feete fast in the stockes.

25 Nowe at midnight Paul and Silas prayed, and sung a Psalme vnto God † and the prisoners heard them.

26 And suddely there was a great earthquake, so that the foundation of the prison was shaken: and by and by all the doores opened, & euery mans bandes were loosed.

27 Then the keeper of the prison waked out of his sleepe, and when he sawe the prison doores open, he drewe out his sworde, and would haue killed himselfe, supposing the prisoners had bene fled.

28 But Paul cryed with a lowde voyce, saying, Doe thy selfe no harme: for wee are all here.

29 Then he called for a light, and leaped in, and came trembling, and fell downe before Paul and Silas, 30 And brought them out, and saide, Sirs, what must I doe to be saued?

CHAP. XVII.

1 Paul commeth to Thessalonica, 4 Where some receiue him, and others persecute him. 11 To search the Scriptures. 17 He disputeth at Athens, and the fruite of his doctrine.

NOw as they passed through Amphipolis, and Apollonia, they came to Thessalonica, where was a Synagogue of the Iewes.

2 And Paul, as his maner was, went in vnto them, and three Sabbath dayes disputed with them by the Scriptures,

3 Opening ‡ alledging that Christ must haue suffered, and risen againe from the dead: and this is Iesus Christ, whom, saide he, I preach to you.

4 And some of them beleeued, and ioyned in companie with Paul and Silas: also of the Grecians that feared God a great multitude, and of the chiefe women not a fewe.

5 But the Iewes which beleeued not, moued with enuy, tooke vnto them certaine vagabonds and wicked fellowes, and when they had assembled the multitude, they made a tumult in the citie, and made assault against the house of Iason, and sought to bring them out to the people.

6 But when they found them not, they drewe Iason and certaine brethren vnto the heads of the citie, crying, These are they which haue subuerted the state of the world, and here they are,

7 Whom Iason hath receiued, and these all doe against the decrees of Cesar, saying, that there is an other [a] King, one Iesus.

8 Then they troubled the people, and the heades of the citie, when they heard these things.

9 Notwithstanding when they had receiued ‖ sufficient assurance of Iason and of the other, they let them goe.

10 And the brethren vnmediatly sent away Paul and Silas by night vnto Berea, which when they were come thither, entred into the Synagogue of the Iewes.

11 These were also [b] more noble men then they which were at Thessalonica, which receiued the word with all readinesse, and * searched the Scriptures dayly, [c] whether those things were so.

12 Therefore many of them beleeued, and of honest women, which were Grecians, and men not a fewe.

13 ¶ But when the Iewes of Thessalonica knew, that the word of God was also preached of Paul at Berea, they came thither also, and moued the people.

14 But by and by the brethren sent away Paul to go as it were to the Sea: but Silas and Timotheus abode there still.

15 And they that ‖ did conduct Paul, brought him vnto Athens: and when they had receiued a commandement vnto Silas and Timotheus that they should come to him at once, they departed.

16 ¶ Now while Paul waited for them at Athens, his spirite was stirred in him, when he sawe the citie [d] subiect to idolatrie.

17 Therefore hee disputed in the synagogue with the Iewes, and with them that were religious, and in the market dayly [e] with whomsoeuer he met.

18 Then certaine Philosophers of the [f] Epicures, and of the [g] Stoicks, disputed with him, and some saide, What will this ‖ babler say? Others saide, He seemeth to be a setter forth of strange gods (because hee preached vnto them Iesus, and the resurrection.)

19 And they tooke him, and brought him into [h] Mars streete, saying, May wee not knowe, what this newe doctrine, whereof thou speakest, is?

20 For thou bringest certaine straunge things vnto our eares: wee would know therefore, what these things meane.

21 For all the Athenians and strangers which dwelt there, ‖ gaue themselues to nothing els, but either to tell or to heare some newes.

22 Then Paul stoode in the middes of [i] Mars streete, and saide, Ye men of Athens, I perceiue that in all things yee are too superstitious.

23 For as I passed by, and beheld your deuotions, I founde an altar wherein

AFter these things, Paul departed from Athens, and came to Corinthus,

2 And found a certaine Iewe, named * Aquila, borne in Pontus, lately come from Italie, and his wife Priscilla (because that a Claudius had commanded al Iewes to depart from Rome) and hee came vnto them.

3 And because he was of the same craft, hee abode with them and b wrought (for their craft was to make c tents.)

4 And he disputed in the Synagogue euery Sabbath day, and exhorted the Iewes, and the Grecians.

5 Nowe when Silas and Timotheus were come from Macedonia, Paul d burned in spirite, testifying to the Iewes that Iesus was the Christ.

6 And when they resisted and blasphemed, he * shooke his raiment, and said vnto them, e Your blood bee vpon your owne head: I am cleane: from henceforth will I goe vnto the Gentiles.

7 So he departed thence, and entred into a certaine mans house, named Iustus, a worshipper of God, whose house ioyned hard to the Synagogue.

8 And * Crispus the chiefe ruler of the Synagogue, beleeued in the Lorde with all his household: and many of the Corinthians hearing it, beleeued and were baptized.

9 Then sayde the Lord to Paul in the night by a vision, Feare not, but speake, and hold not thy peace.

10 For f I am with thee, and no man shall lay handes on thee to hurt thee: for I haue much people in this citie.

11 So he continued there a yere and sixe moneths, and taught the word of God among them.

12 ¶ Now when Gallio was deputie of ‖Achaia, the Iewes arose with one accord against Paul, and brought him to the iudgement seate, 13 Saying, This fellow perswadeth men to worship God contrary to the g Law.

14 And as Paul was about to open his mouth, Gallio saide vnto the Iewes, If it were a matter of wrong, or an euill deede, O ye Iewes, I would accordingly reason mainteine you.

15 But if it be a question of words, and names, and of your Lawe, looke yee to it your selues: for I will be no iudge of those things.

28 For mightily hee confuted publikely the Iewes with great vehemencie, shewing by the Scriptures, that Iesus was the Christ.

CHAP. XIX.

6 The holy Ghost is giuen by Pauls handes. 9 The Iewes blaspheme his doctrine, which was confirmed by miracles. 13 The rashnesse, and punishment of the coniurers, and the fruite that came thereof. 24 Demetrius raiseth sedition vnder pretence of Diana, 41 Yet God deliuereth his, and appeaseth it by the towne clarke.

AND it came to passe, while Apollos was at Corinthus, that Paul when he passed thorowe the vpper coastes, came to Ephesus, and found certaine disciples,

2 And said vnto them, Haue ye receiued the p holy Ghost since ye beleeued? And they sayde vnto him, We haue not so much as heard whether there be an holy Ghost.

p That is, the particular gifes of the Spirit: for as yet they knew not the visible giftes.

3 And hee said vnto them, q Vnto what were yee then baptized? And they sayde, Vnto Iohns baptisme.

q Meaning, what doctrine they did professe by their baptisme. For to be baptized in Iohns baptisme, signifieth to professe the doctrine, which he taught, and sealed with the signe of baptisme: to be baptized in the Name of the Father, &c. is to be dedicate and consecrate vnto him: to be baptized in the death of Christ, or for the dead, or into one body, vnto remission of sinnes, is, that sinne by Christs death may be abolished and die in vs, and that we may growe in Christ our head, and that our sinnes may bee washed away by the blood of Christ. Mat. 3. 11. mar. 1. 8. luke 3. 16. iohn 1. 27. chap. 1. 5. & 2. 1. & 11. 16.

4 Then said Paul, r Iohn verily baptized with the baptisme of repentance, saying vnto the people, that they should beleeue in him, which should come after him, that is, in Christ Iesus.

r That is, the doctrine of repentance.

5 So when they heard it, they were s baptized in the Name of the Lord Iesus.

s Inducd with the visible graces of the holy Ghost.

6 And Paul laid his hands vpon them, and the holy Ghost came on them, and they spake the tongues and prophecied.

7 And all the men were about twelue.

8 ¶ Moreouer, hee went into the Synagogue, and spake boldly for the space of three moneths, disputing, and exhorting to the things that appertaine to the kingdome of God.

9 But when certaine were hardened, and disobeyed, speaking euill of the way of God before the multitude, hee departed from them, and separated the disciples, and disputed daily in the schoole of one t Tyrannus †.

t That is, of a certaine man so called. † From fiue a clocke vnto ten.

10 And this was done by the space of two yeeres, so that all they which dwelt in Asia, heard the word of the Lord Iesus, both Iewes and Grecians.

11 And God wrought no small miracles by the hands of Paul,

12 So that from his body were brought vnto the sicke, ‖ kerchiefs or handkerchiefs, and the diseases departed from them, and the euill spirits went out of them.

‖ Or, napkins.

13 Then certaine of the vagabond Iewes, ‖ exorcists, tooke in hand to name ouer them which had euil spirits, the Name of the Lord Iesus, saying, We u adiure you by Iesus, whom Paul preacheth.

u This was to authorize the Gospel, and to confirme Pauls ministery, not to cause men to worship him or his napkins.

14 (And there were certaine sonnes of Scena a Iew, the Priest, about seuen which did this)

‖ Or, coniurers.

15 And the euil spirit answered, and said, Iesus I acknowledge, and Paul I knowe: but who are ye?

f They abuse Pauls authoritie, and without any vocation of God vsurpe that which is not in mans power.

16 And the man in whome the euill spirite was, ranne on them, and ouercame them, and preuailed against them, so that they fledde out of that house, naked, and wounded.

17 And this was knowen to all the Iewes and Grecians also, which dwelt at Ephesus, and feare came on them all, and the Name of the Lorde Iesus was magnified.

g That is, declared by confession of their sinnes and by their good workes, that they were faithfull.

18 And many that beleeued, came and confessed, and x shewed their workes.

h This mounteth to of our money about 2000. markes.

19 Many also of them which vsed curious artes, brought their bookes, and burned them before all men, and they counted the price of them, and found it y fiftie thousand pieces of siluer.

i By the motion of the holy Ghost, he vndertooke his iourney.

20 So the word of God grewe mightily, and preuailed.

21 ¶ Nowe when these things were accomplished, Paul purposed z by the Spirit to passe through Macedonia & Achaia, and to goe to Ierusalem, saying, after I haue bene there, I must see also Rome.

k That is about the state of the Christians: for they contemned the Christians because they left the olde religion, and brought in another trade of doctrine.

22 So sent hee into Macedonia two of them that ministred vnto him, Timotheus and Erastus, but he remained in Asia for a season.

‖ Or, shrines.

23 And the same time there arose no small trouble about that a way.

l What impietie doth not couetousnesse driue a man vnto?

24 For a certaine man named Demetrius, a siluer smith, which made siluer ‖ temples of Diana, l brought great gaines vnto the craftsmen:

m He was moued with his profite: and the other for their bellies, so that they would rather lose both their liues and religion, then their filthie gaine.

25 Whom hee called together, with the workemen of like things, and sayde, Sirs, ye knowe that by this craft m we haue our goods.

n Meaning, their arte and occupation.

26 Moreouer ye see and heare, that not alone at Ephesus, but almost throughout all Asia this Paul hath perswaded, and turned away much people, saying, That they bee not gods which are made with hands:

o Religion is his second argument which hee lesse esteemeth then his profite, and therefore putteth it last, which thing is contrary to the doings of the faithfull: for they preferre religion aboue all,

27 So that not onely this thing is dangerous vnto vs, n that the state should bee reprooued, but also that the o temple of the great goddesse Diana should bee nothing esteemed, and that it woulde come to passe that her magnificence, which all Asia, & the worlde worshippeth, should be destroyed.

28 Now when they heard it, they were full of wrath, and cried out, saying, Great is Diana of the Ephesians.

29 And the whole citie was full of confusion, and they rushed into the common place with one assent, and caught *Gaius, and *Aristarchus, men of Macedonia, and Pauls companions of his iourney.

30 And when Paul would haue entred in vnto the people, the disciples suffred him not.

31 Certaine also of the chiefe of Asia which were his friends, sent vnto him desiring him that he would not present himselfe in the common place.

32 Some therefore cryed one thing, and some another: for the assembly was out of order, and the more part knew not wherefore they were come together.

33 And some of the companie, q drewe foorth Alexander, the Iewes thrusting him forwardes. Alexander then beckened with the hand, and would haue excused the matter to the people.

34 But when they knewe that he was a Iewe, there arose a shoute almost for the space of two houres, of all men, crying, Great is Diana of the Ephesians.

35 Then the towne Clarke, when he had stayed the people, sayd, Yee men of Ephesus, what man is it that knoweth not, howe that the citie of the Ephesians is a worshipper of the great goddesse Diana, and of the image, which came downe from r Jupiter?

36 Seeing then that no man can speake against these things, ye ought to bee appeased, and to do nothing rashly.

37 For yee haue brought hither these men, which haue neither committed sacrilege, neither do blaspheme your goddesse.

38 Wherefore, if Demetrius and the craftes men which are with him, haue a matter against any man, the lawe is open, and there are Deputies: let them accuse one another.

39 But if yee inquire any thing concerning other matters, it may bee determined in a lawfull assembly.

40 For we are euen in ieopardie to be accused of this dayes sedition, forasmuch as there is no cause, whereby wee may giue a reason of this concourse of people.

41 And when he had thus spoken, he let the assembly depart.

CHAP. XX.

1 Paul goeth into Macedonia and into Grecia, 7 He celebrateth the Lords Supper and preacheth, 9 At Troas he rayseth vp Eutychus. 27 At Ephesus hee calleth the Elders of the Church together, commiteth the keeping of Gods flocke vnto them, warneth them of false teachers, maketh his prayer with them, & departeth by ship towards Ierusalem.

NOw after ỹ tumult was ceased, Paul called the Disciples vnto him, and embraced them, and departed to goe into Macedonia.

2 And when he had gone through those partes, and had exhorted them with many words, he came into Grecia.

3 And hauing tarried there three moneths, because the Iewes layd waite for him, as he was about to saile into Syria, hee purposed to returne through Macedonia.

4 And there accompanied him into Asia, Sopater of Berea, and of them of Thessalonica, Aristarchus, and Secundus, and Gaius of Derbe, and Timotheus, and of them of Asia, Tychicus, and Trophimus.

5 These went before, and taried vs at Troas.

6 And we sailed forth from a Philippi, after the dayes of vnleauened bread, and came vnto them to Troas in fiue dayes, where we abode seuen dayes.

7 And b the first day of the weeke, the disciples being come together to c breake bread, Paul preached vnto them, ready to depart on the morowe, and continued the preaching vntil midnight.

8 And there were many lightes in an vpper chamber, where ‖ they were gathered together.

9 And there sate in a window a certaine yong ‖ man named Eutychus, fallen into a deepe sleepe: and as Paul was long preaching, hee ouercome with sleepe fell downe from the third loft, and was taken vp dead.

10 But Paul went downe, and layed himselfe vpon him, and embraced him, saying, Trouble not your selues: for his life is in him.

11 So when Paul was come vp againe, and had broken bread, and eaten, hee communed a long while till the dawning of the day, and so he departed.

12 And they brought the boy aliue, and they were not a little comforted.

13 Then we went foorth to ship, and sailed vnto the citie d Assos, ỹ we might receiue Paul there: for so had hee appointed, and would himselfe goe afoote.

14 Nowe when he was come vnto vs to Assos, and wee had receiued him, wee came to Mitylenes.

15 And we sayled thence, and came the next day ouer against Chios, and the next day wee arriued at Samos, and taried at Trogyllium: the next day we came to Miletum.

16 For Paul had determined to saile by Ephesus, because he would not spende the time in Asia: for he hasted to be, if he could possible, at Jerusalem, at the day of ‖ Pentecost.

17 ¶ Wherefore from Miletum he sent to Ephesus, & called the elders of ỹ Church.

18 Who when they were come to him, he sayd vnto them, Ye know from the first day that I came into Asia, after what maner I haue bene with you at all seasons,

19 e Seruing the Lord with all f modestie, and with many teares, and tentations, which came vnto me by the layings awaite of the Iewes,

22 And now behold, I go k bound in the spirit vnto Ierusalem, and know not what things shall come vnto me there, 24 But I passe not at all, neither is my life deare vnto my selfe, so that I may fulfil my course with ioy, and the ministration which I haue receiued of the Lorde Iesus, to testifie the Gospel of the grace of God.

25 And nowe, beholde, I knowe that henceforth yee all, through whome I haue gone preaching the kingdome of God, shall see my face no more.

26 Wherefore I take you to record this day, that I am pure from the m blood of all men.

27 For I haue kept nothing backe, but haue shewed you n all the counsell of God.

28 Take heede therefore vnto your selues, and to all the flocke, whereof the holy Ghost hath made you ouerseers, to feede the Church of God, which he hath purchased with his o owne blood.

29 For I knowe this, that after my departing shall grieuous woules enter in among, you not sparing the flocke.

30 Moreouer, of your owne selues shall men arise speaking p peruerse thinges, to draw disciples after them.

31 Therefore watch & remember, that by the space of three yeeres I ceased not to warne euery one, both night and day with teares.

32 And now, brethren, I commend you to God, and to the word of his grace, which q is able to builde further, and to giue you an r inheritance, among all them which are sanctified.

33 I haue coueted no mans siluer, nor golde, nor apparell.

36 And when hee had thus spoken, hee kneeled downe, and prayed with them all.

37 Then they wept all abundantly, and fell on Pauls necke, and kissed him, 38 Being chiefly sorie for the woordes which he spake, That they shoulde see his face no more. And they accompanied him vnto the ship.

AND as wee launched foorth, and were departed from them, we came with a str eight course vnto Coos, and the day following vnto the Rhodes, and from thence vnto Patara.

2 And wee found a ship that went ouer vnto Phenice, and went aboard, & set forth.

3 And when we had discouered Cyprus, we left it on the left hand, and sailed toward Syria, and arriued at Tyrus: for there the ship vnlayded the burden.

4 And when we had found disciples, we tarried there seuen dayes. And they tolde Paul a through the b Spirit, that he should not goe vp to Ierusalem.

5 ¶ But when the dayes were ended, wee departed and went our way, and they all accompanied vs with their wiues and children, euen out of the citie: and we kneeling downe on the shore, prayed.

6 Then when we had vnbraced one another, we tooke shippe, and they returned home.

7 And when wee had ended the course from Tyrus, wee arriued at Ptolemais, & saluted the brethren, and abode with them one day.

8 And the next day Paul and they that were with him, departed, and came vnto Cesarea: and wee entred into the house of *Philip the Euangelist, which was one of the seuen c Deacons, and abode with him.

9 Now he had foure daughters virgins, which did prophecie.

10 And as we tarried there many dayes, there came a certaine Prophet from Iudea, named Agabus.

11 And when he was come vnto vs, hee tooke Pauls girdle, and bounde his owne hands and feete, and sayde, d Thus sayth the holy Ghost, So shall the Iewes at Ierusalem e binde the man that oweth this girdle, and shall deliuer him into the hands of the Gentiles.

12 And when we had heard these things, both we and other of ỹ same place besought him that he would not goe vp to Ierusalē.

13 Then Paul answered, & said, What doe yee weeping and breaking mine heart? For I am ready not to be bound onely, but also to die at Ierusalem for the Name of the Lord Iesus.

14 So when hee would not be perswaded, we ceased, saying, The will of ỹ Lord be done.

15 And after those dayes we trussed vp our fardles, and went vp to Ierusalem.

16 There went with vs also certaine of the disciples of Cesarea, and brought with them one Mnason of Cyprus, an olde disciple, with whom we should lodge.

17 And when we were come to Ierusalem, the brethren receiued vs gladly.

18 And the next day Paul went in with vs vnto f James: and all the Elders were there assembled.

19 And when he had embraced them, he tolde by order all thinges, that God had wrought among the Gentiles by his ministration.

fied the Lord, & sayd vnto him, Thou seest, brother, howe many thousand Iewes there are which beleeue, and they are all zealous of the Lawe.

21 Nowe they are informed of thee, that thou teachest all the Iewes which are among the Gentiles, to forsake Moses, and sayest, that they ought not to circumcise their children, neither to liue after the g customes.

22 What is then to be done? the multitude must needes come together: for they shall heare that thou art come.

23 Doe therefore this that wee say to thee. Wee haue h foure men, which haue made a vowe.

24 Them take, and i purifie thy selfe with them, and contribute with them, that they may * shaue their heads: and all shall know, that those things, whereof they haue bene informed concerning thee, are nothing, but that thou thy selfe also walkest and keepest the Law.

25 For as touching the Gentiles, which beleeue, wee haue written, and determined * that they obserue no such thing, but that they keepe themselues from things offered to idoles, and from blood, and from that that is strangled, and from fornication.

26 Then Paul tooke the men, and the next day was purified with them, and entred into the Temple, * declaring the accomplishment of the dayes of the purification, until that an offring should be offered for euery one of them.

27 And when the seuen dayes were almost ended, the Iewes which were of Asia (when they sawe him in the Temple) mooued all the people, and k layed handes on him, 28 Crying, Men of Israel, helpe: this is the man that teacheth all men euery where against the people, and the Lawe, and this place: moreouer, hee hath brought Grecians into the Temple, & hath l polluted this holy place.

29 For they had seene before Trophimus an Ephesian with him in the citie, whom they supposed that Paul had brought into the Temple.

30 Then all the citie was mooued, and the people ran together: and they tooke Paul, and drewe him out of the Temple, and foorthwith the doores were shut.

31 But as they went about to kill him, tidings came vnto the chiefe Captaine of the band, that all Ierusalem was on an vproze.

32 Who immediatly tooke souldiers, and m Centurions, and came n downe vnto them: and when they saw the chiefe Captaine and the souldiers, they left beating of Paul.

33 Then the chiefe Captaine came neere, and tooke him, and commaunded him to be bound with two chaines, and demaunded who he was, and what he had done.

34 And one cryed this, another that, among the people. So when hee could not know the certaintie for the tumult, he commanded him to be led into the castle.

35 And when he came vnto the grieces, it was so that he was borne of the souldiers, for the violence of the people.

36 For the multitude of the people followed after, crying, Away with him.

37 And as Paul should haue bene led into the castle, he sayd vnto the chiefe Captaine, May I speake vnto thee? Who sayd, Canst thou speake Greeke?

38 Art not thou the * o Egyptian, who before these dayes raised a sedition, and led out into the wildernes foure thousand men that were murderers?

3 I am verily a man, which am a Iewe, borne in * Tarsus in Cilicia, but brought vp in this citie at the a feet of Gamaliel, and instructed according to the perfect maner of the Law of the fathers, and was zealous toward God, as ye all are this day.

5 As also the chiefe Priest doeth beare me witnesse, and all the state of the Elders: of * whom also I receiued letters vnto the b brethren, and went to Damascus to bring them which were there, bound vnto Ierusalem, that they might be punished.

6 ¶ And so it was, as I iourneyed and was come neere vnto Damascus about noone, that suddenly there shone from heauen a great light round about me.

7 So I fell vnto the earth, and heard a voyce saying vnto mee, Saul, Saul, why persecutest thou me?

8 Then I answered, Who art thou, Lord? And hee sayd to mee, I am Iesus of Nazareth, whom thou persecutest.

9 Moreouer they that were with mee, sawe in deede a light, and were afrayd: but they heard not the voyce of him that spake vnto me.

10 Then I said, What shal I do, Lord? And the Lord sayd vnto me, Arise, and goe into Damascus: and there it shall be tolde thee of all things, which are appointed for thee to doe.

17 ¶ And it came to passe, that when I was come againe to Ierusalem, and prayed in the Temple, I was in a trance, 18 And saw him saying vnto me, Make haste, and get thee quickly out of Ierusalem: for they will not receiue thy witnesse concerning me.

19 Then I sayd, Lord, they knowe that I * prisoned, and beat in euery Synagogue them that beleeued in thee.

23 And as they cryed and cast off their clothes, and threwe dust into the ayre, 24 The chiefe Captaine commaunded him to be led into the Castle, and bade that he should be scourged, and examined, that he might know wherefore they cryed so on him.

25 And as they bound him with thongs, Paul sayd vnto the Centurion that stoode by, Is it lawfull for you to scourge one that is f a Romane, and not condemned?

26 Now when the Centurion heard it, he went and tolde the chiefe captaine, saying, Take heede what thou doest: for this man is a Romane.

27 Then the chiefe captaine came, and sayd to him, Tell me, Art thou a Romane? And he sayd, Yea.

28 Then the chiefe captaine answered, With a great summe obteined I this burgesship. Then Paul sayd, But I was g so borne.

29 Then straightway they departed from him, which should haue examined him: and the chiefe captaine also was afraide, after hee knew that hee was a Romane, and that he had bound him.

30 On the next day, because hee would haue knowen the certainty wherefore hee was accused of the Iewes, hee loosed him from his bonds, and commaunded the hie Priestes and all their Councill to come together: and hee brought Paul, and set him before them.

3 Then sayd Paul to him, God a will smite thee, thou whited wall: for thou sittest to iudge me according to the Lawe, & commaundest thou me to be smitten contrary to the Law?

4 And they that stood by, sayd, Reuilest thou Gods hie Priest?

5 Then sayd Paul, I b knewe not, brethren, that he was the hie Priest: for it is written, * Thou shalt not speake euill of the ruler of thy people.

6 But when Paul perceiued that the one part were of the Sadducees, and the other of the Pharises, he cryed in the Counsell, Men and brethren, * I am a Pharise, the sonne of a Pharise: I am accused of the hope and c resurrection of the dead.

7 And when he had sayd this, there was a dissension betweene the Pharises and the Sadducees, so d the multitude was diuided.

8 * For the Sadducees say that there is no resurrection, neither Angel, nor spirite: but the Pharises confesse d both.

9 Then there was a great cry: and the Scribes of the Pharises part rose vp, and stroue, saying, We finde none euill in this man: but if a spirit or an Angel hath spoken to him, let vs not fight against God.

10 And when there was a great dissension, the chiefe captaine, fearing least Paul should haue bene pulled in pieces of them, commaunded the souldiers to goe downe, and to take him from among them, and to bring him into the Castle.

11 ¶ Now the night following the Lord stood by him, and said, Be of good courage, Paul: for as thou hast testified of mee in Ierusalem, so must thou beare witnes also at Rome.

12 And when the day was come, certaine of the Iewes made an assemblie, and bound themselues with an e othe, saying, that they would neither eate nor drinke, till they had killed Paul.

13 And they were moe then fourtie, which had made this conspiracie.

14 And they came to the chiefe Priests and Elders, and sayd, We haue bound our selues with a solemne othe, that we will eate nothing, vntill we haue slaine Paul.

15 Nowe therefore, yee and the Councill signifie to the chiefe captaine, that hee bring him forth vnto you to morowe, as though ye would knowe something more perfectly of him, and we, or euer he come neere, will be ready to kill him.

of their laying awaite, he went, and entred into the castle, and told Paul.

17 And Paul called one of the Centurions vnto him, and sayde, Bring this young man vnto the chiefe captaine: for hee hath a certaine thing to shew him.

18 So he tooke him, and brought him to the chiefe captaine, and sayd, Paul the prisoner called me vnto him, and prayed me to bring this yong man vnto thee, which hath some thing to say vnto thee.

19 Then the chiefe captaine tooke him by the hand, and went apart with him alone, and asked him, What hast thou to shew me?

20 And he sayde, the Iewes haue conspired to desire thee, that thou wouldest bring foorth Paul to morow into the Counsill, as though they would enquire somewhat of him more perfectly.

21 But let them not perswade thee: for there lie in waite for him of them moe then fourty men, which haue bound themselues with an othe, that they will neither eate nor drinke, till they haue killed him: and nowe are they ready, and wayt for thy promise.

22 The chiefe captaine then let the yong man depart, and charged him to speake it to no man, that he had ‡ shewed him these things.

‡ Greeke, that thou hast shewed these things to me.

23 And he called vnto him two certaine Centurions, saying, Make ready two hundred soudiers, that they may goe to Cesarea, and horsemen threescore and ten, and two hundreth with dartes, at the third houre of the night, 24 And let them make ready an horse, that Paul being set on, may bee brought safe vnto Felix the Gouernour.

g This letter was written partly in the fauour of Paul, that his aduersaries might not oppresse him.

25 And he wrote an ɛ epistle in this maner:

26 Claudius Lysias vnto the most noble Gouernour Felix, sendeth greeting.

27 As this man was taken of ỳ Iewes, and should haue bene killed of them, I came vpon them with the garison, and rescued him, h perceiuing that he was a Romane.

h The Captaine dissembleth to commend his owne diligence: for he did not know that Paul was a Romane before he had rescued him, and giuen him to bee straitly examined.

28 And when I would haue knowen the cause, wherefore they accused him, I brought him forth vnto their counsel.

29 There I perceiued that hee was accused of questions of their Lawe, but had no crime worthy of death, or of bonds.

30 And when it was shewed mee, howe that the Iewes layd wait for the man, I sent him streightway to thee, and commanded his accusers to speake before thee the things ỳ they had against him. Farewell.

31 Then the souldiers as it was commaunded them, tooke Paul, and brought him by night to Antipatris.

32 And the next day, they left the horsemen to goe with him, and returned vnto the Castle.

33 Nowe when they came into Cesarea, they deliuered the Epistle to the Gouernour, and presented Paul also vnto him.

i By this name the Romanes called euery countrey which they had subdued.

34 So when the gouernour had read it, he asked of what ι prouince he was: and when he vnderstoode that hee was of Cilicia, 35 I will heare thee, sayd he, when thine accusers also are come, & commaunded him to be kept in Herods iudgement hall.

CHAP. XXIIII.

10 Paul being accused answereth for his life, & doctrine against his accusers. 25 Fœlix gropeth him, thinking to haue a bribe. 28 And after leaueth him in prison.

NOw after fiue dayes, Ananias the hie Priest came downe with the Elders, and with Tertullus a certaine Oratour, which appeared before the Gouernour against Paul.

2 And when he was called forth, Tertullus began to accuse him, saying, Seeing that wee haue obteined great quietnesse through thee, & that many worthy things are done vnto this nation through thy prouidence,

3 We acknowledge it wholy, and in all places, most ᵃ noble Felix, with all thanks.

4 But that I be not tedious vnto thee, I pray thee, that thou wouldest heare vs of thy courtesie a few words.

5 Certainely we haue found this man a pestilent fellowe, and a moouer of sedition among all the Iewes throughout the world, and a chiefe maintener of the ᵇ sect of the ᶜ Nazarites:

6 And hath gone about to pollute the Temple: therefore we tooke him, and would haue iudged him according to our Lawe:

7 But the ‖ chiefe captaine Lysias came vpon vs, & with great violence tooke him out of our hands,

8 Commaunding his accusers to come to thee: of whom thou mayest (if thou wilt inquire) know all these things whereof we accuse him.

9 And the Iewes likewise affirmed, saying that it was so.

10 Then Paul, after that the gouernour had beckened vnto him that hee should speake, answered, I doe the more gladly answere for my selfe, forasmuch as I knowe that thou hast bene of many yeeres a ᵈ iudge vnto this ᵉ nation,

11 Seeing that thou mayest knowe, that there are but twelue dayes since I came vp ᶠ to worship in Ierusalem.

12 And they neither found mee in the Temple disputing with any man, neither making vproare among the people, neither in the Synagogue, nor in the citie.

13 Neither can they prooue the things whereof they now accuse me.

14 But this I confesse vnto thee, that after the way (which they call ᵍ heresie) so worship I the God of my fathers, beleeuing all things which are written in the Lawe and the Prophets,

15 And haue hope towards God, that the resurrection of the dead which they themselues looke for also, shalbe both of iust and vniust.

16 And herein I endeuor my selfe to haue

23 Now when Felix heard these things, he deferred them, and sayde, When I shall more perfectly knowe the things which concerne this ‖ way, by the comming of Lysias the chiefe Captaine, I will decide your matter.

24 Then he commaunded a Centurion to keepe Paul, and that hee shoulde haue ease, and that hee should forbid none of his acquaintance to minister vnto him, or to come vnto him.

25 ¶ And after certaine dayes, came Felix with his wife Drusilla, which was a k Iewesse, and hee called foorth Paul, and heard him of the faith in Christ.

k By whose counsell Felix called for Paul.

26 And as he disputed of righteousnes, and temperance, and of the iudgement to come, Felix l trembled, and answered, Goe thy way for this time, and when I haue conuenient time, I will call for thee.

l The word of God maketh the very wicked astonished, and therefore to them it is the sauour of death vnto death.

27 Hee hoped also that money shoulde haue bin giuen him of Paul, that he might loose him: wherefore he sent for him the oftener, and communed with him.

28 When two yeeres were expired, Portius Festus came into Felix roome: and Felix willing to ‖get fauour of the Iewes, left Paul bound. ‖Or, to doe a pleasure.

CHAP. XXV.

1 The Iewes accuse Paul before Festus. 8 He answereth for himselfe, 11 And appealeth vnto the Emperour. 14 His matter is rehearsed before Agrippa, 23 And he is brought forth.

WHen Festus was then come into the prouince, after three dayes hee went vp from Cesarea vnto Ierusalem.

2 Then the high Priest, and the chiefe of the Iewes appeared before him against Paul: and they besought him, m The enuious suite of Priests against Paul.

3 And * desired fauour against him, that he would send for him to Ierusalem: and they layd wait to kill him by the way.

4 But Festus answered, that Paul should be kept at Cesarea, and that he himselfe would shortly depart thither.

5 Let them therefore, sayde hee, which among you are b able, come downe with vs: and if there be any wickednes in the man, let them accuse him.

b Which may most commodiously.

6 ¶ Nowe when he had tarried among them no more then tenne dayes, hee went downe to Cesarea, and the next day sate in the iudgement seat, and commanded Paul to be brought.

7 And when he was come, the Iewes which were come from Ierusalem stoode about him, and layd many, and grieuous complaints against Paul, which they could not proue,

8 Forasmuch as hee answered c that he had neither offended any thing against the law of the Iewes, neither against the Temple, nor against Cesar.

c Paul defendeth himselfe in iudgement.

9 But Festus willing to ‖get fauour of the Iewes, answered Paul, and sayd, Wilt thou goe vp to Ierusalem, and there bee iudged of these things before me?

‖Or, to do a pleasure

10 Then sayd Paul, I stand at d Cesars iudgement seate, where I ought to bee e iudged: to the Iewes I haue done no wrong, as thou very well knowest.

d Seeing himselfe betrayed by the ambition of the iudge, he desireth that in consideration of his freedome, he may be sent to Rome.

11 For if I haue done wrong, or committed any thing worthy of death, I refuse not to die: but if there bee none of these things whereof they accuse me, no man can deliuer me to them: I appeale vnto Cesar.

e It is lawfull to require the defence of the Magistrate to mainteine our right.

12 Then when Festus had spoken with f the Councill, he answered, Hast thou appealed vnto Cesar? vnto Cesar shalt thou goe.

f Without whose consent he could doe nothing.

13 ¶ And after certaine dayes, king Agrippa and g Bernice came downe to Cesarea to salute Festus.

g This was his owne sister whom he entertained.

14 And when they had remained there many dayes, Festus propoled Pauls cause vnto the King, saying, There is a certaine man left in prison by Felix.

15 Of whome when I came to Ierusalem, the hie Priestes and Elders of the Iewes informed me, and desired to haue iudgement against him.

16 To whome I answered that it is not the maner of the Romanes for fauour to deliuer any man to the death, before that he which is accused haue the accusers before him, and haue place to defend himselfe, concerning the crime.

17 Therefore when they were come hither, without delay, the day following I sate on the iudgement seate, and commaunded the man to be brought forth.

18 Against whome when the accusers stoode vp, they brought no crime of such things as I suppoled:

19 But had certaine questions against him of their owne h superstition, and of one Iesus which was dead, whome Paul affirmed to be aliue.

h This worde doeth also signifie religion: but he speaketh in contempt of the true doctrine.

20 And because I doubted of such maner of question, I asked him whether hee would go to Ierusalem, and there be iudged of these things.

21 But because he appealed to be reserued to the examination of Augustus, I commaunded him to be kept, till I might send him to Cesar.

22 Then Agrippa sayd vnto Festus, I would also heare the man my selfe. To morrowe, sayd he, thou shalt heare him.

23 And on the morrowe when Agrippa was come and Bernice with great pompe, and were entred into the ‖ Common hall with the chiefe captaines and chiefe men of the citie, at Festus commandement ‖Or, auditorie.

mandement Paul was brought foorth.

24 And Festus said, King Agrippa, and all men which are present with vs, ye see this man, about whome all the multitude of the Iewes haue called vpon me, both at Ierusalem, and here, crying, that he ought not to liue any longer.

25 Yet haue I found nothing worthie of death, that hee hath committed: neuertheleſſe, seeing that he hath appealed to Augustus, I haue determined to send him.

26 Of whome I haue no certeine thing to write vnto my i lorde: wherefore I haue brought him foorth vnto you, and specially vnto thee, King Agrippa, that after examination had, I might haue somewhat to write.

27 For mee thinketh it vnreasonable to send a prisoner, and not to shew the causes which are layed against him.

i Flatterers first vsed to call Tyrants by this name, and after it ſo grewe into vſe, that vertuous Princes refused it not, as appeareth by Plinies epiſtles to Traiane.

CHAP. XXVI.

1 The innocencie of Paul is approoued by rehearſing his converſation. 25 His modeſt anſwere againſt the iniurie of Feſtus.

THen Agrippa sayde vnto Paul, Thou art permitted to speake for thy selfe. So Paul stretched foorth the hand, and answered for himselfe.

2 I thinke my selfe happy, King Agrippa, because I shall answere this day before thee of all the things whereof I am accused of the Iewes:

3 Chiefly, because thou hast knowledge of all customes, and questions which are among the Iewes: wherefore, I beseech thee a to heare me patiently.

a Forasmuch as he beſt vnderſtood the religion, he ought to be more attentiue.

4 As touching my life from my childehood, & what it was from the beginning among mine owne nation at Ierusalem, know all the Iewes,

5 Which knew mee heeretofore (if they would testifie) that after the most straite b sect of our religion, I liued a Pharisie.

b Paul speaketh of this ſect according to the peoples eſtimation, who preferred it as moſt holy aboue all others: for their doctrine was leaſt corrupt.

6 And nowe I stand and am accused for the hope of the promise made of God vnto our fathers.

7 Whereunto our twelue tribes instantly serving God day and night, hope to come: for the which hopes sake, O king Agrippa, I am accused of the Iewes.

8 Why should it be thought a thing incredible vnto you, that God shoulde raise againe the dead?

9 I also verily thought in my selfe, that I ought to doe many contrary things against the Name of Iesus of Nazaret.

10 * Which thing I also did in Ierusalem: for many of the Saintes I shut vp in prison, hauing receiued authoritie of the hie Priests, and when they were put to death, I c gaue my sentence.

Chap.8.3.

c That is, I approued their cruelties which they vſed against them.

11 And I punished them throughout all the Synagogues, and compelled them to blaspheme, and being more madde against them, I persecuted them, euen vnto strange cities.

Chap.9.4.and 22.7.

15 Then I sayde, Who art thou, Lord? And he said, I am Iesus whom thou persecutest.

16 But rise and stand vp on thy feete: for I haue appeared vnto thee for this purpose, to appoynt thee a minister and a witnesse, both of the things which thou hast seene, and of the things in the which I wil appeare vnto thee, e Although this properly appertaineth vnto God, yet he applieth this vnto his ministers vnto whom he giueth his holy Spirit.

19 Wherefore, King Agrippa, I was not disobedient vnto the heauenly vision, 20 * But shewed first vnto them of Damascus, and at Ierusalem, and throughout all the coastes of Iudea, & then to the Gentiles, that they should repent, and turne to God, and doe workes worthy amendement of life.

Chap.21.30.

22 Neuertheleſſe I obteined helpe of God, and continue vnto this day, witnessing both to small and to great, saying none other things, then those which the Prophets and Moses did say should come,

23 To wit, that Christ should suffer, and that hee should be the first that should rise from the dead, and should shewe light vnto the people, and to the Gentiles.

24 And as hee thus answered for himselfe, Festus sayd with a loude voyce, Paul, thou art beſides thy selfe: much learning doeth make thee madde.

25 But he sayd, I am not mad, O noble Festus, but I speake the wordes of trueth and soberneſſe.

26 For the king knoweth of these things, before whome also I speake boldly: for I am perſwaded that f none of these things are hid from him: for this thing was not done in a corner.

f He knew that the Law, and the Prophets were of God, but he did not vnderſtand the true applying of the ſame.

27 O king Agrippa, beleeuest thou the Prophets? I knowe that thou beleeuest.

28 Then Agrippa sayd vnto Paul, Almost thou perſwadest mee to become a Christian.

29 Then Paul sayde, I would to God, that not onely thou, but also all that heare mee to day, were both almost, and altogether such as I am, except these bonds.

30 And when hee had thus spoken, the King rose vp, and the gouernour, and Bernice, and they that sate with them.

31 And when they were gone apart, they talked betweene themselues, saying, This man doeth nothing worthy of death, nor nor of bondes.

32 Then sayde Agrippa vnto Festus, This man might haue bene loosed, if he had not appealed vnto Cesar.

CHAP. XXVII.

1 Pauls dangerous voyage and his companie toward Rome. 44 How, and where they arriue.

NOwe when it was concluded, that wee shoulde saile into Italie, they deliuered both Paul, and certeine other prisoners vnto a Centurion named Julius, of the band of Augustus.

2 And * wee entred into a ship of Adramyttium, purposing to sayle by the coastes of Asia, and launched foorth, and had Aristarchus of Macedonia, a Thessalonian, with vs.

3 And the next day we arriued at Sidon: and Julius courteously intreated Paul, and gaue him libertie to goe vnto his friendes, that they might refresh him.

4 And from thence we launched, & sayled hard by a Cyprus, because the windes were contrary.

5 Then sailed we ouer the sea by Cilicia, and Pamphylia, and came to Myra, a citie in Lycia.

6 And there the Centurion found a ship of Alexandria, sayling into Italie, and put vs therein.

7 And when we had sailed slowly many dayes, and scarse were come against Gnidum, because the winde suffered vs not, we sayled hard by ‖ Candie, neere to b Salmone,

8 And with much adoe sailed beyond it, and came vnto a certeine place called the Faire hauens, neere vnto the which was the citie Lasea.

9 So when much time was spent, and sayling was nowe ieopardous, because also the c Fast was nowe passed, Paul exhorted them,

10 And said vnto them, Syrs, I see that this voyage will be with hurt and much domage, not of the lading and ship onely, but also of our liues.

11 Neuertheles the Centurion beleeued rather the gouernour and the master of the ship, then those things which were spoken of Paul.

12 And because the hauen was not commodious to winter in, many tooke counsell to depart thence, if by any meanes they might attaine to Phenice, there to winter, which is an hauen of Candie, and lieth toward the Southwest and by West, and Northwest and by West.

13 And when the Southerne winde blew softly, they supposing to obtaine their purpose, loosed neerer, and sailed by Candie.

14 But anon after, there arose by it a stormie winde called d Euroclydon.

15 And when the ship was caught, and could not resist the wind, we let her goe, and were carried away.

16 And we ranne vnder a little Ile named e Clauda, and had much adoe to get the boate.

17 Which they tooke vp, & vsed all helpe, vndergirding the shippe, fearing least they should haue fallen into Syrtes, and they let downe the ‖ vessell, and so were caried.

18 The next day when wee were tossed with an exceeding tempest, they ‖ lightened the ship.

19 And the third day wee cast out with our owne handes the tackling of the ship.

20 And when neyther sunne nor starres in many dayes appeared, and no small tempest lay vpon vs, all hope that wee should be saued, was then taken away.

21 But after long abstinence, Paul stood forth in the middes of them, and said, Syrs, yee should haue hearkened to mee, and not haue loosed from Candie: so should yee haue f gained this hurt and losse.

22 But nowe I exhort you to be of good courage: for there shall be no losse of any mans life among you, saue of the shippe onely.

23 For there stoode by me this night the Angel of g God, whose I am, and whom I serue, 24 Saying, Feare not, Paul: for thou must be brought before Cesar: and loe, God hath giuen vnto h thee all that sayle with thee.

25 Wherefore, Syrs, be of good courage: for I beleeue God, that it shall be so as it hath bene told me.

26 Howbeit, we must be cast into a certaine Iland.

27 And when the fourteenth night was come, as we were caried to and fro in the i Adriaticall sea about midnight, the shipmen deemed that some countrey approched vnto them, 28 And sounded, and found it twentie fathoms: and when they had gone a little further, they sounded againe, and found fifteene fathoms.

29 Then fearing least they should haue fallen into some rough places, they cast foure ancres out of the sterne, and wished that the day were come.

30 Nowe as the mariners were about to flee out of the ship, and had let downe the boate into the sea vnder a colour as though they would haue cast ancres out of the foreshippe, 31 Paul sayd vnto the Centurion, & the souldiers, Except these abide in the shippe, ye cannot be safe.

32 Then the souldiers cut off the ropes of the boate, and let it fall away.

33 And when it began to be day, Paul exhorted them all to take meate, saying, This is the fourteenth day that yee haue tarried, and continued k fasting, receiuing nothing.

34 Wherefore I exhort you to take meate: for this is for your iaregard: for there shall not a haire fall from the head of any of you.

35 And when hee had thus spoken, hee tooke bread, and gaue thankes to God, in presence of them all, and brake it, and began to eate.

n By this Hebrewe phrase is meant that they should be in all 36 Then were they all of good courage, and they also tooke meate.

37 Now we were in the ship in all two hundreth threescore and sixteene soules.

38 And when they had eaten enough, they lightened the shippe, and cast out the wheate into the sea.

39 And when it was day, they knewe not the countrey, but they spied a certaine creeke with a banke, into the which they were minded (if it were possible) to thrust in the shippe.

40 So when they had taken vp the ancres, they committed the shippe vnto the sea, and loosed the rudder bondes, and hoysed vp the maine sale to the winde, and drewe to the shore.

41 And when they fell into a place, where two seas mette, they thrust in the shippe: and the fore-part stucke fast, and could not be mooued, but the hinder part was broken with the violence of the waues.

42 Then the souldiers counsell was o to kill the prisoners: least any of them, when he had swomme out, should flee away.

43 But the Centurion willing to saue Paul, stayed them from this counsell, and commanded that they that could swimme, should cast themselues first into the sea, and goe out to land:

44 And the other, some on boardes, and some on certaine pieces of the shippe: and so it came to passe, that they came all safe to land.

o This declareth the great & barbarous ingratitude of the wicked, which cannot be wonne by any benefites.

CHAP XXVIII.

2 Paul with his company are gently intreated of the barbarous people. 5 The viper hurteth him not. 8 He healeth Publius father and others, and being furnished by them of things necessary, hee fared toward Rome, 15 Where being received of the brethren, he declareth his busines, 30 And there preacheth two yeeres.

AND when they were come safe, then they knewe that the yle was called a Melita.

a Nowe called Malta.

2 And the Barbarians shewed vs no litle kindnesse: for they kindled a fire, and receiued vs euery one, because of the present shoure, and because of the colde.

3 And when Paul had gathered a nomber of stickes, and laide them on the ‖ fire, there came a viper out of the heat, and lept on his hand.

‖ Or, heape.

4 Nowe when the Barbarians saw the worme hang on his hand, they said among themselues, This man surely is a b murtherer, whome, though hee hath escaped the sea, yet c Vengeance hath not suffered to liue.

b Such is the peruerse iudgement of men, that they condemne such as they see in any affliction.

c Whome they made a goddesse and called her Dice, or Nemesis.

5 But hee shooke off the worme into the fire, and felt no harme.

6 Howbeit they waited when he should haue swollen, or fallen downe dead suddenly: but after they had looked a great while, and sawe no inconuenience come to him, they changed their mindes, and said, That he was a d God.

d Beholde the extremitie of these infidels, and how much they are bent to superstition: for after one rage and errour they fell into an other.

7 In the same quarters, the chiefe man of the Ile (whose name was Publius) had possessions: the same receiued vs, e lodged vs three dayes courteously.

8 And so it was, that the father of Publius lay sicke of the feuer, and of a bloodie flixe: to whome Paul entred in, and when he prayed, he laide his handes on him, and healed him.

9 When this then was done, other also in the yle, which had diseases, came to him and were healed.

10 Which also did vs great honour: and when wee departed, they laded vs with things necessarie.

11 ¶ Nowe after three moneths we departed in a ship of Alexandria, which had wintred in the yle, whose badge was e Castor and Pollux.

e These the painims fained to be Iupiters children and gods of the sea.

12 And when wee arriued at Syracuse, we taried there three dayes.

13 And from thence wee fet a compasse, and came to Rhegium: and after one day, the South winde blewe, and wee came the second day to Puteoli, 14 Where wee found brethren, and were desired to tary with them seuen dayes, and so we went towarde Rome.

15 ¶ And from thence, when the brethren heard of vs, they came to meete vs at the Market of Appius, and at the f Three ‖ tauernes, whom when Paul saw, he thanked God, and waxed bold.

f These places were distant from Rome a dayes iourney, or thereabout.

‖ Or, shoppes.

16 So when wee came to Rome, the Centurion deliuered the prisoners to the generall Captaine: but Paul was g suffered to dwel by himselfe with a souldier that kept him.

g No doubt the captaine vnderstoode both by Festus letters, & also by the report of the vnder captaine, that Paul had committed no fault.

17 And the third day after, Paul called the chiefe of the Iewes together: and when they were come, he said vnto them, Men and brethren, though I haue comitted nothing against the people, or Lawes of the fathers, yet was I deliuered prisoner from Ierusalem into the handes of the Romanes.

18 Who when they had examined mee, would haue let me goe, because there was no cause of death in me.

19 But when the Iewes spake contrary, I was constrained to appeale vnto Cesar, not because I had ought to accuse my nation of.

20 For this cause therefore haue I called for you, to see you, and to speake with you: for the hope of h Israels sake, I am bound with this chaine.

h That is, for Iesus Christs cause, whom they had long looked for as he that should be the redeemer of the world.

21 Then they said vnto him, We neither receiued letters out of Iudea concerning thee, neither came any of the brethren that shewed or spake any euill of thee.

22 But we will heare of thee what thou thinkest: for as concerning this sect, wee knowe that euery where it is spoken against.

23 And when they had appointed him a day, there came many vnto him into his lodging, to whom he expounded and testified the i kingdome of God, and preached vnto them concerning Iesus, both out of the Lawe of Moses, and out of the Prophets, from morning to night.

i That this kingdome, which was spoken of by the Prophets, was offred vnto them by the comming of Christ.

24 And some were perswaded with the things, which were spoken, and some beleeued not.

25 Therfore whē they agreed not among them-k Hereby the hearts of the infidels ought to bee mollified, and the weakelings confirmed, that they be not offended by the stubburnesse of the wicked.

themselues, they departed, after that Paul had spoken one worde, to wit, Well spake the holy Ghost by Esaias the Prophet vnto our fathers, 26 Saying, *k Go vnto this people, and say, By hearing ye shal heare, and shall not vnderstand, and seeing yee shall see, and not perceiue.

27 For the heart of this people is waxed fat, and their eares are dull of hearing, and with their eyes haue they winked, least they should see with their eyes, and heare with their eares, and vnderstande with their hearts, and should returne that I might heale them.

28 Be it knowen therefore vnto you, that this saluation of God is sent to the Gentiles, and they shall heare it.

29 And when hee had laid these things, the Iewes departed, and had great reasoning among them selues.

30 And Paul remayned two yeeres full in an house hired for himselfe, and receiued all that came in vnto him, 31 Preaching the kingdome of God, and teaching those things, which concerne the Lorde Iesus Christ, with all boldenesse of speach, without let.

l The worde of God healeth when the vertue of the Spirit is ioyned with it: and it is preached generally, that all men might be inexcusable.

The Epistle of the Apostle Paul to the Romanes.

THE ARGVMENT.

THe great mercie of God is declared toward man in Christ Iesus, whose righteousnesse is made ours through faith. For when man by reason of his owne corruption could not fulfil the Law, yea, committed most abominably, both against the lawe of God, and nature, the infinit bountie of God, mindful of his promise made to his seruant Abraham, the father of all beleeuers, ordeined that mans saluation should only stand in the perfect obedience of his Sonne Iesus Christ: so that not only the circumcised Iewes, but also the vncircumcised Gentiles should be saued by faith in him: euen as Abraham before he was circumcised, was counted iust onely through faith, and yet afterward receiued circumcision, as a seale or badge of the same righteousnes by faith. And to the intent that none shoulde thinke that the couenant with God made to him, & his posteritie was not performed: either because the Iewes receiued not Christ, (which was the blessed seed) or els beleeued not that he was the true redeemer, because he did not onely, or at least more notably preserue the Iewes: the examples of Ismael and Esau declare, that all are not Abrahams posteritie, which come of Abraham according to the flesh: but also the very strangers and Gentiles grafted in by faith, are made heires of the promes. The cause whereof is the only wil of God: forasmuch as of his free mercie he electeth some to be saued, and of his iust iudgement reiecteth others to be damned, as appeareth by the testimonies of the Scriptures. Yet to the intent that the Iewes should not be too much beaten downe, nor the Gentiles too much puffed vp, the example of Elias proueth, that God hath yet his electe euen of the naturall posteritie of Abraham, though it appeareth not so to mans eye: and for that preferment that the Gentiles haue, it proceedeth of the liberal mercie of God, which he at length wil stretch toward the Iewes againe, and so gather the whole Israel (which is his Church) of them both. This ground-worke of fauh and doctrine laide, instructions of Christian maners follow: teaching euery man to walke in roundnesse of conscience in his vocation, with all patience and humblenesse, reuerencing and obeying the magistrate, exercising charitie, putting off the old man, and putting on Christ, bearing with the weake, and louing one another according to Christs example. Finally, S. Paul after his commendations to the brethren, exhorteth them to vnitie, and to flee false preachers and flatterers, and so concludeth with a prayer.

8 First I thanke my God through IESVS Christ for you all, because your faith is published throughout i the whole world.

10 Alwayes in my prayers, beseeching, that by some meanes one time or other I might haue a prosperous iourney by the will of God, to come vnto you.

11 * For I long to see you, that I might bestowe among you some spirituall gift, to strengthen you, 12 That is, that I might bee comforted together with you, through our mutual faith, both yours and mine.

13 Nowe my brethren, I would that ye shoulde not bee ignorant, howe that I haue oftentimes purposed to come vnto you (but haue bene [m] let hitherto) that I might haue some [n] fruite also among you, as I haue among the other Gentiles.

14 I am debter both to the Grecians, and to the Barbarians, both to the wise men and to the vnwise.

15 Therefore as much as in me is, I am ready to preach the Gospel to you also that are at Rome.

16 For I am not [o] ashamed of the Gospell of Christ: for it is the * [p] power of God vnto saluation to euery one that beleeueth, to the Iewe first, and also to the ‖ Grecian.

17 For by it the [q] righteousnesse of [r] God is reuealed, from faith to faith: as it is written, * The iust shall liue by faith.

18 For the wrath of God is reuealed from heauen against all [s] vngodlinesse, and vnrighteousnesse of men, which withholde the trueth [t] in vnrighteousnesse, 19 Forasmuch as that, which may bee knowen of God, is manifest in them: for God hath shewed it vnto them.

20 For the inuisible things of him, that is, his eternall power and Godhead, are seene by the creation of the worlde, being considered in his workes, to the intent that they should be without excuse:

21 * Because that when they knew God, they [u] glorified him not as God, neither were thankefull, but became vaine in their imaginations, and their foolish heart was full of darkenesse.

22 When they professed themselues to be wise, they became fooles.

23 For they turned the glorie of the incorruptible God to the similitude of the image of a corruptible man, and of birdes, and foure footed beastes, and of creeping things.

24 Wherefore also God [x] [y] gaue them vp to their hearts lustes, vnto vncleannesse, to defile their owne bodies betweene themselues:

25 Which turned the trueth of God vnto a lie, and worshipped and serued the creature, ‖ forsaking the Creator, which is blessed for euer, Amen.

26 For this cause God gaue them vp vnto vile affections: for euen their women did change the naturall vse vnto that which is against nature.

27 And likewise also the men left the naturall vse of the woman, and burned in their ‖ lust one towarde another, and man with man wrought filthinesse, and receiued in themselues such recompence of their error, as was meete.

28 For as they regarded not to knowe God, euen so God deliuered them vp vnto a [z] reprobate minde, to do those thinges which are not conuenient,

29 Being full of all vnrighteousnesse, fornication, wickednesse, couetousnesse, maliciousnesse, full of enuie, of murther, of debate, of deceit, taking all things in the euill part, whisperers,

30 Backebiters, haters of God, doers of wrong, proude, boasters, inuenters of euill things, disobedient to parents, without vnderstanding, couenant breakers, without naturall affection, such as can neuer be appeased, mercilesse.

31 Which men, though they knewe [a] the ‖ Lawe of God, howe that they which commit such things, are worthie of death, yet not onely doe the same, but also [b] fauour them that doe them.

CHAP. II.

1 He feareth the hypocrites with Gods iudgement, 7 And comforteth the faithfull. 12 To beat downe all vaine pretence of ignorance, holinesse, and of alliance with God, he proueth all men to be sinners, 15 The Gentiles by their conscience, 17 The Iewes by the Lawe written.

THerefore thou art inexcusable, O man, whosoeuer thou art that ‖ [a] iudgest: * for in that that thou iudgest another, thou condemnest [b] thy selfe: for thou that iudgest, doest the same things.

2 But we knowe that the iudgement of God is according to [c] trueth, against them which commit such things.

3 And thinkest thou this, O thou man, that iudgest them which doe such things, and doest the same, that thou shalt escape the iudgement of God?

4 Or despisest thou the riches of his bountifulnesse, and * patience, and long sufferance, not knowing that the bountifulnesse of God leadeth thee to repentance?

5 But thou, after thine hardnesse, and heart that cannot repent, * heapest vnto thy selfe wrath against the day of [d] wrath, and of the declaration of the iust iudgement of God,

6 * Who will reward euery man according to his [e] workes:

7 That is, to them which by continuance in well doing seeke glorie, and honour, and immortalitie, eternall life:

8 But vnto them that are contentious and disobey the trueth, and obey vnrighteousnesse, shalbe indignation and wrath.

9 Tribulation and anguish shalbe vpon the soule of euery man that doeth euill: of the Iewe first, and also of the Grecian.

10 But glorie, honour, and peace to euery man that worketh good, to the Iewe first, and also to the Grecian.

11 For there is no respect of persons with God.

12 For as many as haue sinned without the Lawe, shall also perish without the Lawe: and as many as haue sinned in the Lawe, shall be iudged by the Lawe.

13 For not the hearers of the Lawe are iust before God, but the doers of the Lawe shall be iustified.

14 For when the Gentiles, which haue not the Lawe, doe by nature the things contained in the Lawe, these hauing not the Lawe, are a Lawe vnto themselues:

15 Which shewe the effect of the Lawe written in their hearts, their conscience also bearing witnesse, and their thoughts the meane while accusing, or else excusing one another, 16 In the day when God shall iudge the secrets of men by Iesus Christ, according to my Gospell.

17 Behold, thou art called a Iewe, and restest in the Lawe, and reioycest in God,

18 And knowest his will, and allowest the things that are excellent, being instructed out of the Lawe,

19 And trustest that thou thy selfe art a guide of the blinde, a light of them which are in darkenesse, 20 An instructer of the foolish, a teacher of babes, which hast the forme of knowledge and of the trueth in the Lawe.

21 Thou therefore which teachest another, teachest not thou thy selfe? thou that preachest a man should not steale, doest thou steale?

22 Thou that sayest a man should not commit adultery, doest thou commit adultery? thou that abhorrest idols, doest thou robbe the temples?

23 Thou that reioycest in the Lawe, through breaking the Lawe dishonourest thou God?

24 For the name of God is blasphemed among the Gentiles through you, as it is written.

25 For circumcision verily profiteth, if thou keepe the Lawe: but if thou be a breaker of the Lawe, thy circumcision is made vncircumcision.

26 Therefore if the vncircumcision keepe the righteousnesse of the Lawe, shall not his vncircumcision be counted for circumcision?

27 And shall not vncircumcision which is by nature, if it fulfill the Lawe, iudge thee, who by the letter and circumcision doest transgresse the Lawe?

28 For he is not a Iewe which is one outwardly, neither is that circumcision which is outwarde in the flesh:

29 But he is a Iewe which is one inwardly, and circumcision is of the heart in the spirit, and not in the letter, whose praise is not of men, but of God.

3 What aduantage then hath the Iewe? or what profite is there of circumcision?

2 Much euery way: chiefly because that vnto them were committed the oracles of God.

3 For what if some did not beleeue? shall their vnbeliefe make the faithfulnesse of God without effect?

4 God forbid: yea let God be true, but euery man a liar, as it is written, * That thou mightest be iustified in thy sayings, and mightest ouercome when thou art iudged.

5 But if our vnrighteousnesse commend the righteousnesse of God, what shall we say? Is God vnrighteous which taketh vengeance? I speake as a man.

6 God forbid: for then how shall God iudge the world?

7 For if the trueth of God hath more abounded through my lie vnto his glorie, why am I also yet iudged as a sinner?

8 And not rather (as we be slaundered, and as some affirme that we say) let vs do euill, that good may come thereof? whose damnation is iust.

9 What then? are we better than they? No, in no wise: for we haue before proued both Iewe and Gentile, that they are all vnder sinne,

10 As it is written, * There is none righteous, no not one:

11 There is none that vnderstandeth, there is none that seeketh after God.

12 They are all gone out of the way, they are together become vnprofitable: there is none that doeth good, no not one.

13 Their throate is an open sepulchre: with their tongues they haue vsed deceit: the poyson of aspes is vnder their lippes:

14 Whose mouth is full of cursing and bitternesse:

15 Their feete are swift to shed blood:

16 Destruction and miserie are in their wayes:

17 And the way of peace haue they not knowen:

18 There is no feare of God before their eyes.

19 Now we knowe that what things soeuer the Lawe saith, it saith to them which are vnder the Lawe, that euery mouth may be stopped, and all the world may become guiltie before God.

20 Therefore by the deedes of the Lawe there shall no flesh be iustified in his sight: for by the Lawe is the knowledge of sinne.

21 But now the righteousnesse of God without the Lawe is manifested, being witnessed by the Lawe and the Prophets, 22 Euen the righteousnesse of God which is by the faith of Iesus Christ vnto all and vpon all them that beleeue in him: for there is no difference.

23 For all haue sinned, and lacke the glorie of God,

24 And are iustified freely by his grace through the redemption that is in Christ Iesus,

25 Whom God hath set forth to be a reconciliation through faith in his blood, to declare his righteousnesse for the remission of sinnes that are past, through the forbearance of God,

26 To declare, I say, his righteousnesse at this time, that he might be iust, and iustifie him which is of the faith of Iesus.

27 Where is then thy reioycing? It is excluded. By what Lawe? of workes? Nay: but by the Lawe of faith.

28 Therefore we conclude that a man is iustified by faith without the deedes of the Lawe.

29 Is he the God of the Iewes only? is he not also of the Gentiles? Yea, of the Gentiles also.

30 Seeing it is one God which shall iustifie the circumcision by faith, and vncircumcision through faith.

31 Do we then make the Lawe of none effect through faith? God forbid: yea we establish the Lawe.

4 What shall we say then that Abraham our father as pertaining to the flesh hath found?

2 For if Abraham were iustified by workes, he hath whereof to reioyce, but not before God.

3 For what saith the Scripture? * Abraham beleeued God, and it was counted vnto him for righteousnesse.

4 Now to him that worketh is the reward not counted of grace, but of debt.

5 But to him that worketh not, but beleeueth on him that iustifieth the vngodly, his faith is counted for righteousnesse.

6 Euen as Dauid also describeth the blessednesse of the man, vnto whom God imputeth righteousnesse without workes, 7 Saying, * Blessed are they whose vnrighteousnesses are forgiuen, and whose sinnes are couered.

8 Blessed is the man to whom the Lord will not impute sinne.

9 Cometh this blessednesse then vpon the circumcision, or vpon the vncircumcision also? for we say that faith was counted to Abraham for righteousnesse.

10 How was it then counted? when he was circumcised, or vncircumcised? Not when he was circumcised, but when he was vncircumcised.

11 And he receiued the signe of circumcision, a seale of the righteousnesse of the faith which he had yet vncircumcised, that he might be the father of all them that beleeue, though they be not circumcised, that righteousnesse might be imputed vnto them also:

12 And the father of circumcision, not to them only which are of the circumcision, but also to them which walke in the steppes of the faith of our father Abraham, which he had yet vncircumcised.

13 For the promise that he should be the heire of the world, was not to Abraham or to his seede through the Lawe, but through the righteousnesse of faith.

14 For if they which are of the Lawe be heires, faith is made of none effect, and the promise abolished.

15 For the Lawe worketh wrath: for where no Lawe is, there is no transgression.

16 Therefore it is of faith, that it might be by grace, to the end the promise might be sure to all the seede, not to that only which is of the Lawe, but to that also which is of the faith of Abraham, who is the father of vs all,

17 (As it is written, * I haue made thee a father of many nations) before him whom he beleeued, euen God, which quickeneth the dead, and calleth those things which were not, as though they were.

18 Who against hope beleeued in hope, that he might be made the father of many nations, according to that which was spoken, * So shall thy seede be.

19 And he was not weake in faith, when he considered not his owne body now dead, (when he was almost an hundred yeere olde) neither the deadnesse of Sara's wombe,

20 He staggered not at the promise of God through vnbeliefe, but was strong in faith, and gaue glorie to God, 21 And was fully perswaded that what he had promised, he was able also to performe.

22 And therefore it was counted vnto him for righteousnesse.

23 Now it was not written for his sake alone, that it was imputed vnto him,

24 But for our sakes also, to whom it shall be imputed, which beleeue on him that raised vp Iesus our Lord from the dead, 25 Who was deliuered for our offences, and rose againe for our iustification.

5 Therefore being iustified by faith, we haue peace with God through our Lord Iesus Christ,

2 By whom also we haue entrance by faith into this grace wherein we stand, and reioyce in hope of the glorie of the sonnes of God.

3 And not only so, but we glorie in tribulations also, knowing that tribulation worketh patience,

4 And patience experience, and experience hope,

5 And hope maketh not ashamed, because the loue of God is shed abroad in our hearts by the holy Ghost which is giuen vnto vs.

6 For when we were yet without strength, in due time Christ died for the vngodly.

7 For scarcely for a righteous man will one die: yet peradventure for a good man some would euen dare to die.

8 But God commendeth his loue toward vs, in that while we were yet sinners, Christ died for vs.

9 Much more then being now iustified by his blood, we shall be saued from wrath through him.

10 For if when we were enemies we were reconciled to God by the death of his Sonne, much more being reconciled we shall be saued by his life.

11 And not that only, but we also reioyce in God through our Lord Iesus Christ, by whom we haue now receiued the reconciliation.

12 Wherefore as by one man sinne entred into the world, and death by sinne, and so death went ouer all men, for that all haue sinned:

13 (For vntill the Lawe sinne was in the world: but sinne is not imputed when there is no Lawe.

14 Neuertheless death reigned from Adam vnto Moses, euen ouer them that had not sinned after the similitude of the transgression of Adam, who is the figure of him that was to come.

15 But not as the offence, so also is the free gift. For if through the offence of one many be dead, much more the grace of God, and the gift by grace, which is by one man Iesus Christ, hath abounded vnto many.

16 And not as it was by one that sinned, so is the gift: for the iudgement was by one to condemnation, but the free gift is of many offences vnto iustification.

17 For if by one mans offence death reigned by one, much more they which receiue abundance of grace, and of the gift of righteousnesse, shall reigne in life by one Iesus Christ.)

18 Therefore as by the offence of one, iudgement came vpon all men to condemnation, euen so by the righteousnesse of one, the free gift came vpon all men vnto iustification of life.

19 For as by one mans disobedience many were made sinners, so by the obedience of one shall many be made righteous.

20 Moreouer the Lawe entred, that the offence might abound. But where sinne abounded, there grace did much more abound, 21 That as sinne hath reigned vnto death, euen so might grace reigne through righteousnesse vnto eternall life by Iesus Christ our Lord.

6 What shall we say then? shall we continue in sinne, that grace may abound?

2 God forbid. How shall we that are dead to sinne, liue any longer therein?

3 Know ye not, that so many of vs as were baptized into Iesus Christ were baptized into his death?

4 We are buried then with him by baptisme into death, that like as Christ was raised vp from the dead by the glorie of the Father, euen so we also should walke in newnesse of life.

5 For if we haue been planted together in the similitude of his death, we shall be also in the similitude of his resurrection,

6 Knowing this, that our olde man is crucified with him, that the bodie of sinne might be destroyed, that henceforth we should not serue sinne.

7 For he that is dead is iustified from sinne.

8 Now if we be dead with Christ, we beleeue that we shall also liue with him,

9 Knowing that Christ being raised from the dead dieth no more: death hath no more dominion ouer him.

10 For in that he died, he died vnto sinne once: but in that he liueth, he liueth vnto God.

11 Likewise reckon ye also your selues to be dead indeed vnto sinne, but liuing vnto God through Iesus Christ our Lord.

12 Let not sinne therefore reigne in your mortall bodie, that ye should obey it in the lustes thereof.

13 Neither giue ye your members as weapons of vnrighteousnesse vnto sinne: but giue your selues vnto God, as those that are aliue from the dead, and your members as weapons of righteousnesse vnto God.

14 For sinne shall not haue dominion ouer you: for ye are not vnder the Lawe, but vnder grace.

15 What then? shall we sinne, because we are not vnder the Lawe, but vnder grace? God forbid.

16 Know ye not, that to whom ye giue your selues seruants to obey, his seruants ye are whom ye obey, whether it be of sinne vnto death, or of obedience vnto righteousnesse?

17 But God be thanked, that ye were the seruants of sinne, but ye haue obeyed from the heart that forme of doctrine which was deliuered you.

18 Being then made free from sinne, ye became the seruants of righteousnesse.

19 I speake after the manner of men, because of the infirmitie of your flesh: for as ye haue giuen your members seruants to vncleannesse, and to iniquitie vnto iniquitie, euen so now giue your members seruants to righteousnesse vnto holinesse.

20 For when ye were the seruants of sinne, ye were free from righteousnesse.

21 What fruite had ye then in those things whereof ye are now ashamed? for the end of those things is death.

22 But now being made free from sinne, and become seruants to God, ye haue your fruite vnto holinesse, and the end euerlasting life.

23 For the wages of sinne is death: but the gift of God is eternall life through Iesus Christ our Lord.

7 Know ye not, brethren (for I speake to them that know the Lawe) how that the Lawe hath dominion ouer a man as long as he liueth?

2 For the woman which hath an husband is bound by the Lawe to the husband as long as he liueth: but if the husband be dead, she is loosed from the Lawe of the husband.

3 So then if while the husband liueth she be married to another man, she shall be called an adulteresse: but if the husband be dead, she is free from the Lawe, so that she is no adulteresse though she be married to another man.

4 Wherefore my brethren, ye also are become dead to the Lawe by the bodie of Christ, that ye should be married to another, euen to him that is raised vp from the dead, that we should bring forth fruite vnto God.

5 For when we were in the flesh, the motions of sinnes which were by the Lawe, had power in our members to bring forth fruite vnto death.

6 But now we are deliuered from the Lawe, that being dead wherein we were holden, that we should serue in newnesse of spirit, and not in the oldnesse of the letter.

7 What shall we say then? Is the Lawe sinne? God forbid. Yea I had not knowen sinne but by the Lawe: for I had not knowen lust, except the Lawe had said, Thou shalt not lust.

8 But sinne tooke occasion by the commandement, and wrought in me all manner of lust: for without the Lawe sinne was dead.

9 For I was aliue without the Lawe once: but when the commandement came, sinne reuiued, and I died.

10 And the commandement which was ordained to life, I found to be vnto death.

11 For sinne tooke occasion by the commandement, and deceiued me, and by it slewe me.

12 Wherefore the Lawe is holy, and the commandement holy, and iust, and good.

13 Was then that which is good made death vnto me? God forbid. But sinne, that it might appeare sinne, wrought death in me by that which is good, that sinne by the commandement might become exceeding sinfull.

14 For we know that the Lawe is spirituall: but I am carnall, solde vnder sinne.

15 For that which I do, I allow not: for what I would, that do I not: but what I hate, that do I.

16 If then I do that I would not, I consent vnto the Lawe that it is good.

17 Now then it is not I that do it, but sinne that dwelleth in me.

18 For I know that in me (that is, in my flesh) dwelleth no good thing: for to will is present with me, but how to performe that which is good I finde not.

19 For the good that I would, I do not: but the euill which I would not, that I do.

20 Now if I do that I would not, it is not I that do it, but sinne that dwelleth in me.

21 I finde then a Lawe, that when I would do good, euill is present with me.

22 For I delight in the Lawe of God after the inward man.

23 But I see another Lawe in my members, rebelling against the Lawe of my minde, and leading me captiue vnto the Lawe of sinne, which is in my members.

24 O wretched man that I am! who shall deliuer me from the bodie of this death?

25 I thanke God through Iesus Christ our Lord. So then with the minde I my selfe serue the Lawe of God, but with the flesh the Lawe of sinne.

8 There is therefore now no condemnation to them which are in Christ Iesus, which walke not after the flesh, but after the spirit.

2 For the Lawe of the spirit of life in Christ Iesus hath made me free from the Lawe of sinne and death.

3 For what the Lawe could not do, in that it was weake through the flesh, God sending his owne Sonne in the similitude of sinfull flesh, and by sinne condemned sinne in the flesh,

4 That the righteousnesse of the Lawe might be fulfilled in vs, which walke not after the flesh, but after the spirit.

5 For they that are after the flesh, do minde the things of the flesh: but they that are after the spirit, the things of the spirit.

6 For to be carnally minded is death: but to be spiritually minded is life and peace.

7 Because the carnall minde is enmitie against God: for it is not subiect to the Lawe of God, neither indeed can be.

8 So then they that are in the flesh cannot please God.

9 But ye are not in the flesh, but in the spirit, if so be that the spirit of God dwell in you. Now if any man haue not the spirit of Christ, he is none of his.

10 And if Christ be in you, the bodie is dead because of sinne, but the spirit is life because of righteousnesse.

11 But if the spirit of him that raised vp Iesus from the dead dwell in you, he that raised vp Christ from the dead shall also quicken your mortall bodies by his spirit that dwelleth in you.

12 Therefore brethren we are debters, not to the flesh, to liue after the flesh.

13 For if ye liue after the flesh, ye shall die: but if ye through the spirit do mortifie the deedes of the bodie, ye shall liue.

14 For as many as are led by the spirit of God, they are the sonnes of God.

15 For ye haue not receiued the spirit of bondage to feare againe, but ye haue receiued the spirit of adoption, whereby we crie, Abba, Father.

16 The same spirit beareth witnesse with our spirit, that we are the children of God.

17 And if children, then heires: heires of God, and heires annexed with Christ: if so be that we suffer with him, that we may be also glorified together.

18 For I reckon that the afflictions of this present time are not worthie of the glorie which shall be reuealed in vs.

19 For the feruent desire of the creature looketh for the reuelation of the sonnes of God.

20 For the creature was made subiect to vanitie, not willingly, but for his sake which hath made the same subiect in hope, 21 Because the creature it selfe also shall be deliuered from the seruitude of corruption into the glorious libertie of the children of God.

22 For we know that euery creature groneth with vs, and trauaileth in paine together vntill now.

23 And not only they, but we also which haue the first fruites of the spirit, euen we our selues grone within our selues, waiting for the adoption, to wit, the redemption of our bodie.

24 For we are saued by hope: but hope that is seene is not hope: for how can a man hope for that he seeth?

25 But if we hope for that we see not, then do we with patience abide for it.

26 Likewise the spirit also helpeth our infirmities: for we know not what we should pray as we ought: but the spirit it selfe maketh request for vs with groninges which cannot be expressed.

27 And he that searcheth the hearts knoweth what is the meaning of the spirit, because he maketh request for the saints according to the will of God.

28 And we know that all things worke together for good to them that loue God, euen to them which are the called according to his purpose.

29 For whom he did foreknow, he also did predestinate that they should be made like vnto the image of his Sonne, that he might be the first borne among many brethren.

30 Moreouer whom he predestinate, them he also called: and whom he called, them he also iustified: and whom he iustified, them he also glorified.

31 What shall we then say to these things? If God be on our side, who can be against vs?

32 He that spared not his owne Sonne, but gaue him for vs all, how shall he not with him also giue vs all things?

33 Who shall lay any thing to the charge of Gods chosen? It is God that iustifieth.

34 Who is he that condemneth? It is Christ that died, yea rather that is risen againe, who is euen at the right hand of God, and maketh request for vs.

35 Who shall separate vs from the loue of Christ? shall tribulation, or anguish, or persecution, or famine, or nakednesse, or perill, or sword?

36 As it is written, * For thy sake we are killed all the day long, we are counted as sheepe for the slaughter.

37 Nay in all these things we are more than conquerours through him that loued vs.

38 For I am perswaded that neither death, nor life, nor Angels, nor principalities, nor powers, nor things present, nor things to come,

39 Nor height, nor deepe, nor any other creature shall be able to separate vs from the loue of God, which is in Christ Iesus our Lord.

9 I Say the trueth in Christ, I lie not, my conscience also bearing me witnesse through the holy Ghost,

2 That I haue great heauinesse and continuall sorrow in my heart.

3 For I could wish that my selfe were accursed from Christ for my brethren, my kinsmen according to the flesh,

4 Which are Israelites, to whom pertaineth the adoption, and the glorie, and the couenants, and the giuing of the Lawe, and the seruice of God, and the promises,

5 Whose are the fathers, and of whom as concerning the flesh Christ came, who is God ouer all, blessed for euer, Amen.

6 Not that the word of God hath taken none effect: for they are not all Israelites which are of Israel,

7 Neither because they are the seede of Abraham, are they all children: but in Isaac shall thy seede be called,

8 That is, they which are the children of the flesh, these are not the children of God: but the children of the promise are counted for the seede.

9 For this is the word of promise, * At this time will I come, and Sara shall haue a sonne.

10 And not only this, but when Rebecca also had conceiued by one, euen by our father Isaac,

11 (For the children being not yet borne, neither hauing done any good or euill, that the purpose of God according to election might stand, 12 Not of workes, but of him that calleth) it was said vnto her, The elder shall serue the yonger.

13 As it is written, * Iacob haue I loued, but Esau haue I hated.

14 What shall we say then? Is there vnrighteousnesse with God? God forbid.

15 For he saith to Moses, * I will haue mercie on whom I will haue mercie, and I will shewe compassion on whom I will shewe compassion.

16 So then it is not of him that willeth, nor of him that runneth, but of God that sheweth mercie.

17 For the Scripture saith vnto Pharaoh, * Euen for this same purpose haue I raised thee vp, that I might shewe my power in thee, and that my name might be declared throughout all the earth.

18 Therefore whom he will he hardeneth.

19 Thou wilt say then vnto me, Why doth he then complaine? for who can withstand his will?

20 But O man, who art thou that pleadest against God? Shall the thing formed say to him that formed it, Why hast thou made me thus?

21 Hath not the potter power ouer the clay, of the same lumpe to make one vessell vnto honour, and another vnto dishonour?

22 What if God willing to shewe his wrath, and to make his power knowen, endured with much long suffering the vessels of wrath prepared to destruction,

23 And that he might make knowen the riches of his glorie on the vessels of mercie, which he had prepared vnto glorie, 24 Euen vs whom he hath called, not of the Iewes only, but also of the Gentiles?

25 As he saith also in Osee, * I will call them my people which were not my people, and her beloued which was not beloued.

26 And it shall come to passe, that in the place where it was said vnto them, Ye are not my people, there shall they be called the children of the liuing God.

27 Esaias also crieth concerning Israel, * Though the number of the children of Israel be as the sand of the sea, yet a remnant shall be saued.

28 For he will finish the worke, and make it short in righteousnesse: because a short worke will the Lord make vpon the earth.

29 And as Esaias said before, * Except the Lord of hosts had left vs a seede, we had been as Sodoma, and made like vnto Gomorrha.

30 What shall we say then? That the Gentiles which followed not after righteousnesse, haue attained to righteousnesse, euen the righteousnesse which is of faith.

31 But Israel which followed after the Lawe of righteousnesse, hath not attained to the Lawe of righteousnesse.

32 Wherefore? because they sought it not by faith, but as it were by the workes of the Lawe: for they stumbled at that stumbling stone, 33 As it is written, * Behold, I lay in Sion a stumbling stone and rocke of offence, and whosoeuer beleeueth on him shall not be confounded.

10 Brethren, my heart desire and prayer to God for Israel is, that they might be saued.

2 For I beare them record that they haue a zeale of God, but not according to knowledge.

3 For they being ignorant of Gods righteousnesse, and going about to establish their owne righteousnesse, haue not submitted themselues vnto the righteousnesse of God.

4 For Christ is the end of the Lawe for righteousnesse vnto euery one that beleeueth.

5 For Moses describeth the righteousnesse which is of the Lawe, That the man which doeth those things shall liue thereby.

6 But the righteousnesse which is of faith speaketh on this wise, Say not in thine heart, Who shall ascend into heauen? (that is, to bring Christ downe from aboue)

7 Or, Who shall descend into the deepe? (that is, to bring Christ againe from the dead)

8 But what saith it? * The word is nigh thee, euen in thy mouth, and in thine heart: this is the word of faith which we preach,

9 That if thou confesse with thy mouth the Lord Iesus, and beleeue in thine heart that God hath raised him from the dead, thou shalt be saued.

10 For with the heart man beleeueth vnto righteousnesse, and with the mouth confession is made vnto saluation.

11 For the Scripture saith, * Whosoeuer beleeueth on him shall not be confounded.

12 For there is no difference between the Iewe and the Grecian: for the same Lord ouer all is rich vnto all that call vpon him.

13 For whosoeuer shall call vpon the name of the Lord shall be saued.

14 How then shall they call on him in whom they haue not beleeued? and how shall they beleeue in him of whom they haue not heard? and how shall they heare without a preacher?

15 And how shall they preach except they be sent? as it is written, * How beautifull are the feete of them that bring glad tidings of peace, and bring glad tidings of good things!

16 But they haue not all obeyed the Gospell. For Esaias saith, * Lord, who hath beleeued our report?

17 So then faith commeth by hearing, and hearing by the word of God.

18 But I say, Haue they not heard? Yea verily, * Their sound went into all the earth, and their words into the ends of the world.

19 But I say, Did not Israel know? First Moses saith, * I will prouoke you to enuie by them that are no people, and by a foolish nation I will anger you.

20 And Esaias is bolde and saith, * I was found of them that sought me not, I was made manifest vnto them that asked not after me.

21 But to Israel he saith, * All day long haue I stretched forth my hands vnto a disobedient and gainesaying people.

11 I Say then, Hath God cast away his people? God forbid. For I also am an Israelite of the seede of Abraham, of the tribe of Beniamin.

2 God hath not cast away his people which he knew before. Wot ye not what the Scripture saith of Elias? how he maketh intercession to God against Israel, saying,

3 * Lord, they haue killed thy Prophets, and digged downe thine Altars, and I am left alone, and they seeke my life.

4 But what saith the answere of God vnto him? * I haue reserued to my selfe seuen thousand men, which haue not bowed the knee to Baal.

5 Euen so then at this present time also there is a remnant according to the election of grace.

6 And if it be of grace, then is it no more of workes: otherwise grace is no more grace. But if it be of workes, then is it no more grace: otherwise worke is no more worke.

7 What then? Israel hath not obtained that which he seeketh for: but the election hath obtained it, and the rest were blinded,

8 (According as it is written, * God hath geuen them the spirit of slumber, eyes that they should not see, and eares that they should not heare) vnto this day.

9 And Dauid saith, * Let their table be made a snare, and a trap, and a stumbling block, and a recompence vnto them:

10 Let their eyes be darkened that they see not, and bowe downe their backe alway.

11 I say then, Haue they stumbled that they should fall? God forbid: but through their fall saluation is come vnto the Gentiles, for to prouoke them to enuie.

12 Now if the fall of them be the riches of the world, and the diminishing of them the riches of the Gentiles, how much more their fulnesse?

13 For I speake to you Gentiles, inasmuch as I am the Apostle of the Gentiles, I magnifie mine office, 14 If by any meanes I may prouoke to enuie them which are my flesh, and may saue some of them.

15 For if the casting away of them be the reconciling of the world, what shall the receiuing of them be, but life from the dead?

16 For if the first fruite be holy, the lumpe is holy also: and if the roote be holy, so are the branches.

17 And if some of the branches be broken off, and thou being a wilde olyue tree, wert graffed in among them, and made partaker of the roote and fatnesse of the olyue tree, 18 Boast not thy selfe against the branches: but if thou boast, thou bearest not the roote, but the roote thee.

19 Thou wilt say then, The branches were broken off, that I might be graffed in.

20 Well, because of vnbeliefe they were broken off, and thou standest by faith. Be not high minded, but feare.

21 For if God spared not the naturall branches, take heede lest he also spare not thee.

22 Behold therefore the goodnesse and rigour of God: on them which fell, rigour: but toward thee goodnesse, if thou continue in his goodnesse: otherwise thou also shalt be cut off.

23 And they also, if they abide not still in vnbeliefe, shall be graffed in: for God is able to graffe them in again.

24 For if thou were cut out of the olyue tree which is wilde by nature, and were graffed contrary to nature into a good olyue tree, how much more shall these which be the naturall branches be graffed into their owne olyue tree?

25 For I would not brethren that ye should be ignorant of this mystery, lest ye should be wise in your owne conceits, that blindnesse in part is happened vnto Israel, vntill the fulnesse of the Gentiles be come in.

26 And so all Israel shall be saued, as it is written, * There shall come out of Sion the deliuerer, and shall turne away the vngodlinesse from Iacob.

27 For this is my couenant vnto them, when I shall take away their sinnes.

28 As concerning the Gospell, they are enemies for your sakes: but as touching the election, they are beloued for the fathers sakes.

29 For the gifts and calling of God are without repentance.

30 For as ye in time past haue not beleeued God, yet now haue obtained mercie through their vnbeliefe, 31 Euen so haue these also now not beleeued, that through your mercie they also may obtaine mercie.

32 For God hath concluded them all in vnbeliefe, that he might haue mercie vpon all.

33 O the deepenesse of the riches both of the wisedome and knowledge of God! how vnsearchable are his iudgements, and his wayes past finding out!

34 For who hath known the minde of the Lord? or who hath been his counseller?

35 Or who hath first giuen vnto him, and it shall be recompenced vnto him againe?

36 For of him, and through him, and for him are all things: to whom be glorie for euer, Amen.

12 I Beseech you therefore brethren by the mercies of God, that ye make your bodies a liuing sacrifice, holy, acceptable vnto God, which is your reasonable seruice.

2 And be not conformed to this world, but be ye changed in your shape by the renuing of your minde, that ye may prooue what is that good, and acceptable, and perfect will of God.

3 For I say through the grace that is giuen vnto me, to euery man that is among you, that he submit not himselfe aboue that he ought to submit himselfe, but submit himselfe vnto sobrietie, according as God hath dealed to euery man the measure of faith.

4 For as we haue many members in one bodie, and all members haue not one office,

5 So we being many are one bodie in Christ, and euery one members one of another.

6 Hauing then gifts differing according to the grace that is giuen vnto vs, whether we haue prophecie, let vs prophecie according to the proportion of faith,

7 Or ministerie, let vs wait on our ministering: or he that teacheth, on teaching,

8 Or he that exhorteth, on exhorting: he that giueth, let him do it with simplicitie: he that ruleth, with diligence: he that sheweth mercie, with cheerefulnesse.

9 Let loue be without dissimulation. Abhorre that which is euill, and cleaue to that which is good.

10 Be kinde one to another with brotherly loue: in honour preferring one another.

11 Not slouthfull in businesse: feruent in spirit: seruing the Lord.

12 Reioycing in hope: patient in tribulation: continuing instant in prayer.

13 Distributing to the necessitie of saints: geuen to hospitalitie.

14 Blesse them which persecute you: blesse and curse not.

15 Reioyce with them that reioyce, and weepe with them that weepe.

16 Be of like minde one toward another. Set not your minde on high things, but condescend to men of low estate. Be not wise in your owne conceits.

17 Recompence to no man euill for euill. Prouide things honest in the sight of all men.

18 If it be possible, as much as lieth in you, liue peaceably with all men.

19 Auenge not your selues, dearely beloued, but giue place vnto wrath: for it is written, * Vengeance is mine, I will recompence, saith the Lord.

20 Therefore if thine enemie hunger, feede him: if he thirst, giue him drinke: for in so doing thou shalt heape coales of fire on his head.

21 Be not ouercome of euill, but ouercome euill with good.

13 Let euery soule be subiect vnto the higher powers. For there is no power but of God: the powers that be are ordained of God.

2 Whosoeuer therefore resisteth the power, resisteth the ordinance of God: and they that resist, shall receiue to themselues damnation.

3 For rulers are not a terrour to good workes, but to the euill. Wilt thou then be without feare of the power? do that which is good, and so shalt thou haue praise of the same.

4 For he is the minister of God for thy wealth. But if thou do that which is euill, feare: for he beareth not the sword in vaine: for he is the minister of God, a reuenger to execute wrath vpon him that doeth euill.

5 Wherefore ye must needes be subiect, not for wrath only, but also for conscience sake.

6 For this cause pay ye tribute also: for they are Gods ministers, seruing continually for this thing.

7 Giue therefore to all men their dueties: tribute to whom tribute belongeth, custome to whom custome, feare to whom feare, honour to whom honour.

8 Owe nothing to any man, but to loue one another: for he that loueth another, hath fulfilled the Lawe.

9 For this, Thou shalt not commit adultery, Thou shalt not kill, Thou shalt not steale, Thou shalt not beare false witnesse, Thou shalt not lust, and if there be any other commandement, is briefly comprehended in this saying, namely, Thou shalt loue thy neighbour as thy selfe.

10 Loue worketh no ill to his neighbour: therefore loue is the fulfilling of the Lawe.

11 And that knowing the time, that now it is high time to awake out of sleepe: for now is our saluation nearer than when we beleeued.

12 The night is past, and the day is at hand: let vs therefore cast away the workes of darkenesse, and let vs put on the armour of light.

13 Let vs walke honestly as in the day: not in rioting and drunkennesse, not in chambering and wantonnesse, not in strife and enuying.

14 But put ye on the Lord Iesus Christ, and make not prouision for the flesh to fulfill the lustes thereof.

15 Him that is weake in the faith receiue ye, but not to doubtfull disputations.

16 For one beleeueth that he may eate all things: another which is weake eateth herbes.

17 Let not him that eateth despise him that eateth not: and let not him which eateth not iudge him that eateth: for God hath receiued him.

18 Who art thou that iudgest another mans seruant? to his owne maister he standeth or falleth: yea he shall stand: for God is able to make him stand.

19 One man esteemeth one day aboue another: another esteemeth euery day alike. Let euery man be fully perswaded in his owne minde.

20 He that regardeth the day, regardeth it vnto the Lord: and he that regardeth not the day, to the Lord he doth not regard it. He that eateth, eateth to the Lord: for he giueth God thanks: and he that eateth not, to the Lord he eateth not, and giueth God thanks.

21 For none of vs liueth to himselfe, and no man dieth to himselfe.

22 For whether we liue, we liue vnto the Lord: or whether we die, we die vnto the Lord. Whether we liue therefore or die, we are the Lords.

23 For to this end Christ both died, and rose, and reuiued, that he might be Lord both of the dead and liuing.

24 But why doest thou iudge thy brother? or why doest thou despise thy brother? for we shall all stand before the iudgement seate of Christ.

25 For it is written, * As I liue, saith the Lord, euery knee shall bowe to me, and euery tongue shall confesse to God.

26 So then euery one of vs shall giue account of himselfe to God.

27 Let vs not therefore iudge one another any more: but iudge this rather, that no man put a stumbling block or an occasion to fall in his brothers way.

28 I know and am perswaded by the Lord Iesus, that there is nothing vncleane of it selfe: but to him that iudgeth any thing to be vncleane, to him it is vncleane.

29 But if thy brother be grieued with thy meate, now walkest thou not charitably. Destroy not him with thy meate for whom Christ died.

12 For as many as haue sinned without the Law, shal perish also h without the Law: and as many as haue sinned in the Lawe, shalbe iudged by the Lawe, 13 (i For the hearers of the Law are not righteous before God: but the doers of the Lawe shalbe iustified.

14 For when the Gentiles which haue not the Law, doe by nature the things conteined in the Law, they hauing not the Lawe, are a Lawe vnto themselues, 15 Which shewe the effect of the Lawe written in their k hearts, their conscience also bearing witnesse, and their thoughts accusing one another, or excusing,)

16 At the day when God shall iudge the secrets of men by Iesus Christ, according to my Gospel.

17 (l Beholde, thou art called a Iewe, and restest in the Law, and *gloriest in God,

18 And knowest his will, and ‖ allowest the things that are excellent, in that thou art instructed by the Lawe;

19 And perswadest thy selfe that thou art a guide of the blinde, a light of them which are in darkenesse, 20 An instructer of them which lacke discretion, a teacher of the vnlearned, which hast the ‖ forme of knowledge, and of the trueth in the Lawe.

21 Thou therefore which teachest another, teachest thou not thy selfe? thou that preachest, A man should not steale, doest thou steale?

22 Thou that sayest, A man should not commit adulterie, doest thou commit adulterie? thou that abhorrest idoles, committest thou sacrilege?

23 Thou that gloriest in the Lawe, through breaking the lawe, dishonourest thou God?

24 For the Name of God is blasphemed among the Gentiles through you, *as it is written.

25 For circumcision verely is profitable, if thou doe the Law: but if thou be a transgressour of the Lawe, thy m circumcision is made vncircumcision.

26 Therefore if the vncircumcision keepe the ordinances of the Lawe, shall not his vncircumcision be counted for circumcision?

27 And shall not vncircumcision which is by nature (if it keepe the Lawe,) ‖ iudge thee which by the n letter and circumcision art a transgressour of the Lawe?

28 For hee is not a Iewe, which is one outwarde: neither is that circumcision, which is outward in the flesh:

29 But he is a Iewe which is one within, and the *circumcision is of the heart, in the o spirite, not in the letter, whose praise is not of men, but of God.

CHAP. III.

1 Having granted some prerogatiue to the Iewes, because of Gods free and stable promise, 18 He proueth by the Scriptures, both Iewes & Gentiles to be sinners, 21.24 And to be iustified by grace through faith, and not by workes, 31 And so the Lawe to be established.

WHat is then the preferment of the Iewe? or what is the profite of circumcision?

2 Much euery manner of way: for chiefly, because vnto them were committed the ‖ oracles of God.

3 For what though some did not beleeue? shall their * vnbeliefe make the ‖ faith of God without effect?

4 God forbid: yea, let God be *true, and *euery man a lyar, as it is written, * That thou mightest bee a iustified in thy wordes, and ouercome when thou art iudged.

5 Nowe if b our vnrighteousnesse commend the righteousnesse of God, what shall we say? Is God vnrighteous which punisheth? (I speake as a man)

6 God forbid: els howe shall God iudge the world?

7 For if the veritie of God hath more abounded through my lye vnto his glorie, why am I yet condemned as a sinner?

8 And (as we are blamed, and as some affirme that wee say) why doe we not euill, that good may come thereof? whose damnation is iust.

9 What then? c are wee more excellent? No, in no wise: for we haue alreadie prooued, that all, both Iewes and Gentiles are *vnder sinne,

10 As it is written, * There is none righteous, no not one.

11 There is none that vnderstandeth: there is none that seeketh God.

12 They are all gone out of the way: they haue bene made altogether vnprofitable: there is none that doeth good, no not one.

13 *Their throte is an open sepulchre: they haue vsed their tongues to deceit: * the poyson of aspes is vnder their lippes.

14 *Whose mouth is full of cursing and bitternesse.

15 *Their feete are swift to shed blood.

16 Destruction and calamitie are in their wayes,

17 And the e way of peace haue they not knowen.

18 *The feare of God is not before their eyes.

19 Nowe we knowe that whatsoeuer the f Lawe sayeth, it saith it to them which are vnder the Lawe, that euery mouth may bee stopped, and all the worlde be culpable before God.

20 *Therefore by the workes of the h Lawe shall no flesh be iustified in his sight: for by the Lawe commeth the knowledge of sinne.

Col.2.11. o In the inward man and heart.

21 But now is the* righteousnes of God made manifest without the Lawe, hauing witnes of the Law and of the Prophets, 22 To wit, the righteousnes of God by the faith of Iesus Christ, vnto all, and vpon all that beleeue.

23 For there is no difference: for al haue sinned, and are [i] depriued of the glory of God,

24 And are iustified freely by his grace, through the redemption that is in Christ Iesus,

25 Whome God hath set forth to be a reconciliation through faith in his blood, to declare his [k] righteousnesse, by the forgiuenesse of the sinnes that are passed, through the patience of God,

26 To shewe at this time his righteousnesse, that he might be iust, and a iustifier of him which is of the faith of Iesus.

27 Where is then the reioycing? It is excluded. By what Law: of workes? Nay: but by the [l] Law of faith.

28 Therefore we conclude, that a man is iustified by faith without the workes of the Law.

29 God, is he the God of the Iewes only, and not of the Gentiles also? Yes, euen of the Gentiles also.

30 For it is one God who shall iustifie circumcision [m] of faith, and vncircumcision through faith.

31 Doe we then make the Lawe of none effect through faith? God forbid: yea, [n] we establish the Lawe.

i The word signifieth the which are left behind in the race, and are not able to runne to the marke, that is, to euerlasting life, which here is called the glory of God.

k Or, fidelitie in performing his promes.

l The law of faith is ỹ Gospel which offereth saluation with conditiō (if thou beleeuest) which condition also Christ freely giueth to vs. So the condition of the Lawe is (if thou doest all these things) the which only Christ hath fulfilled for vs.

m Meaning, that they are all iustified by one meanes, and if they will haue any difference, it onely standeth in wordes: for in effect there is none.

n The doctrine of faith is the ornament of the Lawe: for it embraceth Christ, who by his death hath satisfied the Law: so that the Law which could not bring vs to saluation by reason of our owne corruption, is nowe made effectuall to vs by Christ Iesus.

CHAP. IIII.

1. 17 Hee declareth that iustification is a free gift, euen by them themselues of whome the Iewes most boasted, as of Abraham and of Dauid, 13 And also by the office of the Law and faith.

WHat shall we say then, that Abraham our father hath founde [a] concerning the flesh?

2 For if Abraham were iustified by workes, he hath wherein to [b] reioyce, but not with God.

3 For what saith the Scripture? * Abraham beleeued God, and it was counted to him for righteousnes.

4 Now to him, that [c] worketh, the wages is not counted by fauour, but by debt:

5 But to him that [d] worketh not, but beleeueth in him that [e] iustifieth the vngodly, his faith is counted for righteousnes.

6 Euen as Dauid declareth the blessednesse of the man, vnto whom God imputeth righteousnes without workes, saying,

7 * Blessed are they, whose iniquities are forgiuen, and whose sinnes are couered.

8 Blessed is the man, to whome the Lord imputeth not sinne.

9 Came this blessednes then vpon the [f] circumcision onely, or vpon the vncircumcision also? For we say, that faith was imputed vnto Abraham for righteousnes.

a That is, by workes.

b He might pretend some merite or worke worthy to be recompensed. Gene.15.6. gal.3.6. iam.2.23.

c Meriteth by his workes.

d That dependeth not on his workes, neither thinketh to merite by them.

e Which maketh him that is wicked in himselfe, iust in Christ. Psal.32.1.

f Vnder this excellent sacrament he comprehendeth the whole Law.

10 How was it then imputed? when hee was circumcised, or vncircumcised? not when he was circumcised, but when he was vncircumcised.

11 * After he receiued the signe of circumcision, as the seale of the righteousnesse of the faith which he had, when he was vncircumcised, that hee should be the father of all them that beleeue, not being circumcised, that righteousnes might be imputed to them also,

12 And the father of circumcision, not vnto them onely which are of the circumcision, but vnto them also that walke in the [g] steppes of the faith of our father Abraham, which he had when he was vncircumcised.

13 For the promise that hee should be the heire of the worlde was not giuen to Abraham, or to his seede, through the [h] Lawe, but through the righteousnes of faith.

14 For if they which [i] are of the Law, be [k] heires, faith is made voyd, and the promise is made of none effect.

15 For the Lawe causeth [l] wrath: for where no lawe is, there is no [m] trangression.

16 Therefore it is by faith, that it might come by grace, and the promise might bee sure to [n] all the seede, not to that only which is of the Lawe: but also to that which is of the faith of Abraham, who is the father of vs all,

17 (As it is written, * I haue made thee a father of many nations) euen [o] before God whome hee beleeued, who quickeneth the [p] dead, & calleth those things which be not, as though they were.

18 Which Abraham aboue hope, beleeued vnder hope, that hee should be the father of many nations, according to that which was spoken to him, * So shall thy seede be.

19 And he not weake in the faith, considered not his owne body, which was now dead, being almost an hundred yere old, neither [q] the deadnesse of Saras wombe.

20 Neither did hee doubt of the promise of God through vnbeleefe, but was strengthened in the faith, and gaue [r] glory to God, 21 Being fully assured that he which had promised, was also able to doe it.

22 And therefore it was imputed to him for righteousnes.

23 Now it is not written for him onely, that it was imputed to him for righteousnes,

24 But also [s] for vs, to whome it shall be imputed for righteousnesse which beleeue in him that raysed vp Iesus our Lord from the dead:

25 Who was deliuered to death for our sinnes, and [t] is risen again for our iustification.

i And thinke to performe ỹ same by workes.

CHAP. V.

1 He declareth the fruites of faith. 7 And by comparison setteth forth the loue of God and obedience of Christ, which is the foundation and ground of the same.

THen being iustified by faith, wee haue a peace toward God through our Lorde Iesus Christ.

2 * By whome also wee haue accesse through faith vnto this grace, wherein wee stande, and reioyce vnder the hope of the glory of God.

3 Neither do we so only, but also we * reioyce in tribulations, knowing that tribulation bringeth forth patience,

4 And patience experience, & experience hope,

5 And hope maketh not b ashamed, because the c loue of God is shedde abroade in our hearts by the holy Ghost, which is giuen vnto vs.

6 For Christ, when wee were yet of no strength, at his time, died for the * vngodly.

7 Doubtles one wil scarce die for a d righteous man: but yet for a * good man it may be that one dare die.

8 But God setteth out his loue toward vs, seeing that while wee were yet sinners, Christ died for vs.

9 Much more then, being nowe iustified by his blood, we shall bee saued from wrath through him.

10 For if when we were e enemies wee were reconciled to God by the death of his Sonne, much more being reconciled, wee shall be saued by his life.

11 And not onely so, but we also reioyce in God through our Lord Iesus Christ, by whome wee haue nowe receiued the atonement.

12 Wherefore, as by one man sinne entred into the world, and death by sinne, and so death went ouer all men: forasmuch as all men haue sinned.

13 For vnto the e time of the Lawe was sinne in the world, but sinne is not imputed, while there is no Law.

14 But death raigned from Adam to Moses, euen ouer them also that sinned not h after the like maner of the transgression of i Adam, which was the figure of k him that was to come.

15 But yet the gift is not so, as is the offence: for if through the offence of one, many be dead, much more the grace of God, & the gift by grace, which is by one man Iesus Christ, hath abounded vnto many.

16 Neither is the gift so, as that which entred in by one that sinned: for the faulte came of one offence vnto condemnation: but the gift is l of many offences to iustification.

17 For if by the offence of one, death reigned through one, much more shall they which receiue the aboundance of grace, and of the gift of m righteousnesse, raigne in life through one, that is, Iesus Christ.

18 Likewise then, as by the offence of one the faulte came on all men to condemnation, so by the iustifying of one, the benefit abounded towarde n all men to the iustification of life.

19 For as by one mans disobedience, many were made sinners: so by the obedience of one, shall many also bee made righteous.

20 Moreouer the o Lawe entred thereupon, that the offence should p abound: neuertheless, where sinne abounded, there grace abounded much more:

21 That as sinne had raigned vnto death, so might grace also raigne by righteousnesse vnto eternall life, through Iesus Christ our Lord.

CHAP. VI.

Because no man shoulde glorie in the flesh, but rather seeke to subdue it to the spirit, 3 He sheweth by the vertue and ende of Baptisme, 5 That regeneration is ioyned with iustification, and therefore exhorteth to godlylife, 21 Setting before mens eyes the reward of sinne and righteousnesse.

WHat shall wee say then? Shall wee continue still in sinne, that grace may abound? God forbid.

2 How shall wee, that are a dead to sinne, liue yet therein?

3 Know ye not, that * all we which haue bene baptized into b Iesus Christ, haue bin baptized into his death?

4 * Wee are buried then with him by baptisme into his death, that like as Christ was rayled vp from the dead by the glorie of the Father, so wee also should * walke in newnesse of life.

5 * For if we bee c grafted with him d to the similitude of his death, euen so shall wee be to the similitude of his resurrection,

6 Knowing this, that our olde man is crucified with him, that the e body of sinne might be destroyed, that henceforth wee should not serue sinne.

7 For hee that is dead, is f freed from sinne.

8 Wherefore, if we be dead with Christ, we beleeue that we shall also liue with him,

9 Knowing that Christ being raised from the dead, dieth no more: death hath no more dominion ouer him.

10 For in that he died, he died once g to sinne: but in that hee liueth, hee liueth to h God.

11 Likewise thinke yee also, that yee are i dead to sinne, but are aliue k to God in Iesus Christ our Lord.

12 Let not sinne raigne therefore in your mortall body, that yee should obey it in the l lustes thereof.

13 Neither giue yee your members as ‖ weapons of vnrighteousnesse vnto sinne: but giue your selues vnto God, as they that are aliue from the dead, and giue your members as weapons of righteousnesse vnto God.

k In that yee are led with the Spirite of God.

14 For sinne shall not haue dominion ouer you: for yee are not vnder the [m] Law, but vnder [n] grace.

15 What then? shall we sinne, because wee are not vnder the Lawe, but vnder grace? God forbid.

16 *Knowe ye not that to whomsoeuer yee giue your selues as seruaunts to obey, his seruantes yee are, to whome yee obey, whether it be of sinne vnto death, or of [o] obedience vnto righteousnesse?

17 But God be thanked, that yee haue bin the seruants of sinne, but yee haue obeyed from the heart vnto the forme of the doctrine, whereunto ye were [p] deliuered.

18 Being then made [q] free from sinne, ye are made the seruants of righteousnesse.

19 I speake [r] after the maner of man, because of the infirmitie of your flesh: for as ye haue giuen your members seruants to vncleannesse and to iniquitie, to commit iniquitie, so nowe giue your members seruants vnto righteousnesse in holinesse.

20 For when yee were the seruantes of sinne, ye were freed from righteousnesse.

21 What fruite had yee then in those things, whereof yee are nowe ashamed? For the [s] end of those things is death.

22 But nowe being freed from sinne, and made seruaunts vnto God, yee haue your fruite in holinesse, and the ende euerlasting life.

2 *For the [b] woman which is in subiection to a man, is bound by the Law to the man, while hee liueth: but if the man bee dead, she is deliuered from the Lawe of the man.

3 So then, if while the man liueth, shee take another man, she shalbe called an * adultresse: but if the man be dead, she is free from the Lawe, so that she is not an adultresse, though she take another man.

4 So yee, my brethren, are dead also to the Lawe by the body of Christ, that yee shoulde bee vnto another, euen vnto [c] him that is rayled vp from the dead, that wee should bring forth fruite vnto God.

5 For when we were [d] in the flesh, the ‖motions of sinnes, which were by the Lawe, had force in our members, to bring forth fruite vnto death.

6 But nowe wee are deliuered from the Lawe, being dead vnto [e] it, wherein wee were holden, that we shoulde serue in newenesse of spirite, and not in the oldenesse of the letter.

7 [f] What shall we say then? Is the Law sinne? God forbid. Nay, I knewe not sinne, but by the Lawe: for I had not knowen [g] lust, except the Law had said, *Thou shalt not lust.

8 But sinne tooke an occasion by the commaundement, and wrought in mee all manner of concupiscence: for without the lawe sinne is dead.

9 For I once [h] was aliue, without the law: but when the commaundement came, sinne reuiued, 10 But I died: and the same commandement which was ordained vnto life, was found to be vnto me vnto death.

11 For sinne tooke occasion by the commandement, and deceiued me, and thereby slewe me.

12 Wherefore the Law is * holy, and the commaundement is holy, and iust, and good.

13 Was that then which is good, made death vnto me? God forbid: but sinne, that it might [i] appeare sinne, wrought death in mee by that which is good, that sinne might be out of measure sinfull by the commandement.

14 For we know that the Lawe [k] is spirituall, but I am carnall, solde vnder sinne.

15 For I allowe not that which I doe: for what I [l] woulde, that doe I not: but what I hate, that doe I.

16 If I doe then that which I woulde not, I consent to the Lawe, that it is good.

17 Nowe then, it is [m] no moze I, that doe it, but the sinne that dwelleth in me.

18 For I knowe that in me, that is, in my ‖ flesh dwelleth no good thing: for to will is present with me: but I finde no meanes to performe that which is good.

19 For I doe not the good thing, which I woulde, but the euill, which I woulde not, that doe I.

20 Nowe if I doe that I woulde not, it is no moze I that doe it, but the sinne that dwelleth in me.

21 I finde then by the Lawe, that when I would doe good, euill is present with me.

22 For I delite in the Law of God, concerning the [o] inner man:

23 But I see another ‖Lawe in my [p] members, rebelling against the Law of my minde, and leading mee captiue vnto the lawe of sinne, which is in my members.

24 O wretched man that I am, who shall deliuer mee from the [q] body of this death?

25 I thanke God through Iesus Christ our Lorde. Then I my selfe in my [r] minde serue the Lawe of God, but in my [s] flesh the Lawe of sinne.

NOwe then there is no [a] condemnation to them that are in Christ Iesus, which walke not [b] after the flesh, but after the Spirit.

2 For the [c] Lawe of the Spirite of life, which is in [d] Christ Iesus, hath freed mee from the lawe of sinne and of death.

3 For (that that was impossible to the law, in as much as it was ‖ weake, because of the flesh) God sending his owne Sonne, in the [e] similitude of sinfull flesh, and ‖ for sinne, condemned sinne in the flesh,

4 That the [f] righteousnesse of the Lawe might be fulfilled in vs, which walke not after the flesh, but after the spirit.

5 For they that are after the flesh sauour the [g] things of the flesh: but they that are after the Spirite, the things of the Spirite.

6 For the wisedome of the flesh is death, but the wisedome of the spirite is life and peace,

7 Because the wisedome of the flesh is enimity against God: for it is not subiect to the Law of God, neither in deede can be.

8 So then they that are in the flesh, cannot please God.

9 Now ye are not in the flesh, but in the Spirit, ‖ because the Spirit of God dwelleth in you: but if any man hath not the Spirit of Christ, the same is not his.

10 And if Christ be in you, the ‖ body is dead, because of sinne: but the [h] Spirite is life for righteousnesse sake.

11 But if the Spirite of him that raised vp Iesus from the dead, dwell in you, hee that raysed vp Christ from the dead, shall also quicken your mortall bodies, because that his Spirite dwelleth in you.

12 Therefore brethren, wee are debters not to the flesh, to liue after the [i] flesh:

13 For if ye liue after the flesh, yee shall die: but if ye mortifie the deedes of the bodie by the Spirite, ye shall liue.

14 For as many as are led by the Spirite of God, they are the sonnes of God.

15 For ye haue not receiued the spirite of bondage to feare againe: but yee haue receiued the Spirite of [k] adoption, whereby we crie * Abba, Father.

16 The same Spirite [l] beareth witnesse with our spirite, that we are the children of God.

17 If we be children, we are also [m] heires, euen the heires of God, and heires annexed with Christ, if so be that we suffer with him, that wee may also bee glorified with him.

18 For I count that the afflictions of this present time, are not ‖ worthy of the glory, which shall be shewed vnto vs.

19 For the feruent desire of the creature waiteth when the sonnes of God shall bee reuealed.

20 Because the [n] creature is subiect to [o] vanitie, not of it owne will, but by reason of him, which hath subdued it vnder hope, 21 Because the creature also shall be deliuered from the bondage of corruption into the glorious libertie of the sonnes of God.

22 For we knowe that euery [p] creature groneth with vs also, and trauaileth in paine together vnto this present.

23 And not onely the creature, but wee also which haue the [q] first fruites of the Spirite, euen wee doe sigh in our selues, waiting for the adoption, euen the [r] redemption of our body.

24 For we are saued by hope: but [s] hope that is seene, is not hope: for howe can a man hope for that which hee seeth?

25 But if we hope for that wee see not, we doe with patience abide for it.

26 Likewise the Spirit also helpeth our infirmities: for we know not what to pray as we ought: but the spirite it selfe maketh request for vs with sighes, which cannot be expressed.

27 But hee that searcheth the hearts, knoweth what is the meaning of the Spirite: for he [t] maketh request for the Saints, according to the will of God.

28 Also we knowe that al things worke together for the best vnto them that loue God, euen to them that are called of his purpose.

29 For those which he [u] knewe before, he also predestinated to bee made like to the image of his sonne, that he might be the first borne among many brethren.

30 Moreouer, whome he predestinated, them also he called, and whome hee called, them also he iustified, and whome hee iustified, them he also glorified.

31 What shall wee then say to these things? If God be on our side, who can be against vs?

32 Who spared not his owne Sonne, but gaue him for vs all to death, howe shall he not with him giue vs all things also?

33 Who shal lay any thing to the charge of Gods chosen? it is God that [x] iustifieth, 34 Who shall condemne? it is Christ, which is dead, yea or rather, which is risen againe, who is also at the right hande of God, and maketh request also for vs.

35 Who shall separate vs from the loue of [y] Christ? shall tribulation, or anguish, or persecution, or famine, or nakednesse, or perill, or sword?

36 As it is written, * For thy sake are we [z] killed

12 It was said vnto her, * The elder shall serue the yonger:

13 As it is written, * I haue loued Iacob, and haue hated Esau.

14 What shal we say then? Is there vnrighteousnesse with God? God forbid.

15 For he saith to Moses, * I i will haue mercie on him, to whome I will shewe mercie: and will haue compassion on him, on whome I will haue compassion.

16 So then it is not in him that willeth, nor in him that runneth, but in God that sheweth mercie.

17 For the k Scripture saith vnto Pharao, * For this same purpose haue I stirred thee vp, that I might shewe my power in thee, and that my Name might be declared throughout all the earth.

18 Therefore hee hath mercie on whome he will, and whome he will, he hardeneth.

31 But Israel which followed the Lawe of righteousnesse, could not attaine vnto the Lawe of righteousnesse.

32 Wherefore? Because they sought it not by faith, but as it were by the workes of the Lawe: for they haue stumbled at the stumbling stone,

1 After that he had declared his zeale towardes them, 3 He sheweth the cause of the ruine of the Iewes. 4 The end of the Law. 5 The difference betweene the iustice of the law, & of faith. 17 Wherof faith commeth, & to whome it belongeth. 19 The reiection of the Iewes, and calling of the Gentiles.

Gen. 18. 10. Gen. 25. 21 Ge. 25. 23. Mal. 1. 2, 3. Exo. 33. 19. i As the onely will and purpose of God is the chiefe cause of election, and reprobation: so his free mercie in Christ is an inferiour cause of saluation, and the hardening of the heart an inferior cause of damnation.

BRethren, mine heartes desire and prayer to God for Israel is, that they might bee saued.

2 For I beare them recorde, that they haue [a] the zeale of God, but not according to knowledge.

3 For they being ignorant of the righteousnesse of God, and going about to stablish their owne righteousnesse, haue not submitted themselues to the righteousnes of God.

4 * For Christ is the [b] ende of the Lawe for righteousnesse vnto euery one that beleeueth.

5 For Moses thus describeth the righteousnesse which is of the Lawe, * That the man which doeth these thinges, shall liue therby.

6 But the righteousnesse which is of faith, speaketh on this wise, [c] * Say not in thine heart, Who shall ascend into heauen? (that is to bring Christ from aboue)

7 Or, Who shall descend into the deepe, (that is to bring Christ againe from the dead)

8 But what saith it? * The word is neere thee, euen in thy mouth, and in thine heart. This is the [d] worde of faith which wee preach.

9 For if thou shalt confesse with thy mouth the Lord Iesus, and shalt beleeue in thine heart, that God raised him vp from the dead, thou shalt be saued.

10 For with the heart man beleeueth vnto righteousnesse, and with * the mouth man confesseth to saluation.

11 For the Scripture saith, * Whosoeuer beleeueth in him, shall not be ashamed.

12 For there is no difference betweene the Iewe and the Grecian: for hee that is Lord ouer all, is rich vnto all, that call on him.

13 * For whosoeuer shall call vpon the Name of the Lord, shall be saued.

14 But howe shall they call on him, in whome they haue not beleeued? and howe shall they beleeue in him, of whome they haue not heard? and how shall they heare without a preacher?

15 And howe shall they preach, except they be sent? as it is written, * How beautiful are the ‖feete of them which bring glad tidings of peace, and bring glad tidings of good things!

16 But they haue not all obeied the Gospel: for Esaias saith, * Lord, who hath beleeued our [e] reporte?

17 Then faith is by hearing, and hearing [g] by the word of God.

18 But I demaunde, Haue [h] they not heard? * No doubt their [i] sounde went out through all the earth, and their wordes into the endes of the [k] world.

19 But I demaunde, Did not Israel knowe God? First Moses saith, * I wil prouoke you to enuie by a nation that is not my nation, and by a foolish nation I will anger you.

20 * And Esaias is bolde, and saieth, I was found of them that sought me not, and haue bene made manifest to them that asked not after me.

21 And vnto Israel he saith, * All the day long haue I stretched forth mine hand vnto a ‖disobedient, and gainesaying people.

CHAP. XI.

4 God hath his Church, although it be not seene to mans eye. 5 The grace shewed to the elect. 7 The iudgement of the reprobate. 8 God hath blinded the Iewes for a time, and reuealed himselfe to the Gentiles: 18 Whome he warneth to humble themselues. 29 The giftes of God without repentance. 33 The depth of Gods iudgements.

IDemaund then, Hath God cast away his people? God forbid: for I also am an Israelite, of the seede of Abraham, of the tribe of Beniamin.

2 God hath not cast away his people which he [a] knewe before. Knowe yee not what the Scripture saieth of Elias, how he maketh request vnto God [b] against Israel, saying,

3 * Lord, they haue killed thy Prophets, and digged downe thine altars: and I am left alone, and they seeke my life.

4 But what saieth the answere of God to him? * I haue reserued vnto my selfe [c] seuen thousand men, which haue not bowed the knee to Baal.

5 Euen so then at this present time is there a remnant through the ‖election of grace.

6 And if it bee of grace, it is no more of workes: or els were grace no more grace: but if it be of workes, it is no more grace: or else were worke no more worke.

7 What then? Israel hath not obteined that he sought: but the election hath obteined it, and the rest haue bene hardened,

8 According as it is written, * God hath giuen them the spirit of ‖slumber: eyes that they should not see, and eares that they should not heare vnto this day.

9 And Dauid saith, * Let their [d] table be made a snare, and a nette, and a stumbling blocke, euen for a recompense vnto them.

10 Let their eyes be darkened [e] that they see not, and [e] bow downe their backe alwayes.

11 I demaunde then, Haue they stumbled, that they [f] should fall? God forbid: but through their fall saluation commeth vnto the Gentiles, to [g] prouoke them to followe them.

12 Wherefore if the fall of them be the riches of the world, and the diminishing of them the [h] riches of the Gentiles, how much more shall their abundance be?

I Beseech you therefore, brethren, by the mercies of God, that ye giue vp your bodies a * liuing sacrifice, holy, acceptable vnto God, which is your b reasonable seruing of God.

d Two things are required, if we wil iudge soberly of Gods gifts in vs: the one, that we doe not arrogate to our selues that which we haue not: next, that we boast not of the gifres, but reuerently vse them to Gods honour.

LEt * euery soule bee subiect vnto the higher powers: for there is no power but of God: and the powers that be, are ordeined of God.

2 Whosoeuer therefore resisteth the power, resisteth the ordinance of God: and they that resist, shall receiue to themselues [a] iudgement.

a Not onely the punishment of the iudges, but also the vengeance of God.

3 For Princes are not to be feared for good workes, but for euill. Wilt thou then be without feare of the power? doe well: so shalt thou haue praise of the same.

4 For he is the minister of God for thy wealth: but if thou doe euill, feare: for hee beareth not the sword for nought: for hee is the minister of God ‡ to take vengeance on him that doth euill.

5 Wherefore ye must be subiect, not because of wrath onely, but also for [b] conscience sake.

b For no priuate man can contemne that gouernment which God hath appointed, without the breach of his conscience: and here he speaketh of ciuill magistrates: so that Antichrist and his cannot wrest this place to establish their tyrannie ouer the conscience.

6 For, for this cause ye pay also tribute: for they are Gods ministers, applying themselues for the same [c] thing.

c That is, to defend the good, and to punish the euill.

7 * Giue to all men therefore their duetie: tribute, to whome ye owe tribute: custome, to whom custome: feare, to whom feare: honour, to whom ye owe honour.

11 And that, considering the season, that it is nowe time that wee should arise from sleepe: for nowe is our saluation [e] neerer, then when we beleeued it.

e Before we beleeued, it had bin in vaine to tell vs these things: but nowe seeing our saluation is neere, let vs take heede that we neglect not this occasion.

12 The night is past, and the day is at hand: let vs therefore cast away the works of darkenesse, and let vs put on the [f] armour of light.

f That is, honest maners & godly.

13 So that wee walke honestly, as in the day: not in * ‖ gluttonie, and drunkennesse, neither in chambering, and wantonnesse, not in strife and enuying:

Luke 21.34. ‖Or, riot. Galat.5.16. 1.pet.2.11.

14 * But put yee on the Lord IESVS Christ, and take no thought for the flesh, to fulfill the lustes of it.

CHAP. XIIII.

1 The weake ought not to be despised. 10 No man should offend anothers conscience, 15 But one to support another in charitie and faith.

HIm that is weake in the [a] faith, receiue vnto you, but not [b] for controuersies of disputations.

a That is, the doctrine of the Gospel.

b Lest he should depart either more ignorant then he came, or else with a greater scruple of conscience.

2 One beleeueth that he may eate of all things: and another, which is weake, eateth herbes.

Iames 4.12.

4 * Who art thou that condemnest another mans seruant? hee standeth or falleth to his owne [c] master: yea, hee shall be established: for God is able to make him stand.

c It is the Lords matter, and not thine.

5 This man esteemeth one day aboue another day, and another man counteth euery day alike: let euery man be [d] fully perswaded in his minde.

d We must be assured in our conscience by Gods word in all things that wee doe: that if we be strong, we may know what is our libertie: and if we be weake, wee may learne to profite dayly.

6 He that [e] obserueth the day, obserueth it to the [f] Lorde: and hee that obserueth not the day, obserueth it not to the Lorde. Hee that eateth, eateth to the Lorde: for hee giueth God thanks: and he that [g] eateth not, [h] eateth not to the Lorde, and giueth God thankes.

e That counteth one day more holy then another.

f Who iudgeth whether he doe well or no.

g Because hee thinketh the meates vncleane by the Lawe.

h Here we must note three things: first, that he speaketh of things which of themselues are indifferent, albeit in the Law they were not: next, that he reproueth not the condemning of the acte, but of the persons: thirdly, that he meaneth not the stubburne and malicious, whome he calleth dogges and concision, but the weake and infirme, to whom God as yet hath not reuealed the perfect libertie.

7 For none of vs liueth [i] to himselfe, neither doeth any die to himselfe.

i Both our life and death ought to profite our brother. 2.Cor.5.10. Isai.45.23. phil.2.10.

8 For whether we liue, we liue vnto the Lorde: or whether we die, wee die vnto the Lorde: whether we liue therefore, or die, we are the Lords.

k This othe particularly appertaineth to God, who is the true life of himselfe and giueth it to all others.

9 For Christ therefore dyed, and rose againe, and reuiued, that hee might be Lorde both of the dead and the quicke.

l And acknowledge me for their God.

10 But why doest thou iudge thy brother? or why doest thou despise thy brother? * for wee shall all appeare before the iudgement seate of Christ.

11 For it is written, * I [k] liue, saith the Lord, and euery knee shall bowe to me, and all tongues shall [l] confesse vnto God.

12 So then euery one of vs shall giue accounts of himselfe to God.

13 Let vs not therefore iudge one another any more: but vse your iudgement rather in this, that no man put an occasion to fall, or a stumbling blocke before his brother.

m He preuenteth the obiection which the Christians might vse. 1. Cor. 8. 11.

14 m I know, & am perswaded through the Lorde Iesus, that there is nothing vncleane of it selfe: but vnto him that iudgeth any thing to bee vncleane, to him it is vncleane.

n Which is the benefite of Christian libertie, by abusing whereof ye cause the weakelings to blaspheme the Gospel, which might seeme to them contrary to Gods wil, and the doctrine of y law.

15 But if thy brother be grieued for the meate, now walkest thou not charitably: * destroy not him with thy meat, for whome Christ died.

o God will not reigne ouer his by such obseruations.

16 Cause not your n commoditie to bee euill spoken of.

p In peace and righteousnesse. Titus 1. 15.

17 For the o kingdome of God is not meate nor drinke, but righteousnesse, and peace, and ioy in the holy Ghost.

1. Cor. 8. 13.

18 For whosoeuer p in these things serueth Christ, is acceptable vnto God, and is approued of men.

q Faith here is taken for a full perswasion of the Christian libertie in things indifferent as the Apostle interpreteth it in the 14. verse.

19 Let vs then followe those things which concerne peace, and wherewith one may edifie another.

r Which hath none euil remorse of conscience in his doing.

20 Destroy not the worke of God for meates sake: * all things in deed are pure: but it is euill for the man which eateth with offence.

s Meaning of a right conscience,

21 * It is good neither to eate flesh, nor to drinke wine, nor any thing, whereby thy brother stumbleth, or is offended, or made weake.

22 Hast thou q faith? haue it with thy selfe before God: blessed is hee that r condemneth not himselfe in that thing which he alloweth.

23 For he that doubteth, is condemned if he eate, because he eateth not of faith: and whatsoeuer is not of s faith, is sinne.

CHAP. XV.

1 Paul exhorteth them to support and loue one another by the example of Christ, 9 And by the only mercy of God which is the cause of saluation both of the one and the other. 14 He sheweth his zeale towarde them and the Church, 30 And requireth the same of them.

WE which are strong, ought to beare the infirmities of the weake, and not to please our selues.

2 Therefore let euery man please his neighbour in that that is good to t edification.

t To edifie signifieth to doe all maner dueties to our neighbour, either to bring him to Christ, or if he be wonne, that hee may growe from faith to faith: for the faithfull are called the Temple of God wherein he is resident by his holy Spirit: and these faithfull are the stones of the newe Ierusalem: that is, the vniuersall Church, Isa. 54. Reuel. 21. of the which building Christ is the chiefe corner stone, Ephes. 2. 20. Psal. 69. 7, 9. b I did so beare them as if they had bene done to me, and not to my father.

3 For Christ also would not please himselfe, but as it is written, * The rebukes of them which rebuke thee, fell b on me.

4 For whatsoeuer things are written afore time, are written for our learning, that wee through patience, and comfort of the Scriptures might haue hope.

c Which is the author of patience,

5 Nowe the God of c patience and consolation giue you that yee bee * like minded one towardes an other, according to Christ Iesus,

1. Cor. 1. 10. phil. 3. 16. & 4. 3.

6 That yee with one mind, and with one mouth may praise God, euen the Father of our Lord Iesus Christ.

7 Wherefore, receiue yee one another, as Christ also receiued vs to the d glory of God.

d To make vs partakers of Gods glory.

8 Nowe I say, that Iesus Christ was a e minister of the circumcision, for the f trueth of God, to confirme the promises made vnto the fathers.

e First to gather the Iewes, and then the Gentiles, that both might be made one flocke.

9 And let the Gentiles praise God for his mercie, as it is written, * For this cause I will confesse thee among the Gentiles, and sing vnto thy Name.

f That God might be knowē true.

10 And againe he saieth, * Reioyce, yee Gentiles with his people.

Psal. 18. 49. 2 sam. 22. 50. Deut. 32. 43.

11 And againe, * Praise the Lord all yee Gentiles, and laude yee him, all people together.

Psal. 117. 1.

12 And againe Esaias saith, * There shall be a roote of Iesse, and g hee that shall rise to reigne ouer the h Gentiles, in him shall the Gentiles trust.

Isa. 11, 10.

g Which is Christ, who did spring as a yong bud out of the dric and dead roote.

13 Nowe the God of hope fill you with all ioy, and peace in beleeuing, that yee may abound in hope, through the power of the holy Ghost.

h Then seeing he tooke both the Iewes and Gentiles to his Fathers glory, they ought by his example to loue together.

14 And I my selfe also am perswaded of you, my brethren, that yee also are full of goodnesse, and filled with all knowledge, and are able to admonish one another.

15 Neuertheless brethren, I haue somewhat boldly after a sort written vnto you, as one that putteth you in remembrance, through the grace that is giuen mee of God, 16 That I should be the minister of Iesus Christ toward the Gentiles, ministring the Gospell of God, that the offering vp of the Gentiles might bee acceptable, being sanctified by the holy Ghost.

i The minister offereth vp the people to God by the Gospel.

17 I haue therefore whereof I may reioyce in Christ Iesus in those things which pertaine to God.

18 For I dare not i speake of any thing which Christ hath not wrought by me, to make the Gentiles obedient in word and deede, k God gaue him such ample occasions to set forth his excellent workes that he had done by him, that the Apostle neede not to seeke any other thing to boast vpon.

19 With the power of signes and wonders, by the power of the spirite of God: so that from Ierusalem, and rounde about vnto Illyricum, I haue caused to abound the Gospell of Christ.

20 Yea, so I enforced my selfe to preach the Gospel, not where Christ was named, lest I should haue built on another mans foundation.

21 But as it is written, * To whom hee was not spoken of, they shall see him, and they that heard not, shall vnderstand him.

Isa. 52. 15.

22 Therefore also I haue bene * oft let to come vnto you.

Chap. 1. 13. 1. thes. 2. 17, 18.

23 But nowe seeing I haue no more place in these quarters, and also haue * bene desirous many yeeres agone to come vnto you,

Chap. 1. 10.

24 When I shall take my iourney into Spaine, I will come to you: for I trust to to see you in my iourney, and to be brought on my way thitherward by you, after that I haue beene somewhat filled with your companie.

25 But nowe goe I to Ierusalem, to l ministers vnto the Saints.

26 For it hath pleased them of Macedonia and Achaia, to make a certaine distribution vnto the poore Saintes which are at Ierusalem.

27 For it hath pleased them, and their detters are they: * for if the Gentiles bee made partakers of their spirituall things, their duetie is also to minister vnto them in carnall things.

28 When I haue therefore performed this, and haue m sealed them this n fruite, I will passe by you into Spaine.

29 *And I know when I come, that I shall come to you with • abundance of the blessing of the Gospell of Christ.

30 Also brethren I beseech you for our Lorde Iesus Christes sake, and for the loue of the spirite, that yee * would striue with me by prayers to God for me,

31 That I may be deliuered from them which are disobedient in Iudea, and that my seruice which I haue to doe at Ierusalem, may be p accepted of the Saints, 32 That I may come vnto you with ioy by the will of God, and may with you be refreshed.

33 Thus the *God of peace be with you all. Amen.

The first Epistle of Paul to the Corinthians.

THE ARGVMENT.

After that Saint Paul had preached at Corinthus a yeere and a halfe, he was compelled by the wickednesse of the Iewes to sayle into Syria. In whose absence false apostles entred into the Church, who being puffed vp with vaine glory, and affectate eloquence, sought to bring into contempt the simplicitie which Paul vsed in preaching the Gospel. By whose ambition such factions and schismes sprang vp in the Church, that from opinions in policies and ceremonies, they fell to false doctrine and heresies, calling into doubt the resurrection from the dead, one of the chiefest points of Christian religion. Against these euils the Apostle proceedeth, preparing the Corinthians hearts, and eares with gentle salutations: but soone after he reproueth their contentions and debates, their arrogancie and pride, and exhorteth them to concorde and humilitie, setting before their eyes the spirituall vertue, and heauenly wisedome of the Gospel, which cannot be perswaded by worldly wit and eloquent reasons, but is reueiled by Gods Spirite, and so sealed in mens hearts. Therefore this saluation may not be attributed to the ministers, but onely to God, whose seruants they are, and haue receiued charge to edifie his Church: wherein Saint Paul behaued him selfe skilfully, building according to the foundation (which is Christ) and exhorteth others to make the ende proportionable to the beginning, taking diligent heede that they be not polluted with vaine doctrine, seeing they are the Temple of God. And as for those that doubted of his Apostleship, hee sheweth them that he dependeth not on mans iudgement, albeit hee had declared by manifest signes that he neuer sought his owne glorie, neither yet howe he might liue, but onely the glory of Christ: which thing at his comming he would declare more amplie, to the shame of those vaine glorious braggers, who sought themselues onely, and therefore suffered most horrible vices vnreproued and vnpunished, as incest, contentions, pleadings before infidels, fornication, and such like, to the great slander of the Gospel. This done, hee answereth to certaine points of the Corinthians letter, as touching single life, duetie of marriage, of discord and dissention among the married, of virginitie, and second marriage. And because some thought it nothing to bee present at idole seruice, seeing in their heart they worshipped the true God, hee warneth them to haue respect to their weake brethren, whose fayth by that dissembling was hindred, and their consciences wounded, which thing, rather then hee woulde doe, hee would neuer vse that libertie which God had giuen him. But forasmuch as pride, and selfewill is the cause of those great euils, hee admonisheth them by the example of the Iewes not to glorie in these outwarde giftes, whose horrible punishment for the abuse of Gods creatures, ought to be a warning to all men to followe Christ vprightly, without all pollution and offence of others. Then hee correcteth diuers abuses in their Church, as touching the behauiour of men, and women in the assemblies: of the Lords Supper, the abuse of the spirituall giftes, which God hath giuen to mainteine loue and edifie the Church: as concerning the resurrection from the dead, without the which the Gospel serueth to no vse. Last of all he exhorteth the Corinthians to relieue the poore brethren at Ierusalem, to perseuere in the loue of Christ, and well doing, sending his commendations, and wishing them peace.

CHAP. I.

1 Hee prayseth the great graces of God shewed toward them, 10 Exhorting them to concord and humilitie. 19 Hee beateth downe all pride, and wisedome which is not grounded on God, 26 Shewing whome God hath chosen to confound the wisedome of the world.

15 Lest any should say, that I had baptized into mine owne name.

16 I baptized also the housholde of Stephanas: furthermore knowe I not, whether I baptized any other.

17 For Christ sent mee not to m baptize, but to preach the Gospel, not with* n wisedome of wordes, o lest the crosse of Christ should be made of none effect.

18 For the preaching of the crosse is to them that perish, foolishnesse: but vnto vs, which are saued, it is the* power of God.

19 For it is written, *I will destroy the wisedome of the wise, and will cast away the vnderstanding of the prudent.

20 Where is the wise? where is the p Scribe? where is the q disputer of this world? hath not God made the wisedome of this world foolishnesse?

21 For seeing the worlde by wisedome knewe not God in the wisedome of God, it pleased God by the foolishnesse of preaching to saue them that beleeue:

22 Seeing also that the Iewes require a* signe, and the Grecians seeke after wisedome.

23 But we preach Christ crucified: vnto the Iewes, euen a stumbling blocke, and vnto the Grecians, foolishnesse:

24 But vnto them which are called, both of the Iewes and Grecians wee preach Christ, the power of God, and the wisedome of God.

25 For the r foolishnesse of God is wiser then men, and the weakenesse of God is stronger then men.

26 For brethren, you see your calling, howe that not many wise men s after the flesh, not many mightie, not many noble are called.

27 But God hath chosen the foolish things of the world to confound the wise, and God hath chosen the weake things of the world, to confound the mightie things,

28 And vile things of the worlde and things which are despised, hath God chosen, and things t which are not, to bring to nought things u that are,

29 That no* flesh should reioyce in his presence.

30 But yee are of him in Christ Iesus, who of God is made vnto vs* wisedome, and righteousnesse, and sanctification, and redemption, 31 That according as it is written,* He that reioyceth, y let him reioyce in the Lord.

CHAP. II.

1 Hee putteth for example his maner of preaching, which was according to the tenor of the Gospel, 8 Which Gospel was contemptible and hid to the carnall, 10 And againe honorable and manifest to the spirituall.

AND I, brethren, when I came to you, came not with* excellencie of wordes, or of wisedome, shewing vnto you the ‖ a testimonie of God.

Chap.1.17.

‖ Or, mysterie.

2 For I esteemed not to ‖ knowe any thing among you, saue Iesus Christ, and him crucified.

3 *And I was among you in b weakenesse, and in feare, and in much trembling,

4 Neither stood my worde, and my preaching in the* enticing speach of mans wisedome, but in plaine euidence of ‖ the Spirit and of power,

‖ Or, I thought nothing worthie to be knowen.

5 That your faith should not bee in the wisedome of men, but in the power of God.

6 And we speake wisedome among them that are c perfite: not the wisedome of this world, neither of the d princes of this world, which come to nought.

Acts 18.1.

b Herein appeareth his great modestie, who was not glorious but abiect and humble, not full of vaine boastings and arrogancie, but with feare and trembling set foorth the mightie power of God.

7 But wee speake the wisedome of God in a mysterie, euen the hid wisedome, which God had determined before the world, vnto our glorie.

Chap.1.17.

8 Which e none of the princes of this world hath knowen: for had they knowen it, they would not haue crucified the f Lorde of glorie.

‖ Or, heauenly, or diuine.

9 But as it is written, * The things which eye hath not seene, neither eare hath heard, neither g came into mans heart, are, which God hath prepared for them that loue him.

10 But God hath reuealed them vnto vs by his Spirit: for the Spirit h searcheth all things, yea, the deepe things of God.

c They whose vnderstandings are illuminate by faith, acknowledge this wisedome, which the world calleth folly.

11 For what man knoweth the things of a man, sauing the spirit i of man, which is in him? euen so the things of God knoweth no man, but the Spirit of God.

d The worde is here taken for them, whom either for wisedome, riches, or power, men most esteeme.

12 Nowe wee haue k receiued not the Spirite of the worlde, but the Spirite, which is of GOD, that wee might knowe the l things that are giuen to vs of God.

e That is, very fewe. f Hee calleth Iesus the mightie God, full of true glory and maiestie, whome Dauid also calleth the King of glory, Psalm. 24.7. and Steuen nameth him the God of glory, Acts 7.2. and hereby appeareth the diuinitie of Christ, and coniunction of two natures in one person. Isa.64.4.

CHAP. III.

3 Paul rebuketh the sectes and authours thereof. 7 No man ought to attribute his saluation to the ministers, but to God. 10 That they beware erroneous doctrine. 11 Christ is the foundation of his Church. 16 The dignitie and office both of the ministers, and also of all the faithfull.

AND I could not speake vnto you, brethren, as vnto spirituall men, but as vnto carnall, euen as vnto a babes in Christ.

2 I gaue you milke to drinke, and not meate: for yee were not yet able to beare it, neither yet nowe are ye able.

3 For yee are yet carnall: for where as there is among you enuying, and strife, and diuisions, are ye not carnall, and walke as men?

4 For when one saith, I am Pauls, and an other, I am Apollos, are ye not carnall?

5 Who is Paul then? and who is Apollos, but the ministers by whome yee beleeued, and as the Lord gaue to euery man?

6 I haue planted, Apollos watered, but God gaue the encreale.

7 So then, neither is hee that planteth any thing, neither hee that watereth, but God that giueth the increale.

8 And he that planteth, and he that watereth are b one, * and euery man shall receiue his wages, according to his labour.

9 For wee together are Gods c labourers: yee are Gods husbandrie, and Gods building.

10 According to the grace of God giuen to mee, as a skilfull master builder, I haue layde the foundation, and another buildeth thereon: but let euery man d take heede how he buildeth vpon it.

11 For other foundation can no man lay, then that which is layde, which is Iesus Christ.

12 And if any man builde on this foundation, gold, siluer, precious stones, timber, hay, or stubble, 13 Euery mans worke shal be made manifest: for the e day shall declare it, because it shall bee reuealed by the f fire: and the fire shall trie euery mans worke of what sort it is.

14 If any mans worke, that hee hath built vpon, abide, he shall receiue wages.

15 If any mans worke burne, hee shall g lose, but he h shall be i safe himselfe; neuertheless yet as it were by the fire.

16 * Know ye not that ye are the Temple of God, and that the Spirite of God dwelleth in you?

17 If any man destroy the Temple of God, him shall God destroy: for the Temple of God is holy, which ye are.

18 Let no man deceiue himselfe. If any man among you seeme to bee wise in this worlde, let him bee a foole, that hee may bee wise.

19 For the wisedome of this worlde is foolishnes with God: for it is written, * He catcheth the wise k in their owne craftinesse.

20 * And againe, The Lord knoweth that the thoughts of the wise be vaine.

21 Therefore let no man l reioyce in men: for all things are yours.

22 Whether it be Paul, or Apollos, or Cephas, or the world, or life, or death: whether they be things present, or things to come, euen all are yours, 23 And ye Christes, and Christ Gods.

a Being ingrafted in Christ by faith, we begin to moue by his Spirit, & as we profit in faith, we growe vp to a ripe age. And here let him take heed that teacheth, lest for milke he giue poison: for milke and strong meate in effect are one, but onely differ in maner and forme.

b He chargeth them with two faults: the one, that they attributed too much to the ministers, and the other, that they preferred one minister to another Psal.62.12. galat.6.5.

c So made by his grace.

d He reproueth the ministers of Corinth. as teachers of curious doctrines and questions.

e Or the time: which is, when the light of the trueth shall expel the darknes of ignorance, then the curious ostentation of mans wisedome shall bee brought to nought.

f By the triall of Gods Spirit.

g Both his labour and reward.

h He reproueth them not as false apostles, but as curious teachers of humane sciences, as they which lothing all the simplicitie of Gods worde, preach philosophical speculations.

i As touching his life, if he hold fast the foundation. Chap.6.19. 2.cor.6,16. Iob.5.13.

k When they themselues are entangled in the same snares, which they layde for others. Psal.94.11.

l But in God who worketh by his ministers to his owne glory and the comfort of his Church.

CHAP. IIII.

1 After that he had described the office of a true Apostle, 3 Seeing they did not acknowledge him such one, 4 Hee appealeth to Gods iudgement, 7 Beating downe their glorie which hindred them to prayse that, which they dispraysed in him. 16 Hee sheweth what he requireth on their part, and what they ought to looke for of him at his returne.

LET a man so thinke of vs, as of the a ministers of Christ, and disposers of the secrets of God.

2 And as for the rest, it is required of the disposers, that euery man bee found faithfull.

3 * As touching me, I passe very litle to be iudged of you, or ‡ mans iudgement: no, I iudge not mine b owne selfe,

4 For I c knowe nothing by d my selfe, yet am I not thereby iustified: but hee that iudgeth me, is the Lord.

5 Therefore * iudge nothing before the time, vntill the Lorde come, who will lighten things that are hid in darkenesse, and make the counsels of the hearts manifest: and then shall euery man haue prayse of God.

6 Nowe these things brethren, I haue figuratiuely applied vnto mine owne selfe and Apollos for your sakes, that yee might learne e by vs, that no man presume aboue that which is written, that one f swell not against another for any mans cause.

7 For who f separateth thee? and what hast thou, that thou hast not receiued? if thou hast receiued it, why reioycest thou, as though thou haddest not receiued it?

a As it is a thing intolerable to contemne the true ministers of God, so it is greatly reprehensible to attribute more vnto them then is meete. Matth.7.1,2.

b Whether I haue great giftes or litle, fewe or many.

c For as I do not knowe whereby I should take any occasion of glorie: so I am certaine that before God another maner of iustice is required.

d Concerning mine office. Matth.7.1. rom.2.1.

e By our example. f To wit, from other men & preferreth thee.

8 Nowe ye are full: nowe yee are made rich: yee reigne as Kings without vs, and would to God yee did reigne, that wee also might reigne with you.

9 For I thinke that God hath set foorth vs e the last Apostles, as men appointed to death: for wee are made a gasing stocke vnto the world, and to the Angels, and to men.

10 We are h fooles for Christes sake, and yee are wise in Christ: wee are weake, and yee strong: yee are honourable, and wee are despised.

11 Unto this houre we both hunger, and thirst, and are naked, and are buffeted, and haue no certaine dwelling place, 12 * And labour, working with our owne hands: we are reuiled, and yet we blesse: we are persecuted, and suffer it.

13 * We are euil spoken of, and we ‖ pray: we are made as the filth of the worlde, the off-scowring of all things, vnto this time.

14 I write not these things to shame you, but as my beloued children I admonish you.

15 For though yee haue tenne thousand ‖ instructours in Christ, yet haue ye not many fathers: for in Christ Jesus I haue begotten you through the Gospel.

16 Wherefore, I pray you, be ye followers of me.

17 For this cause haue I sent vnto you Timotheus, which is my beloued sonne, and faithfull in the Lorde, which shall put you in i remembrance of my wayes in Christ as I teach euery where in euery Church.

18 Some are puffed vp as though I would not come to you.

19 But I will come to you shortly, * if the Lorde will, and will knowe, not the speech of them which are puffed vp, but the power.

20 For the k kingdome of God is not in word, but in l power.

21 What will ye? shall I come vnto you with a rodde, or in loue, and in the spirite of meekenesse?

CHAP. V.

1 He reproueth sharply their negligence in punishing him that had committed incest, 3 Willing them to excommunicate him, 7 To embrace puritie, 9 And flee wickednes.

IT is heard certainely, that there is fornication among you, and such fornication as is not once named among the a Gentiles, * that one shoulde haue his fathers wife.

2 And ye are puffed vp and haue not rather sorowed, that he which hath done this deede, might be put from among you.

3 * For I verely as absent in body, but present in spirite, haue determined already, as though I were present, that he that hath b thus done this thing,

6 Your reioycing is not g good: * know ye not that a litle leauen leaueneth the whole lumpe?

7 Purge out therefore the olde leauen, that ye may bee a newe lumpe, h as ye are vnleauened: for Christ our passeouer is sacrificed for vs.

8 Therefore let vs keepe the feast, not with old leauen, neither in the leauen of malitiousnes and wickednes: but with the vnleauened bread of sincerite and trueth.

9 I wrote vnto you in an Epistle, * that ye shoulde not company together with fornicatours,

10 And i not altogether with the fornicatours of this worlde, or with the couetous, or with extortioners, or with idolaters: for then yee must goe out of the world.

11 But nowe I haue written vnto you, that yee company not together: if any that is called a brother, be a fornicatour, or couetous, or k an idolater, or a railer, or a drunkard, or an extortioner, with such one eate not.

12 For what haue I to doe, to iudge them also, which are l without? doe yee not iudge them that are m within?

1 He rebuketh them for going to lawe together before the heathen. 7 Christians ought rather to suffer. 12 He reprooueth the abusing of Christian libertie, 15 And sheweth that we ought to serue God purely, both in body and in soule.

DAre any of you, hauing businesse against another, be iudged vnder ‖ the a vniust, and not vnder the Saints?

2 * Doe ye not knowe, that the Saints shall iudge the world? If the worlde then shall be iudged by you, are ye vnworthie to iudge the smallest matters?

3 Knowe ye not that we shall iudge the b Angels? howe much more things that pertaine to this life?

4 If then ye haue iudgements of things pertaining to this life, c set vp them which are d least esteemed in the Church.

5 I speake it to your shame. Is it so that there is not a wise man among you? no not one, that can iudge betweene his brethren?

8 * Nay, ye your selues e doe wrong, and doe harme, and that to your brethren.

9 Knowe yee not that the vnrighteous shal not inherite the kingdome of God? Be not deceiued: * neither fornicators, nor idolaters, nor adulterers, nor wantons, nor buggerers, NOwe concerning the things whereof ye wrote vnto mee, It were a good for a man not to touch a woman.

2 Neuertheleſſe, to auoyde fornication, let b euery man haue his wife, and let euery woman haue her owne husband.

a Or, expedient: because mariage, thorow mans corruption, and not by Gods institution, bringeth cares and troubles. b Speaking to all men in generall.

3 *Let the husband giue vnto the wife c due benevolence, & likewise also the wife vnto the husband.

4 The wife hath not the power of her owne body, but the husband: and likewise also the husband hath not the power of his owne body, but the wife.

5 Defraude not one another, except it be with consent for a time, that yee may giue your selues to fasting and prayer, and againe come together, that Satan tempt you not for your incontinencie.

6 But I speake this by permission, d not by commandement.

7 For I would that all men were euen as I my selfe am: but euery man hath e his proper gift of God, one after this maner, and another after that.

8 Therefore I say vnto the vnmarried, and vnto the widowes, it is good for them if they abide euen as I doe.

9 But if they cannot absteine, let them marrie: for it is better to marrie then to f burne.

10 And vnto the married I commaund, not I, but the Lorde, Let not the wife * depart from her husband.

11 But and if she f depart, let her remaine vnmarried, or be reconciled vnto her husband, and let not the husband put g away his wife.

12 But to the remnant I speake, and not h the Lord, If any brother haue a wife, that beleeueth not, if she be content to dwel with him, let him not forsake her.

13 And the woman which hath an husband that beleeueth not, if he be content to dwell with her, let her not forsake him.

14 For the vnbeleeuing husbande is i sanctified by the wife, and the vnbeleeuing wife is sanctified by the husband, els were your children vncleane: but now are they k holy.

15 But if the vnbeleeuing depart, let him depart: a brother or a sister is not in subiection in l such things: but God hath called vs in peace.

16 For what knowest thou, O wife, whether thou shalt saue thine husband? Or what knowest thou, O man, whether thou shalt saue thy wife?

17 But as God hath distributed to euery man, as the Lord hath m called euery one, so let him walke: and so ordayne I in all Churches.

18 Is any man called being circumcised? let him not n gather his vncircumcision: is any called vncircumcised? let him not be circumcised.

cation wherein he was called.

21 Art thou called being a seruant? care not for it: but if yet thou mayest be free, vse it rather.

22 For he that is called in the [q] Lord being a seruant, is the Lordes free man: likewise also hee that is called being free, is Christs seruant.

23 * Ye are bought ‖ with a price: be not the seruants of men.

24 Brethren, let euery man, wherein he was called, therein abide with [r] God.

25 Nowe concerning ‖ virgins, I haue no [s] commaundement of the Lorde: but I giue mine aduice, as one that hath obteyned mercy of the Lord to be ‖ faithfull.

26 I suppose then [t] this to bee good for the present [u] necessitie: I meane, that it is good for a man so to be.

27 Art thou bound vnto a wife? seeke not to bee loosed: art thou loosed from a wife? seeke not a wife.

28 But if thou take a wife, thou sinnest not: and if a virgin marrie, she sinneth not: neuertheles, such shall haue [x] trouble in the flesh: but I [z] spare you.

29 And this I say, brethren, because the time is short, ‖ hereafter that both they which haue wiues, bee as though they had none:

30 And they that [a] weepe, as though they wept not: and they that [b] reioyce, as though they reioyced not: and they that buy, as though they possessed not:

31 And they that vse this worlde, as though they vsed it not: for the [c] facion of this world goeth away.

32 And I woulde haue you without care. The vnmarried careth for the things of the Lord, how he may please the Lord.

33 But he that is married, careth for the things of the [d] worlde, how hee may please his wife.‡

34 There is difference also betweene a virgine and a wife: the vnmarried woman careth for the things of the Lorde, that shee may be [e] holy, both in body and in spirite: but shee that is married, careth for the things of the worlde, howe she may please her husband.

35 And this I speake for your owne commoditie, not to [f] tangle you in a snare, but that yee followe that, which is honest, and that yee may cleaue fast vnto the Lorde without separation.

36 But if any man thinke that it is vncomely for his virgine, if shee passe the flowre of her age, and [g] needs so require, let him doe what he will, hee sinneth not: let them be married.

37 Neuertheles, he [h] that standeth firme in his heart, that hee hath no neede, but hath [i] power ouer his owne will, and hath so decreed in his heart, that hee will keepe his virgine, he doeth well.

38 So then he that giueth her to marriage, doeth well, but hee that giueth her not to marriage, doeth [k] better.

39 The wife is bounde by the [l] Law, as long as her husband * liueth: but if her husband be dead, she is at libertie to marry with whom she will, onely in the Lord.

40 But shee is more blessed, if she so abide, in my iudgement: * and I thinke that I haue also the spirite of God.

commodious for his children in preseruing them from cares. l Of matrimonie. *Rom.*7.2. 1.*Thess.*4.8.

CHAP. VIII.

1 He rebuketh them that vse their libertie to the slander of other, in going to the idolatrous sacrifices, 9 And sheweth how men ought to behaue them toward such as be weake.

AND as touching things sacrificed vnto idoles, wee knowe that we all haue [a] knowledge: knowledge puffeth by, but loue edifieth.

2 Nowe, if any man thinke that hee knoweth any thing, he knoweth nothing yet as he ought to know.

3 But if any man loue God, the same is ‖ knowen of him.

4 Concerning therfore meate sacrificed vnto idoles, wee knowe that an idole is [b] nothing in the worlde, and that there is none other God but one.

5 For though there bee that are called gods, whether in heauen, or in earth, (as there be many gods, and many [c] lords)

6 Yet vnto vs there is but one God, which is the Father, of whom are al things, and wee in him: and * one Lorde Iesus Christ, by whom are all things, and we by him.

7 But euery man hath not knowledge: for some hauing [d] conscience of the idole, vntill this houre, eate as a thing sacrificed vnto the idole, and so their conscience being weake, is defiled.

8 But meate maketh not vs acceptable to God: for neyther if we eate, haue we the [e] more: neither if we eate not, haue we the lesse.

9 But take heede least by any meanes this ‖ power of yours be an occasion of falling to them that are weake.

10 For if any man see thee which hast knowledge, sit at table in the idoles temple, shall not the conscience of him which is weake, be ‡ [f] holdened to eate those things which are sacrificed to idoles?

11 And through thy knowledge shall the * [g] weake brother perish, for whome Christ died.

12 Nowe when yee sinne so against the brethren, and wounde their weake conscience, ye sinne against Christ.

13 * Wherefore if meate offende my brother, I wil eat no flesh while the worlde standeth, that I may not offende my brother.

i For the father will dependeth on his childrens in this poynt in so much as he is bound to haue respect to their infirmitie, neither can he iustly require of them singlenes, if they haue not that gift of God so to liue.

CHAP. IX.

He exhorteth them by his example to vse their libertie to the edification of other. 24 To runne on forth in the course that they haue begunne.

AM I not an Apostle? am I not free? haue I not seene Iesus Christ our Lord? are ye not my worke in the Lord?

2 If I be not an Apostle vnto other, yet doubtlesse I am vnto you: for yee are the a seale of mine Apostleship in the Lord.

3 My defence to them that b examine me, is this,

4 Haue wee not power to eate, and to drinke?

5 Haue we not power to d leade about a wife being a e sister, as well as the rest of the Apostles, and as the ‖brethren of the Lord, and Cephas?

6 Or I onely and Barnabas, haue not we power f not to worke?

7 Who goeth a warfare any time at his owne cost? who planteth a vineyarde, and eateth not of the fruite thereof? or who feedeth a flocke, and eateth not of the milke of the flocke?

8 Say I these thinges according to man? saith not the Lawe the same also?

9 For it is written in the Lawe of Moses, * Thou shalt not muzzell the mouth of the oxe that treadeth out the corne: doeth God take g care for oxen?

10 Either saith hee it not altogether for our sakes? For our sakes no doubt it is written, that he which eareth, should eare in hope: and that he that thresheth in hope, should be partaker of his hope.

11 * If we haue sowen vnto you spirituall things, is it a great thing if wee reape your carnall things?

12 If others with you bee partakers of this h power, are not wee rather? neuertheless, we haue not vsed this power: but ‖suffer all things, that we should not hinder the Gospel of Christ.

13 Doe yee not knowe, that they which minister about the * holy things, eate of the thinges of the Temple? and they which waite at the altar, are partakers i with the altar?

14 So also hath the Lord ordeined, that they which preache the Gospel, should liue of the Gospel.

15 But I haue vsed none of these things: neither wrote I these thinges, that it should be so done vnto mee: for it were better for mee to die, then that any man should make my k reioycing vayne.

16 For though I preach the Gospel, I haue nothing to reioyce of: for necessitie is layde vpon mee, and woe is vnto me, if I preach not the Gospel.

17 For if I do it willingly, I haue a reward: but if I doe it against my will, l notwithstanding the dispensation is committed vnto me.

18 What is my reward then? verely that when I preach the Gospel, I make the Gospel of Christ m free, that I abuse not mine authoritie in the Gospel.

19 For though I be free from all men, yet haue I made my selfe seruaunt vnto all men, that I might winne the moe.

20 * And vnto the Iewes I become as a Iewe, that I may winne the Iewes: to them that are vnder the Lawe, as though I were vnder the n Lawe, that I may winne them that are vnder the Law:

21 To them that are without Lawe, as though I were without Law (when I am not without Lawe as perteining to God, but am in the Law through Christ) that I may winne them that are without Law.

22 To the weake I become as weake, that I may winne the weake: I am made o all things to all men, that I might by all meanes saue some.

23 And this I doe for the Gospels sake, that I might bee partaker thereof with you.

24 Knowe yee not, that they which run in a race, runne all, yet one receiueth the prise? so runne, that ye may obtaine.

25 And euery man that prooueth masteries, p abstaineth from all things: and they doe it to obteine a corruptible crowne: but we for an vncorruptible.

26 I therefore so runne, not as vncertainely: so fight I, not as one that beateth the aire.

27 But I beate downe my q body, and bring it into subiection, least by any meanes after that I haue preached to other, I my selfe should be r reproued.

Actes 16.3 galat.2.3.

n As touching the ceremonies.

o In things indifferet, as eating of meates, obseruation of feastes and dayes, & such like, he fashioned himselfe to men in such sort as hee might best gaine them to Christ.

q Or, olde man, which rebelleth against the spirit.

CHAP. X.

He feareth the with the example of the Iewes, that they put not their trust carnally in the graces of God, 14 Exhorting them to flee all idolatrie, 23 And offence of their neighbour.

MOreouer, brethren, I would not that ye should be ignorant, that all our fathers were vnder * the cloude, and all passed through the * sea,

2 And were all baptized vnto a Moses, in the cloude, and in the sea,

3 * And did all eate the same b c spirituall meate,

4 * And did all drinke the same spirituall drinke (for they dranke of the spirituall Rocke that followed them: and the Rocke d was Christ)

5 But with many of them God was not pleased: for they were * ouerthrowen in the wildernesse.

6 Now these are ensamples to vs, to the intent that wee should not lust after euill things * as they also lusted.

7 Neither be ye idolaters as were some of them, as it is written, * The people sate downe to e eate and drinke, and rose vp to play.

8 Neither let vs commit fornication, as some of them committed fornication, and fell in one * f day three & twentie thouland.

i For that part that was burnt, was deuoured of the altar, and the other was due vnto the priests by the lawe.

k For nowe you haue no iust cause against me, seeing that I preached the Gospel freely vnto you.

l Seeing hee is charged to preach, he must willingly and earnestly folow it: for if he do it by constraint, he doth not his duty.

m That I be not chargeable to them vnto whom I preach, seeing that they thinke that I preach for gaines.

9 Neither let vs tempt c Christ, as some of them also tempted him, & were * destroyed of serpents.

10 Neither murmure yee, as some of them * also murmured, and were destroyed of the b destroyer.

11 Now all these things came vnto them for ensamples, and were written to admonish i vs, vpon whome the k endes of the world are come.

12 Wherefore, let him that thinketh he standeth, take heede least he fall.

13 There hath no tentation taken you, but such as appertaineth to man: and God is faithfull, which will not suffer you to be tempted aboue that you be able, but l will euen giue the issue with the tentation, that ye may be able to beare it.

14 Wherefore my beloued, flee frō idolatrie.

15 I speake as vnto them which haue vnderstanding: iudge ye what I say.

16 The cuppe of ‖ blessing which wee m blesse, is it not the communion of ỹ blood of Christ? The bread which we breake, is it not the n communion of the body of Christ?

17 For we that are many, are one bread, and one body, because wee all are partakers of one bread.

18 Behold Israel which is after the p flesh: are not they which eate of the sacrifices, partakers of the altar?

19 What say I then? that the idole is any thing? or that that which is sacrificed to idoles, is any thing?

20 Nay, but that these thinges which the Gentiles sacrifice, they sacrifice to deuils, and not vnto God: and I would not that yee should haue q fellowship with the deuils.

21 Ye cannot drinke the cup of the Lord, and the cuppe of the deuils. Ye can not be partakers of the Lordes table and of the table of deuils.

22 Doe we prouoke the Lord to anger? are we stronger then he?

23 * All things are lawfull for me, but all thinges are not expedient: all things are lawfull for me, but all things edifie not.

24 Let no man seeke his owne, but euery man anothers wealth.

25 Whatsoeuer is solde in the r shambles, eate yee, and s aske no question for conscience sake.

26 * For the earth is the Lordes, and all that therein is.

27 If any of them which beleeue not, call you to a feast: and if ye will goe, whatsoeuer is set before you, eate, asking no question for conscience sake.

28 But if any man say vnto you, This is sacrificed vnto idoles, eate it not, because of him that shewed it, and for the conscience (for the earth is the Lordes, and all that therein is)

29 And the conscience I say, not thine, but of that other: for why shoulde my t liberty be condemned of an other mans conscience?

30 For u if I through Gods benefite bee partaker, why am I euil spoken of, for that wherefore I giue thanks?

31 * Whether therefore ye eate or drinke, or whatsoeuer yee doe, doe all to the glory of God.

32 Giue none offence, neither to the Iewes, nor to the Grecians, nor to the Church of God:

33 Euen as I please x all men y in all things, not seeking mine owne profite, but the profite of many, that they might be saued.

CHAP. XI.

Hee rebuketh the abuses which were crept into their church, 4 As touching prayer, prophecying, 18 And ministring the Lords Supper, 23 Bringing them againe to the first institution thereof.

BE * ye the followers of me, euen as I am of Christ.

2 Nowe, brethren, I commende you, that yee remember ‖ all my thinges, and keepe the ordinances, as I deliuered them to you.

3 But I will that ye knowe, that Christ is the * head of euery man: and the man is the womans head: and God is Christes head.

4 Euery man a praying, or ‖ prophecying hauing any thing on his head, b dishonoureth his head.

5 But euery woman that prayeth or c prophecieth bare headed, dishonoureth her head: for it is euē one very thing, as though ‖ she were shauen.

6 Therefore if the woman be not couered, let her also be shorne: and if it be shame for a woman to be ‖ shorne or shauen, let her be couered.

7 For a man ought not to couer his head: forasmuch as he is the * d image and glory of God: but the woman is the e glory of the man.

8 For the man is not of the woman, but the woman of the man.

9 * For the man was not created for the womans sake: but the woman for the mans sake.

10 Therefore ought the woman to haue f power on her head, because of the Angels.

11 Neuertheles, neither is the man without the woman, neither the woman without the man in the h i Lord.

12 For as the woman is of the man, so is the man also by the woman: but all things are of God.

13 Iudge in your selues, Is it comely that a woman pray vnto God vncouered?

14 Doeth not nature it selfe teach you, that if a man haue long k haire, it is a shame vnto him?

15 But if a woman haue long haire, it is a praise vnto her: for her haire is [l] giuen her for a couering.

16 But if any man lust to bee contentious, wee haue no such custome, neither the Churches of God.

17 ¶ Nowe in this that I declare, I praysе you not, that yee come together, not with profite, but with hurt.

18 For first of all, when ye come together in the Church, I heare that there are dissensions among you: and I beleeue it to bee true [m] in some part.

m Not that all were so, but the most part.

19 For there must be [n] heresies euen among you, that they which are approoued among you, might be knowen.

n Gods Church is not onely subiect to dissension as touching orders and maners, but also to heresies as touching doctrine.

20 When ye come together therefore into one place, this is not to eate the Lordes supper.

21 For euery man when they shoulde eate, taketh his owne supper afore, and one is hungrie, and another is dronken.

22 Haue yee not houses to eate and to drinke in? despise ye the Church of God, and shame them that haue not? what shall I say to you? shall I praise you in this? I praise you not.

23 For I haue receiued of the [o] Lord that which I also haue deliuered vnto you, to wit, that the Lord Iesus in the night that he was betrayed, tooke bread:

o Who ought onely to beare authoritie in the Church. Matth.26.26. mar.14.22. luke 22.19.

24 * And when hee had giuen thanks, he brake it, and sayde, Take, eate: this is my body, which is [p] broken for you: this doe ye in remembrance of me.

p Signifying the maner of his death, when his body should, as it were, be torne and broken with most grieuous torments (albeit not as the thighes of the theeues were) the which thing the breaking of the bread, as a figure, doth most liuely represent.

25 After the same maner also he tooke the cuppe, when hee had supped, saying, This cuppe is the newe Testament in my blood: this doe as oft as yee drinke it, in remembrance of me.

26 For as often as yee shall eate this bread, and drinke this cuppe, yee shewe the Lords death till he come.

27 Wherefore, whosoeuer shall eate this bread, and drinke the cup of the Lord [q] vnworthily, shalbe guilty of the body and blood of the Lord.

q By peruerting the true and pure vse of the same. 2.Cor.13.5.

28 * Let a man therefore examine himselfe, and so let him eate of this bread, and drinke of this cup.

29 For hee that eateth and drinketh vnworthily, eateth and drinketh his owne damnation, because hee discerneth not [r] the Lords body.

r But as though these holy mysteries of the Lords body and blood were common meates, so without reuerence he cōmeth vnto them.

30 For this cause many are weake, and sicke among you, and many [s] sleepe.

s Or, die. Let them looke to themselues, which eyther adde or take away from the Lordes institution.

31 For if we would iudge our selues, we should not be iudged.

32 But when we are iudged, we are chastened of the Lord, because we should not be condemned with the world.

33 Wherefore, my brethren, when ye come together to eate, tarie one for another.

34 And if any man bee hungrie, let him eate at home, that ye come not together vnto condemnation. Other things will I set in order when I come.

CHAP. XII.

1 The diuersitie of the giftes of the holy Ghost ought to be vsed to the edifying of Christes Church, 12 As the members of mans body serue to the vse one of another.

NOw concerning spirituall gifts, brethren, I would not haue you [a] ignorant.

a The Corinthians hauing notable gifts, seemed to haue forgotten, of whom, and for what ende they had receiued them.

2 Ye knowe that ye were Gentiles, and were caried away vnto the [b] dumme idoles, as ye were [c] led.

b Which could not heare your prayers.

c By Satans suggestion. Marke 9.39.

3 Wherefore, I declare vnto you, that no man * speaking by the [d] Spirit of God, calleth Iesus * execrable: also no man can say that Iesus is the Lord, but by the holy Ghost.

d As no man that hath the spirit of God, can blaspheme Christ, and worshippe idoles: so none can acknowledge Christ for Lord and God without the same spirit. Iohn 13.13. chap.8.6. phil.2.11.

4 Now there are diuerslities of gifts, but the same Spirit.

5 And there are diuerslities of administrations, but the same Lord.

6 And there are diuerslities of operations, but God is the same, which worketh all in all.

7 But the manifestation of the Spirit is giuen to euery man, to [e] profit withall.

e To wit, the Church, which is the whole body.

8 For to one is giuen by the Spirit the word of wisdome: and to another the word of [f] knowledge, by the same Spirit:

f That is, the vnderstanding of the Scriptures.

9 And to another [g] is giuen faith, by the same Spirit: and to another the giftes of healing, by the same Spirit:

g To doe onely miracles by.

10 And to another [h] the operations of strong workes: and to another, [i] prophecie: and to another, [k] the discerning of spirits: and to another, diuersities of tongues: and to another, the interpretation of tongues.

h To worke by miracles against Satan and hypocrites, as was done against Ananias, Elymas, &c.

i Meaning the declaration of Gods mysteries.

k To trie both the doctrine and the persons. Rom.12.3. ephes.4.7.

11 * And all these things worketh euen the selfe same spirite, distributing to euery man seuerally as he will.

12 For as the body is one, and hath many members, and all the members of the body, which is one, though they be many, yet are but one body: euen so is Christ.

13 For by one Spirite are wee all baptized into [l] one body, whether we be Iewes or Grecians, whether we be bond, or free, and haue bene all made to drinke into one Spirit.

l That we might be one body with Christ, and the whole Church one Christ: of the which coniunction, baptisme and the Lords Supper are effectuall signes: for by baptisme we are regenerate into one spirit, and by the Lords supper we are incorporate into Christs body to be gouerned by the same Spirit.

14 For the body also is not one member, but many.

15 If the foote would say, Because I am not the hand, I am not of the body, is it therefore not of the body?

16 And if the eare would say, Because I am not the eye, I am not of the body, is it therefore not of the body?

17 If the whole body were an eye, where were the hearing? If the whole were hearing, where were the smelling?

18 But now hath God disposed the members euery one of them in the body at his owne pleasure.

19 For if they were al one member, where were the body?

20 But nowe are there many members, yet but [m] one body.

m And therefore whatsoeuer the diuersitie is, yet the profite ought to bee common, and serue to the edification of the Church.

21 And the eye cannot say vnto the hand, I haue no neede of thee: nor the head againe to the feete, I haue no neede of you.

22 Yea, much rather those members of the body, which seeme to bee [n] more feeble, n Whose vse seemeth to be more vile.

are necessarie.

23 And vpon those members of the body, which wee thinke most vnhoneſt, put wee more o honeſtie on: and our vncomely parts haue more comelineſſe on.

o Wee are more carefull to couer them.

24 For our comely parts neede it not: but God hath tempered the body together, and hath giuen the more honour to that part which lacked,

25 Leſt there ſhoulde bee any diuiſion in the body: but that the members ſhould p haue the ſame care one for another.

p Euery one in his office for the preſeruation of the body.

26 Therefore if one member ſuffer, all ſuffer with it: if one member be had in honour, all the members reioyce with it.

27 Nowe yee are the body of Chriſt, and members q ‖ for your part.

q For all Churches diſperſed throughout the world are diuers members of one body. ‖ Or, euery one for his part.

28 * And God hath ordeined ſome in the Church: as firſt Apoſtles, ſecondly Prophets, thirdly teachers, then them that doe miracles: after that, the giftes of healing, r helpers, ſ gouernors, diuerſitie of tongues.

r As deacons.

ſ As Elders.

29 Are all Apoſtles? are all Prophets? are all teachers?

30 Are all doers of miracles? haue all the giftes of healing? doe all ſpeake with tongues? doe all interpret?

31 But ‖ deſire you the beſt giftes, and I will yet ſhewe you a more excellent way. ‖ Or, doe you then deſire the beſt giftes.

CHAP. XIII.

Becauſe loue is the fountaine and rule of edifying the Church, he ſetteth foorth the nature, office, and prayſe thereof.

THough I ſpeake with the tongues of men and a Angels, and haue not loue, I am as ſounding braſſe, or a tinckling cymball.

a If the Angels had tongues, and I had the vſe thereof, and did not beſtow them to profite my neighbour, it were nothing but vaine babbling.

2 And though I had the gift of prophetie, and knew all ſecrets, and al knowledge, yea, if I had b all faith, ſo that I could remoue * mountaines, and had not loue, I were nothing.

b Faith is here taken for the gift of doing miracles, which the wicked may haue, as Mat. 7. 22. and alſo for that faith (called hiſtoricall) which beleeueth the mightie power of Chriſt, but cannot apprehend Gods mercie through him: and this deuils haue, Iames 2. 19. and therefore is ſeparated from charitie, but the faith that iuſtifieth in effect cannot, as 1. Iohn 2. 9. Matt. 17. 20. Iuke 17. 6.

3 And though I feede the poore with all my goods, and though I giue my bodie, that I be burned, and haue not loue, it profiteth me nothing.

4 Loue ſuffereth long: it is bountifull: loue emulyth not: loue doeth not boaſt it ſelfe: it is not puffed vp:

5 It diſdayneth not: it ſeeketh not her owne things: it is not prouoked to anger: it thinketh not euill:

6 It reioyceth not in iniquitie, but reioyceth in the trueth:

7 It ſuffereth all things: it beleeueth c all things: it hopeth all things: it endureth d all things.

c Not that it ſuffereth it ſelfe to be abuſed, but iudgeth others by all loue and humanitie. d Which may bee without offence of Gods word.

8 Loue doeth neuer fall away, though that prophecyings bee abolished, or the tongues ceaſe, or knowledge vaniſh away.

9 For e wee know f in part, and we ‖ prophecie in part.

e Knowledge it ſelfe ſhall be perfected in the world to come, and not abolished: but the maner of knowing and teaching ſhall ceaſe, when we ſhall be before Gods preſence, where we ſhall neither neede ſcholes nor teachers. f That is, imperfectly. ‖ Or, teach.

10 But when that which is perfect, is come, then that which is in part, ſhall be abolished.

11 When I was a childe, I ſpake as a childe, I vnderſtood as a childe, I thought as a childe: but when I became a man, I put away childiſh things.

12 For nowe wee ſee g through a glaſſe darkely: but then ſhall wee ſee face to face. Nowe I knowe in part: but then ſhall I knowe euen as I am ‖ knowen.

g The myſteries of God. ‖ Or, taught of God.

13 And now abideth faith, hope, and loue, euen theſe three: but the h chiefeſt of theſe is loue.

h Becauſe it ſerueth both here and in the life to come: but faith and hope appertaine onely to this life.

CHAP. XIIII.

1 He exhorteth to loue, commendeth the gift of tongues, and other ſpirituall giftes, 5 But chiefly prophecying. 34 He commandeth women to keepe ſilence in the Church, 40 And ſheweth what good order ought to be obſerued in the Church.

FOllow after loue, & couet ſpirituall giftes, and rather that ye may a prophecie.

a That is, to expound the words of God to the edification of the Church.

2 For he that ſpeaketh a ſtrange tongue, ſpeaketh not vnto men, but vnto God: for no man b heareth him: howbeit in the c ſpirit he ſpeaketh ſecret things.

b Vnderſtandeth him.

c By the ſpirituall gift, which hee hath receiued.

3 But he that prophecieth, ſpeaketh vnto men to edifying, and to exhortation, and to comfort.

4 Hee that ſpeaketh ſtrange language, edifieth d himſelfe: but he that prophecieth, edifieth the Church.

d For he profiteth none ſaue himſelfe.

5 I would that ye all ſpake ſtrange languages, but rather that yee prophecied: for greater is he that prophecieth, then hee that ſpeaketh diuers tongues, except hee expound it, that the Church may receiue edification.

e The prophecie expounded that which God hath reueiled: and the doctrine teacheth that which hee hath giuen vs to vnderſtand.

6 And now, brethren, if I come vnto you ſpeaking diuers tongues, what ſhall I profite you, except I ſpeake to you, eyther by e reuelation, or by knowledge, or by prophecying, or by doctrine?

7 Moreouer, things without life which giue a ſounde, whether it bee a ‖ pipe or an harpe, except they make a diſtinction in the ſoundes, howe ſhall it bee knowen what is piped or harped?

‖ Or, as the thing requireth.

8 And alſo if the trumpet giue an vncertaine ſounde, who ſhall prepare himſelfe to battell?

9 So likewiſe you, by the tongue, except ye vtter words that haue ſignification, how ſhall it be vnderſtoode what is ſpoken? for ye ſhall ſpeake in the f ayre.

f Your wordes ſhall be loſt: for ye ſhall neither glorifie God thereby, nor profit man.

10 There are ſo many kindes of voyces (‖ as it commeth to paſſe) in the world, and none of them g is dumme.

‖ Or, as the thing requireth.

g That is, they may be able to be vnderſtood.

11 Except I knowe then the power of the voyce, I ſhal be vnto him that ſpeaketh, h a Barbarian, and he that ſpeaketh, ſhall be a Barbarian vnto me.

h He condemneth the Corinthians of barbarouſneſſe in that thing, whereby they thought to haue attained to the greateſt praiſe of eloquence.

12 Euen ſo, foraſmuch as yee couet ſpirituall gifts, ſeeke that ye may excell vnto the edifying of the Church.

13 Wherefore, let him that ſpeaketh a ſtrange tongue, pray, that he may interpret.

14 For if I pray in a ſtrange tongue, my ſpirite i prayeth: but mine vnderſtanding is without k fruite.

i And doth his part.

k Not in reſpect of him that prayeth, but in reſpect of the Church, which is nothing edified thereby.

15 What

15 What is it then? I will pray with the spirite, but I will pray with the vnderstanding also: I will sing with the spirite, but I wil sing with the vnderstanding also.

16 Els, when thou blessest with the spirite, howe shall hee that occupieth the roome of the vnlearned, say m Amen, at thy giuing of thanks, seeing he knoweth not what thou sayest?

17 For thou verely giuest thankes well, but the other is not edified.

18 I thanke my God, I speake languages more then ye all.

19 Yet had I rather in the Church to speake n fiue wordes with mine vnderstanding, that I might also instruct others, then tenne thousande wordes in a strange tongue.

20 Brethren, be not * children in vnderstanding, but as concerning malicciousnesse bee children, but in vnderstanding bee of a ripe age.

21 In the Law it is written, * o By men of other tongues, and by other languages will I speake vnto this people: yet so shall they not heare me, sayth the Lorde.

22 Wherefore strange tongues are for a p signe, not to them that beleeue, but to them that beleeue not: but prophecying serueth not for them that beleeue not, but for them which beleeue.

23 If therefore, when the whole Church is come together in one, and al speake strange tongues, there come in they that are vnlearned, or they which beleeue not, will they not say, that ye are out of your wittes?

24 But if all prophecie, and there come in one that beleeueth not, or one vnlearned, q he is reproued of r all men, and is iudged of all.

25 And so are the secretes of his heart made manifest, and so he will fall downe on his face and worship God, and say plainly that God is in you indeede.

26 What is to bee done then, brethren? when yee come together, according as euery one of you hath a Psalme, or hath doctrine, or hath a tongue, or hath reuelation, or hath interpretation, let all things bee done vnto edifying.

27 If any man speake a strange tongue, let it be by two, or at the s most, by three, and that by course, and let one interpret.

28 But if there be no interpreter, let him keepe silence in the Church, which speaketh languages, and let him speake to him selfe, and to God.

29 Let the Prophets speake, two, or three, and let the other iudge.

30 And if any thing be reuciled to another that sitteth by, let the first holde his peace.

31 For ye may all prophecie one by one, that all may learne, and all may haue comfort.

32 And the t spirits of the Prophets are * subiect to the Prophets.

33 For God is not the author of confusion, but of peace, as we see in all the Churches of the Saints.

34 * Let your women keepe x silence in the Churches: for it is not permitted vnto them to speake: but they ought to be subiect, as also the * Lawe sayth.

35 And if they will learne any thing, let them aske their husbandes at home: for it is a shame for women to speake in the Church.

36 y Came the worde of God out from you? either came it vnto you onely?

37 If any man thinke himselfe to bee a Prophet, or z spirituall, let him acknowledge, that the things, that I write vnto you, are the commandements of the Lorde.

38 a And if any man be ignorant, let him be ignorant.

39 Wherefore brethren, couet to prophecie, and forbid not to speake languages.

40 Let all things bee done honestly and by order.

1 Or, giue thanks by singing.
m One onely made the praiers, and the rest of the people followed in heart his words, and when he had prayed, they all sayde, Amen, signifying that they beleeued assuredly that God would graunt their requestes.
n That is, most fewe. Mat. 18.3.
o He threatneth them most sharply, that God will punish the contempt of his worde, and their counterfait ignorance, for as much as to speake with vnknowen tongues is a signe of Gods curse towards the wicked. Isa. 28.11. deut. 28.46. iere. 5.15. eZek. 3.6.
p Of Gods curse when they are not vnderstood.
q By hearing his secret faults ripe vp, and his sinnes reproued by Gods word, he is compelled by his owne conscience to praise God.
r Which expound the worde of God.
s Paul heareth as yet with their weaknes, because also these were the gifies of God: but yet he sheweth that they shoulde not passe this measure, that first one, after another, and at the vtmost the third should reade in a strange language, which was to declare Gods miracle in the gift of tongues: but chiefly he commandeth that nothing be done without interpretation.
t Or, learning, which God's spirit mooueth them to vtter.
u To the intent that others may iudge of him that hath spoken, if he haue passed the compasse of Gods word: wherefore Saint Iohn commandeth to try the spirites whether they be of God. 1.Tim 2.11.
x Because this disorder was in the Church, that women vsurped that which was peculiar to men, the Apostle here sheweth what is meete to be done and what is not: and albeit hee mentioned this abuse afore, yet he referred it to this place to be reprooued, because there he brought it for another purpose. Gene. 3.16.
y Are yee the first or the last Christians, that yee neither submit your selues to the Churches, of whome ye haue receiued the Gospel? nor haue respect to the others, to whome the Gospell doeth likewise appertaine?
z To haue vnderstanding of spiritual things.
a If any man haue iudgement, let him acknowledge that I speake of the spirit of God, and so let him obey: and if he haue no iudgement, let him acknowledge his ignorance, and trouble not the Church, but credite thē that are learned.

CHAP. XV.

He proueth the resurrection of the dead, 3 And first that Christ is risen: 22 Then that we shall rise, 52 And the maner how.

MOreouer, brethren, I declare vnto you the Gospel, which I preached vnto you, which ye haue also receiued, and wherein ye continue,

2 And whereby ye are saued, if yee keepe in memorie, after what maner I preached it vnto you, a except yee haue beleeued in vaine.

3 For first of all, I deliuered vnto you that which b I receiued, howe that Christ died for our sinnes, according to the * Scriptures,

4 And that he was buryed, and that hee arose the third day, according to the * Scriptures,

5 * And that hee was seene of Cephas, then of the c twelue.

6 After that, hee was seene of mo then fiue hundreth brethren at once: whereof many remaine vnto this present, and some also are asleepe.

7 After that hee was seene of Iames: then of all the Apostles.

8 * And last of all hee was seene also of me, as of one borne out of due time.

9 For I am * the least of the Apostles, which am not meete to bee called an Apostle, because I persecuted the Church of God.

10 * But by the d grace of God, I am that Gal. 1.11.

a If you beleeue to be saued by the Gospell, ye must beleeue also the resurrection of the dead, which is one of the principall points thereof, or els your beliefe is but vaine.
b He sheweth y nothing ought to be taught, which we haue not learned by Gods word. Isa. 53.5.1.pet. 2.24. Ionas 2.1,10. Iohn. 20.19.
c Although Iudas wanted, yet they were so called still. Actes 9.4. rom. 6.3. Ephes. 3.8.
Ephes. 3.7.
d For he was but the instrument and minister, and giueth the whole glory to God.

I am: and his grace which is in mee, was not in vaine: but I laboured more abundantly then they all: yet not I, but the grace of God which is with me.

11 Wherefore whether it were I, or they, so we preach, and so haue ye beleeued.

12 ¶ Now if it be preached, that Christ is risen from ỹ dead, how say some among you, that there is no resurrection of the dead?

13 For if there be no resurrection of the dead, then is Christ not risen.

14 And if Christ be not risen, then is our preaching e vaine, and your f faith is also vaine.

15 And we are found also false witnesses of God: for wee haue testified of God, that hee hath raised vp Christ: whome hee hath not raysed vp, if so be the dead be not rayſed.

16 For if the dead be not raised, then is Christ not rayſed.

17 And if Christ be not raised, your faith is g vaine: ye are yet in your h sinnes.

18 And so they which are asleepe in Christ, are perished.

19 If in this life ‖ onely wee haue hope in Christ, we are of all men the most miserable.

20 But nowe is Christ risen from the dead, and made the * first i fruites of them that slept.

21 For since by man came death, by man came also the resurrection of the dead.

22 For as in Adam all die, euen so in k Christ shall all be made aliue, 23 But euery man in his * owne order: the first fruits is Christ, afterward, they that are of Christ, at his comming shall rise againe.

24 Then shall be the ende, when he hath m deliuered vp the kingdome to God, euen the Father, when hee hath put downe all rule, and all authoritie and power.

25 For hee must raigne * till he hath put all his enemies vnder his feete.

26 The last enemy that shalbe destroied, is death.

27 * For hee hath put downe all thinges vnder his feete. (And when he sayth that al things are subdued to him, it is manifest that hee is excepted, which did put downe all things vnder him.)

28 And when all things shall be subdued vnto him, then shall the Sonne also himselfe bee subiect vnto him, that did subdue all things vnder him, that God may be o all in all.

29 Els, what shall they doe which are baptized p for dead? if the dead rise not at all, why are they then baptized for dead?

30 Why are we also in iopardie euery houre?

31 q By our reioycing which I haue in Christ Iesus our Lord, I die dayly.

32 If I haue fought with beastes at Ephelus after r the maner of men, what aduantageth it mee, if the dead bee not rayſed vp? * let vs eate and drinke: for to morowe we shall die.

33 Be not deceiued: * euil speakings corrupt good maners.

34 Awake to liue righteously, and sinne not: for some haue not the knowledge of God. I speake this to your shame.

35 But some man will say, How are the dead rayſed vp? and with what body come they forth?

36 D foole, that which thou sowest, is not quickened, except it die.

37 And ỹ which thou sowest, thou sowest not that body ỹ shall be, but bare corne, as it falleth, of wheate, or of some other.

38 But God giueth it a body at his pleasure, euen to euery seede his owne body.

39 All flesh is not the same flesh, but there is one f flesh of men, and another flesh of beastes, and another of fishes, and another of birdes.

40 There are also heauenly bodies, and earthly bodies: but the glory of ỹ heauenly is one, and the glory of the earthly is another.

41 There is another glory of the t sunne, and another glory of the moone, and an other glory of the starres: for one starre differeth from another starre in glory.

42 So also is the resurrection of the dead. The body is sowen in corruption, and is rayſed in incorruption.

43 It is sowen in u dishonour, and is raised in glory: it is sowen in weakenes, and is rayſed in power.

44 It is sowen a naturall body, and is rayſed a * spirituall body: there is a naturall body, and there is a spirituall body.

45 As it is also written, The first man * Adam was made a liuing soule: and the last Adam was made a y quickening Spirite.

46 Howbeit that was not first made which is spirituall: but ỹ which is naturall, and afterward that which is spirituall.

47 The first man is of the earth earthly: the second man is the Lord z from heauen.

48 As is the earthly, such are they that are earthly: and as is the heauenly, such are they also that are heauenly.

49 And as we haue borne the a image of the earthly, so shall we beare the image of the heauenly.

50 This say I, brethren, that b flesh and blood cannot inherite the kingdome of God, neither doth corruption inherite incorruption.

51 Beholde, I shew you a secrete thing, We shall not all sleepe, but we shall all bee c changed, e Christs death is not effectuall, except hee rise from death.

f For if Christ be swallowed vp of death, there remaineth no hope of life any more.

g As mortification & remission of sinnes depend on Christes death: so our quickning and restoring to life stand in his resurrection.

h You are not forgiuen nor sanctified.

‖ Or, onely for this lifes sake.

*Col.*1.18, *reu.*1.5

i As by the offering of the first fruite the whole fruit is sanctified, so by Christ which is the first that is rayſed, all haue assurance of the resurrection.

k Who rose first from the dead to take possession in our flesh for vs his members.

l To wit, the faithfull.

1.*Thes.*4.15.

m Christ as he is man and head of the Church, is sayd to be subiect to God: but in respect of the worlde, is king of heauen and earth. This kingdome standeth in gouerning the faithfull, and ouercomming the aduersaries, euen death the chiefest: which done, Christ being perfected with all his members, shall as he is man, and head of the Church, with his fellow heires deliuer his kingdome, and be subiect to God, with whome and the holy Ghost in Godhead he is equall. Psalme 110.1. actes 2.34,35. *heb.*1.13.& 10.13. *Tpsalme.*8 6.*hebr.*2.8.

n We shall bee perfectly fulfilled with his glory and felicitie.

o That is, as dead, and because they were but newely come to Christ, woulde bee baptized before they died.

p Except these things bee true of Christes kingdome and his subiection, what shall become of them whome the Church dayly baptizeth, for to destroy death in them, which is the ende of Baptisme, and so they to rise againe?

q I take to witnes all my sorowes wherein I may iustly reioyce in the Lord, that I haue susteined them among you.

r That is, hauing regard to this present life, and not to Gods glory, and to life euerlasting. *Isa.*22.13.

*wise.*2.6.

* Menander in Thaide.

s There is one substance as touching the flesh both of man and beast, but the difference is as touching the qualitie.

t Euen as the Sunne and the Moone being of one substance differ in dignities, so in the resurrection our bodies shall haue more excellent qualities then they haue nowe.

u For what is more vile to looke vnto, then the dead carkeises?

x Not changing the substance, but made partaker of the diuine nature. *Gene.*2.7.

y Christ bringeth vs from heauen the Spirit of life.

z This is attributed to Christ as concerning his diuinitie, not in respect of his humanitie, whose flesh hath this glory by the power of God who dwelleth in it.

a Both in substance & forme we are earthly.

b This naturall body as it is nowe, till it bee made newe by the Spirite of Christ.

c When the Lord commeth to iudgement, some of the Saints shal be aliue, whom he will change euen as if they were dead, so that this change is in stead of death to them.

Matth.24.31. 1.thes.4.16. Isa.25.8. reuel.7.17.

52 In a moment, in the twinkling of an eye at the last * trumpet: for the trumpet shall blowe, and the dead shall be raised vp incorruptible, and we shalbe changed.

53 For this corruptible must put on incorruption: and this mortall must put on immortalitie.

54 So when this corruptible hath put on incorruption, and this mortall hath put on immortalitie, then shall be brought to passe the saying that is written, * Death is swallowed vp into victorie.

55 † * O death, where is thy sting? O graue, where is thy victorie?

Hos.13.14. heb.2.14.

† O death, where is thy victorie? O graue, where is thy victorie?

d Sinne first brought in death and giueth it power ouer vs, and the strength of sinne is the lawe, because it doeth reueile the iudgement of God against vs: or els the chiefe cause of our destruction is in our selues.

56 The sting of death is sinne: and the d strength of sinne is the Lawe.

57 * But thankes be vnto God, which hath giuen vs victorie through our Lorde Iesus Christ.

58 Therefore my beloued brethren, be ye stedfast, vnmooueable, abundant alwayes in the worke of the Lorde, forasmuch as yee knowe, that your labour is not in e vaine in the Lorde.

1.Iohn 5.5.

e The hope of resurrection causeth the faithfull to surmount all difficulties.

CHAP. XVI.

He putteth them in remembrance of the gathering for the poore brethren at Ierusalem. 13 Wee must perseuere in faith, in the loue of Christ and our neighbour. 15 After his commendations hee wisheth to them all prosperitie.

Acts.11.29.and 12.25.rom.12.13 Act.18.23.

COncerning * the gathering for the Saints, as I haue ordeined in the Churches * of Galatia, so doe ye also.

a Vpon the first day of the weeke, which the Scripture calleth the Lords day, others, Sunday, they accustomed not onely in the Church, but at home also according to euery mans zeale, to lay vp some piece of money toward the relieue of the poore brethren.

2 a Euery first day of the weeke, let euery one of you put aside by himselfe, and lay vp as God hath prospered him, that then there be no gatherings when I come.

b Which ye shall send by them that cary the money.

3 And when I am come, whomsoeuer ye shall allowe b by letters, them will I send to bring your liberalitie vnto Ierusalem.

4 And if it be meete that I goe also, they shall goe with me.

5 Nowe I will come vnto you, after I haue gone through Macedonia (for I will passe through Macedonia)

6 And it may be that I will abide, yea, or winter with you, that ye may bring mee on my way whithersoeuer I goe.

7 For I will not see you nowe in my passage: but I trust to abide a while with you, if the Lord permit.

8 And I will tary at Ephesus vntill Pentecost.

9 For a great doore and c effectuall is opened vnto me: but there are many aduersaries.

c Because God blessed his labour.

10 ¶ Nowe if Timotheus come, see that he be d without feare with you: for hee worketh the worke of the Lorde, euen as I doe.

d Willing that they should defend him against the aduersaries of Christ, because it is the Churches duetie to be carefull for the preseruation of their ministers.

11 Let no man therefore e despise him: but conney him foorth f in peace, that hee may come vnto mee: for I looke for him with the brethren.

e As though he were too yong to be a minister.

f That is, safe and sound.

12 As touching our brother Apollos, I greatly desired him, to come vnto you with the brethren: but his minde was not at all to come at this time: howbeit he will come when he shall haue conuenient time.

13 ¶ g Watch ye: stand fast in the faith: quite you like men, and be strong.

g Least Satan steale vpon you at vnwares.

14 Let all your things be done in h loue.

h For they had euery man respect to himselfe contrary to loue.

15 Nowe, brethren, I beseech you (yee knowe the house of Stephanas, that it is the i first frutes of Achaia, and that they haue giuen themselues to minister vnto the Saints)

i That is, the first which embraced the Gospel.

16 That ye be k obedient euen vnto such, and to all that helpe with vs and labour.

k And reuerence them.

17 I am glad of the comming of Stephanas, and Fortunatus, and Achaicus: for they haue l supplied the want of you.

l The griefe that I tooke for your absence, was greatly asswaged by their presence.

18 For they haue comforted my ‖spirite and yours: acknowledge therefore such men.

‖Or, minde.

19 The Churches of Asia salute you: Aquila and Priscilla with the Church that is in their house, salute you greatly in the Lorde.

Rom.16.16. 2.cor.13.12. 1.pet.5.14.

20 All the brethren greete you. Greete ye one another with an * holy m kisse.

m In token of mutuall loue, which thing was obserued in the primitiue Church when the Lords Supper was ministred.

21 The salutation of me Paul with mine owne hand.

22 If any man loue not the Lorde Iesus Christ, let him be had in execration, ‖ yea excommunicate to death.

The first Epistle to the Corinthians, written from n Philippi, and sent by Stephanas, and Fortunatus, and Achaicus, and Timotheus.

n Or, as is most probable, from Ephesus.

The second Epistle of Paul to the Corinthians.

THE ARGVMENT.

AS nothing can be written either so perfectly, or with so great affection & zeale, which is not vnprofitable to many, and resisted by some: so the first Epistle written by Saint Paul to the Corinthians, besides the puritie and perfection of the doctrine, sheweth a loue toward them farre passing all naturall affections: which did not onely not profite all, but hardened the hearts of many to remaine in their stubburnesse, and contemne the Apostles authoritie. By reason whereof S. Paul, being let with iust occasions to come vnto them, wrote this Epistle from Macedonia, minding to accomplish the worke which he had begun among them. First therefore he wisheth them well in the Lord, declaring that that albeit certaine wicked persons abused his afflictions to condemne thereby his authoritie, yet they were necessary schoolings, and sent to him by God for their bettering. And whereas they blame his long absence, it came of no inconstancie, but to beare with their inhabilitie and imperfection, lest contrary to his fatherly affection, he should haue beene compelled to vse rigour and seueritie. And as touching his sharpe writing in the former Epistle, it came through their fault, as is nowe euident both in that, that hee pardoneth the trespasser, seeing he doeth repent: and also in that he was vnquiet in his minde, till he was certified by Titus of their estate. But forasmuch as the false apostles went about to vndermine his authoritie, he confuteth their arrogant brags, and commendeth his office, and the diligent executing of the same: so that Satan must haue greatly blinded their eyes, which see not the brightnesse of the Gospel in his preaching: the effect whereof is newnesse of life, forsaking of our selues, cleauing to God, fleeing from idolatrie, embracing the true doctrine, and that sorowe which engendreth true repentance: to the which is ioyned mercie and compassion towards our brethren: also wisedome to put difference betwixt the simplicitie of the Gospel, and the arrogancie of the false preachers, who vnder pretence of preaching the trueth, sought onely to fill their bellies, whereas hee contrariwise, sought them, and not their goods, as those ambitious persons slandered him: wherefore at his comming he menaceth such as rebell against his authoritie, that he will declare by liuely example, that he is the faithfull ambassadour of Iesus Christ.

CHAP. I.

4 He declareth the great profite that commeth to the faithfull by their afflictions. 15. 17 And because they should not impute to lightnesse, that he deferred his comming contrary to his promise, he proueth his constancie, both by the sinceritie of his preaching, and also by the immutable trueth of the Gospell. 21 Which trueth is grounded on Christ, and sealed in our hearts by the holy Ghost.

PAul an Apostle of Iesus Christ, by the will of God, and our brother Timothe-us, to the Church of God, which is at [a] Corinthus with all ỳ Saints, which are in all [a] Achaia:

2 Grace be with you, & peace from God our Father, & from the Lord Iesus Christ.

3 * [b] Blessed be God, euen the Father of our Lord Iesus Christ, the Father of mercies, and the God of all comfort,

4 Which comforteth vs in all our tribulation, that we may be able to comfort them which are in any affliction by the comfort wherewith wee our selues are comforted of God.

5 For as the [c] sufferings of Christ abound in vs, so our consolation aboundeth through Christ.

6 And whether we be afflicted, it is for your consolation, and [d] saluation, which [e] is wrought in the enduring of the same sufferings, which we also suffer: or whether we be comforted, it is for your consolation and saluation.

7 And our hope is stedfast concerning you, in as much as wee knowe that as yee are partakers of the sufferings, so shall ye be also of the consolation.

8 For brethren, wee would not haue you ignorant of our affliction, which came vnto vs in Asia, howe wee were pressed [f] out of measure passing strength, so that wee altogether doubted, euen of life.

9 Yea, we receiued the sentence of death in our selues, because wee should not trust in our selues, but in God, which raiseth the dead.

10 Who deliuered vs from so [h] great a death, and doeth deliuer vs: in whome we trust, that yet hereafter he will deliuer vs, 11 * So that ye labour together in prayer for vs, that for the gift bestowed vpon vs for many, thanks may be giuen by many persons for vs. Rom.15,30.

12 [i] For our reioycing is this, the testimonie of our conscience, that in simplicitie and godly pureneſſe, and not in fleshly wisedome, [k] but by the grace of God wee haue had our conuersation in the world, and most of all to youwards.

13 For we [l] write none other things vnto you, then that ye reade, or else that ye acknowledge, and I trust yee shall acknowledge vnto the ende.

14 Euen as yee haue acknowledged vs partly, that we are your [m] reioycing, euen as ye are [n] ours, in the [o] day of our Lorde Iesus.

15 And in this confidence was I minded first to come vnto you, that yee might haue had a double grace, 16 And to passe by you into Macedonia, and to come againe out of Macedonia vnto you, and to be led forth toward Iudea of you.

17 [p] When I therefore was thus minded, did I vse lightnesse? or minde I those things which I minde, [q] according to the flesh, that with me should be [q] Yea, yea, & Nay, nay?

18 Yea, [r] God is faithfull, that our word toward you, was not Yea, and Nay.

19 For the Sonne of God Iesus Christ who was preached among you by vs, that is, by me, and Siluanus, and Timotheus, was not Yea, and Nay: but in him it was [s] Yea.

20 For all the promises of God in him are [t] Yea, and are in him Amen, vnto the glory of God through vs.

21 And it is God which stablisheth vs with you in Christ, and hath anointed vs.

22 Who hath also * sealed vs, & hath giuen the [u] earnest of the Spirit in our hearts.

[a] Meaning the countrey where of Corinthus was the chiefe citie. Ephes.1.3. 1.pet.1.3.

[b] Or, prayse and glory be giuen.

[c] Which I suffer for Christ, or which Christ suffereth in me, Rom.7.5. & 8.5. col.1.24.

[d] For seeing him endure so much, they had occasiõ to be confirmed in the Gospel.

[e] As God onely worketh all things in vs: so doeth he also our saluation by his free mercie, and by such meanes as he hath here left in this life for vs to be exercised in.

[f] Hereby hee sheweth his owne infirmitie, that it might appeare how wonderfully God graces wrought in him.

[g] I was vtterly resolued in my selfe to die.

[h] So many dangers of death.

[i] He rendreth a reason why they ought to pray vnto God for his reuenge.

[k] Vsing that wisdome which God gaue me from heauen.

[l] Ye know partly my constancie both by my dwelling with you, and also by my writing vnto you: and I trust yee shall know me to be the same to the very ende.

[m] In that wee haue taught you the Gospell so sincerely.

[n] Because wee haue wonne you to Christ.

[o] Which shall abolish all worldly glory.

[p] Which is rashly to promise and not to performe.

[q] Nowe to affirme one thing, and then to denie it, which is a signe of inconstancie.

[r] He taketh God to witnesse, that he preacheth the trueth.

[s] He preached nothing vnto them but onely Iesus Christ, who is the most constant and infallible trueth of the Father.

[t] They are made and perfourmed, and we are partakers onely by him, who is our Amen, in that he hath fulfilled them for vs. Ephes.1.13. and 4.30. Ephes.1.14. chap.5.5.

23 Nowe, I call God for a record vnto my soule, that to spare you, I came not as yet vnto Corinthus.

a In that I say I came not because I would spare you, I meane not that I haue authoritie to alter true religion, or to binde your consciences: but that I am Gods minister to confirme and comfort you.

24 Not that wee [a] haue dominion ouer your faith, but wee are helpers of your ioye: for by [x] faith ye stand.

x And faith is not in subiection to man.

CHAP. II.

He sheweth his loue towardes them, 7 Requiring likewise that they would bee fauourable to the incestuous adulterer, seeing he dia repent. 14 He also reioyceth in God for the efficacie of his doctrine, 17 Confuting thereby such quarell pickers, as vnder pretence of speaking against his person, sought nothing but the ouerthrowe of his doctrine.

BVt I determined thus in my selfe, that I would not come againe to you in heauinesse.

a Which was giuen to Satan, but now doth repent.

2 For if I make you sorie, who is hee then that should make mee gladde, but the same which is made [a] sorie by me?

b Which made you and him sorie in my former epistle.

3 And I wrote [b] this same thing vnto you, lest when I came, I should take heauinesse of them, of whome I ought to reioyce: this confidence haue I in you all, that my ioy is the ioy of you all.

c After this adulterer did repent and amend, Paul did so vtterly cast off all sorow, that he denieth that in manet he was any whit sorie.

4 For in great affliction, and anguish of heart I wrote vnto you with many teares: not that ye should bee made sorie, but that yee might perceiue the loue which I haue, [c]specially vnto you.

d And so should increase his sorowe which I would diminish.

5 And if any haue caused sorowe, the same hath not [c] made mee sorie, but partly (lest I should [d] more charge him) you all.

e The adulterer, which interteined his mother in lawe.

6 It is sufficient vnto the same man, that he was rebuked of many.

7 So that nowe contrariwise yee ought rather to forgiue him, and comfort him, lest the same [e] should bee swallowed vp with ouermuch heauinesse.

8 Wherefore, I pray you, that you would [f] confirme your loue towards him.

f That at my intercession you would declare by the publike consent of the Church that you imbrace him againe as a brother: seeing he was excommunicate by the common consent.

9 For this cause also did I write, that I might know the proofe of you, whether ye would be obedient in all things.

g That is, truely, and from mine heart, euen as in the presence of Christ.

10 To whom ye forgiue any thing, I forgiue also: for verely if I forgaue any thing, to whom I forgaue it, for your sakes forgaue I it [g] in the sight of Christ, h By our rigorous punishing.

11 Least Satan should [h] circumuent vs: for we are not ignorant of his enterprises.

i From this place vnto the 6. Chap. 4. he intreateth onely of the ministers, saue he sometime intermedleth that which appertaineth to the whole Church, as Chap. 3. 17. and 18 verses, and not onely to the ministers, k In working mightily by vs, he maketh vs partakers of his victorie and triumph.

12 ¶ Furthermore, whe I came to Troas to preach Christes Gospell, and a doore was opened vnto me of the Lord, 13 I had no rest [‖] in my spirit, because I found not Titus my brother, but tooke my leaue of the, & went away vnto Macedonia.

14 [i] Nowe thankes bee vnto God which alwayes maketh vs [k] to triumph in Christ, and maketh manifest the fauour of his knowledge by vs in euery place.

15 For wee are vnto God the sweete sauour of Christ, in them that are saued, and in them which perish.

16 To the one wee are the [l] sauour of death vnto death, and to the other the sauour of [*] life, vnto life, and who is sufficient for these things?

l The preaching of the crosse bringeth death to them which onely consider Christes death as a common death, and be thereat offended, or els thinke it folly: and bringeth again life to them, who in his death beholde their life. Rom. 11. 15, 16. Rom. 16. 18. chap. 4. 2.

17 * For wee are not as many, [m] which make merchandise of the word of God: but as of sinceritie, but as of God in the sight of God speake we [‖] in Christ.

m That is, which preach for gaine, and corupt it to serue mens affections. ‖ Or, through Christ, or of Christ.

CHAP. III.

1 Hee taketh for example the faith of the Corinthians for a probation of the truth which he preached. 6 And to exalt his Apostleship against the brags of the false Apostles, 7. 13 Hee maketh comparison betwixt the Law & the Gospel.

DO we begin to praise our selues againe? [a] or need we as some other, Epistles of recommendation vnto you, or letters of recommendation from you?

a Meaning him selfe, Timotheus, and Siluanus.

2 Ye are our epistle, written in our hearts, which is vnderstood and read of all men,

3 In that ye are manifest, to be the epistle of Christ [b] ministred by vs, and written, not with yinke, but with the Spirit of the liuing God, not in [c] tables of stone, but in fleshly tables of the heart.

b Who were Gods pen.

c The hardnesse of mans heart, before he be regenerate, is as a stony table, Ezek. 11. 19. and 36. 26. but being regenerate by the spirit of God, it is as soft as flesh, that the grace of the Gospel may be written in it, as in newe tables, Iere. 31. 31, 32, 33.

4 And such trust haue we through Christ to God:

5 Not that wee are sufficient of our selues, to thinke any thing, as of our selues: but our sufficiencie is of God.

6 Who also hath made vs able ministers of the newe Testament, not of the [d] letter, but of the [e] Spirit: for the letter killeth, but the [f] Spirit giueth life.

d Whose minister Moses was.

e Which Christ gaue.

f Meaning, the spirituall doctrine, which is in our hearts.

7 If then the ministration [g] of death written with letters, and ingrauen in stones, was glorious, so that the children of Israel could not beholde the face of Moses for the [h] glory of his countenance (which glory is done away)

g Thus hee nameth the Lawe, in comparison of the Gospel.

h After that God had spoken with him, and giuen him the lawe.

8 Howe shall not the ministration of the Spirit be more glorious?

9 For if the [i] ministerie of condemnation was glorious, much more doeth the ministration of [k] righteousnesse exceede in glorie.

i For the Lawe declareth all men to be vnder condemnation.

k Meaning, of the Gospel, which declareth that Christ is made our righteousnesse.

10 For euen that which was glorified, was not glorified in this point, that is, as touching the exceeding glory.

11 For if that which should be abolished, was glorious, much more shall that which remaineth, be glorious.

12 Seeing then that we haue such trust, we vse [l] great boldnesse of speach.

l In preaching the Gospel, Exod. 34. 33.

13 * And wee are not as Moses, which [m] put a vaile vpon his face, that the children of Israel should not looke vnto the ende

m Moses shewed the Lawe as it was couered with shadowes, so that the Iewes eyes were not lightened, but blinded, and so could not come to Christ, who was the end thereof: against the Gospel setteth forth the glory of God cleerely, not couering our eyes, but driuing the darkenesse away from them.

of that which should be abolished.

14 Therefore their mindes are hardened: for vntill this day remaineth the same couering vntaken away in the reading of the olde testament, which vaile in Christ is put away.

15 But euen vnto this day, when Moses is read, the vaile is laid ouer their hearts.

16 Neuertheless, when their heart shall be turned to the Lorde, the vaile shall be taken away.

17 Nowe the [a] Lord is the * Spirit, and where the spirit of the Lord is, there is liberty.

18 But wee all beholde as in a [o] mirrour the glorie of the Lord with open face, and are changed vnto the same image, from glorie to glorie, as by the Spirit of the Lord.

n Christ is our mediatour, and authour of the newe Testament, whose doctrine is spirituall, and giueth life to the Lawe. Iohn 4.24.
o In Christ, who is God manifested in the flesh, we see God the Father as in a most cleare glasse.

CHAP. IIII.

1 He declareth his diligence and rowndnesse in his office. 8 And that which his enemies tooke for his disaduantage, to wit, the crosse and afflictions which hee endured, hee turneth to his great aduantage, 11. 17 Shewing what profite commeth thereby.

THerefore, seeing that wee haue this ministerie, as wee haue receiued mercie, [a] we faint not:

2 But haue cast from vs the [b] clokes of shame, and walke not in craftinesse, neither handle we the word of God deceitfully: but in declaration of the trueth we approoue our selues to euery mans conscience in the sight of God.

3 If our Gospell be then hid, it is hid to them that are lost.

4 In whom the [c] god of this world hath blinded the mindes, that is, of the infidels, that the light of the glorious Gospell of Christ, which is the [d] image of God, should not shine vnto them.

5 For wee preach not our [e] selues, but Christ Jesus the Lord, and our selues your seruants for Jesus sake.

6 For God that * commanded the light to shine out of darkenesse, is hee which hath shined in [f] our hearts, to giue the [g] light of the knowledge of the glorie of God in the face of Jesus Christ.

7 But we haue this [h] treasure in earthen vessels, that the excellencie of that power might be of God and not of vs.

8 We are afflicted on euery side, yet are we not in distresse: in pouertie, but not ouercome of pouerty.

9 We are persecuted, but not forsaken: cast downe, but we perish not.

10 Euery where we beare about in our body the [i] dying of the Lord Jesus, that the life of Jesus might also bee made manifest in our bodies.

11 For we which liue, are alwayes deliuered vnto death for Jesus sake, that the life also of Jesus might be made manifest in our mortall flesh.

a For any troubles or afflictions.
b Meaning, such shifts and pretences as become not them that haue such a great office in hand. Chap. 2.17.
c To wit, Satan, Iohn 12.31. and 14.30. Eph. 6.12.
d In whom God doth shew himselfe to be seene: and here Christ is called so in respect of his office.
e As they, which preach for gaine, or els which rather seeke to bee seene & knowen, then to edifie. Gene 1.3.
f Which are your seruants.
g That we hauing receiued light, should communicate the same with others, & therefore Christ calleth them the light of the world, Mat. 5.14.
h Albeit the ministers of the Gospel be contemptible as touching their person, yet the treasure which they carry is nothing worse or inferior.
i All the faithfull, and chiefly the Ministers must drinke of this cup, because the world hateth Christ: and also that the members should be conformable to Christ their head, yet by the mightie power of Christ, who ouercame death, they are made conquerors.

12 So then [k] death worketh in vs, and life in you.

13 And because wee haue the same [l] Spirit of faith, according as it is written, * I beleeued, and therefore haue I spoken, wee also beleeue, and therefore speake, 14 Knowing that hee which hath rayled vp the Lord Jesus, shall [m] raise vs vp also by Jesus, and shall set vs with you.

15 For all thinges are for your sakes, that most plenteous grace by the thankesgiuing of [n] many, may redound to the praise of God.

16 Therefore we faint not, but though our outward man [o] perish, yet the inwarde man is [o] renued dayly.

17 For our [p] light affliction which is but for a moment, causeth vnto vs a farre most excellent, and an eternall weight of glory:

18 While wee looke not on the thinges which are seene, but on the thinges which are not seene: for the thinges which are seene, are temporall: but the thinges which are not seene, are eternall.

k By our death you haue life: so that the fruit of our afflictions commeth to you.
l The same faith by the inspiration of the holy Ghost. Psal. 116.10.
m In deliuering vs from these dangers, which is as it were a restoring from death to life.
n That I being deliuered and restored to you againe, may not onely my selfe giue God thanks for this infinite benefite of deliuerance, but also you all, which are both partakers of mine affliction and comfort, may abundantly set forth his glory.
‖ Or, be corrupted.
o Groweth stronger.
p Which is so called in respect of the euerlasting life.

CHAP. V.

1 Paul proceedeth to declare the vilitie that commeth by the crosse. 4 Howe wee ought to prepare our selues vnto it, 5 By whome, 9 And for what ende. 14. 19 He setteth foorth the grace of Christ, 20 And the office of ministers, and all the faithfull.

FOr we know that if [a] our earthly house of this tabernacle be destroyed, we haue a building giuen of God, that is, an house not made with handes, but eternall in the heauens.

2 For therefore wee sigh, desiring to be clothed vp our house, which is from heauen.

3 ‖ Because that if we be clothed, we shall not be found * naked.

4 For in deede wee that are in this tabernacle, sigh and are burdened, ‖ because we would not be vnclothed, but would be clothed vpon, that mortality might be swallowed vp of life.

5 And he that hath created vs for this thing, is God, who also hath giuen vnto vs the * earnest of the Spirit.

6 Therefore we are alway [b] bold, though wee knowe that whiles wee are ‖ at home in the body, wee are absent from the Lorde.

7 (For we [c] walke by faith, and not by sight)

8 Neuertheless, wee are bolde, and loue rather to remoue out of the body, and to dwell with the Lord.

9 Wherefore also wee couet, that both dwelling [d] at home, and remouing [e] from home, we may be acceptable to him.

10 * For we must all appeare before the iudgement seate of Christ, that euery man may receiue the things which are done in his body, according to that hee hath done, whether it be [f] good or euill.

11 Knowing therefore the [g] terrour of the g His fearefull iudgement.

h He prooueth the dignitie of his ministerie by the fruite and effect thereof, which is to bring men to Christ.

i By imbracing the same faith which we preach to others.

k As they, which more esteemed the outwarde shew of wisdome and eloquence, then true godlinesse.

l As the aduersaries said, which could not abide to heare them praised.

m Our follie serueth to Gods glorie.

n Therefore whosoeuer giueth place to ambition or vaine glorie, is yet dead, and liueth not in Christ.

o As the onely faithfull do in Christ.

p According to the estimation of the world: but as he is guided by the Spirit of God.

q We doe not esteeme, nor commend Christ himselfe now, as he was an excellent man: but as hee was the Sonne of God partaker of his glory, and in whom God dwelled corporally: and doe you thinke, that I will flatter my selfe or any man in setting forth his giftes? Yea, when I praise my ministerie, I commend the power of God: when I commende our worthie factes, I prayse the mightie power of God set foorth by vs wormes and wretches. r Let him be regenerate, and renounce himselfe, els all the rest is nothing. *Isa.*43.19. *reuel.*21.5. s Therefore without Christ we cannot enioy the life euerlasting, nor come to God. t That is, a sacrifice for sinne. u By imputation, when we shall be clad with Christes iustice.

the Lorde, we [h] perswade men, and we [i] are made manifest vnto God, and I trust also that wee are made manifest in your consciences.

12 For wee praise not our selues againe vnto you, but giue you an occasion to reioyce of vs, that yee may haue to answere against them, which reioyce in the [k] face, and not in the heart.

13 For whether wee be [l] out of our wit, we are it [m] to God: or whether wee be in our right minde, we are it vnto you.

14 For the loue of Christ constreineth vs: because we thus iudge, that if one bee dead for all, then were [n] all dead,

15 And he died for all, that they [o] which liue, should not henceforth liue vnto themselues, but vnto him which died for them, and rose againe.

16 Wherefore, henceforth know we no man [p] after the flesh, yea though wee had knowen Christ after the flesh, yet nowe henceforth [q] know we him no more.

17 Therefore if any man be in Christ, let him be a [r] new creature. * Olde things are passed away: beholde, all things are become new.

18 And all things are of God, which hath reconciled vs vnto himself by Iesus Christ, and hath giuen vnto vs the ministerie of reconciliation.

19 For God was [s] in Christ, and reconciled the worlde to himselfe, not imputing their sinnes vnto them, and hath committed to vs the word of reconciliation.

20 Nowe then are wee ambassadours for Christ: as though God did beseech you thrugh vs, we pray you in Christes stead, that ye be reconciled to God.

21 For hee hath made him to be [t] sinne for vs, which knewe no sinne, that wee should be [u] made the righteousnesse of God in him.

thing, that our ministerie should not be [b] reprehended.

4 But in all things wee approoue our selues as * the ministers of God, in much patience, in afflictions, in necessities, in distresses,

5 In stripes, in prisons, in tumults, in labours,

6 By [c] watchings, by fastings, by puritie, by knowledge, by long suffering, by kindenesse, by the [d] holy Ghost, by [e] loue vnfained,

7 [f] By the word of trueth, by the power of God, by the armour of righteousnesse on the right hand and on the left,

8 By honour, and dishonour, by euill report and good report, as deceiuers, and yet true:

9 As vnknowen, and yet knowen: as dying, and beholde, we liue: as chastened, and yet not killed:

10 As sorowing, and yet alway reioycing: as poore, and yet make many rich: as hauing nothing, and yet possessing all things.

11 O Corinthians, our [g] mouth is open vnto you: our heart is made large.

12 Ye are not kept straite in vs, but yee are kept straite in your owne [h] bowels.

13 Nowe for the same recompence, I speake as to my children, [i] Be you also enlarged.

14 [k] Be not vnequally yoked with the infidels: for * what felowship hath righteousnesse with vnrighteousnesse? and what communion hath light with darkenesse?

15 And what concord hath Christ with ‖Belial? or what part hath the beleeuer with the infidel?

16 And what agreement hath the Temple of God with idoles? * for yee are the Temple of the liuing God: as God hath sayd, * I wil dwell among them, and walke there: and I will be their God, and they shalbe my people.

17 * Wherefore, come out from among them, and separate your selues, sayeth the Lord: and touch none vncleane thing, and I will receiue you.

18 * And I will be a Father vnto you, and yee shall be my sonnes and daughters, sayth the Lord Almightie.

c He declareth with what weapons he resisted his afflictions.

h Their iudgement was so corrupted, that they were not likewise affectioned towards him, as he was towards them.

i Shewe like affection towards me.

k Hee seemeth to allude to that which is written, Deut.22.10. where the Lord commaundeth that an oxe and an asse be not yoked together, because the match is vnequall: so if the faithfull marrie with the infidels, or els haue to doe with them in any thing vnlawful, it is here reprooued. *Eccles.*13.18. ‖Or, the deuil. 1. *Cor.*3.16. & 6.19. l So called, because he hath not only life in himselfe, but giueth it also to all liuing creatures. *Leuit.*26.11,12. *Isa.*52.11. *Ier.*31.1.

CHAP. VI.

1 An exhortation to Christian life, 11 And to beare him like affection, as hee doth them: 14 Also to keepe themselues from all pollution of idolatrie both in body and soule, and to haue none acquaintance with idolaters.

WE then therefore as workers together beseech you, that ye receiue not the grace of God in vaine.

2 For he saith, * I haue heard thee in a time accepted, and in the day of saluation haue I succoured thee: beholde nowe the [a] accepted time, beholde now the day of saluation.

3 Wee giue no occasion of offence in any

a To wit, Gods free mercie, wherein he hath powred foorth his infinite loue.

CHAP. VII.

1 Hee exhorteth them by the promises of God to keepe themselues pure, 3.7 Assuring them of his loue. 8.13 And doeth not excuse his seueritie toward them, but reioyceth thereat, considering what profite came thereby. 10 Of two sortes of sorowe.

SEeing then wee haue these promises, dearely beloued, let vs [a] cleanse our selues from all filthinesse of the [b] flesh and spirite, and grow vp vnto full holinesse in the feare of God.

a Consider this well, yee that serue idoles with your bodies, and yet thinke your consciences pure toward God: God will one day smite you for your halting. b Of body and soule.

2 [c] Receiue

c That we may teach you.
d By greedie couetousnesse.

2 cReceiue vs: we haue done wrong to no man: wee haue consumed no man: we haue ddefrauded no man.

3 I speake it not to your condemnation: for I haue sayde before, that ye are in our hearts, to die and liue together.

4 I vse great boldnesse of speech toward you: I reioyce greatly in you: I am filled with comfort, and am exceeding ioyous in all our tribulation.

e He had neither rest in body nor Spirit: and it seemeth that he alludeth to that which is written, Deutero. 32.25. For the crosse to mans eye is common both to the godly and to the wicked, although to contrary ends.
f This ioy ouercame all my sorrowes.
1. Pet. 2.19.

5 For when we were come into Macedonia, our flesh had no rest, but wee were troubled on euery side, fightings e without, and terrours within.

6 But God, that comforteth the abiect, comforted vs at the comming of Titus:

7 And not by his comming onely, but also by the consolation wherewith hee was comforted of you, when hee tolde vs your great desire, your mourning, your feruent minde to mee-ward, so that I reioyced fmuch more.

g Whose heart Gods Spirit doth touch, he is sory for his sinnes committed against so mercifull a Father: and these are the fruits of his repentance, as witnesse Dauids and Peters teares: others which are sory for their sinnes onely for feare of punishment and Gods vengeance, fall into desperation, as Cain, Saul, Ahitophel, and Iudas.
h In asking God forgiuenesse.
i For in iudging and chastising your selues, you preuented Gods anger.
‖ Or, heart.
k The Greeke word signifieth his bowels, wherby is meant most great loue and tender affections.
l Both in thinking and reporting well of you.

8 For though I made you sorie with a letter, I repent not, though I did repent: for I perceiue that the same epistle made you sorie, though it were but for a season.

9 I nowe reioyce, not that yee were sorie, but that yee sorowed to repentance: for yee sorowed godly, so that in nothing yee were hurt by vs.

10 * For godly sorowe causeth repentance vnto saluation, not to be repented of: but the worldly sorow causeth death.

11 For beholde, this thing that ye haue bene s godly sorie, what great care it hath wrought in you: yea, what h clearing of your selues: yea, what indignation: yea, what feare: yea, how great desire: yea, what a zeale: yea, what i punishment: in all things yee haue shewed your selues, that yee are pure in this matter.

12 Wherefore, though I wrote vnto you, I did it not for his cause that had done the wrong, neither for his cause that had the iniurie, but that our care towarde you in the sight of God might appeare vnto you.

13 Therefore wee were comforted, because yee were comforted: but rather wee reioyced much more for the ioy of Titus, because his ‖ spirite was refreshed by you all.

14 For if that I haue boasted any thing to him of you, I haue not bene ashamed: but as I haue spoken vnto you all things in trueth, euen so our boasting vnto Titus was true.

15 And his k inward affection is more abundant toward you, when hee remembreth the obedience of you all, and howe with feare and trembling ye receiued him.

16 I reioyce therefore that I may l put my confidence in you in all things.

CHAP. VIII.

1 By the example of the Macedonians, 9 and Christ, he exhorteth them to continue in releeuing the poore Saints, commending their good beginning. 23 After hee commendeth Titus and his fellowes vnto them.

WE doe you also to wit, brethren, of the a grace of God bestowed vpon the Churches of Macedonia,

2 Because in great tryall of affliction their ioy abounded, and their most extreme pouertie b abounded vnto their riche liberalitie.

3 For to their power (I beare recorde) yea, and beyonde their power, they were willing,

4 And prayed vs with great instance that wee would receiue the c grace, and fellowship *of the ministring which is toward the Saints.

5 And this they did, not as we looked for: but gaue their owne selues, first to the Lord, and after vnto vs by the will of God,

6 That we should exhort Titus, that as hee had begunne, so hee would also accomplish the same grace among you also.

7 Therefore, as yee abounde in euery thing, in faith and word, and knowledge, and in all diligence, and in your loue towards vs, euen so see that yee abound in this grace also.

8 This say I not by commaundement, but because of the diligence of others: therefore proone I the naturalnesse of your loue.

9 For yee knowe the grace of our Lorde Iesus Christ, that hee being riche for your sakes became poore, that yee through his pouertie might be made riche.

10 And I shewe my minde herein: for this is expedient for you which haue begun not to doe onely, but also to d will, a yeere agoe.

11 Nowe therefore perfourme to doe it also, that as there was a readines to wil, euen so yee may perfourme it of that which yee haue.

12 For if there be first a willing minde, it is accepted according to that a man hath, and not according to that he hath not.

13 Neither is it that other men should be eased and you grieued.

14 But vpon like condition, at this time your e abundance supplieth their lacke, that also their abundance may be for your lacke, that there may be f equalitie:

15 As it is written, * Hee that gathered much, had nothing ouer, and hee that gathered little, had not the lesse.

16 And thankes bee vnto God, which hath put in the heart of Titus the same care for you.

17 Because hee accepted the g exhortation, yea, he was so carefull, that of his owne accord he went vnto you.

18 And wee haue sent also with him the brother, whose prayse is h in the Gospell throughout all the Churches,

19 (And not so onely, but is also chosen of the Churches to be a fellow in our iourney concerning this grace that is ministred by vs vnto the glory of the same Lord, and declaration of your prompt minde)

20 Auoyding this, that no man should blame vs in this abundance that is ministred by vs, 21 * Prouiding for i honest things, not onely before the Lord, but also before men.

a This benefite of God appeared in two things: first, that the Macedonians being in so great afflictions were so prompt to helpe others: and next, that being in great pouertie, were very liberall towards others.
b So that a most abundant riuer of riches flowed out of their pouertie.
c So he calleth their liberalitie, either because they were the bestowers of Gods graces, or because they receiued them of God freely, and so they desired Paul to see to the distribution thereof.
Chap. 9.12.
d Euery man may doe good that hath abilitie thereunto: but to will, and haue a minde to doe good, commeth of perfect charitie.
e That as you helpe others in their neede, so others shall relieue your want.
f That both you and others, as occasion shal serue, may relieue the godly according to their necessities.
Exod. 16.18.
g And willingly offered himselfe to gather your almes.
h In preaching the Gospell. Some vnderstand this to be spoken of Luke, others, of Barnabas.
Rom. 12.17.
i His well doing is approoued before God and man.

22 And wee haue sent with them our brother whom wee haue oft times prooued to bee diligent in many things, but nowe much more diligent, for the great confidence, which I haue in you.

23 Whether any doe enquire of Titus, he is my fellowe and helper to youward: or of our brethren, they are messengers of the Churches, and the [k] glory of Christ.

24 Wherefore shewe toward them, and before the Churches the proofe of your loue, and of the reioycing that wee haue of you.

k That is, by whome Christs glory is greatly aduanced.

CHAP. IX.

3 The cause of Titus and his companions comming to them. 6 He exhorteth to giue almes chearefully, 7 Shewing what fruite will come thereof.

FOr as touching the ministring to the Saintes, it is superfluous for mee to write vnto you.

2 For I know your readinesse of minde, whereof I boast my selfe of you vnto them of Macedonia, & say, that Achaia was prepared a yeere ago, and your zeale hath prouoked many.

3 Nowe haue I sent the brethren, least our reioycing ouer you should bee in vaine in this behalfe, that ye (as I haue sayde) be readie:

4 Least if they of Macedonia come with me, and finde you vnprepared, we (I meede not to say, you) should be ashamed in this my constant boasting.

5 Wherefore, I thought it necessary to exhort the brethren to come before vnto you, and to finish your benevolence appointed afore, that it might be readie, and come as of benevolence, and not as of sparing.

6 This yet remember, that he which soweth sparingly, shall reape also sparingly, and he that soweth liberally, shall reape also liberally.

7 As euery man wisheth in his heart, so let him giue, not * grudgingly, or of necessitie: * For God loueth a cheerefull giuer.

8 And God is able to make all grace to abound toward you, that yee alwayes hauing [a] all sufficiencie in all things, may abound in euery [b] good worke,

9 * As it is written, [c] He hath sparsed abroade, and hath giuen to the poore: his benevolence remaineth for euer.

10 Also hee that findeth seede to the sower, will minister likewise bread for foode, and multiply your seede, and increase the fruits of your benevolence, 11 That on all partes yee may bee made rich vnto all liberalitie, which causeth through vs thanksgiuing vnto God.

12 For the ministration of this service not onely supplieth the necessities of the Saints, but also is abundant by y thankesgiuing of many vnto God,

13 (Which by the experiment of this ministration prayse God for your voluntarie submission to the Gospel of Christ, and for your liberall distribution to them, and to all men)

14 And by [d] their prayer for you, [e] desiring after you greatly, for the abundant grace of God in you.

15 Thankes therefore be vnto God for his vnspeakeable gift.

Prou. 11.25. rom. 12.8. Eccles. 35.10.

a Least they should giue but litle, distrusting to impouerish themselues thereby, he sheweth that God will so blesse their liberall hearts, that both they shall haue ynough for themselues, and also to helpe others withall.

b That ye may doe good and helpe others at all times.

Psal. 112.9.

c Dauid speaketh of ỹ man which feareth God and loueth his neighbour.

d Besides that by their liberality God shalbe prayed, they also shall be commended to God by their prayers whom they haue holpen, yea, and all men shall reuerence them, as being endued with an excellent gift of God.

e Or, greatly affectioned toward you.

CHAP. X.

He toucheth the false Apostles and defendeth his authoritie, exhorting them to obedience, 11 And sheweth what his power is, 13 And how he vseth it.

NOwe I Paul my selfe beseech you by the meekenes, and gentlenesse of Christ, which when I am present among you, am [a] base, but am bolde toward you being absent:

2 And this I require you, that I needе not to bee bolde when I am present, with that same confidence, wherewith I thinke to be bolde against some, which esteeme vs as though wee walked [b] according to the flesh.

3 Neuertheless, though we walke in the flesh, yet we doe not warre after the flesh.

4 (For the weapons of our warfare are not carnall, but mightie through God, to cast downe holdes)

5 Casting downe the imaginations, and euery high thing that is exalted against the knowledge of God, and bringing into captiuitie euery thought to the obedience of Christ.

6 And hauing ready the vengeance against all disobedience, when your obedience is fulfilled.

7 Looke ye on things after the appearance? If any man trust in himselfe that he is Christes, let him consider this againe of himselfe, that as he is Christes, euen so are we Christes.

8 For though I should boast somewhat more of our authoritie, which the Lorde hath giuen vs for edification, and not for your destruction, I should haue no shame.

9 This I say, that I may not seeme as it were to feare you with letters.

10 For the letters, [c] saith he, are sore and strong, but his bodily presence is weake, and his speach is of no value.

11 Let such one thinke this, that such as we are in worde by letters when wee are absent, such will we be also in deede, when we are present.

12 For we dare not make our selues of the number, or to compare our selues to them, which prayse themselues: but they vnderstand not that they [d] measure themselues with themselues, and compare themselues with themselues.

13 But wee will not reioyce of things, which are not within our measure, * but according to the [e] measure of the line, whereof God hath distributed vnto vs a measure to attaine euen vnto you.

14 For we stretch not our selues beyond our measure, as though wee had not attayned vnto you: for euen to you also haue we come in preaching the Gospell of Christ, 15 Not boasting of thinges which are without our measure: that is, of other mens labours: and wee hope, when your faith shall increase, to [f] bee magnified by you according vnto vs worst.

a These words his backbiters vsed, thinking thereby to diminish his authoritie, as verse 10.

b As though we boasted of our selues by a carnal affection.

c Meaning a certaine man among them, which thus spake of Paul.

d He that measureth any thing must haue some line or measure to mete by, and not to measure a thing by it selfe: so these boasters must measure themselues by their worthie actes: and if they will compare with others, let them shew what countreys, what cities, and people they haue wonne to the Lord: for who will prayse that souldier, which onely at the table can finely talke of warres, & when he commeth to the brunt, is neither valiant nor expert?

Ephes. 4.7.

e That is, the giftes and vocation, which God had giuen him to winne others by.

f Haue approued me worst.

16 And to preach the Gospell in those regions which are beyonde you: not to reioyce in f another mans line, that is, in the things that are prepared already.

17 * But let him that reioyceth, reioyce in the Lord.

18 For hee that prayseth himselfe, is not allowed, but he whom the Lord prayseth.

f God gaue the whole world to the Apostles to preach in, so that Paul here meaneth by the line, his portion of the countries where he preached. Ierem.9.24. 1.cor.1.31.

CHAP. XI.

1 Hee declareth his affection toward them. 5 The excellencie of his ministerie, 9 And his diligence in the same. 13 The fetches of the false Apostles. 16 The peruerse iudgement of the Corinthians, 22 And his owne prayses.

a He calleth the praysing of himselfe dotage, to the which thing the arrogancie of the false Apostles compelled him, who sought nothing els, but to ouerthrowe the Church by diminishing the authoritie of his ministerie.

WOulde to God yee could suffer a litle my a foolishnesse, and in deede, b yee suffer me.

b To speake in mine owne commendation.

2 For I am ielous ouer you, with godly ielousie: for * I haue prepared you for one husband, to present you as a pure virgine to Christ:

c The minister marieth Christ and his Church as husband and wife by the preaching of the Gospel. Gen.3.4.

3 But I feare least as the * serpent beguiled Eue through his subtiltie, so your mindes should be corrupt from the simplicitie that is in Christ.

d That is, more perfect doctrine concerning Christ Iesus.

4 For if he that commeth preacheth an other d Iesus then him whome wee haue preached: or if yee receiue another e spirite then that which yee haue receiued: eyther another Gospell, then that yee haue receyued, ye might well haue suffered him.

e More excellent giftes of the spirite by other mens preaching.

5 Verily I f suppose that I was not inferiour to the very chiefe Apostles.

f They did not preach Christ more purely then I did: for in this behalfe I was nothing inferiour to the chiefest Apostles.

6 And though I bee g rude in speaking, yet I am not so in knowledge, but among you we haue bene made manifest to the vtmost, in all things.

g That is, vse no worldly eloquence.

7 Haue I committed an offence, because I abased my selfe, that ye might be exalted, and because I preached to you the Gospell of God freely?

8 I h robbed other Churches, and tooke wages of them to doe you seruice.

h Other Churches relieued me.

9 And when I was present with you, and had neede, I was i not slouthfull to the hinderance of any man: for that which was lacking vnto me, the brethren which came from Macedonia supplied, and in all thinges I kept and will keepe my selfe, that I shoulde not * be grieuous to you.

i Hee did not onely labour with his handes for his liuing, but in his extreme powertie preached diligently without burdening any man, or else waxing slouthfull to doe his duetie to euery man. Chap.12.13. actes 20.34.

10 k The trueth of Christ is in me, that this reioycing shall not be shut vp against me in the regions of Achaia.

k Let not the trueth of Christ bee thought to be in me, if I suffer my ioy to be shut vp, which I haue conceiued of Grecia.

11 Wherefore? because I lone you not? God knoweth.

12 But what I do, that will I doe: that I may cutte away occasion from them which desire l occasion, that they might be found like vnto vs in that wherein they reioyce.

l To slaunder me, if I shoulde receiue wages.

13 For such false m Apostles are deceitful workers, and transforme themselues into the Apostles of Christ.

m By false Apostles here is not meant such as teach false doctrine (which doubtlesse, they would haue growen vnto) but such as were vaineglorious, & did not their duetie sincerely.

14 And no maruell: for Satan himselfe is transformed into an Angell of light.

15 Therefore it is no great thing, though his ministers transforme themselues, as though they were the ministers of righteousnesse, whose ende shall bee according to their workes.

16 I say againe, let no man thinke, that I am foolish: or els take me euen as a foole, that I also may boast my selfe a little.

17 That I speake, I speake it not after the n Lord: but as it were foolishly, in this my great boasting.

n In his heart he had respect to the Lord: but this fashion of boasting seemed according to man, whereunto they compelled him.

18 Seeing that many reioyce o after the flesh, I will reioyce also.

o In outward things.

19 For yee suffer fooles gladly, because that ye are wise.

20 For ye suffer euen if a man bring you into bondage, if a man deuoure you, if a man take your goods, if a man exalt himselfe, if a man smite you on the face.

21 p I speake as concerning the reproch: as though that wee had bene q weake: but wherein any man is bolde (I speake foolishly) I am bold also.

p I note this dishonour, which they doe vnto you.

q That is, abiect, vile, miserable, a craftesman, an idiote, and subiect to a thousand calamities, which thing the false apostles obiected against him as most certaine testimonies of his vnworthinesse. Phil.3.5.

22 They are Ebrewes, * so am I: they are Israelites, so am I: they are the seede of Abraham, so am I:

r Put case ye terme it so, yet is it true.

23 They are the ministers of Christ, (I r speake as a foole) I am more: in labours more abundant: in stripes aboue measure: in prison more plenteously: in s death oft.

s In the present danger of death.

24 Of the Iewes t fiue times receiued I fourtie stripes * saue one.

t At fiue seuerall times, euery time thirtie and nine. Deut.25.3.

25 * I was thrise u beaten with roddes: I was * once stoned: I suffered thrise * shipwracke: night and day haue I bene in the deepe sea.

u Of the Romane Magistrates. Act.16.22,23. Actes 14.19.

26 In iourneying I was often, in perils of waters, in perils of robbers, in perils of mine owne nation, in perils among the Gentiles, in perils in the citie, in perils in wildernesse, in perils in the sea, in perils among false brethren, x As imprisonment, bearing, hunger, thirst, colde, nakednes, and such like: which things the aduersaries condemne as infirme in me. Actes 9.24.

27 In wearinesse and painefulnesse, in watching often, in hunger, and thirst, in fastings often, in colde and in nakednesse.

28 Beside the things which are outward, I am cumbred dayly, & haue the care of all the Churches.

29 Who is weake, & I am not weake? who is offended, and I burne not?

30 If I must needes reioyce, I will reioyce of mine y infirmities.

31 The God, euen z Father of our Lord Iesus Christ, which is blessed for euermore, knoweth that I lie not.

32 In * Damascus the gouernour of the people vnder King Aretas, layde watch in the citie of the Damascens, and would haue caught me.

33 But at a windowe was I let downe in a basket through the wall, and escaped his handes.

CHAP. XII.

1 He reioyceth in his preferment, 5.7 But chiefly in humblenesse, 11 And layeth the cause of his his boasting vpon the Corinthians. 14 Hee sheweth what good will he beareth them, 20 And promiseth to come vnto them.

IT is not expedient for me no doubt, to reioyce: for I will come to visions and reuelations of the Lord.

2 * I knowe a man [a] in Christ aboue fourteene yeeres agone, (whether he were in the body, I cannot tell, or out of the body, I cannot tell: God knoweth) which was taken vp into the [b] third heauen.

3 And I know such a man (whether in the body, or out of the body, I cannot tell: God knoweth)

4 How that he was taken vp into paradise, & heard [c] words which cannot bee spoken, which are not possible for man to vtter.

5 Of such a man will I reioyce: of my selfe will I not reioyce, except it be of mine infirmities.

6 For though I would reioyce, I should not be a foole: for I will say the trueth, but I reframe lest any man should esteeme of mee aboue that he seeth in mee, or that he heareth of me.

7 And lest I should bee exalted out of measure, through the abundance of reuelations, there was giuen vnto mee [d] a pricke in the flesh, the messenger of Satan to buffet me, because I should not be exalted out of measure.

8 For this thing I besought the Lorde [e] thrise, that it might depart from me.

9 And hee said vnto me, My grace is sufficient for thee: for my power is made [f] perfect through weakenesse. Very gladly therefore will I reioyce rather in mine infirmities, that the power of Christ may dwell in me.

10 Therefore [g] I take pleasure in infirmities, in reproches, in necessities, in persecutions, in anguish for Christes sake: for when I am weake, then am I strong.

11 I was a foole to boast my selfe: yee haue compelled mee: for I ought to haue beene commended of you: for in nothing was I inferiour vnto the very chiefe Apostles, though I be nothing.

12 The signes of an Apostle were wrought among you with all patience, with signes, and wonders, and great workes.

13 For what is it, wherein yee were inferiours vnto other Churches, * except that I haue not bene ‖ slouthfull to your hinderance? forgiue me this wrong.

14 Beholde, the [h] third time I am ready to come vnto you, and yet will I not be slouthfull to your hinderance: for I seeke not yours, but you: for the children ought not to lay vp for the fathers, but the fathers for the children.

15 And I will most gladly bestowe, and will be bestowed for your ‖ soules: though the more I loue you, the lesse I am loued.

16 But bee it that I charged you not:

Acts 9.3.

a That is, a Christian: or, I speake it in Christ.

b That is to say, into the highest heauen.

c Mans infirmitie was not able to declare them, neyther were they shewed vnto him for that ende.

‖ Or, lawfull.

d The Greeke word signifieth a sharpe piece of wood, as a pale, or stake, and also a litle spilde or sharpe thing which pricketh one as he goeth through bushie and thicke places, and entring into the flesh, cannot be taken out without cutting of the flesh: and this was the rebelling of the flesh against the Spirit, and warned him that Satan was at hand.

e That is to say, oftentimes.

f Is knowen and euidently seene.

g He doeth not onely patiently beare his afflictions, but also ioyfully, and as one that taketh pleasure therein for Christes sake.

Chap. 11.9.

‖ Or, chargeable.

h For first, he was minded to depart from Ephesus into Macedonia, and so to Corinthus, 1. Cor. 16.5. Then when the Lord letted his purpose, he appointed to go straight from Ephesus to Corinthus, Chap. 1.15. Which intent being changed, he went to Macedonia, from whence now hee appointeth the third time to come vnto them.

i Which declareth his fatherly affection. ‖ Or, your cause, or persons.

k yet for all that as I was craftie, I tooke you with guile.

17 Did I pil you by any of them whom I sent vnto you?

18 I haue desired [l] Titus, and with him I haue sent a brother: did Titus pill you of any thing? walked wee not in the selfe same spirite? walked we not in the same steppes?

19 Againe, thinke ye that we excuse our selues vnto you? wee speake before God in Christ. But we doe all things, dearely beloued, for your edifying.

20 For I feare, least when I come, I shall not finde you such as I would: and that I shall be found vnto you [m] such as yee would not, and least there bee strife, enuying, wrath, contentions, backebitings, whisperings, swellings, and discord.

21 I feare least when I come againe, my God [n] abase me among you, and I shal bewaile many of them which haue sinned already, and haue not repented of the vncleannesse, and fornication, and wantonnesse, which they haue committed.

k Thus said his aduersaries, that though he tooke it not by himselfe, yet did he it by the meanes of others.

l To go to you.

m Meaning, sharpe and seuere.

n There was nothing whereat he so much reioyced, as when his preaching profited: and therefore he calleth the Thessalonians his glory and ioy: as also nothing did so much cast downe his heart, as when his labour did nogod.

CHAP. XIII.

1 He threatneth the obstinate, 5 And declareth what his power is by their owne testimonie, 10 Also hee sheweth what is the effect of his Epistle. 11 After hauing exhorted them to their duetie, he wisheth the well prosperitie.

THis is the [a] third time that I come vnto you. * In the mouth of two or three witnesses shall euery word stand.

2 [b] I tolde you before, and tell you before: as though I had bene present the second time, so write I now being absent, to them which heretofore haue sinned, and to all others, that if I come againe, I will not spare.

3 Seeing that yee seeke experience of Christ, that speaketh in me, which towarde you is not weake, but is mightie in you.

4 For though hee was crucified concerning his [c] infirmitie, yet liueth hee through the power of God. And wee no doubt are weake in him: [d] but wee shall liue with him, through the power of God towarde you.

5 * Proone your selues whether yee are in the faith: examine your selues: know ye not your owne selues, how that Jesus Christ is in you, except ye be reprobates?

6 But I trust that yee shall knowe that we are not reprobates.

The Epistle of the Apostle Paul to the Galatians.

THE ARGVMENT.

THe Galatians, after they had bene instructed by Saint Paul in the trueth of the Gospel, gaue place to false Apostles, who entring in, in his absence corrupted the pure doctrine of Christ, and taught that the ceremonies of the Law must be necessarily obserued, which thing the Apostle so earnestly reasoneth against, that he prooueth that the graunting thereof, is the ouerthrowe of mans saluation purchased by Christ: for thereby the light of the Gospel is obscured: the conscience burdened: the testaments confounded: mans iustice established. And because the false teachers did pretend, as though they had beene sent of the chiefe Apostles, and that Paul had no authoritie, but spake of himselfe, he prooueth both that he is an Apostle ordeyned by God, and also that he is not inferiour to the rest of the Apostles. Which thing established, he proceedeth to his purpose, prouing ỹ we are freely iustified before God without any works or ceremonies: which notwithstanding in their time had their vse and commoditie: but now they are not onely vnprofitable figures, but also pernicious, because Christ the trueth and the ende thereof is come: wherefore men ought now to imbrace that libertie, which Christ hath purchased by his blood, and not to haue their consciences snared in the grennes of mans traditions: finally he sheweth wherein this libertie standeth, and what exercises appertaine thereunto.

CHAP. I.

6 Paul rebuketh their inconstancie which suffered themselues to be seduced by the false apostles, who preached that the obseruation of the ceremonies of the Law were necessary to saluation, 8 And detesteth them that preach any otherwise then Christ purely. 13 Hee sheweth his owne conuersation, magnifieth his office and Apostleship, and declareth himselfe to be equall with the chiefe Apostles.

PAul * an Apostle (not a of men, neyther by b man, but by Jesus Christ, and God the Father which hath raised him from the dead)

2 And all the brethren which are with me, vnto the Churches of Galatia:

3 Grace bee with you, and peace from God the Father, and from our Lord Jesus Christ,

4 Which gaue himselfe for our sinnes, that hee might deliuer vs * from this c present euill worlde, according to the will of God, euen our Father,

5 To whom be glorie for euer and euer, Amen.

6 I marualle that ye are so soone remooued away vnto another ‖ Gospell from him that hath called you in the d grace of Christ,

7 Which is not another Gospel, saue that there be some which trouble you, and intend to e peruert the Gospel of Christ.

8 But though that wee, or an f Angell from heauen preach vnto you otherwise, then that which wee haue preached vnto you, let him be ‖ accursed.

9 As wee sayde before, so say I now againe, if any man preach vnto you otherwise then that ye haue receiued, let him be accursed.

10 For g now preach I mans doctrine, or Gods? or goe I about to please men? for if I shoulde please men, I were not the seruant of Christ.

11 * Now I certifie you, brethren, that the Gospell which was preached of mee, was not after h man.

12 For neyther receiued I it of man, neyther was I taught it, but by the i reuelation of Jesus Christ.

13 For yee haue heard of my conuersation in time past, in the Iewish religion, howe that * I persecuted the Church of God extremely, and wasted it,

14 And profited in the Iewish religion aboue many of my ‖ companions of mine owne nation, and was much more zealous of the k traditions of my fathers.

15 But when it l pleased God (which had separated me from my mothers wombe, and called me by his grace)

CHAP. II.

Confirming his Apostleship to be of God, 3 He sheweth why Titus was not circumcised, 6 And that he is nothing inferiour to other Apostles: 11 Yea, and that he hath reproued Peter the Apostle of the Iewes, 16 After he commeth to the principall scope, which is to proue that iustification onely commeth of the grace of God by faith in Iesus Christ, and not by the workes of the Lawe.

THen fourteene yeeres after, I went vp againe to Ierusalem with Barnabas, and tooke with me Titus also,

2 And I went vp by reuelation, and [a] communicated with them of the Gospell which I preach among the Gentiles, * but particularly with them that were [y] chiefe, least by any meanes I should runne, or had runne [z] in vaine.

3 But neither yet Titus which was with me, though hee were a Grecian, was [b] compelled to be circumcised,

4 For all the false brethren that crept in: who came in priuily to spie out our libertie, which we haue in Christ Iesus, that they might bring vs into bondage.

5 To whome we [c] gaue not place by subiection for an houre, that the trueth of the Gospell might continue with you.

6 And of the which seemed to be great, I was not taught (what they [d] were in time passed, it maketh no matter to mee: * God accepteth no mans person) neuertheless, they that are the chiefe, [e] did communicate nothing with me.

7 But contrariwise, when they sawe that the Gospell ouer the vncircumcision, was committed vnto me, as the Gospell ouer the circumcision was vnto Peter:

8 (For hee that was mightie by Peter in the Apostleship ouer the Circumcision, was also mightie by me toward the Gentiles)

9 And when Iames, and Cephas, and Iohn knew of the grace that was giuen vnto me, which are counted to be pillars, they gaue to mee and to Barnabas the [f] right hands of fellowship, that we should preach vnto the Gentiles, and they vnto the Circumcision,

10 *Warning only that we should remember the poore: which thing also I was diligent to doe.

11 ¶ And when Peter was come to Antiochia, I withstoode him [g] to his face: for he was to be blamed.

12 For before that certaine came from Iames, he ate with the Gentiles: but when they were come, he withdrewe and separated himselfe, fearing them which were of the Circumcision.

13 And the other Iewes dissembled likewise with him, in so much that Barnabas was brought into their dissimulation also.

14 But when I sawe, that they went not the [+] right way to the trueth of the Gospel, I saide vnto Peter before all men, If thou being a Iewe, liuest as the Gentiles, and not like the Iewes, why [h] constrainest thou the Gentiles to doe like the Iewes?

15 Wee which are Iewes by nature, and not [i] sinners of the Gentiles, 16 Knowe that a man is not iustified by the workes of the Lawe, but by the faith of Iesus Christ: euen wee I say, haue beleeued in Iesus Christ, that wee might be iustified by the faith of Christ, and not by the workes of the Lawe, because that by the workes of the Lawe no [‖] flesh shall bee iustified.

17 * If then while wee seeke to be made righteous by Christ, wee our selues are founde [k] sinners, is Christ therefore the minister of sinne? God [l] forbid.

18 For if I build againe the things that I haue destroyed, [m] I make my selfe a trespasser.

19 For I through the Lawe am dead to the Lawe, and that I might liue vnto God, I am [n] crucified with Christ.

20 Thus I liue, yet [o] not I nowe, but Christ liueth in me: and in that that I now liue in the [p] flesh, I liue by the faith in the Sonne of God, who hath loued me, and giuen himselfe for me.

21 I doe not abiogate the grace of God: for if righteousnesse be by the Lawe, then Christ died [‖] without a cause.

CHAP. III.

1 He rebuketh them sharpely, 2 And proueth by diuers reasons that iustification is by faith, 6 As appeareth by the example of Abraham, 10.19. 24 And by the office, and the end, both of the Law, 11.25 And of faith.

O Foolish Galatians, who hath bewitched you, that ye shoulde not obey the trueth, to whome Iesus Christ before was described in your sight, and among you crucified?

2 This onely woulde I learne of you, Receiued yee the [b] Spirite by the workes a To whome Christ was so liuely preached, as if his liuely image were set before your eyes, or els had bene crucified among you.

b Meaning the giftes of the Spirite.

of the Lawe, or by the hearing of c faith preached?

3 Are ye so foolish that after ye haue begun in the spirit, ye would nowe d be made perfect by the e flesh?

4 Haue yee suffered so many things in vaine? if so be it be euen in vaine.

5 He therefore that ministreth to you the Spirit, and worketh miracles among you, doeth he it through the workes of the Lawe, or by the hearing of faith preached?

6 Yea rather as Abraham beleeued God, and it was * imputed to him for righteousnesse.

7 Knowe ye therefore, that they which are of faith, the same are the children of Abraham.

8 For the Scripture foreseeing, that God would iustifie the Gentiles through faith, preached before the Gospell vnto Abraham, saying, * In thee shall all the Gentiles be blessed.

9 So then they which be of faith, are blessed with faithfull Abraham.

10 For as many as are of the f workes of the Lawe, are vnder the curse: for it is written, * Cursed is euery man that continueth not in all thinges, which are written in the booke of the Lawe, to doe them.

11 And that no man is iustified by the Lawe in the sight of God, it is euident: * for the iust shall liue by faith.

12 And the g Lawe is not of faith: but * the man that shall doe those thinges, shall liue in them.

13 Christ hath redeemed vs from the curse of the Lawe, when hee was made a curse for vs (for it is written, * Cursed is euery one that hangeth on tree)

14 That the blessing of Abraham might come on the Gentiles through Christ Iesus, that we might receiue the h promes of the Spirit through faith.

15 Brethren, I i speake as men doe, * Though it be but a mans couenant, when it is confirmed, yet no man doeth abrogate it, or k addeth any thing thereto.

16 Nowe to Abraham and his seede were the promises made. He sayeth not, And to the seedes, as speaking of many: but, And to thy seede, as of one, which l is Christ.

17 And this I say, that the Lawe which was foure hundreth and thirtie yeeres after, can not disanull the couenant that was confirmed afore of God in respect of Christ, that it should make the promise of none effect.

18 For if the inheritance be of the Lawe, it is no more by the promise, but God gaue it vnto Abraham by promise.

19 Wherefore then serueth the Law? It was added because of the m trangressions, till the seede came vnto the which the promise was made: and it was ordeyned by n Angels in the hand of a Mediatour.

20 Nowe a Mediatour is not a Mediatour of o one: but God is p one.

21 Is the Lawe then against the promise of God? God forbid: for if there had bene a Lawe giuen which could haue giuen life, surely righteousnesse shoulde haue bene by the Lawe.

22 But the Scripture hath * concluded q all vnder sinne, that the promise by the faith of Iesus Christ shoulde bee giuen to them that beleeue.

23 But before r faith came, we were kept vnder the Lawe, and shut vp vnto the faith, which shoulde afterwarde be reuealed.

24 Wherefore the * Law was our schoolemaster to bring vs to Christ, that we might be made righteous by faith.

25 But after that faith is come, we are no longer vnder s a schoolemaster.

26 For ye are all the sonnes of God by faith, in Christ Iesus.

27 * For all yee that are t baptized into Christ, haue put on Christ.

28 There is neither Iewe nor Grecian: there is neither bond nor free: there is neither male nor female: for ye are all u one in Christ Iesus.

29 And if ye be Christes, then are yee Abrahams seede, and heires by promise.

CHAP. IIII.

2 He sheweth wherefore the ceremonies were ordeined. 3 Which being shadowes must end when Christ the trueth commeth. 9 He moueth them by certaine exhortations, 22 And confirmeth his argument with a strong example, or allegorie.

NOw I say, that the a heire as long as he is a childe, differeth nothing from a seruant, though he be Lord of all,

2 But is vnder b tutours and gouernours, vntill the time appointed of the Father.

3 Euen so, we when we were children, were in bondage vnder the c rudiments of the world.

4 But when the fulnesse of time was come, God sent forth his Sonne made of a woman, and made d vnder the Lawe,

5 That hee might redeeme them which were vnder the Lawe, that wee * might receiue the adoption of the sonnes.

6 And because ye are sonnes, God hath sent forth the e Spirite of his Sonne into your heartes, which cryeth, f Abba, Father.

7 Wherefore, thou art no more g a seruant, but a sonne: nowe if thou be a sonne, thou art also the heire of God through Christ.

a The Church of Israel was vnder the Lawe as the pupill subiect to his tutor, euen vnto the time of Christ, when she waxed strong, and then her tutelship ended.

b That is, the Lawe, which before he called a schoolemaster, Chap.3.25.

c That is, vnder the Lawe, which was but an a,b,c. in respect of the Gospell.

e For our adoption vnto Christ is sealed by him.

f He instructeth both Iewes and Gentiles to call God their Father in euery language, so that none are excepted.

g Which may eft not vse thy libertie.

8 But euen then, when yee [b] knewe not God, yee did seruice vnto them, which by [i] nature are not gods.

9 But nowe seeing yee knowe God, yea, rather are knowen of God, how turne [k] yee againe vnto impotent and beggerly rudiments, whereunto as from the beginning ye will be in bondage againe?

10 Ye obserue [l] dayes, and moneths, and times, and yeeres.

11 I am in feare of you, lest I haue bestowed on you labour in vaine.

12 Bee ye as [m] I: for I am euen as you: brethren, I beseech you: yee haue not hurt [n] me at all.

13 And yee knowe, howe through [o] infirmitie of the flesh I preached the Gospel vnto you at the first.

14 [p] And the triall of me which was in my flesh, yee despised not, neither abhorred: but yee receiued mee as an [q] Angel of God, yea, as Christ Iesus.

15 What was then your felicitie? For I beare you record, that if it had bene possible, yee would haue plucked out your owne eyes, and haue giuen them to me.

16 Am I therefore become your enemie, because I tell you the trueth?

17 They are ielous ouer you [r] amisse: yea, they would exclude [s] you, that ye should altogether loue them.

18 But it is a good thing to loue earnestly alwayes in a good thing, and not onely when I am present with you, 19 My little children, of whom I trauaile in birth againe, vntill Christ be [t] formed in you.

20 And I would I were with you now, that I might change my voyce: for I am in doubt of you.

21 Tell mee, yee that will be vnder the lawe, doe ye not heare the Lawe?

22 For it is written, that Abraham had two sonnes, *one by a seruant, and *one by a free woman.

23 But hee which was of the seruant, was borne after the flesh: and he which was of the free woman, was borne by promise.

24 By the which things an other thing is meant: for these mothers [u] are the two Testaments, the one which is [x] Agar of mount Sina, which gendreth vnto bondage, 25 (For Agar or Sina is a mount [y] in Arabia, and it answereth to [z] Ierusalem which nowe is) and thee is in bondage with her children.

26 But Ierusalem, which is aboue, is free: which is the mother of vs all.

27 For it is written, *Reioice, thou barren that bearest no children: breake forth, and crie, thou that trauaillest not: for the desolate hath many moe children, then she which hath an husband.

28 *Therefore, brethren, we are after the maner of Isaac, children of the promise.

29 But as then hee that was borne after the flesh, persecuted him that was borne after the spirit, euen so it is nowe.

30 But what saith the Scripture? *Put out the seruant and her sonne: for the sonne of the seruant shall not bee heire with the sonne of the free woman.

31 Then brethren, we are not children of the seruant, but of the [a] free woman. †

CHAP. V.

2 He laboureth to draw them away from circumcision, 17 And sheweth them the battell betwixt the spirit and the flesh, and the fruites of them both.

STand fast therefore in the libertie wherewith Christ hath made vs free, and bee not intangled againe with the yoke of bondage.

2 *Beholde, I Paul say vnto you, that if ye be [a] circumcised, Christ shall profit you nothing.

3 For I testifie againe to euery man, which is circumcised, that hee is bound to keepe the whole Lawe.

4 Ye are *abolished from Christ: whosoeuer are iustified by the Law, ye are fallen from grace.

5 For wee through the Spirite [b] waite for the hope of righteousnesse through faith.

6 For in Iesus Christ neither circumcision auaileth any thing, neither vncircumcision, but faith which worketh by loue.

7 Yee did runne well: who did [c] hinder that ye did not obey the trueth?

8 It is not the perswasion [d] which appointed him to call you.

9 *A little [e] leauen leaueneth the [m] whole lumpe.

10 I haue confidence [f] in you in the Lord, that yee will be none otherwise minded: but he that troubleth you, shall beare his iudgement, whosoeuer he be.

11 And I brethren, if I yet preach circumcision, why doe I yet suffer persecution? then is the offence of the crosse [g] ceased.

12 I would they were euen cut off which trouble you.

13 For brethren, ye haue [h] been called vnto libertie: onely turne not libertie into occasion to the flesh, but by loue serue one another.

14 For all the Lawe is fulfilled in one word, euen in this: Thou shalt loue thy neighbour as thy selfe.

15 But if ye byte and deuour one another, take heede that ye be not consumed one of another.

16 This I say then, Walke in the Spirite, and ye shall not fulfill the lust of the flesh.

17 For the flesh lusteth against the Spirite, and the Spirite against the flesh: and these are contrary the one to the other, so that ye cannot doe the things that ye would.

18 But if ye be led of the Spirite, ye are not vnder the Lawe.

19 Now the workes of the flesh are manifest, which are these, Adultery, fornication, vncleannesse, wantonnesse,

20 Idolatrie, witchcraft, hatred, debate, emulations, wrath, contentions, seditions, heresies, 21 Enuie, murther, drunkennesse, reuelling, and such like: of the which I tell you before, as I haue also told you in time past, that they which commit such things, shall not inherite the kingdome of God.

22 But the fruite of the Spirite is loue, ioy, peace, long suffering, gentlenesse, goodnesse, faithfulnesse, 23 Meekenesse, temperance: against such there is no Lawe.

24 And they that are Christs, haue crucified the flesh with the affections and lusts.

25 If we liue in the Spirite, let vs also walke in the Spirite.

26 Let vs not be desirous of vaine glorie, prouoking one another, enuying one another.

CHAP. VI.

1 He exhorteth to meekenesse, 2 to beare one another's burdens, 6 to liberalitie, 11 and to constancie in the crosse.

BRethren, if a man be [a] ouertaken in any fault, ye which are spirituall, restore such a one in the spirite of meekenesse, considering thy selfe, lest thou also be tempted.

2 Beare ye one another's burdens, and so fulfill the Lawe of Christ.

3 For if a man thinke himselfe to be [b] some what, when he is nothing, he deceiueth himselfe.

4 But let euery man proue his owne worke, and then shall he haue rejoycing in himselfe alone, and not in another.

5 For euery man shall beare his owne burden.

6 And let him that is taught in the word, communicate vnto him that teacheth, in all goodnesse.

7 Be not deceiued, God is not mocked: for whatsoeuer a man soweth, that shall he reape.

8 For he that soweth to his flesh, shall of the flesh reape corruption: but he that soweth to the Spirite, shall of the Spirite reape life euerlasting.

9 And let vs not be weary in well doing: for in due season we shall reape, if we faint not.

10 As we haue therefore opportunitie, let vs doe good vnto all men, and especially vnto them which are of the houshold of faith.

11 Ye see how large a letter I haue written vnto you with mine owne hand.

12 As many as desire to make a faire shew in the flesh, they constraine you to be circumcised, onely lest they should suffer persecution for the crosse of Christ.

13 For neither they themselues which are circumcised, keepe the Lawe, but they desire to haue you circumcised, that they may reioyce in your flesh.

14 But God forbid that I should reioyce, saue in the crosse of our Lord Iesus Christ, by whom the world is crucified vnto me, and I vnto the world.

15 For in Christ Iesus neither circumcision auaileth any thing, nor vncircumcision, but a new creature.

16 And as many as walke according to this rule, peace be vpon them, and mercie, and vpon the Israel of God.

17 From henceforth let no man trouble me: for I beare in my bodie the [c] print of the Lord Iesus.

a For the Lords cauſe.

I * Therefore, being priſoner in the [a] Lord, pray you that yee walke worthy of the vocation cation whereunto ye are called,

2 With all humblenesse of minde, and meekenesse, with long suffering, supporting one another through loue,

4 There is one [b] body, and one [c] Spirit, euen as yee are called in one hope of your vocation.
5 There is one Lord, one Faith, one Baptisme,

7 * But vnto euery one of vs is giuen grace, according to the measure of the [f] gift of Christ.
8 Wherefore he saith, *When he ascended vp on high, hee [g] led captiuitie captiue, and gaue gifts vnto men.
9 (Nowe, in that he ascended, what is it but that he had also descended first into the lowest partes of the earth?
10 Hee that descended, is euen the same that ascended, farre aboue all heauens, that he might fill [h] all things)
11 * Hee therefore gaue some to be Apostles, and some Prophets, & some Euangelists, and some Pastours, and Teachers,
12 For the [i] gathering together of the Saints, for the worke of the ministerie, [k] and for the edification of the body of Christ,
13 Till wee all meete together (in the vnitie of faith and knowledge of the Sonne of God) vnto a [l] perfect man, and vnto the measure of the age of the fulnesse of Christ,

The Epistle of Paul to the Philippians.

THE ARGVMENT.

PAul being warned by the holy Ghost to goe to Macedonia, planted first a Church at Philippi a citie of the same countrey: but because his charge was to preach the Gospell vniuersally to all the Gentiles, he trauelled from place to place, till at the length he was taken prisoner at Rome: whereof the Philippians beeing aduertised, sent their minister Epaphroditus with relefe vnto him: who declaring him the state of the Church, caused him to write this Epistle, wherein he commendeth them that they stoode manfully against the false apostles, putting them in minde of his good will toward them, and exhorteth them that his imprisonment make them not to shrinke: for the Gospell thereby was confirmed and not diminished: especially he desireth them to flee ambition, and to embrace modestie, promising to send Timotheus vnto them, who should instruct them in matters more amply: yea, and that he himself would also come vnto them, adding likewise the cause of their ministers so long abode. And because there were no greater enemies to the crósse then the false apostles, hee confuteth their false doctrine, by proouing only Christ to be the end of all true religion, with whom we haue al things, and without whom we haue nothing, só that his death is our life, & his resurrection our iustification. After this follow certaine admonitions both particular and generall, with testification of his affection toward them, and thankful accepting of their beneuolence.

3 * I thanke my God, hauing you in perfect memorie,

4 (Alwayes in all my prayers for all you, praying with gladnesse)

5 Because of the b fellowship which yee haue in the Gospell, from the c first day vnto now.

6 And I am perswaded of this same thing, that hee that hath begunne this good worke in you, will perfourme it vntill the d day of Jesus Christ,

7 As it becommeth mee so to iudge of you al, because I haue you in remembrance, e that both in my bandes, and in my defence and confirmation of the Gospel, you al were partakers of my f grace.

8 For God is my record, how I long after you all from the very heart roote in Jesus Christ.

9 And this I pray, that your loue may abound, yet more and more in knowledge, and in all iudgement,

10 That ye may discerne things that differ one from another, that yee may be pure, and g without offence, vntill the day of Christ, 11 Filled with the fruites of h righteousnesse, which are by Jesus Christ vnto the glorie and prayse of God.

12 ¶ I would yee vnderstood, brethren, that the things which haue come vnto mee, are turned rather to the furthering of the Gospel,

13 So that my bands in i Christ are famous throughout all the k iudgement hall, and in all other places, 14 In so much that many of the brethren in the Lord are boldened through my bands, and dare more frankly speake the l worde.

15 Some preach Christ, euen through enuie and strife, and some also of good will.

16 The one part preach Christ of contention and not m purely, supposing to adde more affliction to my bands:

17 But the others of loue, knowing that I am set for the defence of the Gospel.

18 What then? yet Christ is preached all maner of wayes, whether it be n vnder a pretence, or sincerely: and I therein ioy: yea, and will ioy.

19 For I knowe that this shall turne to my saluation, through your prayer, and by the helpe of the Spirit of Jesus Christ, 20 As I heartily looke for, and hope, that in nothing I shalbe ashamed, but that with all confidence, as alwayes, so nowe Christ shalbe magnified in my body, whether it be by life or by death.

21 For Christ is to mee both in life, and in death aduantage.

‖ Or, Christs cause.

22 And whether to o liue in the flesh, were profitable for mee, and what to choose, I know not.

23 For I am greatly in doubt on both sides, desiring to bee loosed and to bee with Christ, which is best of all.

24 Neuertheless, to abide in the ‖ flesh, is more needfull for you.

25 And this am I sure of, that I shall abide, and with you all continue, for your furtherance and ioy of your faith, 26 That ye may more abundantly reioyce in Iesus Christ for mee, by my coming to you againe.

27 * Onely let your conuersation bee, as it becommeth the Gospell of Christ, that whether I come and see you, or els bee absent, I may heare of your matters that yee ‖ continue in one spirit, and in one minde fighting together through the faith of the Gospel.

28 And in nothing feare your aduersaries, which is to them a p token of perdition, and to you of saluation, and q that of God.

2 Fulfill my ioy, that ye be like minded, hauing the same loue, being of one accord, and of one b iudgement,

3 That nothing be done through contention or vaine glory, but that in meekenesse of minde * euery man esteeme other better then himselfe.

4 Looke not euery man on his owne things, but euery man also on the things of other men.

5 Let the same mind be in you that was euen in Christ Iesus,

7 * But he made himselfe of no reputation, and tooke on him the forme of a seruant, and was made like vnto men, and was found in f shape as a man.

25 But I supposed it necessarie to send my brother Epaphroditus vnto you, my companion in labour, and fellow souldier, euen your messenger, and hee that ministred vnto me such things as I wanted.

26 For he longed after all you, and was full of heauinesse, because ye had heard, that he had bene sicke.

27 And no doubt he was sicke, very neere vnto death: but God had mercie on him, and not on him onely, but on me also, least I should haue sorow vpon sorow.

28 I sent him therefore the more diligently, that when ye should see him againe, ye might reioyce, and I might be the lesse sorowfull.

29 Receiue him therefore in the Lorde with all gladnesse, and make much of such:

CHAP. III.

1 He warneth them to beware of false teachers, 3 against whom he setteth Christ, 4 likewise himselfe, 9 and his doctrine, 12 and reproueth mans owne righteousnesse.

MOreouer, my brethren, reioyce in the Lord. It grieueth me not to write [a] the same things to you, and for you it is a sure thing.

2 Beware of [b] dogges: beware of euill workers: beware of the [c] concision.

3 For wee are the circumcision, which worship God in the spirite, and reioyce in Christ Iesus, and haue no confidence [d] in the flesh:

4 Though I might also haue confidence in the flesh. If any other man thinketh that he hath whereof he might trust in the flesh, much more I:

5 Circumcised the eight day, of the kinred of Israel, of the tribe of Beniamin, * an Ebrewe of the Ebrewes, * by the ‖lawe a Pharise.

6 Concerning zeale, I persecuted the Church: touching the righteousnes which is in the Law, I was vnrebukeable.

7 But the things that were vantage vnto me, the same I counted losse for Christes sake.

8 Yea, doubtlesse I thinke all things but losse for the excellent knowledge sake of Christ Iesus my Lorde, for whom I haue counted all thinges losse, and doe iudge them to bee dung, that I might winne Christ,

9 And might bee [e] found in him, that is, not hauing mine owne righteousnesse, which is of the law, but that which is through the faith of Christ, euen the righteousnes which is of God through faith,

10 That I may know him, and the vertue of his resurrection, and the fellowship of his afflictions, and be made conformable vnto his death,

11 If by any meanes I might attaine vnto the [f] resurrection of the dead:

12 [g] Not as though I had already attained to it, either were already perfect: but I followe, if that I may comprehend that for whose sake also I am [h] comprehended of Christ Iesus.

13 Brethren, I count not my selfe, that I haue attained to it, but one thing I doe: I forget that which is behinde, and endeuour my selfe vnto that which is before,

14 And follow hard toward the [i] marke, for the price of the high calling of God in Christ Iesus.

15 Let vs therefore as many as [k] be [l] perfect, be thus minded: and if ye be otherwise minded, God shall reueile euen the [m] same vnto you.

16 Neuertheless, in that whereunto wee are come, let vs proceede by one rule, [x] that we may minde one thing.

17 Brethren, bee followers of mee, and looke on them, which walke so, as yee haue vs for an ensample.

18 * For many walke, of whom I haue told you often, and now tel you weeping, that they are the enemies of the [n] Crosse of Christ, 19 Whose ‖ende is damnation, whose God is their bellie, and whose [o] glory is to their shame, which minde earthly things.

20 But our [p] conuersation is in heauen, from whence also wee looke for the * Sauiour, euen the Lord Iesus Christ, 21 Who shall change our vile body, that it may bee fashioned like vnto his glorious body, according to the working, whereby hee is able euen to subdue all things vnto himselfe.

CHAP. IIII.

1 Hee exhorteth them to be of honest conuersation, 15 And thanketh them, because of the prouision that they made for him being in prison, 21 And so concludeth with salutations.

THerefore, my brethren, beloued and longed for, my ioy and my crowne, so continue in the Lord, ye beloued.

2 I pray Euodias, and beseech Syntiche, that they be of one accord in the Lord.

3 Yea, and I beseech thee, faithfull yokefellowe, helpe those women, which laboured with me in the Gospel, with Clement also, and with other my fellow labourers, whose names are in the * [a] booke of life.

4 Reioyce in the Lord alway, againe I say, reioyce.

5 Let your patient minde be knowen vnto all men. The Lord is [b] at hand.

6 * Be nothing carefull, but in all things let your requestes be shewed vnto God in prayer, and supplication, with giuing of thankes.

7 And the peace of God which passeth all vnderstanding, shall [c] preserue your hearts and mindes in Christ Iesus.

8 Furthermore, brethren, whatsoeuer things are true, whatsoeuer things are honest, whatsoeuer things are iust, whatsoeuer things are pure, whatsoeuer things pertaine to loue, whatsoeuer things are of good report, if there be any vertue, or if there be any prayse, thinke on these things,

9 Which yee haue both learned and receiued, and heard and seene in mee: those things doe, and the God of peace shall be with you.

10 Now I reioyce also in the Lorde greatly, that now at the last ye are [d] reuiued againe to care for mee, wherein notwithstanding ye were careful, but ye lacked opportunitie.

11 I speake not because of [e] want: for I haue learned in whatsoeuer state I am, therewith to be content.

12 And I can be abased, and I can abound: euery where in all things I am instructed both to be full, and to be hungry, and to abound, and to haue want.

13 I am able to doe all things through the helpe of [f] Christ, which strengthened mee.

14 Notwithstanding ye haue well done, that ye did communicate to mine affliction.

15 And ye Philippians know also that in the [g] beginning of the Gospel, when I departed from Macedonia, no Church communicated with mee concerning the [h] matter of giuing and receiuing, but ye onely.

The Epistle of Paul to the Colossians.

THE ARGVMENT.

In this Epistle S. Paul putteth difference betweene the liuely, effectual, & true Christ, & the fained, counterfeit, and imagined Christ, whom the false apostles taught. And first, he confirmeth the doctrine, which Epaphras had preached, wishing them increase of faith, to esteeme y excellency of Gods benefit toward them, teaching them also that saluation, and whatsoeuer good thing can be desired, standeth onely in Christ, whom onely we embrace by the Gospell. But forasmuch as the false brethren would haue mixed the Lawe with the Gospel, he toucheth those flatterers vehemently, and exhorteth the Colossians to stay onely on Christ, without whom all things are but meere vanitie. And as for circumcision, abstinence from meates, externall holinesse, worshipping of Angels as meanes whereby to come to Christ, he vtterly condemneth, shewing what was the office and nature of ceremonies, which by Christ are abrogate: so that now the exercises of the Christians stand in mortification of the flesh, newnesse of life, with other like offices appertaining both generally and particularly to al the faithful.

CHAP. I.

3 He giueth thankes vnto God for their faith, 7 Confirmeth the doctrine of Epaphras, 9 Prayeth for the increase of their faith. 13 He sheweth vnto them the true Christ, and discouereth the counterfeite Christ of the false apostles. 25 He approueth his authoritie and charge, 28 And of his faithfull executing of the same.

PAul an Apostle of IESVS Christ, by the will of God, and Timotheus our brother,

2 To them which are at a Colosse, Saints and faithfull brethren in Christ: Grace bee with you, and peace from God our Father, and from the Lord Jesus Christ.

3 We giue thankes to God euen the Father of our Lorde Jesus Christ, alwayes praying for you:

4 Since we heard of your faith b in Christ Jesus, and of your loue toward all Saints,

5 For the hopes sake, which is laid vp for you in heauen, whereof ye haue heard before by the word of trueth, which is the Gospell,

6 Which is come vnto you, euen as it is vnto all the worlde, and is fruitfull, as it is also among you, from the day that yee heard and truely knew the grace of God,

7 As yee also learned of Epaphras our deare fellowe seruant, which is for you a faithfull minister of Christ:

8 Who hath also declared vnto vs your loue, which ye haue c by the Spirit.

9 For this cause wee also, since the day we heard of it, cease not to pray for you, and to desire that yee might be fulfilled with knowledge of d his will, in all wisedome, and spirituall vnderstanding,

10 * That ye might walke worthy of the Lorde, and please him in all things, being *fruitfull in all good workes, and increasing in the knowledge of God,

13 Who hath deliuered vs from e power of darkenesse, and hath translated vs into the kingdome * of his deare Sonne,

The first Epistle of Paul to the Thessalonians.

THE ARGVMENT.

After that the Thessalonians had bene well instructed in the faith, persecution (which perpetually followeth the preaching of the Gospell) arose, against the which although they did constantly stand, yet S. Paul (as most careful for them) sent Timothie to strengthen them, who soone after admonishing him of their estate, gaue occasion to the Apostle to confirme them by diuers arguments to be constant in faith, and to suffer whatsoeuer God calleth them vnto for the testimonie of the Gospel, exhorting them to declare by their godly liuing the puritie of their religion. And as the Church can neuer be so purged, that some cockle remaine not among the wheate, so there were among them wicked men, which by mouing vaine and curious questions to ouerthrowe their faith, taught falsely, as touching the poynt of the resurrection from the dead: whereof hee briefly instructeth them what to thinke, earnestly forbidding them to seeke curiously to knowe the times, willing them rather to watch, lest the sudden comming of Christ come vpon them at vnawares: and so after certaine exhortations, and his commendations to the brethren, he endeth.

CHAP. I.

1 He thanketh God for them, that they are so stedfast in faith and good workes, 6 And receiue the Gospell with such earnestnes, 7 That they are an example to all others.

PAul and Siluanus, and Timotheus, vnto the Church of the Thessalonians, which is in [a] God the Father, and in the Lord Iesus Christ: Grace be with you, and peace from God our father, and from the Lord Iesus Christ.

2 *We giue God thankes alwayes for you all, *making mention of you in our prayers

3 Without ceasing, remembring your [b] effectual faith, and [c] diligent loue, and the patience of your hope in our Lorde Iesus Christ, in ỹ sight of God euen our Father,

4 Knowing, beloued brethren, that yee are elect of God.

5 For our [d] Gospell was not vnto you in worde onely, but also in power, and in the holy Ghost, and in much assurance, as ye knowing after what maner wee were among you for your sakes.

6 And ye became followers of vs, and of the Lord, and receiued the word in much affliction, with [e] ioy of the holy Ghost,

7 So that ye were as ‖ensamples to all that beleeue in Macedonia and Achaia.

8 For from you sounded out the worde of the Lorde, not in Macedonia and in Achaia onely: but your faith also which is towarde God, spread abroad in all quarters, that wee neede not to speake any thing.

9 For [f] they themselues shewe of you what maner of entring in wee had vnto you, and how yee turned to God from idoles, to serue the liuing and true God,

10 And to looke for his Sonne from heauen, whome he raysed from the dead, euen Iesus which deliuereth vs from ỹ [h] wrath to come.

b Which declareth it selfe by most liuely fruites.

c Whereby you declared your selues most ready and painefull to helpe the poore.

d The effectuall preaching of the Gospel is an euident token of our election.

e To beleeue, and to be fully perswaded to haue the giftes of the holy Ghost, and ioyfully to suffer for Christes sake, are most certaine signes of our election.

‖Or, patternes.

FOr ye your selues knowe, brethren, that our entrance in vnto you was not in [a] vaine,

2 But euen after that wee had suffered before, and were shamefully intreated at *[‖]Philippi (as ye know) wee were bold [b] in our God, to speake vnto you the Gospel of God with much striuing.

3 For our exhortation was not by deceit, nor by vncleannesse, nor by guile.

4 But as we were allowed of God, that the Gospell should be committed vnto vs, so wee speake, not as they that [c] please men, but God, which trieth our hearts.

5 Neither yet did we euer vse flattering wordes, as ye knowe, nor coloured couetousnesse, God is record.

6 Neither sought we praise of men, neither of you, nor of others,

7 When wee might haue bene ‖chargeable, as the Apostles of Christ: but wee were gentle among you, euen as a [d] nource cherisheth her children.

8 Thus being affectioned toward you, our good will was to haue dealt vnto you, not the Gospell of God onely, but also our owne soules, because ye were deare vnto vs.

9 For ye remember, brethren, *our labour and trauaile: for we laboured day and night, because we would not be chargeable vnto any of you, and preached vnto you the Gospel of God.

10 Ye are witnesses, and God also, how holily, & iustly, and vnblameably wee behaued our selues among [e] you that beleeue.

11 As ye knowe how that wee exhorted you, and comforted, and besought euery one of you (as a father his children)

12 That yee* would walke worthie of God, who hath called you vnto his kingdome and glory.

13 For this cause also thanke wee God without ceasing, that when yee receiued of vs the worde of the preaching of God, yee receiued it not as the worde of men, but as it is in deede the worde of God, which also worketh in you that beleeue.

14 For brethren, ye are become followers of the Churches of God, which in Iudea are in [f] Christ Iesus, because yee haue also suffered the same things of your owne

16 And forbid vs to preach vnto the Gentiles, that they might be saued, to [b] fulfill their sinnes alwayes: for the wrath of God is [i] come on them, to the vtmost.
17 Forasmuch, brethren, as wee were kept frō you for a season, concerning sight, but not in the heart, we * enforced the more to see your face with great desire.
18 Therefore we would haue come vnto you (I Paul, at least once or twise) but Satan hindred vs.

CHAP. III.

2 Hee sheweth how greatly hee was affectioned towarde them, both in that he sent Timotheus to them, 10 And also prayed for them.

WHerefore since wee coulde no longer forbeare, we thought it good to remaine at Athens [a] alone,
2 * And haue sent Timotheus our brother and minister of God, & our labour fellow in the Gospel of Christ, to stablish you, and to comfort you touching your faith,
3 That no man should be moued with these afflictions: for ye your selues knowe, that we are appointed thereunto.
4 For verily when wee were with you, we tolde you before that wee shoulde suffer tribulations, euen as it came to passe, and ye knowe it.
5 Euen for this cause, when [b] I coulde no longer forbeare, I sent him that I might knowe of your faith, least the [c] tempter had tempted you in any sort, and that our labour had bene in vaine.
6 But nowe lately when Timotheus came from you vnto vs, and brought vs good tidings of your faith & loue, and that ye haue good remembrance of vs alwayes, desiring to see vs, as we also doe you,
7 Therefore, brethren, we had consolation in you, in all our affliction, and necessitie through your faith.
8 For now are we [d] alive, if ye [e] stand fast in the Lord.
9 For what thankes can we recompense to GOD again for you, for all the ioy wherewith wee reioyce for your sakes before our God,
10 Night and day * praying exceedingly that we might see your face, and might [f] accomplish that which is lacking in your faith?
11 Nowe God himselfe, euen our Father, and our Lord Iesus Christ, guide our iourney vnto you,
12 And the Lord increase you, and make you abound in loue one towarde another, and towarde all men, euen as wee doe toward you:
13 * To make your heartes stable, and vnblameable in holinesse before God euen our Father, at the comming of our Lorde Iesus Christ with all his Saints.

AND furthermore wee beseech you, brethren, and exhort you in the Lorde Iesus, that [a] yee increase more and more, as yee haue receiued of vs, how yee ought to walke, and to please God.
2 For yee knowe what [b] commaundements we gaue you by the Lord Iesus.
3 * For this is the wil of God euen your sanctification, [c] and that ye should abstaine from fornication, 14 For if we beleeue that Iesus is dead, and is risen, euen so them which sleepe in [k] Iesus, will God bring with him.

15 For this say wee vnto you by the [m] worde of the Lorde, * that we which liue, and are remayning in the comming of the Lord, shall not preuent them which sleepe.
16 For the Lord himselfe shall descende from heauen with a shoute, and with the voyce of the Archangell, * and with the trumpet of God: and the dead in Christ shall rise first.

CHAP. V.

1 He foremeth them of the day of iudgement and comming of the Lorde, 6 Exhorting them to watch, 12 And to regarde such as preach Gods word among them.

BVt of the a times and seasons, brethren, ye haue no neede that I write vnto you.

2 For yee your selues knowe perfectly, that the * day of the Lorde shall come, euen as a thiefe in the night.

3 For when they shall say, Peace, & safetie, then shall come vpon them sudden destruction, as the b trauaile vpon a woman with childe, and they shall not escape.

4 But ye, brethren, are not in darkenes, that that day shoulde come on you, as it were a thiefe.

5 Ye are all the children of light, and the children of the day: we are not of the night, neither of darkenesse.

6 Therefore let vs not c sleepe as doe other, but let vs d watch and be sober.

7 For they that sleepe, sleepe in the night, and they that bee drunken, are drunken in the night.

8 But let vs which are of ‖ e day, be sober, * putting on the brestplate of faith and loue, & the hope of saluation for an helmet.

9 For God hath not appointed vs vnto wrath, but to obteine saluation by the meanes of our Lord Iesus Christ.

10 Which died for vs, that whether we wake or sleepe, wee shoulde liue together with him.

11 Wherefore exhort one another, and edifie one another, euen as ye doe.

12 Now we beseech you, brethren, that ye knowe them, which labour among you, and are ouer you in the Lord, and g admonish you,

13 That ye haue them in singular loue for h their workes sake. Be at peace among your selues.

14 Wee desire you brethren, admonish them that are vnruly: comfort the feeble minded: beare with the weake: be patient toward all men.

15 * See that none recompence euill for euill vnto any man: but euer followe that which is good, both towarde your selues, and toward all men.

The first Epistle vnto the Thessalonians written from Athens.

The second Epistle of Paul to the Thessalonians.

THE ARGVMENT.

LEast the Thessalonians should thinke that Paul neglected them, because hee went to other places rather then came to them, he writeth vnto them, and exhorteth them to patience and other fruits of faith, neither to be moued with that vaine opinion of such as taught that the comming of Christ was at hand, forasmuch as before that day there should be a falling away from true religion, euen by a great part of the world, and that Antichrist should reigne in the Temple of God: finally commending himselfe to their prayers, and encouraging them to constancie, he willeth them to correct such sharpely, as liue idely of other mens labours, whom, if they doe not obey his admonitions, he commandeth to excommunicate.

CHAP. I.

3 He thanketh God for their faith, loue, & patience. 11 He prayeth for the increase of the same, 12 And sheweth what fruit shall come thereof.

PAul and Siluanus, and Timotheus vnto the Church of the Thessalonians, which is in God our Father, and in the Lord Iesus Christ:

The first Epistle of Paul to Timotheus.

THE ARGVMENT.

IN writing this Epistle, Paul seemed not only to haue respect to teach Timotheus, but chiefly to keepe other in awe, which would haue rebelled against him, because of his youth. And therefore he doeth arme him against those ambitious questionists, which vnder pretence of zeale to the Lawe, disquieted the godly with foolish and vnprofitable questions, whereby they declared, that professing the Law, they knew not what was the chiefe end of the Law. And as for himselfe, hee so confesseth his vnworthinesse, that he sheweth to what worthinesse the grace of God hath preferred him: and therefore hee willeth prayers to be made for all degrees and sorts of men, because that God by offring his Gospel and Christ his Sonne to them all, is indifferent to euery sort of men, as his Apostleship, which is peculiar to the Gentiles, witnesseth. And for as much as God hath left ministers as ordinarie meanes in his Church to bring men to saluation, he describeth what maner of men they ought to be, to whom the mysterie of the Sonne of God manifested in flesh is committed to bee preached. After this hee sheweth him what troubles the Church at all times shall sustaine, but specially in the latter dayes, when as vnder pretence of religion, men shall teach things contrary to the word of God. This done, he teacheth what widowes should be receiued or refused to minister to the sicke: also what Elders ought to be chosen into office, exhorting him neither to be hastie in admitting, nor in iudging any: also what is the duetie of seruants, the nature of false teachers, of vaine speculations, of couetousnesse, of rich men, and aboue all things he chargeth him to beware of false doctrine.

CHAP. I.

3 Hee exhorteth Timotheus to waite vpon his office, namely to see that nothing bee taught but Gods word, &c. 5 Declaring that faith, with a good conscience, charitie, and edification are the ende thereof, 20 And admonisheth of Hymeneus and Alexander.

PAul an Apostle of Iesus Christ, by the ‖ commaundement of God our Sauiour, and of our Lord Iesus Christ * our hope,

2 * Vnto Timotheus my [a] naturall sonne in the faith: Grace, mercie, and peace from God our Father, and from Christ Iesus our Lord.

3 As I besought thee to abide still in Ephesus, when I departed into Macedonia, so doe, that thou mayest commaund some, that they teach none other doctrine,

4 Neither that they giue heede to * fables and genealogies, * which are endlesse, which breede questions rather then godly edifying which is by faith.

5 For * the [b] ende of the ‖ commaundement is loue out of a pure heart, and of a good conscience, and of faith vnfained.

6 From the which things some haue erred, and haue turned vnto vaine iangling.

7 They would be Doctors of the Lawe, and yet vnderstand not what they speake, neither whereof they affirme.

8 *And we know that the Lawe is good, if a man vse it lawfully,

9 Knowing this, that the Law is not giuen vnto a [c] righteous man, but vnto the lawlesse and disobedient, to the vngodly, and to [d] sinners, to the vnholy, and to the prophane, to murtherers of fathers and mothers, to manslayers, b Because these questionists preferred their curious fables to al other knowledge, and beautified them with the Lawe, as if they had bene the very Lawe of God, S. 14 But the grace of our Lord was exceeding abundant with h faith and i loue, which is in Christ Iesus.

15 This is a ‖true saying, & by all meanes worthie to bee receiued, that * Christ Iesus came into the world to saue sinners, of whom I am chiefe.

16 Notwithstanding, for this cause was I receiued to mercie, that Iesus Christ should first shewe on mee all long suffering vnto the ensample of them, which shall in time to come beleeue in him vnto eternall life.

The ii. Epistle of Paul to Timotheus.

THE ARGVMENT.

THe Apostle being now ready to confirme that doctrine with his blood, which he had professed & taught, encourageth Timotheus (and in him all the faithfull) in the faith of the Gospell, and in the the constant and sincere confession of the same: willing him not to shrinke for feare of afflictions, but patiently to attend the issue, as doe husbandmen, which at length receiue the fruites of their labours, and to cast off all feare and care, as souldiers do which seeke only to please their captaine: shewing him briefly the summe of the Gospel, which he preached, commaunding him to preach the same to others, diligently taking heede of contentions, curious disputations, and vaine questions, to the intent that his doctrine may altogether edifie. Considering that the examples of Hymeneus and Philetus, which subuerted the true doctrine of the resurrection, were so horrible: and yet to the intent that no man should be offended at their fall, being men of authoritie and in estimation, hee sheweth that all that professe Christ are not his, and that the Church is subiect to this calamitie, that the euill must dwell among the good till Gods triall come: yet hee reserueth them whome hee hath elected, euen to the ende. And that Timotheus should not be discouraged by the wicked, hee declareth what abominable men, and dangerous times shall followe, willing him to arme himselfe with the hope of the good issue that God wil giue vnto his, and to exercise himselfe diligently in the Scriptures, both against the aduersaries, and and for the vtilitie of the Church, desiring him to come to him for certaine necessarie affaires, and so with his and others salutations endeth.

CHAP. I.

6 Paul exhorteth Timotheus to stedfastnes and patience in persecution, and to continue in the doctrine, that hee had taught him, 12 Whereof his bonds and afflictions were a gage. 16 A commendation of Onesiphorus.

PAul an Apostle of Iesus Christ, by the wil of God, a according to the promise of life, which is in Christ Iesus,

2 To Timotheus my beloued sonne: Grace, mercy and peace from God the Father, and from Iesus Christ our Lord.

3 I thanke God, * whome I serue from mine b elders with pure conscience, that without ceasing I haue remembrance of thee in my prayers night and day,

4 Desiring to see thee, mindefull of thy teares, that I may be filled with ioy:

5 When I call to remembrance the vnfeined faith that is in thee, which dwelt first in thy grandmother Lois, and in thy mother Eunice, and am assured that it dwelleth in thee also.

6 Wherefore, I put thee in remembrance, that thou c stirre vp the gift of God which is in thee, by the putting on of d mine hands.

7 For God hath not giuen to vs the Spirit of e feare, but of power, and of loue, and of a sound minde.

8 Be not therefore ashamed of the testimonie of our Lorde, neither of me his prisoner: but be partaker of the afflictions of the Gospel, according to the power of God,

9 Who hath saued vs and called vs with an * holy calling, not according to our * workes, but according to his owne purpose and grace, which was giuen to vs through Christ Iesus before the * world was,

10 But is nowe made manifest by the f appearing of our Sauiour Iesus Christ, who hath abolished death, & hath brought life and immortalitie vnto light through the Gospel.

11 *Whereunto I am appointed a preacher, and Apostle, and a teacher of the Gentiles.

12 For the which cause I also suffer these things, but I am not ashamed: for I know whome I haue beleeued, and I am perswaded that hee is able to keepe that which I haue g committed to him against that day.

13 Keepe the true patterne of the wholesome wordes, which thou hast heard of mee in faith and loue which is in Christ Iesus.

14 That h worthy thing, which was committed to thee, keepe through the holy Ghost, which dwelleth in vs.

15 This thou knowest, that all they which are in Asia, be turned from mee: of which sort are Phygellus and Hermogenes.

16 The Lord giue mercy vnto the house of Onesiphorus: for hee oft refreshed mee, and was not ashamed of my chaine.

17 But when he was at Rome, he sought me out very diligently, and found me.

18 The Lord grant vnto him, that he may finde mercy with the Lord at that day, & in how many things hee hath ministred vnto me at Ephesus, thou knowest very well.

CHAP. II.

1 Hee exhorteth him to be constant in trouble, to suffer manly, and to abide fast in the wholesome doctrine of our Lord Iesus Christ, 11 Shewing him the fidelitie of Gods counsel touching the saluation of his, 19 And the marke thereof.

THou therefore, my sonne, be strong in the grace that is in Christ Iesus.

2 And what things thou hast heard of me, ‖ by many witnesses, the same deliuer to faithful men, which shalbe able to * teach other also.

3 Thou therefore suffer affliction as a good souldier of Iesus Christ.

4 No man that warreth, entangleth him selfe with b the affaires of this life, because he would please him that hath chosen him to be a souldier.

5 And if any man also striue for a masterie, he is not crowned, except he striue as he ought to doe.

6 The husbandman c must labour before he receiue the fruites.

7 Consider what I say: and the Lorde giue thee vnderstanding in all things.

8 Remember that Iesus Christ made of the seede of Dauid, was raised againe from the dead according to my Gospel:

9 Wherein I suffer trouble as an euill doer, euen vnto bonds: but the worde of God is not d bound.

10 There-

10 Therefore I suffer all things, for the * e elects sake, that they might also obtaine the salvation which is in Christ Jesus, with eternall glory.

11 It is a true saying, For if we be * dead with him, we also shall live with him.

12 If we suffer, we shall also reigne with him: * if we denie him, he also will denie vs.

13 * If we beleeve not, yet abideth hee faithfull: he cannot denie himselfe.

14 Of these things put them in remembrance, and protest before the Lorde, that they strive not about wordes, which is to no profite, but to the perverting of the hearers.

15 Studie to shewe thy selfe approoved vnto God, a workeman that needeth not to be ashamed, f dividing the worde of trueth aright.

17 And their word shal fret as a canker: of which sort is Hymeneus and Philetus, 19 But the foundation of God remaineth sure, and hath this seale, g The Lorde knoweth who are his, and, Let every one that calleth on the Name of Christ, depart from iniquitie.

20 Notwithstanding in a h great house are not onely vessels of golde and of silver, but also of wood and of earth, and some for honour, and some vnto dishonour.

21 If any man therefore purge himselfe from i these, he shalbe a vessel vnto honour, sanctified, and meete for the Lorde, and prepared vnto every good worke.

22 Flee also from the lustes of youth, and follow after righteousnesse, faith, love, and peace, with them that * call on the Lord with pure heart.

¶ The Epistle of Paul to Titus.

THE ARGVMENT.

WHen Titus was left in Creta to finish that doctrine which Paul had there begunne, Satan stirred vp certaine which went about not onely to ouerthrowe the gouernement of the Church, but also to corrupt the doctrine: for some by ambition woulde haue thrust in themselues to be pastours: others, vnder pretext of Moses Lawe brought in many trifles. Against these two sortes of men Paul armeth Titus: first teaching him what maner of ministers he ought to choose, chiefly requiring that they be men of sound doctrine, to the intent they might resist the aduersaries, and amongs other things hee noteth the Iewes which put a certaine holinesse in meates and such outwarde ceremonies, teaching them which are the true exercises of a christian life, and what things appertaine to euery mans vocation. Against the which if any man rebell or else doeth not obey, he willeth him to be auoyded.

CHAP. I.

5 He aduertiseth Titus touching the gouernement of the Church. 7 The orainance and effice of ministers. 12 The nature of the Cretians and of them which sowe abroad Iewish fables and inuentions of men.

THE

The Epistle of Paul to Philemon.

THE ARGVMENT.

Albeit the excellencie of Pauls spirit woonderfully appeareth in other his Epistles, yet this Epistle is a great witnesse, and a declaration of the same. For farre passing the baseneſſe of his matter, he flieth as it were vp to heauen, and speaketh with a diuine grace and maiestie. Onesimus seruant to Philemon both robbed his master, and fled away, whom Paul hauing woon to Christ, sent againe to his master, earnestly begging his pardon, with most weightie arguments prooving the duetie of one Christian to another, and so with salutations endeth.

4 He reioyceth to heare of the faith and loue of Philemon, 9 whom he desireth to forgiue his seruant Onesimus, and louingly to receiue him againe.

PAul a prisoner of Iesus Christ, and our brother Timotheus, vnto Philemon our deare friend and fellow helper,

2 And to our deare sister Apphia, and to Archippus our fellow souldier, and to the Church that is in thine house:

3 Grace bee with you, and peace from God our Father, and from the Lord Iesus Christ.

1. Thes. 1. 2. 2. thes. 1. 3.

4 I * giue thanks to my God, making mention alwayes of thee in my prayers,

5 (When I heare of thy loue and faith, which thou hast toward the Lorde Iesus, and toward all Saints)

6 That the [a] fellowship of thy faith may be made fruitfull, and that whatsoeuer good thing is in you [b] through Christ Iesus, may be knowen.

7 For wee haue great ioy and consolation in thy loue, because by thee, brother, the Saints [c] hearts are comforted.

8 Wherefore, though I be very bolde in Christ to commande thee that which is conuenient, 9 Yet for loues sake I rather beseech thee, though I be as I am, euen Paul aged, and euen nowe a prisoner for Iesus Christ.

10 I beseech thee for my sonne * Onesimus, whom I haue begotten in my bonds,

11 Which in time past was to thee vnprofitable, but nowe profitable both to thee and to me,

12 Whom I haue sent againe: thou therefore receiue him, that is mine owne bowels,

13 Whom I would haue retained with me, that in thy steade hee might haue ministred vnto me in the bonds of the Gospel.

14 But without thy minde would I doe nothing, that thy benefite should not be as it were of necessitie, but willingly.

15 It may be that he therefore [d] departed for a season, that thou shouldest receiue him for euer, 16 [e] Not nowe as a seruant, but aboue a seruant, euen as a brother beloued, specially to mee: howe much more then vnto thee, both in the flesh, and in the Lord?

17 If therefore thou count our things [f] common, receiue him as my selfe.

18 If hee hath hurt thee, or oweth thee ought, that put on mine accounts.

19 I Paul haue written this with mine owne hand: I will recompense it, albeit I doe not say to thee, that thou owest vnto me euen thine owne selfe.

20 Yea, brother, let me obtaine this pleasure of thee in the Lord: comfort my [g] bowels in the Lord.

21 Trusting in thine obedience, I wrote vnto thee, knowing that thou wilt doe euen more then I say.

22 Moreouer also prepare me lodging: for I trust through your prayers I shalbe giuen vnto you.

23 There salute thee Epaphras my fellowe prisoner [h] in Christ Iesus, 24 Marcus, Aristarchus, Demas, and Luke, my fellowe helpers.

25 The grace of our Lorde Iesus Christ be with your spirit, Amen.

Written from Rome to Philemon, and sent by Onesimus a seruant.

a Thy beneuolence toward the Saints, which proceedeth of a liuely and effectuall faith.

b That experience may declare that you are the members of Iesus Christ.

c Meaning, their inward parts and affections were through his charitie comforted. Coloss. 4. 9.

d He fled away from thee.

e For he is thy seruant by condition, and also now the Lords: so that both for thine owne sake and for the Lords, thou oughtest to loue him.

f That all thine is mine, and all mine is thine.

g Graunt me this benefite, which shalbe most acceptable vnto me of all others.

h That is, for Christes cause.

The Epistle to the Hebrewes.

THE ARGVMENT.

Forasmuch as diuers, both of the Greeke writers and Latines witnesse, that the writer of this Epistle for iust causes would not haue his name knowen, it were curiositie of our part to labour much therein. For seeing the Spirit of God is the authour thereof, it diminisheth nothing the authoritie, although we knowe not with what penne he wrote it. Whether it were Paul (as it is not like) or Luke, or Barnabas, or Clement, or some other, his chiefe purpose is to perswade vnto the Hebrewes (whereby he principally meaneth them that abode at Ierusalem, and vnder them all the rest of the Iewes) that Christ Iesus was not onely the redeemer, but also that at his comming all ceremonies must haue an ende: forasmuch as his doctrine was the conclusion of all the Prophecies, and therefore not onely Moses was inferior to him, but also the Angels: for they all were seruants, and he the Lord, but so Lorde, that he hath also taken our flesh, and is made our brother to assure vs of our saluation through himselfe: for he is that eternall Priest, whereof all the Leuiticall Priestes wee but shadowes, and therefore at his comming they ought to cease, & all sacrifices for sinne to be abolished, as he proueth from the 7. Chap. vers. 11. vnto the 12. Chap. verse 18. Also he was that Prophet of whome all the Prophets in time past witnessed, as is declared from the 12. Chap. verse 18. to the twentie and fiue verse of the same Chapter: yea, and is the king to whom all things are subiect, as appeareth from that vers. 25. to the beginning of the last Chapter, Wherefore according to the examples of the old fathers, we must constantly stantly beleeue in him, that being sanctified by his iustice, taught by his wisdome, and gouerned by his power, we may stedfastly and couragiously perseuere euen to the end, in hope of that ioy that is set before our eyes, occupying our selues in Christian exercises, that we may both be thankefull to God, and ductifull to our neighbour.

CHAP. I.

1 He sheweth the excellencie of Christ 4 aboue the Angels, 7 and of their office.

AT sundry times and in diuers maners a God spake in the old time to our Fathers by the Prophets:

2 In these b last dayes hee hath spoken vnto vs by his Sonne, whome he hath made heire of all things, c by whom also he made the d worlds,

3 * Who being the brightnes of the glory, and the e ingraued forme of his person, and bearing vp all things by his mightie word, hath by himselfe f purged our sinnes, and sitteth at the right hand of the maiestie in the highest places,

4 And is made so much more excellent then the g Angels, inasmuch as he hath obteined a more excellent name then they.

5 For vnto which of the Angels said hee at any time, * Thou art my Sonne, h this day begate I thee? and againe, I * will be his Father, and he shalbe my Sonne?

6 And againe when hee bringeth in his first begotten Sonne into the worlde, hee saith, * And let all the Angels of God worship him.

7 And of the Angels he sayth, * He maketh the i Spirits his messengers, and his ministers a flame of fire.

8 But vnto the sonne he sayth, * O God, thy throne is for euer and euer: the k scepter of thy kingdome is a scepter of righteousnesse.

9 Thou hast loued righteousnesse, and hated iniquitie. Wherefore God, euen thy God, hath l anoynted thee with the oyle of gladnesse aboue thy fellowes.

10 And, * Thou, Lord, in the beginning hast established the earth, and the heauens are the workes of thine hands.

11 They shall perish, * but thou dooest remaine: and they all shall waxe olde as doth a garement.

12 And as a vesture shalt thou fold them vp, and they shall be changed: but thou art the same, and thy yeeres shall not faile.

13 Vnto which also of the Angels sayde he at any time, * Sit at my right hand, till I make thine enemies thy footestoole?

14 Are they not all ministring spirites, sent forth to minister, for their sakes which shall be heires of saluation?

a God, who is euer constant, and mercifull to his Church, declared his will in time past, not all at once, or after one sort, but from time to time and in sundrie sorts: but now last of all he hath fully declared all truth to vs by his Sonne.

b So that now we may not credite any newe reuelations after him.

c He intreateth here of Christ, both as touching his person, which is very God and very man, by whom all things are made, and also as touching his office, whereby he is King, Prophet, and Priest. Wisd. 7.26. Colos. 1.15.

d The liuely image & patterne, so that he that seeth him, seeth the father, John 14.9. for else the person of the father is not seene, but apprehended by faith.

e So that our sinnes can be purged by none other meanes.

f Much more then, then all other things created.

Tsal. 2.7. chap. 5.5. act. 13.33. g Because he was at the time appointed, declared to the world. 2. Sam. 7.14. 1. Chro. 22.10. Psal. 87.7. Psal. 104.4. h Hee compareth the Angels to the windes, which are here beneath as Gods messengers. Psal. 45.6,7. i The administration of thy kingdome is iust. k This is meant in that that the word is made flesh, and that the holy Ghost was powred on him without measure, that we may all receiue of him euery one according to his measure. Psal. 102.25. Psal. 110.1. mat. 22.44. 1. cor. 15.25. chap. 10.12.

CHAP. II.

1 He exhorteth vs to be obedient vnto the newe Lawe which Christ hath giuen vs, 9 And not to be offended at the infirmitie and lowe degree of Christ, 10 Because it was necessarie that for our sakes hee shoulde take such an humble state vpon him, that he might be like vnto his brethren.

WHerefore we ought diligently to giue heede to the things which wee haue heard, least at any a time we should let them slip.

2 For if the b word spoken by Angels was stedfast, and euery transgression, and disobedience receiued a iust recompence of reward,

3 Howe shall we escape, if we neglect so c great saluation, which at the first begonne to be preached by the Lord, and afterward was confirmed vnto vs by d them that heard him,

4 * God bearing witnesse thereto, both with signes and wonders, and with diuers miracles and giftes of the holy Ghost, according to his owne will?

5 For hee hath not put in subiection vnto the Angels the e world to come, whereof we speake.

6 But * one in a certaine place witnessed, saying, f What is man, that thou shouldest bee mindefull of him? or the sonne of man that thou wouldest consider him?

7 Thou madest him a little inferiour to the Angels; thou crownedst him with s glorie and honour, and hast set him aboue the workes of thine hands.

8 * Thou hast put all things in subiection vnder his feete. And in that hee hath put all things in subiection vnder him, hee left nothing that should not be subiect vnto him. h But we yet see not all things subdued vnto i him.

9 But we see Iesus k crowned with glorie and honour, which was made a little inferiour to the Angels, through the suffering of death, that by Gods grace he might taste death for all men.

10 For it became him, for whome are all things, and by whom are all things, seeing that he brought many children vnto glory, that hee should consecrate the l Prince of their saluation through m afflictions.

11 For hee that sanctifieth, and they which are sanctified, are all n of one: wherefore hee is not ashamed to call them brethren, 12 Saying, * I will declare thy Name vnto my o brethren: in the middes of the Church will I sing prayses to thee.

a Wee must diligently keepe in memorie the doctrine, which we haue learned, lest like vessels full of chaps we leake, and runne out on euery part.

b Which was the Lawe giuen to Moses by the hands of Angels, Galat. 3.19. Actes 7.53.

c As the Gospel is, which onely offereth saluation.

d That is, the Apostles. Marke 16.20.

e Which Esai calleth the newe heauens, and the newe earth, Chap. 65.17. Whereof Christ is the Father, Isa. 9.6. that is, the head of vs his members. Tsal. 8.4.

f He speaketh here chiefly of the faithfull, which are made through Christ, citizens of the world to come, where they shall enioy with their prince all these things which nowe they haue onely but in part.

g In making him fellow heire with Christ. Matt. 28.18. 1. cor. 15.27. philip. 2.9,10,11. h To them which obiect, that they see not these things accomplished in man, the Apostle answereth that they are fulfilled in Christ our captaine, who leadeth him to the same glory with him. i To man, as he is of Christ, k By his vertue which most manifestly appeareth in the Church. l Iesus Christ by humbling himselfe, and taking vpon him the forme of a seruant, which was our flesh, and mortalitie, giueth vs assurance of our saluation. m Therefore wee by afflictions are made like to the Sonne of God. n The head and the members are of one nature: so Christ which sanctifieth vs, and wee that are sanctified, are all one by the vnion of our flesh, Psal. 22.22, o This proceedeth Christes humanitie.

13 And againe, * I will put my p trust in him. And againe, * q Beholde, here am I, and the children, which God hath giuen me.

14 Forasmuch then as the children were partakers of flesh and blood, hee also himselfe likewise tooke part with them, that hee might destroy * through death, him that had the power of death, that is the deuill,

15 And that hee might deliuer all them, which for feare of r death were all their life time subiect to bondage.

16 For hee in no sort tooke the s Angels, but he tooke the seede of Abraham.

17 Wherefore t in all things it became him to be made like vnto his brethren, that hee might be mercifull, and a faithfull high Priest in things concerning God, that hee might make reconciliation for the sinnes of the people.

18 For in that hee u suffered, and was tempted, hee is able to succour them that are tempted.

p Psal. 18.2. Meaning, that Christ touching his humanitie put his trust in God. Isa. 8.18.

q Isai speaketh this of himselfe & his disciples, but properly it is applied to Christ the head of all ministers. Hose. 13.14. 1. cor. 15.55.

r And Gods anger.

s Not the nature of Angels but of man.

t Not onely as touching nature but also qualities, onely sinne except.

u Forasmuch as he is exercised in our miseries, we may be assured, that at all times in our tentations he will succour vs.

CHAP. III.

a Hee requireth them to bee obedient vnto the worde of Christ, 3 Who is more worthie then Moses. 12 The punishment of such as will harden their hearts, and not beleeue, that they might haue eternall rest.

WHerefore, holy brethren, partakers of the heauenly vocation, a consider the Apostle and high Priest of our b profession, Christ Iesus:

2 Who was faithfull to him that hath appointed c him, euen as * Moses was in all his house.

3 For this man is counted worthie of more glorie then Moses, in as much as hee which hath builded the house, d hath more honour then the house.

4 For euery house is builded of some man, e he y hath built all things, is e God.

5 Now Moses verily was faithfull in all his house, as a seruant, for a witnesse of the things which should be spoken after.

6 But Christ is as the Sonne, ouer his owne house, whose f house we are, if wee holde fast the confidence, and the reioycing of the hope vnto the end.

7 Wherefore, as the holy Ghost sayeth, * To day if ye shall heare his voyce,

8 Harden not your heartes, as in the g prouocation, according to the day of the tentation in the wildernesse.

9 Where your fathers tempted me, proued me, and saw my workes fourtie yeres long.

10 Wherefore I was grieued with that generation, and saide, They erre euer in their heart, neither haue they knowen my wayes.

11 Therefore I sware in my wrath, h If they shall enter into my rest.

a Take heede to his words and receiue him.

b Of that doctrine which we beleeue, and ought to confesse.

c To be the Ambassadour and the Priest. Numb. 12.7.

d Moses was but part of the house, that is, of the Church whereof the pastors are the liuely stones, but Christ builded it, and layde the stones: therefore he deserueth more praise.

e That is, Christ: for Christ is the foundation, and head of his Church: he is our brother, and Lord: he is the Sonne of God, and very God working all things by his owne power.

f For in obeying the Sonne, wee are made the house of God. Psal. 95.7,8. chap. 4.7.

g As when ye prouoked Gods anger in Massa and Meriba, Exod. 17.7.

h Meaning by this othe, that they should not enter.

12 Take heede, brethren, lest at any time there be in any of you an euill heart, and vnfaithfull, to depart away from the liuing God.

13 But exhort one another daily, while it is called * To day, least any of you be hardened through the deceitfulnesse of sinne.

14 For we are made partakers of Christ, if we keepe sure vnto the i ende the ‖ beginning, wherewith we are vpholden, 15 So long as it is saide, * To day if yee heare his voyce, harden not your hearts, as in the prouocation.

16 For some when they heard, prouoked k him to anger: howbeit, not all that came out of Egypt by Moses.

17 But with whome was he displeased fourtie yeeres? was hee not displeased with them that sinned, * whose ‖ karkeises fell in the wildernesse?

18 And to whome sware hee that they should not enter into his rest, but vnto them that obeyed not?

19 So wee see that they could not enter in, because of vnbeliefe.

i As disobeying God, they in old time were debarred from the quietnesse of the land of Canaan: so they which do not obey Christ, shal not enter into the heauenly rest.

k Which is all that time wherin God doeth call vs: while he therefore speaketh, let vs heare.

l Which is by faith to embrace and hold fast the true doctrine of Iesus Christ.

‖ Or, foundation of our assurance.

‖ Or, bodies and members.

CHAP. IIII.

2 The worde without faith is unprofitable. 3 The Sabbath or rest of the Christians. 6 Punishment of vnbeleeuers. 12 The nature of the worde of God.

LEt vs feare therefore, least at any time by forsaking the promise of entring into his rest, any of you should seeme to bee depriued.

2 For vnto vs was the Gospell preached as also vnto them: but the worde that they heard, profited not them, because it was not * mixed with faith in those that heard it.

3 For we which haue beleeued, do enter into rest, as he sayde to the other, * As I haue sworne in my wrath, If l they shall enter into my rest: although m the workes were finished from the foundation of the world.

4 For he spake in a certaine place of the seuenth day on this wise, * And God did rest the seuenth day from all his workes.

5 And in this place againe, If they shall enter into my rest.

6 Seeing therefore it remayneth that some must enter therinto, and they to whome it was first preached, entred not therein for vnbeliefes sake:

7 Againe hee appointed in d Dauid a certain day by To day, after so long a time, saying, as it is sayd, * This day if yee heare his voyce, harden not your hearts.

8 For if e Iesus had giuen them rest, then would hee not after this day haue spoken of another.

9 There remaineth therfore a rest to the people of God.

10 For hee that is entred into his rest, f hath also ceased from his owne workes, a He compareth the preaching of the Gospell, as it were, to wine, whereof if we will taste, that is, heare and vnderstand with profite, we must temper or mixe it with faith. Psal. 95.11.

b Although that God by his rest, after the creation of his workes, signified the spirituall rest of the faithfull, yet he sware to giue rest in Chanaan, which was but a figure of the heauenly rest, and endured but for a time.

c The perfection of Gods workes, and so his rest, signifie our heauenly rest. Gene. 2.3. deut. 5.14.

d That is, in the Psalmes. Chap. 3.7.

e Meaning, Iosua.

f Hath cast off his appetites, mortified his flesh, renounced himselfe, and followeth God.

as God did from his.

11 Let vs studie therefore to enter into that rest, lest any man fall after the same ensample of disobedience.

12 For the word of God is lively, and mighty in operation, and sharper then any two edged sword, and e entreth through, euen vnto the deuiding asunder of the h soule and the i spirit, and of the ioyntes, and the marowe, & is a discerner of the thoughtes, and the intents of the heart.

13 Neither is there any creature, which is not manifest in his sight: but all things are naked and k open vnto his eyes, ‖ with whom we haue l to doe.

14 Seeing then that wee haue a great hie Priest, which is entred into heauen, euē Iesus the Sonne of God, let vs holde fast our profession.

15 For we haue not an hie Priest, which cannot bee touched with the feeling of our infirmities, but was in all things tempted in like sort, yet without sinne.

16 Let vs therefore goe boldly vnto the throne of grace, that we may receiue mercy, and find grace to helpe in time of neede.

‖ Or, concerning whom we speake.

l Therefore when we heare his worde, we must tremble, knowing thereby that God foundeth our hearts.

e For it mortally woundeth the rebellious, and in the elect it killeth the old man that they should liue vnto God.

h Where the affections are.

i Which conteineth will and reason.

k As that thing which is cleft asunder euen through the mids of the backe, and so is made open, that it may be seene throughout.

CHAP. V.

5 He compareth Iesus Christ with the Leuitical Priestes, shewing wherein they either agree, or dissent. 11 Afterward he reproueth the negligence of the Iewes.

FOr euery high Priest is taken from among men, and is a ordeyned for men, in things pertaining to God, that hee may offer both b giftes, and c sacrifices for sinnes,

2 Which is able sufficiently to haue compassion on them d that are ignorant, and that are out of the way, because that hee also is compassed with infirmitie,

3 And for the same sake he is bound to offer for sinnes, as well for his owne part, as for the peoples.

4 *And no man taketh this honour vnto himselfe, but he that is called of God, as was Aaron.

5 So likewise Christ tooke not to himself this honour, to be made the hie Priest, but he that said vnto him, *Thou art my Sonne, this day begate I thee, gaue it him.

6 As he also in another place speaketh, *Thou art a Priest for euer after e the order of Melchi-sedec.

7 Which in the f dayes of his flesh did offer vp prayers and supplications, with g strong crying and teares vnto him, that was able to saue him from death, and was also heard h in that which he feared.

8 And though he were the Sonne, yet learned he obedience, by the thinges which he suffered.

9 And being consecrate, was made the author of eternall saluation vnto all them that obey him:

10 And is called of God an hie Priest after the order of Melchi-sedec.

11 i Of whome we haue many thinges to say, which are hard to be vttered, because ye are dull of hearing.

a He sheweth that man can haue none accesse to God without an hie Priest, because that of himselfe he is prophane and sinful.

b Which were of things without life.

13 For euery one that vseth milke, is inexpert in the l word of righteousnesse: for he is a babe.

14 But strong meate belongeth to them that are of age, which through long custome haue their wittes exercised, to discerne both good and euill.

1 He proceedeth in reproouing them, & exhorteth them not to faint, 12 But to be stedfast & patient, 18 forasmuch as God is sure in his promise.

THerefore, leauing the doctrine of a beginning of Christ, let vs be led forwarde into perfection, not laying againe the foundation b of repentance from dead workes, and of faith toward God,

2 Of the doctrine of c baptismes, and laying on of hands, & of the resurrection from the dead, and of eternall iudgement.

3 And this will we doe d if God permit.

4 * For it is impossible that they, which were once lightened, and haue tasted of the heauenly gift, and were made partakers of the holy Ghost,

5 And haue tasted of the good worde of God, & of the powers of the world to come,

6 If they fall away, should be renued againe by repentance: seeing they e crucifie againe to them selues the Sonne of God, and make a mocke of him.

7 For the earth which drinketh in the raine that commeth oft vpon it, & bringeth forth herbes meete for them by whom it is dressed, receiueth blessing of God.

8 But that which beareth thornes and briers, is reprooued, & is neere vnto cursing, whose ende is to be burned.

9 But beloued, we haue perswaded our selues better things of you, & such as accompany saluation, though we thus speake.

10 For God is not vnrighteous, that hee should forget your worke, and labour of loue, which yee shewed toward his Name, in that ye haue ministred vnto the Saintes, and yet ministre.

11 And wee desire that euery one of you shewe the same diligence, to the f full assurance of hope vnto the ende, 12 That ye be not slouthfull, but followers of g them, which through faith and patience, inherite the promises.

13 For when God made the promise to Abraham, because hee had no greater to sweare by, he sware by himselfe, 14 Saying, * Surely I wil abundantly blesse thee and multiply thee marueilously.

15 And so after that he had tarried patiently, he enioyed the promise.

16 For men verely sweare by him that is greater then themselues, and an ende for b He mentioneth fiue poinres of y catechisme, which was then in vse: the confession of amendment of life: the summe of the faith: a briefe explication of baptisme, and laying on of hands: the article of the resurrection, and the last iudgement.

c Then the vse of baptisme was declared, when on the solemne dayes appoynted to baptize, the Church came together.

confirmation is among them an ende of all strife.

17 So God willing more [h] abundantly to shew vnto the heires of promise the stablenesse of his counsell, bound himselfe by an othe,

18 That by two [i] immutable things, wherein it is vnpossible that God shoulde lie, wee might haue strong consolation, which haue our refuge to holde fast the hope that is set before vs,

19 Which wee haue, as an ancre of the soule, both sure and stedfast, and it [k] entreth into that which is within the [l] vaile, 20 Whither the forerunner is for vs entred in, euen Jesus that is made an hie Priest for euer after the order of Melchisedec.

1 Which is heauen, whither Christ is gone before to prepare vs place.

[h] Because of mans wickednes, which will not beleeue God except he sweare.

[i] Gods word and othe are two things in him vnchangeable.

[k] He returneth to the comparison betweene Christes Priesthood and the Leuiticall, which he had begunne in the fift Chapter.

CHAP. VII.

1 He compareth the Priesthoode of Christ vnto Melchi-sedec, 11 Also Christes Priesthood with the Leuites.

Gen.14.18.

FOr this Melchi-sedec * was king of Salem, the Priest of the most high God, who met Abraham, as hee returned from the slaughter of the kings, and blessed him:

2 To whome also Abraham gaue the tithe of all things: who first is by interpretation King of righteousnesse: after that, he is also King of Salem, that is, King of peace,

3 Without [a] father, without mother, without kinred, & hath neither beginning of his dayes, neither end of life: but is likened vnto the Sonne of God, and continueth a Priest for euer.

4 Nowe consider howe great this man was, vnto whome euen the [b] Patriarke Abraham gaue the tithe of the spoyles.

5 For verely they which are the children of Leui, which receiue the office of the Priesthood, haue a [c] commandement to take according to the Lawe, tithes of the people (that is, of their brethren) though they [d] came out of the loynes of Abraham.

6 But hee whose [e] kred is not counted among them, [c] receiued tithes of Abraham, and blessed him that had the promises.

7 And without all contradiction, the lesse is blessed of the greater.

8 And here men that die, receiue tithes: but there hee receiueth them, of whome it is witnessed, that he [f] liueth.

9 And to say as the thing is, Leui also which receiueth tithes, payed tithes in Abraham.

10 For hee was yet in the loynes of his father Abraham, when Melchi-sedec mette him.

11 If therefore perfection had bene by the Priesthoode of the Leuites (for vnder it the Lawe was established to the people) what needed it furthermore, that another Priest shoulde rise after the order of Melchi-sedec, and not to bee called after the order of Aaron?

12 For if the Priesthoode be changed, then of necessitie must there be a change of the [g] Lawe.

13 For hee of whome these things are spoken, perteineth vnto another tribe, whereof no man serued at the altar.

14 For it is euident, that our Lorde sprung out of Juda, concerning the which tribe Moses spake nothing, touching the Priesthood.

15 And it is yet a more euident thing, because that after the similitude of Melchisedec, there is risen vp another Priest, 16 Which is not made Priest after the Lawe [h] of the carnall commandement, but after the power of the endlesse life.

17 For hee testifieth thus, * Thou art a Priest for euer, after the order of Melchisedec.

18 For the commandement that went afore, is disanulled, because [i] of the weakenesse thereof, and vnprofitablenesse.

19 For the Lawe made nothing perfite, but ‖ the bringing in of a better hope made perfite, whereby wee draw neere vnto God.

20 And forasmuch as it is not without an othe (for these are made Priestes without an othe:

21 But this, hee is made with an othe by him that sayde vnto him, * The Lorde hath sworne, and will not repent, Thou art a Priest for euer, after the order of Melchi-sedec)

22 By so much is Jesus made a suretie of a better ‖ Testament.

23 And among them many were made priestes, because they were not suffered to endure, by the reason of death.

24 But this man, because hee endureth euer, hath an [k] euerlasting Priesthood.

25 Wherefore, hee is able also [l] perfectly to saue them that come vnto God by him, seeing hee euer liueth, to make intercession for them.

26 For such an hie Priest it became vs to haue, which is holy, harmelesse, vndefiled, separate from sinners, and made higher then the heauens:

27 Which needed not dayly as those hie Priestes to offer vp sacrifice, * first for his owne sinnes, and then for the peoples: for that did he [m] once, when he offered vp himselfe.

28 For the Lawe maketh men high Priestes, which haue infirmitie: but the word of the othe that was [n] since the lawe, maketh the Sonne, who is consecrated for euermore.

[a] So called, because that Moses maketh no mention of his parents or kinsfolks, but as he had bin suddenly sent of God into the world to be a figure of Christ our euerlasting Priest, & shortly taken out of the world againe: so Christ as touching his humanitie had no father, and concerning his diuinitie, no mother.

[b] That is, the chiefe of fathers. Num.18,21. deut. 18,1,2. iosh.14.4.

[c] The Leuites had commandement to receiue that, which Abraham gaue freely to Melchi-sedec.

[d] Were begotten of Abraham.

[e] The Leuites receiued tithes of their brethren, but Melchi-sedec of Abraham the Patriarke: therefore his Priesthoode is more excellent then the Leuiticall.

[f] Because there is no mention of his death.

[g] The Law and the priesthood are both of one condition: so that both Aarons and Moses office perteine to Christ, which is Priest and Lawmaker.

[h] Which stood in outward and corporall ceremonies. Psal.119.4 chap.5.6.

[i] For the Lawe hath no vertue nor profit, till a man be come to Christ.

‖ Or, it was an introduction of a better hope.

Psal.110.4.

‖ Or, couenant.

[k] Therefore all others are blasphemous, that either make themselues his successors, or pretend any other sacrifice.

[l] The fruite of the Priesthood is to saue, and that fully and perfectly, not by supplying that that wanteth, but by taking away the Law, which is vnperfect by reason of our infirmities. Leuit 16.6.

[m] And cannot without blasphemie be said to be offered againe, or els by any creature: for none could offer him, but himselfe.

[n] Not that it was first made after the Lawe was giuen: but because the declaration of that eternall othe was then reuealed to the world.

CHAP. VIII.

6 He proueth the abolishing as wel of the Leuitical Priesthood, as of the old Couenant by the spirituall and euerlasting Priesthoode of Christ, 8 And by the new Couenant.

NOwe of the things which we haue spoken, this is the summe, that we haue such an hie Priest, that sitteth at the right hand of the throne of the Maiestie in heauens,

2 And is a minister of the [a] Sanctuarie,

[a] That is, heauen.

and of the true [b] Tabernacle, which the Lord pight, and not [c] man.

3 For [d] euery hie Priest is ordeined to offer both giftes and sacrifices: wherefore it was of necessitie, that this man shoulde haue somewhat also to offer.

4 For hee were not a Priest, if hee were on the earth, seeing there are Priestes that according to the Law offer gifts,

5 Who serue vnto the paterne and shadowe of heauenly things, as Moses was warned by God, when hee was about to finish the Tabernacle. * See, sayd hee, that thou make all things according to the [e] paterne shewed to thee in the mount.

6 But nowe our hie Priest hath obtained a more excellent office, in as much as hee is the Mediatour of a better ‖ Testament, which is established vpon better promises.

7 For if that first Testament had bin faultlesse, no place should haue bene sought for the second.

8 For in rebuking them hee saith, * Beholde, the dayes will [f] come, sayeth the Lorde, when I shall make with the house of Israel, and with the house of Iuda a newe Testament:

9 Not like the Testament that I made with their fathers, in the day that I tooke them by the hand, to leade them out of the land of Egypt: for they [h] continued not in my testament, and I regarded them not, sayeth the Lord.

10 For this is the Testament that I wil make with the house of Israel, After those dayes, saith the Lord, I will put my lawes in their minde, and in their heart I will write them, and I will be their God, and they shall be my people, 11 And they shall not [i] teach euery man his neighbour, and euery man his brother, saying, Knowe the Lord: for all shall know me, from the least of them to the greatest of them.

12 For I will bee mercifull to their vnrighteousnesse, and I will remember their sinnes and their iniquities no more.

13 In that hee saith a new Testament, hee hath abrogate the olde: now that which is disanulled and waxed olde, is ready to vanish away.

[b] Which is the body of Christ.
[c] For els it should be corruptible.
[d] He prooueth that Christs body is the true Tabernacle, and that he must needes be made man, to the intent that hee might haue a thing to offer, which was his body.
Exod. 25.40.
actes. 7.44.
[e] Seeing the offrings of the Leuites were but shadowes of heauenly things, as appeareth by the oracle to Moses, it followeth then that Christs heauenly sanctuarie, his tabernacle and office, are farre more excellent.

[h] Man by transgressing the bands of the couenant, could not enioy the commoditie thereof.
[i] Men shall not in the time of the Gospel be so ignorant as they were before, but shall know God much more perfectly through Christ.

CHAP. IX.

1 How that the ceremonies and sacrifices of the Lawe are abolished 11 by the eternitie and perfection of Christs sacrifice.

‖ Or, Tabernacle.
‖ Or, ceremonies.
[a] Not heauenly and spirituall.
Exod. 26.1. and 36.1.
[b] That is, on the inward side of the vaile, which was hid from the people.

THen the first ‖ Testament had also [a] ordinances of religion, and a worldly Sanctuarie.

2 For the first * Tabernacle was made, wherein was the candlestick, and the table, and the shewbread, which Tabernacle is called the holy places.

3 And after the [b] second vaile was the Tabernacle, which is called the Holiest of all,

4 Which had the golden censer, and the Arke of the Testament ouerlaid round about with golde, wherein the golden potte which had Manna, was, and * Aarons rod that had budded, and the * Tables of the Testament.

5 * And ouer the Arke were the glorious Cherubins, shadowing the ‖ Mercie seate: of which things wee will not nowe speake particularly.

6 Nowe when these things were thus ordeined, the Priestes went alwayes into the first Tabernacle, and accomplished the seruice.

7 But into the second went the * high Priest alone, once euery yeere, not without blood which he offered for himselfe, and for the ‖ ignorances of the people.

8 Whereby the holy Ghost was signified, that the [c] way into the Holiest of al was not yet opened, while as yet the first Tabernacle was standing,

9 Which was a figure for the time present, wherein were offered gifts and sacrifices that could not make ‖ holy, concerning the conscience, [d] him that did the seruice,

10 Which onely stoode in meates and drinkes, and diuers washings, and [e] carnall rites, vntill the time of [f] reformation.

11 But Christ being come an hie Priest of good things to come, by a greater and a more perfect [g] Tabernacle, not made with hands, that is, not of this building, 12 Neither by the blood of goates and calues: but by his owne blood entred he in once vnto the [h] holy place, [i] and obteined eternall redemption for vs.

13 * For if the [k] blood of bulles and of goates, and the ashes of an heifer, sprinkling them that are vncleane, sanctifieth as touching the purifying of the [l] flesh,

14 How much more shall the * blood of Christ, which through the eternall spirite offered himselfe without spotte to God, purge your conscience from [m] dead workes, * to serue the liuing God?

15 And for this cause is hee the Mediatour of the newe Testament, that through * death which was for the redemption of the transgressions that were in the [n] former Testament, they which were called, might receiue the promise of eternall inheritance.

16 For where a Testament is, there must bee the death of him that made the Testament.

17 * For the [o] Testament is confirmed when men are dead: for it is yet of no force as long as he that made it, is aliue.

18 Wherefore, neither was the first ordeined without [p] blood.

[o] He prooueth that Christ must die, because the couenant or Testament is of none effect without the death of the Testator.
[p] Without the death of beasts that were sacrificed, which signified, that Christ would pacifie his Fathers wrath with his blood.

19 For

19 For when Moses had spoken euery precept to the people, according to the Law, he tooke the bloode of calues and of goates, with water and purple woll and hyssope, and sprinkled both the booke, and all the people,

Exod. 24.8.

20 * Saying, This is the blood of the Testament, which God hath appointed vnto you.

21 Moreouer, hee sprinkled likewise the Tabernacle with blood also, and all the ministring vessels.

22 And almost all things are by the Law purged with blood, and without shedding of blood is no remission.

23 It was then necessary, that the similitudes of heauenly things shoulde bee purified with such things: but the heauenly things themselues are purified with better q sacrifices then are these.

q Albeit there is but one sacrifice, which is Christ himselfe once offered, yet because this true & eternall sacrifice is compared with al those which were figuratiue, and is more sufficient then all they, therefore he calleth it in the plurall number, Sacrifices.

24 For Christ is not entred into ỹ holy places that are made with hands, which are ‖ similitudes of the true Sanctuarie: but is entred into very heauen, to appeare nowe in the sight of God for vs,

25 Not that he shoulde offer himselfe often, as the High Priest entred into ỹ Holy place euery yeere with other blood, r Which is the latter dayes when Christ came. Rom. 5.8. 1. pet. 3.18.

27 And as it is appointed vnto men that they shall once die, and after that commeth the iudgement,

4 For it is vnpossible that the blood of bulles and goates should * take away sinnes.

5 Wherefore when hee commeth into the worlde, hee sayeth, * Sacrifice and offering thou wouldest not: but a bodie hast thou ordeined me.

d In the Hebrew it is thou hast pearced mine eares thorow, that is, hast made me prompt & ready to heare: & in the Greeke, thou hast made me a body, that is, to obey thee, which both tend to one purpose.

6 In burnt offerings, & sinne offerings thou hast had no pleasure.

h That is, sanctified to God and made perfect. Iere. 31.33. chap. 8.8,10. rom. 11.27.

11 And euery Priest appeareth dayly ministring, and oft times offereth one maner of offering, which can neuer take away sinnes:

12 But this man after he had offred one sacrifice for sinnes, * sitteth for euer at the right hand of God, 13 And from henceforth tarieth * till his enemies be made his footestoole.

14 For with one offring hath h hee consecrated for euer them that are sanctified.

i Where there remaine no sinnes to be forgiuen, there is no more sacrifice: seeing therefore that onely Christs death hath washed away all sinnes, and doth euer afresh when sinners doe repent, there can be none other sacrifice but that, and it can be no more reiterated.

15 For the holy Ghost also beareth vs record: for after that he had said before,

16 * This is the Testament that I will make vnto them, After those dayes, sayeth ỹ Lord, I will put my lawes in their heart, and in their mindes I will write them, 17 And their sinnes and iniquities will I remember no more.

18 Now where i remission of these things is, there is no more k offering for sinne.

k For the offering of thankesgiuing, which is the onely sacrifice now of the Christians, is not for sinne: but a thankesgiuing and an offering vp of our selues and ours for the same.

19 Seeing therefore, brethren, that by the bloode of Iesus we l may be bold to enter into the holy place, l We by Christ haue that libertie which the ancient fathers could not haue by the Lawe.

20 By the new, and m liuing way, which he hath prepared for vs, through the vaile, that is, his flesh:

m The blood of Christ is alwayes fresh and liuely before the Father to sprinkle and quicken vs.

21 And seeing we haue an high Priest, which is ouer the house of God, 22 Let vs draw neere with a true heart in assurance of faith, n sprinkled in our hearts from an euil conscience, and washed in our bodies with pure water.

n That is, hauing our hearts made pure.

23 Let vs keepe ỹ profession of our hope, without wauering (for hee is faithfull that promised)

24 And let vs consider one another, to prouoke vnto loue, and to good works,

25 Not forsaking the fellowship that we haue among our selues, as the manner of some is: but let vs exhort one another, and that so much the more, because yee see that the o day draweth neere.

teth the blood of the Testament as an vnholy thing, wherewith hee was sanctified, and q doth despite the Spirit of grace?

30 For wee know him that hath sayde, * Vengeance belongeth vnto mee: I will recompence, saith the Lord. And againe, The Lord shall r iudge his people.

31 It is a fearefull thing to fall into the hands of the liuing God.

32 Now call to remembrance the daies that are passed, in the which, after yee had receiued light, yee endured a great fight in afflictions, 33 Partly while you were made a gazing stocke both by reproches and afflictions, and partly while ye became s companions of them which were ‖ so tossed to and fro.

34 For both ye sorowed with me for my bondes, and suffered with ioy the spoyling of your goodes, knowing in your selues how that yee haue in heauen a better and an enduring substance.

35 Cast not away therefore your confidence which hath great recompence of reward.

36 For ye haue neede of patience, that after ye haue done the will of God, yee might receiue the promise.

37 For yet a very little while, and he that shall come, will come, and will not tary.

38 * Nowe the iust shall liue by faith: but if any withdrawe himselfe, my soule shall haue no pleasure in him.

39 But wee are not they which withdraw our selues vnto perdition, but follow faith vnto the conseruation of the soule.

CHAP. XI.

1 What faith is, & a commendation of the same. 6. Without faith wee cannot please God. 16 The stedfast beliefe of the fathers in old time.

NOw faith is the ground of things which are hoped for, t the euidence of things which are not seene.

2 For by it our Elders were well a reported of.

3 * Through faith wee vnderstand that the worlde was ordained by the woorde of God, so that the things which wee see, are not made of things, which b did appeare.

4 By faith Abel * offered vnto God a greater sacrifice then Cain, c by * the which hee obtained witnes y hee was d righteous, God testifying of his giftes: by the which faith also he being dead, yet e speaketh.

5 By faith was * f Enoch taken away, that hee should not see death: neither was he found: for God had taken him away: for before hee was taken away, hee was reported of, that he had pleased God.

6 But without faith it is vnpossible to please him: for hee that commeth to God, must beleeue that God is, and that he is g a rewarder of them that seeke him.

7 By faith * Noe being warned of God of the things which were as yet not seene, mooued with reuerence, prepared the Arke to the sauing of his houshold, through the which Arke hee condemned the worlde, and was made heire of the righteousnes, which is by faith.

8 By faith * Abraham, when hee was called, obeyed God, to goe out into a place, which he should afterwarde receiue for inheritance, and hee went out, not knowing whither he went.

9 By faith hee abode in the land of promise, as in a strange countrey, as one that dwelt in tents with Isaac and Jacob heires with him of the same promise.

10 For he looked for a city hauing a h foundation, whose builder and maker is God.

11 Through faith * Sarra also receiued strength to conceiue seede, and was deliuered of a childe when she was past age, because shee iudged him faithfull which had promised.

12 And therefore sprang there of one, euen of one which was i dead, so many as * the starres of the skie in multitude, and as the sand of the sea shore which is innumerable.

13 All these died in faith, and k receiued not the promises, but sawe them l afarre off, and beleeued them, and receiued them thankefully, and confessed that they were m straungers and pilgrims on the earth.

14 For they that say such things, declare plainly that they seeke a country.

15 And if they had bene mindful of n that countrey, from whence they came out, they had leasure to haue returned.

16 But now they desire a better, that is, an heauenly: wherefore God is not ashamed of them to be called their God: for hee hath prepared for them a citie.

17 By faith * Abraham offred vp Isaac, when he o was tried, and hee that had receiued the promises, offered his onely begotten sonne.

THE ARGVMENT.

IAmes the Apostle and sonne of Alpheus wrote this Epistle to the Iewes which were conuerted to Christ, but dispersed thorowout diuers countries, and therefore hee exhorteth them to patience and prayer, to embrace the true word of God, and not to be partiall, neyther to boast of an idle faith, faith, but to declare a true faith by liuely fruites, to auoide ambition, to bridle the tongue, to rule the affections, to be humble and loue their neighbours, to beware of swearing, to vtter their faultes when they haue offended, to pray one for another, and to bring him which is out of the way, to the knowledge of Christ.

CHAP. I.

2 He exhorteth to reioyce in trouble, 6 To be fermet in praier with stedfast beliefe, 17 To looke for all good things from aboue, 21 To forsake all vice, and thankefully to receiue the word of God, 22 Not onely hearing it, and speaking of it, but to do thereafter in deede, 27 What true religion is.

IAmes a seruant of God, and of the Lord Iesus Christ, to the twelue Tribes which are scattered abroad, salutation.

2 My brethren, count it exceeding ioy, when ye fall into diuers ‖ tentations,

3 *Knowing that the a trying of your faith bringeth forth patience.

4 And let patience haue her b perfect worke, that yee may be perfect and entire, lacking nothing.

5 If any of you lacke c wisdome, let him aske of God, which giueth to all men liberally, and reproacheth no man, and it shalbe giuen him.

6 *But let him aske in faith, and wauer not: for he that wauereth, is like a waue of the sea, tost of the winde, and carried away.

7 Neither let that man thinke that hee shall receiue any thing of the Lord.

8 A d ‖ wauering minded man is vnstable in all his wayes.

9 Let the brother of lowe degree reioyce in that he is e exalted:

10 Againe he e that is rich, in that he is made f lowe: for as the flower of the grasse shall he * vanish away.

11 For as when the sunne riseth with heat, then the grasse withereth, and his flower falleth away, and the beautie of the fashion of it perisheth: euen so shall the rich man fade away in all his ‖ wayes.

12 *Blessed is the man, that endureth tentation: for when he is tried, he shall receiue the crowne of life, which ỹ Lord hath promised to them that loue him.

13 Let no man say when he is ‖ g tempted, I am tempted of God: for God can not be tempted with euill, neither tempteth hee any man.

14 But euery man is tempted, when he is drawen away by his owne concupiscence, and is entised.

15 Then when lust hath conceiued, it bringeth forth sinne, and sinne when it is finished, bringeth forth death.

16 Erre not, my deare brethren.

17 Euery good h giuing, & euery perfect gift is from aboue, & commeth downe from the Father of lights, with whome is no variablenes, neither i shadowing by turning.

18 Of his owne will begate hee vs with the word of trueth, that we should be as the first fruites of his creatures.

19 Wherefore my deare brethren, *let euery man be k swift to heare, slow to speak, and l slow to wrath.

20 For the wrath of man doeth not accomplish m the righteousnesse of God.

21 Wherefore lay apart al filthines, and superfluitie of malicious nesse, and receiue with meekenesse the worde that is a graffed in you, which is able to saue your soules.

22 * And be ye doers of the worde, & not hearers onely, deceiuing your owne selues.

23 For if any heare the worde, and doe it not, hee is like vnto a man, that beholdeth his naturall face in a o glasse.

24 For when hee hath considered himselfe, he goeth his way, and forgetteth immediatly what maner of one he was.

25 But who so looketh in the perfect Lawe of libertie, and continueth therein, he not being a forgetfull hearer, but a doer of the worke, shall be blessed p in his deede.

26 If any man among you seemeth religious, and refraineth not his tongue, but deceiueth his owne heart, this mans religion is vaine.

27 Pure religion and vndefiled before God, euen the Father, is this, to visite the fatherlesse, & widowes in their aduersitie, & to keepe himselfe vnspotted of the world.

CHAP. II.

1 He forbiddeth to haue any respect of persons, 5 But to regard the poore as well as the rich, 8 To be louing and mercifull, 14 And not to boast of faith, where no deedes are: 27 For it is but a dead faith, where good workes follow not.

MY brethren, haue not the faith of our glorious Lord Iesus Christ * in ‖ respect of persons.

2 For if there come into your company a man with a golde ring, and in goodly apparell, and there come in also a poore man in vile rayment,

3 And yee haue a respect to him that weareth the gay clothing, and say vnto him, Sit thou here in a good place, and say vnto the poore, Stand thou there, or sit here vnder my footestoole,

4 Are ye not partiall in your selues, and are become iudges of euill q thoughts?

5 Hearken my beloued brethren, hath not r God chosen the poore of this worlde, that they should be rich in faith, and heires of the kingdome which he promised to them that lone him?

6 But yee haue despised the poore. Doe not the rich oppresse you by tyranny, and do not they drawe you before the iudgement seates?

7 Doe not they blaspheme the d worthie Name after which ye be named?

8 But if ye fulfill the * royal Lawe according to ỹ Scripture, which saith, * Thou shalt loue thy neighbour as thy selfe, ye doe well.

18 But some man might say, Thou hast i the faith, and I haue workes: shew mee thy faith out of thy ‖k workes, and I will shewe thee my faith by my workes.

19 Thou beleeuest that there is one God: thou doest well: the deuils also beleeue it, and tremble.

20 But wilt thou vnderstand, O thou vaine man, that the faith which is without workes, is dead?

21 Was not Abraham our father iustified through workes, when he offered Isaac his sonne vpon the altar?

22 Seest thou not that the faith l wrought with his workes? and through the workes was the faith made m perfite.

23 And the Scripture was fulfilled which saieth, * Abraham beleeued God, and it was imputed vnto him for righteousnesse: and he was called the friend of God.

24 Yee see then howe that of workes a man is n iustified, and not o of faith only.

25 Likewise also was not * p Rahab the harlot iustified through workes, when shee had receiued the messengers, and sent them out another way?

1 He forbiddeth all ambition to seeke honor aboue our brethren. 3 He deſcribeth the propertie of the tongue, 15, 16 And what difference there is betwixt the wiſedome of God, and the wiſedome of the world.

MY brethren, bee not a many masters, knowing that we shal receiue the greater condemnation.

2 For in many thinges wee ‖b fiune all. * If any man sinne not in c worde, hee is a perfite man, and able to bridle all the body.

3 Beholde, we put bittes into the horses mouthes, that they should obey vs, and we turne about all their body.

4 Beholde also the ships, which though they bee so great, and are driuen of fierce windes, yet are they turned about with a very small rudder, whithersoeuer the gouernour listeth.

5 Euen so the tongue is a little member, and boasteth of great things: beholde, how great a ‖thing a little fire kindleth.

6 And the tongue is fire, yea, a ‖worlde of wickednesse: so is the tongue set among our members, that it defileth the whole bodie, and d setteth on fire the course of nature, and it is set on fire of hell.

7 For the whole nature of beastes, and of birdes, and of creeping thinges, and thinges of the sea is tamed, and hath bene tamed of the nature of man.

8 But the tongue can no man tame. It is an vnruly euill, full of deadly poyson.

9 Therewith blesse wee God euen the Father, and therewith curse wee men, which are made after e similitude of God.

10 Out of one mouth proceedeth blessing and cursing: my brethren, these thinges ought not so to be.

11 Doeth a fountaine send foorth at one place f sweete water and bitter?

12 Can the figtree, my brethren, bring foorth oliues, either a vine figs? so can no fountaine make both salt water and sweete.

13 Who is a wise man and endued with knowledge among you? let him shewe by good conuersation his workes in meekenes of wisedome.

14 But if ye haue bitter enuying, and strife in your hearts, reioyce not, neither be liars against the trueth.

15 This wisedome descendeth not from aboue, but is earthly, sensuall, and deuilish.

16 For where enuying and strife is, there is sedition, and all maner of euill workes.

17 But the wisedome that is from aboue, is first g pure, then peaceable, gentle, easie to be intreated, full of mercie and good fruites, without h iudging, and without hypocrisie.

18 And the h fruite of righteousnesse is sowen in peace, of them that make peace.

a Vsurpe not through ambition authoritie ouer your brethren.

‖Or, stumble.

b He that well considereth himselfe, shall not be rigorous toward his brethren. Ecclus 14.1. and 19.16. and 25.8.

c He that is able to moderate his tongue, hath attained to an excellent vertue.

‖Or, matter.

d An heape, and full measure of all iniquitie.

e The intemperancie of the tongue, is as a flame of hell fire.

f Without mixtion and dissimulation.

g And examining thinges with extreme rigour as hypocrites, who onely iustifie themselues, and condemne all others.

h So that their life is according to their profession.

CHAP. IIII.

1 Hauing shewed the cause of all wrong, and wickednesse, and also of all graces and goodnes, 4 He exhorteth them to loue God, 7 And submit themselues to him, 11 Not speaking euil of their neighbours, 13 But patiently to depend on Gods prouidence.

FRom whence are warres and contentions among you? are they not hence, euen of your lustes, that a fight in your members?

a For the Lawe of the members continually fighteth against the Lawe of the minde.

2 Ye lust, and haue not: ye enuy, and haue indignation, and cannot obtaine: yee fight and and warre, and get nothing, because ye aske not.

3 Yee aske and receiue not, because yee aske amisse, that yee might consume it on your lusts.

4 Ye adulterers and [b]adulteresses, know yee not that the amitie of the world is the enmitie of God? * Whosoeuer therefore will be a friend of the worlde, maketh himselfe the enemie of God.

5 Do ye thinke that the Scripture saith in vaine, The [c]spirit that dwelleth in vs, lusteth after enuie?

6 But the Scripture offereth more grace, and therfore saith, * God resisteth the proud, and giueth grace to the humble.

7 * Submit your selues to God: resist the deuill, and he will flee from you.

8 Draw neere to God, and he will draw neere to you. Cleanse your handes, yee sinners, and purge your hearts, yee wauering minded.

9 Suffer afflictions, and [d]sorrow yee, and weepe: let your laughter be turned into mourning, and your ioy into heauinesse.

10 * Cast downe your selues before the Lord, and he will lift you vp.

11 Speake not euill one of another, brethren. He that speaketh euill of his brother, or hee that condemneth his brother, speaketh euill of the Lawe, and [e]condemneth the Lawe: and if thou condemnest the Law, thou art not an obseruer of the Lawe, but a iudge.

12 There is one [f]Lawgiuer, which is able to saue, and to destroy. * Who art thou that iudgest another man?

13 Goe to now ye that say, [g]To day or to morrow we will go into such a citie, and continue there a yeere, and buy and sell, and get gaine,

14 (And yet yee cannot tell what shall be to morrow. For what is your life? It is euen a vapour that appeareth for a little time, and afterward vanisheth away)

15 For that ye ought to say, * If y Lord will, and, If wee liue, wee will doe this or that.

16 But nowe yee reioyce in your boastings: all such reioycing is euill.

17 Therefore, [h] to him that knoweth howe to doe well, and doe it not, to him it is sinne.

2 He threatneth the wicked rich men, 7 Exhorteth vnto patience, 12 To beware of swearing, 16 One to knowledge his faultes to another, 20 And one to labour to bring another to the trueth.

GOe to nowe, yee rich men: weepe, and [a] howle for your miseries that shall come vpon you.

2 Your riches are corrupt: and your garments are mothe eaten.

3 Your golde and siluer is cankred, and the rust of them shall be a [b] witnesse against you, and shall eate your flesh as it were fire.

5 Ye haue liued in pleasure on the earth, and in wantonnesse. Yee haue nourished your hearts, as in a day of [d]slaughter.

6 Yee haue condemned and haue killed the iust, and he hath not resisted you.

7 Be patient therefore, brethren, vnto the comming of the Lord. Beholde, the husbandman waiteth for the precious fruit of the earth, and hath long patience for it, vntill he receiue the [e]former and the latter raine.

8 Be ye also patient therefore, and settle your hearts: for the comming of the Lord draweth neere.

9 [f]Grudge not one against another, brethren, lest ye be condemned: behold, the iudge standeth before the doore.

10 Take, my brethren, the Prophets for an ensample of suffering aduersitie, and of long patience, which haue spoken in the Name of the Lorde.

11 Behold, we count them blessed which endure. Yee haue heard of the patience of Iob, and haue knowen what ende the Lord made. For the Lord is very pitifull and mercifull.

12 But before all things, my brethren, * sweare not, neither by heauen, nor by earth, nor by any other othe: but let your [g]yea, be yea, and your nay, nay, lest ye fall into [‖]condemnation.

14 Is any sicke among you? Let him call for the [h]Elders of the Church, and let them pray for him, and anoynt him with * [i]oyle in the [k]Name of the Lord.

THE

The first Epistle generall of Peter.

THE ARGVMENT.

HE exhorteth the faithfull to denie themselues, and to contemne the world, that being deliuered from all carnall affections and impediments, they may more speedily atteine to the heauenly kingdome of Christ, whereunto we are called by the grace of God reueiled to vs in his sonne, and haue already receiued it by faith, possessed it by hope, and are therein confirmed by holinesse of life. And to the intent this faith shoulde not faint, seeing Christ contemned and reiected almost of the whole world, he declareth that this is nothing els but the accomplishing of the Scriptures which testifie that he should be a stumbling stone to the reprobate, and the sure foundation of saluation to the faithfull: therefore he exhorteth them courageously to goe forwarde, considering what they were, and to what dignitie God hath called them. After, he entreateth particular pointes, teaching subiects how to obey their gouernours, and seruants their masters, and howe married folkes ought to behaue themselues. And because it is appoynted for all that are godly, to suffer persecutions, hee sheweth them what good issue their afflictions shall haue, and contrariwise what punishment God reserueth for the wicked. Last of all, hee teacheth howe the ministers ought to behaue themselues, forbidding them to vsurpe authoritie ouer the Church: also that yong men ought to be modest, and apt to learne, and so endeth with an exhortation.

CHAP. I.

1 He sheweth that through the aboundant mercie of God wee are elect and regenerate to a liuely hope, 7 And howe faith must be tried, 10 That the saluation of Christ is no newes, but a thing prophecied of olde. 13 He exhorteth them to a godly conuersation, for asmuch as they are now borne anew by the word of God.

PETER an Apostle of Iesus Christ, to [a] the strangers that dwell here and there throughout Pontus, Galatia, Cappadocia, Asia and Bithynia,

2 Elect according to the [b] foreknowledge of God the Father vnto sanctification of the spirit, ‖ through [c] obedience and sprinkling of the blood of Iesus Christ: Grace and peace be multiplied vnto you.

3 *Blessed be God euen the Father of our Lord Iesus Christ, which according to his aboundant mercy hath begotten vs againe vnto a [d] liuely hope by the resurrection of Iesus Christ from the dead,

4 To an inheritance vnmoztall and vndefiled, and that fadeth not away, reserued in [e] heauen for you,

5 Which are kept by the power of God through faith vnto saluation, which is prepared to be shewed in the [f] last time:

6 Wherein yee reioyce, though nowe for a season (if needs [g] require) yee are in heauinesse, through manifold tentations,

7 That the tryall of your faith, being much more precious then golde that perisheth (though it bee tried with fire) might bee founde vnto your prayse, and honour, and glorie, at the [h] appearing of Iesus Christ:

8 Whom ye haue not seene, and yet loue him, in whom now, though yee see him not, yet doe you beleeue, and reioyce with ioy vnspeakeable and glorious,

9 Receiuing the ‖ end of your faith, euen the saluation of your soules.

10 Of the which saluation the Prophets haue enquired and searched, which prophecied of the grace that should come vnto you,

11 Searching when or what time the Spirite which testified before of Christ which was in them, should declare the sufferings that should come vnto Christ, and the glory that should followe.

12 Vnto whome it was reuealed, that [i] not vnto themselues, but vnto vs they should minister the things which are nowe shewed vnto you by them which *haue preached vnto you the Gospell by the holy Ghost sent downe from heauen, the which things the Angels desire to beholde.

13 Wherefore, [k] gird vp the *loynes of your minde: be sober, and trust perfectly on the grace that is brought vnto you, by the [l] reuelation of Iesus Christ,

14 As obedient children, not fashioning your selues vnto the former [m] lustes of your ignorance:

15 But as he which hath called you, is holy, so be ye holy in *all maner of conuersation, 16 Because it is written, *Be yee holy, for I am holy.

17 And if yee call him Father, which without *respect of person iudgeth according to euery mans [o] worke, passe the time of your dwelling here in feare,

18 Knowing that ye were not redeemed with corruptible things, as siluer and golde, from your vaine conuersation, receiued by the traditions of the [o] fathers, 19 *But with the precious blood of Christ, as of a lambe vndefiled, and without spot.

20 Which was *ordeined before the foundation of the world, but was declared in the [p] last times for your sakes, 25 But the worde of the Lord endureth for euer: and this is the worde which is preached among you.

CHAP. II.

1 Hee exhorteth them to lay aside all vice, 4 Shewing that Christ is the foundation whereupon they builde. 9 The excellent estate of the Christians. 11 He prayeth them to abstaine from fleshly lustes. 13 To obey the rulers. 18 Howe seruants should behaue themselues toward their masters. 20 He exhorteth to suffer after the ensample of Christ.

WHerefore, * laying aside all malicy, ousnesse and all guile, and dissimulation, and enuie, and all euill speaking,

2 As new borne babes desire a the ‖ syncere milke of the worde, that ye may growe thereby,

3 If so be that ye haue tasted how bountifull the Lord is.

4 To whome ye come as vnto a liuing stone, disallowed of men, but chosen of God and precious,

5 And ye as liuely stones, be made a spirituall house, and holy * Priesthood to offer vp spirituall sacrifices acceptable to God by Iesus Christ.

6 Wherefore it is conteined in the Scripture, * Beholde, I put in b Sion a chiefe corner stone, elect and precious: and he that beleeueth therein, shall not be ashamed.

7 Vnto you therefore which beleeue, it is precious: but vnto them which bee disobedient, the * stone which the c builders disallowed, the same is made the head of the corner,

8 And a * stone to stumble at, and a rocke of offence, euen to them which stumble at the word being disobedient, vnto the which thing they were euen ordeined,

9 But ye are a chosen generation, a royall * Priesthood, an holy nation, a ‖ peculiar people, that ye should shew foorth the vertues of him that hath called you out of darknesse into his marueilous light,

10 * Which in time past were not a people, yet are nowe the people of God: which in time past were not vnder mercie, but now haue obteined mercie.

11 Dearely beloued, I beseech you as strangers and pilgrims, * abstaine from fleshly lustes, which fight against the soule, 12 * And haue your conuersation honest among the Gentiles, that they which speake euill of you as of euill doers, may by your * good workes which they shall see, glorifie God in the day of e the visitation.

13 * Submit your selues vnto all ‖ manner ordinance of man for the Lordes sake, whether it be vnto the King, as vnto the superiour, 14 Or vnto gouernours, as vnto them that are sent of him, for the punishment of euill doers, and for the praise of them that doe well.

15 For so is the will of God, that by well doing yee may put to silence the ignorance of the foolish men, 16 As free, and not as hauing the libertie for a cloke of maliciousnesse, but as the seruants of God.

17 Honour all men: * loue f brotherly fellowship: feare God: honour the King.

18 * Seruants, be subiect to your masters with all feare, not onely to the good and courteous, but also to the froward.

19 * For this is thanke worthie, if a man for g conscience toward God endure griefe suffring wrongfully.

20 For what praise is it, if when ye bee buffeted for your faults, yee take it patiently? but and if when yee doe well, yee suffer wrong, and take it patiently, this is acceptable to God.

21 For hereunto ye are called: for Christ also suffered for vs, leauing vs an ensample that ye should follow his steps.

22 * Who did no sinne, neither was there guile found in his mouth.

23 Who when he was reuiled, reuiled not againe: when he suffered, hee threatned not, but committed it to him that iudgeth righteously.

24 * Who his owne selfe bare our sinnes in his body on the tree, that wee being deliuered from sinne, should liue in righteousnesse: by whose stripes yee were healed.

25 For ye were as sheepe going astray: but are nowe returned vnto the shepheard and bishop of your soules.

CHAP. III.

Hebr.* 1. 3.

CHAP. IIII.

1 He exhorteth men to cease from sinne, 2 To spend no more time in vice, 7 To be sober and apt to pray, 8 To loue eche other, 12 To bee patient in trouble, 15 To beware that no man suffer as an euill doer. 16 But as a Christian man, and so not to be ashamed.

FOrasmuch then as Christ hath suffered for vs in the flesh, arme your selues likewise with the same minde, which is that he which hath suffered in the flesh, hath ceased from sinne,

2 That he henceforward should liue (as much time as remaineth in the flesh) not after the lustes of men, but after the will of God.

3 *For it is sufficient for vs that wee haue spent the time past of the life, after the lust of the Gentiles, walking in wantonnes, lusts, drunkennes, in gluttonnie, drinkings, and in abominable idolatries.

4 Wherein it seemeth to them strange, that ye runne not with them vnto the same excesse of ryot: therefore speake they euill of you.

5 Which shall giue accountes to him, that is readie to iudge quicke and dead.

6 For vnto this purpose was the Gospell preached also vnto the [b] dead, that they might bee condemned according to men, in the flesh, but might liue according to God, in the spirit.

7 Now the end of all things is at hand. Be ye therefore sober, and watching in prayer.

8 But aboue all things haue feruent loue among you: *for [c] loue couereth the multitude of sinnes.

9 *Bee ye harberous one to another, without grudging.

10 *Let euery man as he hath receiued the gift, minister the same one to another, as good dispolers of the manifolde grace of God.

11 If any man speake, let him talke as the words of God. If any man minister, let him doe it as of the ability which God ministreth, that God in all things may bee glorified through Jesus Christ, to whome is prayse and dominion for euer, and euer, Amen.

12 Dearely beloued, thinke it not strange concerning the fiery triall, which is among you to proue you, as though some strange thing were come vnto you:

13 But reioyce, in as much as yee are partakers of Christes sufferings, that when his glory shall appeare, ye may be glad and reioyce.

14 *If ye be railed vpon for the Name of Christ, blessed are ye: for the spirit of glorie, and of God resteth vpon you: which on their part is euill spoken of: but on your part is glorified.

15 But let none of you suffer as a murtherer, or as a theefe, or an euill doer, or as a busie bodye in other mens matters.

16 But if any man suffer as a Christian, let him not be ashamed: but let him glorifie God in this behalfe.

a Our sanctification standeth in two points, in dying to sinne, and liuing to God. ‖ Or, bodie. Ephes. 4. 22.

b Although the wicked thinke the Gospel new, and vexe you that imbrace it: yet hath it bene preached to them of time past which now are dead, to the intent that they might haue bene condemned, or dead to sinne in the flesh, and also might haue liued to God in the spirit, which two are the effect of the Gospel. Prou. 10. 12.

c As hate moueth vs to reproch our brother when he offendeth vs: so loue hideth and pardoneth the faults which he committeth against vs, though they be neuer so many. Rom. 12. 13. hebr. 13. 2. Rom. 12. 6. phil. 2. 14. Mat. 5. 10.

d That is, by the infidels.

‖Or, punishment. Iere.25.29. luke 23.31.

17 For the time is come, that ‖ iudgement must begin at * the house of God. If it first begin at vs, what shall the ende be of them which obey not the Gospel of God?

Pro.2.21,22.

c As concerning this life where he is punished.

18 * And if the righteous scarcely c bee saued, where shall the vngodly and the sinner appeare?

19 Wherefore let them that suffer according to the wil of God, commit their soules to him in well doing, as vnto a faithfull Creator.

CHAP. V.

2 The duetie of Pastours is to feede the flocke of Christ, and what reward they shall haue if they be diligent. 5 Hee exhorteth yong persons to submit themselues to the elders. 8 To be sober and to watch that they may resist the enemie.

a By Elders he vnderstandeth all them which preach, teach, or minister in the Church.

THe a Elders which are among you, I beseech which am also an elder, and a witnesse of the sufferings of Christ, and also a partaker of the glory that shall be reuealed,

2 Feede the flocke of ‖ God, which is dependeth vpon you, caring for it not by constraint, but willingly: not for filthie lucre, but of a ready minde:

‖Or, Christ.

‖Or, which is committed vnto you, or, asmuch as in you lyeth.

3 Not as though ye were Lordes ouer Gods heritage, but that yee may bee ensamples to the flocke.

4 And when the chiefe shepheard shall appeare, yee shall receiue an incorruptible crowne of glory.

5 Likewise ye yonger, submit your selues vnto the elders, and submit your selues euery man one to another: * decke your selues inwardly in lowlinesse of mynde: for God * resisteth the proud, and giueth grace to the humble.

Rom.12,10. Iames 4.6.

b Nothing commeth vnto vs, which we see not to apperteine to the rest of Christs members: and therefore wee ought not to refuse that condition which is common to all the Saints.

10 And the God of all grace, which hath called vs vnto his eternall glory by Christ Iesus, after that yee haue suffered a little, make you perfect, confirme, strengthen, and stablish you.

11 To him be glory and dominion for euer and euer. Amen.

12 By Syluanus a faithfull brother vnto you, as I suppose, haue I written briefly, exhorting and testifying howe that this is the true grace of God, wherein yee stand.

13 The Church that is at c Babylon elected together with you, saluteth you, and Marcus my sonne.

The second Epistle generall of Peter.

THE ARGVMENT.

THe effect of the Apostle here, is to exhort them which haue once professed the true fayth of Christ, to stand to the same euen to the last breath: also that God by his effectuall grace towards men, moueth them to holines of life, in punishing the hypocrites which abuse his Name, & in increasing his gifts in the godly: wherefore by godly life, he being now almost at deaths doore, exhorteth them to approue their vocation, not setting their affections on worldly things (as hee had oft written vnto them) but lifting their eyes toward heauen, as they be taught by ỹ Gospel, whereof he is a cleare witnesse, chiefly in that he heard with his owne eares that Christ was proclaimed fro heauen to be the Sonne of God, as likewise the Prophets testified. And least they should promise to themselues quietnesse by professing the Gospel, he warneth them both of troubles which they should susteine by the false teachers, and also by the mockers and contemners of religion, whose maners and trade he liuely setteth forth as in a table: aduertising the faithfull not onely to waite diligently for Christ, but also to beholde presently the day of his comming, and to preserue themselues vnspotted against the same.

CHAP. I.

4 For asmuch as the power of God hath giuen thē al things perteining vnto life, he exhorteth them to flee the corruption of worldly lustes, 10 To make their calling sure with good workes, and fruites of faith. 14 Hee maketh mention of his owne death, 17 Declaring the Lorde Iesus to be the true Sonne of God as he himselfe had seene vpon the mount.

a In that he declared himselfe iust and faithfull in accomplishing his promise by Christ.

SImon Peter a seruant and an Apostle of Iesus Christ, to you which haue obteined like precious faith with vs by the a righteousnes of our God and Sauiour Iesus Christ:

2 Grace and peace be multiplied to you, by the knowledge of God and of Iesus our Lord,

3 According as his b godly power hath giuen vnto vs all things that perteine vnto c life and godlinesse, d through the knowledge of him that hath called vs ‖ vnto glory and vertue.

b He speaketh of Christ as he is God and Sauiour.

c That is, saluation.

d The summe of our saluation and religion is to be led by Christ to the Father, who calleth vs in the Sonne.

‖Or, through his glory.

4 Whereby most great, e precious promises are giuen vnto vs, that by them yee should be partakers of the e godly nature, in that yee flee the corruption, which is in the world through lust.

e We are made partakers of the diuine nature, in that we flee the corruption of the world: or as Paul writeth, are dead to sinne, and are not in the flesh.

5 Therfore giue euen all diligence thereunto: ioyne moreouer f vertue with your faith: and with vertue, knowledge:

f Godly maners.

6 And

6 And with knowledge, temperance: and with temperance, patience: and with patience, godlinesse:

7 And with godlinesse, brotherly kindenesse: and with brotherly kindenesse, loue.

8 For if these things be among you, and abound, they wil make you that yee neither shalbe idle, nor vnfruitful in the knowledge of our Lord Iesus Christ.

9 For he that hath not these things, is blinde, and g cannot see farre off, and hath forgotten that he was purged from his olde sinnes.

10 Wherefore, brethren, giue rather diligence to make your calling and election h sure: for if ye doe these things, ye shall neuer i fall.

11 For by these meanes an entring shall be ministred vnto you abundantly into the euerlasting kingdome of our Lord and Sauiour Iesus Christ.

12 Wherefore, I will not be negligent to put you alwayes in remembrance of these things, though that ye haue knowledge, and be stablished in the present trueth.

13 For I thinke it meete as long as I am in this k tabernacle, to stirre you vp by putting you in remembrance, 14 Seeing I knowe that the time is at hand that I must lay downe this my tabernacle, euen as our Lorde Iesus Christ hath * shewed me.

15 I will endeuour therefore alwayes, that yee also may bee able to haue remembrance of these things after my departing.

16 For wee followed not * ‖ deceiuable fables, when wee opened vnto you the power, and comming of our Lorde Iesus Christ, but with our eyes we sawe his maiestie:

17 For hee receiued of God the Father honour and glory, when there came such a voyce to him from ỹ excellent glory, * This is my beloued Sonne, in whome I am well pleased.

18 And this voyce wee heard when it came from heauen, being with him in the l holy mount.

19 We haue also a most sure m word of the Prophets, to the which ye doe well that yee take heede, as vnto a light that shineth in a darke place, vntill the n day dawne, and the o day starre arise in your hearts.

20 * So that ye first know this, that no prophesie in the Scripture is of p any priuate ‖ motion.

21 For the prophesie came not in olde time by the will of man: but holy men of God spake as they were moued by the holy Ghost.

g The Greeke worde signifieth him that naturally cannot see, except he holdeth neere his eyes. So Peter calleth such as cannot see heauenly things which are farre off, purblind, or sandblind.

h Albeit it be sure in it selfe, forasmuch as God can not change: yet we must confirme it in our selues by the fruites of the Spirit, knowing that the purpose of God electeth, calleth, sanctifieth and iustifieth vs.

i For God wil euer vpholde you.

He propheseth of false teachers, & sheweth their punishment.

BVt there were false prophets also amõg the people, euen as there shall be false teachers among you: which priuily shall bring in damnable heresies, euen denying ỹ Lord, that hath bought them, and bring vpon themselues swift damnation.

2 And many shall follow their ‖ damnable wayes, by whom the way of trueth shall be euill spoken of,

3 And through couetousnesse shall they with fained wordes make a merchandise of you, whose iudgement long agone is not farre off, and their damnation sleepeth not.

4 For if God spared not the * Angels, that had sinned, but cast them downe into hel and deliuered them into chains of darknesse, to be kept vnto damnation:

5 Neither hath spared the olde worlde, but saued * Noe the eight person a preacher of righteousnesse, and brought in the flood vpon the world of the vngodly,

6 And * turned the cities of Sodom and Gomorrhe into ashes, condemned them and ouerthrewe them, and made them an ensample vnto them that after should liue vngodly,

7 * And deliuered iust Loth vexed with the vncleanly conuersation of the wicked,

8 (For he being righteous, and dwelling among them, in seeing and hearing, vexed his righteous soule from day to day with their vnlawfull deedes.)

9 The Lord knoweth to deliuer the godly out of tentation, and to reserue the vniust vnto the day of iudgement to bee punished:

10 And chiefly them that walke after the flesh, in the lust of vncleannesse, and despise the gouernment, which are presumptuous, and stand in their owne conceit, and feare not to speake euill of them that are in dignitie.

11 Whereas the Angels which are greater both in power and might, * giue not b railing iudgement against them before the Lorde.

12 But these, as c brute beasts, led with sensualitie and made to be taken, and destroyed, speake euill of those thinges which they knowe not, and shall perish through their owne corruption,

13 And shall receiue the wages of vnrighteousnesse, as they which count it pleasure to liue deliciously for a season. Spots they are and blots, d delighting them selues in their deceiuings, in feasting with you,

14 Hauing eyes full of adulterie, & that can not cease to sinne, beguiling vnstable soules: they haue hearts exercised with couetousnesse, cursed children, 15 Which forsaking the right way, haue gone astray, following the way of * Balaam, the sonne of Bosor, which loued the wages of vnrighteousnesse.

16 But hee was rebuked for his iniquitie: for the dumme Asse speaking with mans voyce, forbade the foolishnesse of the prophet.

17 * These are welles without water, and e cloudes caried about with a tempest, to whome the blacke darkenesse is reserued for euer.

CHAP. III.

3 He sheweth the impiety of them which mocke at Gods promises. 7 After what sort the end of the world shalbe. 8 That they prepare themselues thereunto. 16 Who they are which abuse the writings of S. Paul, and the rest of the Scriptures, 18 Concluding with eternall thanks to Christ Iesus.

THis second Epistle I nowe write vnto you, beloued, wherewith a I stirre vp, and warne your pure mindes, a For we fall quickely asleepe and forget that which we are taught. 1.Tim.4.1. 2.tim. 3.1. iude 18.

2 To call to remembrance the wordes, which were tolde before of the holy Prophets, and also the commandement of vs the Apostles of the Lord and Sauiour.

3 * This first vnderstand, that there shal come in the last dayes, mockers, which will walke after their lustes, b He meaneth them which had once professed Christian religion, but became afterward contemners & mockers, as Epicureans and Atheists.

4 And say, Where is the promise of his comming? for since the fathers died, all things continue alike from the beginning of the creation.

5 For this they b willingly knowe not, that the heauens were of olde, and the earth that was of the water and by the water, by the word of God.

6 Wherefore the c world that then was, perished, ouerflowed with the water.

c As touching the beautie thereof, and things which were therein, except them which were in the Arke.

7 But the heauens and earth, which are now, are kept by the same word in store, and reserued vnto fire against the day of iudgement, and of the destruction of vngodly men.

8 Dearely beloued, bee not ignorant of this one thing, that one day is with the Lorde, * as a thousande yeeres, and a thousand yeres, as one day.

Psal.90.4. Ezek.33.11. 1.tim.2.4.

9 The Lord is not slacke concerning his promise (as some men count slackenesse) but is patient towarde vs, and * d would haue no man to perish, but would all men to come to repentance.

d He speaketh not here of the secret and eternal counsell of God, whereby hee electeth whome it pleaseth him, but of the preaching of the Gospel, whereby all are called & bidden to ỹ banket. Matth.24.44. 1.thes.5.2. reu.3.3. & 16.15 Isa.65.17. & 66. 22. reuel.21.1.

10 * But the day of the Lord will come as a thiefe in the night, in the which ỹ heauens shal passe away with a noise, & the elements shall melt with heate, & the earth with the workes that are therein, shall be burnt vp.

11 Seeing therefore ỹ al these things must be dissolued, what maner persons ought yee to be in holy conuersation and godlines, 12 Looking for, & hasting vnto the comming of the day of God, by the which the heauens being on fire, shall be dissolued, and the elements shall melt with heate?

13 But we looke for *newe heauens, and a newe earth, according to his promise, wherein dwelleth righteousnes.

14 Wherefore, beloued, seeing that yee looke for such things, bee diligent that yee may be founde of him in e peace, without spot, and blameles.

e In quiet conscience. Rom.2.4.

15 * And suppose that the long suffering of our Lorde is saluation, euen as our beloued brother Paul according to the wisedome giuen vnto him wrote to f you,

f Albeit his epistles were written to peculiar Churches, yet they cõteine a generall doctrine apperteining to al men 16 As one, that in all his Epistles speaketh of these things: among the which some things are g hard to bee vnderstood, which they that are vnlearned and vnstable ‖peruert, as they doe also other Scriptures vnto their owne destruction.

g As no man condemneth the brightnes of the sunne because his eie is not able to susteine the clearenesse thereof: so the hardnesse when we cannot sometime compasse or perfectly vnderstand in the Scriptures, ought not to take away from vs the vse of the Scriptures.

‖Or, wrest.

17 Ye therefore beloued, seeing ye know these things before, beware least ye bee also plucked away with the errour of the wicked, and fall from your owne stedfastnes.

18 But growe in grace, and in the knowledge of our Lord & Sauiour Iesus Christ: to him be glory both now and for euermore. Amen.

The first Epistle generall of Iohn.

THE ARGVMENT.

AFter that S. Iohn had sufficiently declared, howe that our whole saluation doeth consist onely in Christ, least that any man should thereby take a boldnes to sinne, hee sheweth that no man can beleeue in Christ, vnlesse hee doth endeuour himselfe to keepe his commandements, which thing being done, hee exhorteth them to beware of false prophets, whom he calleth Antichrists, & to trie the spirits. Last of all, he doeth earnestly exhort them vnto brotherly loue, and to beware of deceiuers.

CHAP. I.

2 True witnesse of the euerlasting word of God. 7 The blood of Christ is the purgation of sinne. 10 No man a without sinne.

a That is, Christ, God eternall.
b That is, Christ being man.

THat which was a from the beginning, which wee haue b heard, which we haue seene with our eyes, which we haue looked vpon, and our handes haue handled of the worde c of life,

3 That, I say, which we haue seene and heard, declare wee vnto you, that yee may also e haue fellowshippe with vs, and that our our fellowship also may be with the Father, and with his Sonne Iesus Christ.

4 And these things write wee vnto you, that your ioy may be full.

5 This then is the message, which wee haue heard of him, & declare vnto you, that God *is f light, and in him is no darkenesse.

1 John 8.12.

f The fruites of our faith must declare whether we be ioyned in God or no: for God being the very puritie and light, will not haue fellowship with them which lie in sinne and darkenesse.

6 If wee say that wee haue fellowship with him, and walke in g darkenesse, we lie, and doe not truely:

7 But if wee walke in the light as he is in the light, we haue fellowship h one with another, and the * blood of Iesus Christ his Sonne cleanseth vs from all sinne.

8 * If we say that we haue no sinne, we deceiue our selues, and trueth is not in vs.

9 If we i acknowledge our sinnes, he is faithfull and iust, to forgiue vs our sinnes, and to cleanse vs from all vnrighteousnesse.

10 If wee say wee haue not sinned, wee make him a liar, and his ‖ word is not in vs.

g In an euill conscience, and without the feare of God.

CHAP. II.

1 Christ is our aduocate. 10 Of true loue, and howe it is tried. 18 To beware of Antichrist.

MY babes, these things write I vnto you, that ye sinne not: and if any man sinne, we haue an a Aduocate with the Father, Iesus Christ, the Iust.

a Christ is our onely aduocate and atonement: for the office of intercession and redemption are ioyned together.

2 And hee is the reconciliation for our sinnes: and not for ours onely, but also for the sinnes of b the whole world.

b That is, of them which haue embraced the Gospel by faith in all ages, degrees, and places: for there is no saluation without Christ.

3 And hereby we are sure that we c know him, if we keepe his commandements.

c That is, by faith & so obey him: for knowledge cannot be without obedience.

4 He that sayeth, I know him, and keepeth not his commaundements, is a lyar, and the trueth is not in him.

5 But hee that keepeth his word, in him is d the loue of God perfect in deede: hereby we knowe that we are in him.

d Whereby he loueth God: so that to loue God is to obey his word.

6 Hee that sayeth he remayneth in him, ought euen so to walke, as he hath walked.

7 Brethren, I write no newe ‖ commandement vnto you: but an olde commandement which yee haue had from the e beginning: the f olde commaundement is the worde, which yee haue heard from the beginning.

‖ Or, doctrine,

e When the Law was giuen.

f Loue thy neighbour as thy selfe, is the olde commaundement taught in the Law: but when Christ saith, So loue

8 Againe, a newe commaundement I write vnto you, that which is true in him, and also in you: for the darkenesse is past, and the true light now shineth.

9 He that sayeth that hee is in the light, and hateth his brother, is in darkenesse vntill this time.

10 * He that loueth his brother, abideth in the light, and there is none occasion of euill in him.

11 But he that hateth his brother, is in darkenesse, and walketh in darkenesse, and knoweth not whither he goeth, because that darknesse hath blinded his eyes.

12 g Little children, I write vnto you, because your sinnes are forgiuen you for h his Names sake.

g He meaneth all the faithfull children, as hee being their spiritual Father, attributing to olde men knowledge of great things, to yong men strength, to children obedience and reuerence to their gouernours.

h For Christes sake.

13 I write vnto you, fathers, beause yee haue knowen him that is from the beeginning. I write vnto you, yong men, because ye haue ouercome the ‖ wicked.

‖ Or, the diuell.

14 I write vnto you, babes, because ye haue knowne the Father. I haue written vnto you, fathers, because ye haue knowen him, that is from the beginning. I haue written vnto you, yong men, because ye are strong, and the word of God abideth in you, and ye haue ouercome the ‖ wicked.

‖ Or, the diuell.

15 Loue not ý i world, neither the things that are in the worlde. If any man loue the * worlde, the loue of the father is not in him.

i As it is aduersarie to God. Iam.4.4.

m Ambition and pride.

17 And the world passeth away, and the lust thereof, but hee that fulfilleth the will of God, abideth euer.

18 Babes, it is the last time, and as yee haue heard that Antichrist shall come, euen now are there many Antichristes: whereby we know that it is the last time.

n Which seemed to haue bene of our number, because for a time they occupied a place in the Church.

19 n They went out from vs, but they were not of vs: for if they had bene of vs, they would haue continued with vs. But this commeth to passe, that it might appeare, that they are not all of vs.

q In this Epistle which I nowe write vnto you.

22 Who is a lyar, but hee that denieth that Iesus is r Christ? he same is the Antichrist that denyeth the Father and the Sonne.

r He that taketh away or diminisheth either of the natures in Christ, or hee that confoundeth or separateth them, & he that putteth not difference betwene the person of the Sonne, and also he that beleeueth not to haue remission of sinnes by his onely sacrifice, denyeth Christ to be the true Messias.

23 Whosoeuer denyeth the Sonne, the same ‡ hath not the Father.

f Then the infidels worship not the true God.

‡ But he that confesseth the Sonne, hath also the father.

24 Let therefore abide in you that same which yee haue heard from the beginning. If that which ye haue heard from the beginning, shall remaine in you, ye also shall continue in the Sonne, and in the Father.

25 And this is the promise that hee hath promised vs, euen eternall life.

26 These things haue I written vnto you, concerning them that deceiue you.

27 But the anointing which ye receiued of him, dwelleth in you: & ye neede not that any man teach you: but as the same t anointing teacheth you of all things, and it is true, and is not lying, and as it taught you, ye shall abide ‖ in him.

‖ Or, in Christ.

t Christ communicateth himselfe vnto you, and teacheth you by the holy Ghost and his ministers.

28 And nowe, u little children, abide in him, that when he shall appeare, we may be bolde, and not be ashamed before him at his comming.

u By this name hee meaneth the whole Church of Christ in generall.

29 If yee knowe that hee is righteous, knowe ye that he which doeth righteousnesse, is borne of him.

CHAP.

CHAP. III.

1 The singular loue of God toward vs, 7 And howe we againe ought to loue one another.

BEholde, what loue the Father hath shewed on vs, that we should be [a] called the sonnes of God: for this cause the world knoweth you not, because it knoweth not him.

2 Dearely beloued, nowe are wee the sonnes of God, but yet it doth not appeare what we shall be: and we know that when [b] he shall appeare, we shall be [c] like him: for we shall see him as he is.

3 And euery man that hath this hope in him, purgeth himselfe, euen as he is pure.

4 Whosoeuer [d] committeth sinne, transgresseth also the law: for sinne is the transgression of the Law.

5 And ye know that he appeared that he might * take away our sinnes, and in him is no sinne.

6 Whosoeuer abideth in him, sinneth not: whosoeuer sinneth, hath not seene him, neither hath knowen him.

7 Litle children, Let no man deceiue you: he that doth righteousnesse, is righteous, as he is righteous.

8 He that *committeth sinne, is of the deuill: for the deuill sinneth from the [e] beginning: for this purpose appeared the Sonne of God, that hee might loose the workes of the deuill.

9 Whosoeuer is borne of God, sinneth not: for his [f] seede remaineth in him, neither can hee sinne, because hee is borne of God.

10 In this are the children of God knowen, and the children of the deuill: whosoeuer doth not righteousnesse, is not of God, neither he that [h] loueth not his brother.

11 For this is the message, that ye heard from the beginning, that * wee should loue one another.

12 Not as * Cain which was of the wicked, and slewe his brother: and wherefore slew he him? because his owne workes were euill, and his brothers good.

13 Maruell not, my brethren, though the world hate you.

14 Wee knowe that wee are translated from death vnto life, because wee [i] loue the brethren: * hee that loueth not his brother, abideth in death.

15 Whosoeuer hateth his brother, is a manslayer: and yee knowe that no manslayer hath eternall life abiding in him.

16 * Hereby haue wee perceiued loue, that he laid downe his life for vs: therefore we ought also to lay downe our liues for the brethren.

17 * And whosoeuer hath this worldes good, and seeth his brother haue neede, and shutteth vp his compassion from him, howe dwelleth the loue of God in him?

18 My little children, let vs not loue in word, neither in tongue onely, but in [k] deede and in trueth.

19 For thereby wee knowe that we are of the trueth, and shall before him assure our hearts.

20 For if our [l] heart condemne vs, God is greater then our heart, and knoweth all things.

21 Beloued, if our heart condemne vs not, then haue we holdnesse toward God.

22 * And whatsoeuer wee aske, wee receiue of him, because wee keepe his commandements, and doe those things which are pleasing in his sight.

23 * This is then his commandement, That we beleeue in the Name of his sonne Iesus Christ, and loue one another, as hee gaue commandement.

24 * For hee that keepeth his commandements, dwelleth in him, and hee in him: and hereby wee knowe that hee abideth in vs, euen by the spirite which hee hath giuen vs.

CHAP. IIII.

1 Difference of spirites. 2 Howe the spirite of God may bee knowen from the spirite of errour. 7 Of the loue of God and of our neighbour.

DEarely beloued, beleeue not euery spirite, but trie the [a] spirites whether they are of God: for many false prophets are gone out into the world.

2 Hereby shal ye know the spirit of God, Euery spirite that confesseth that Iesus [b] Christ is come in the flesh, is of God.

3 And euery spirite which confesseth not that Iesus Christ is come in the flesh, is not of God: but this is the spirite of Antichrist, of whome yee haue heard, howe that he should come, and [c] nowe already hee is in the world.

4 Litle children, ye are of God, and haue ouercome them: for greater is he that is in you, then [d] he that is in the world.

5 They are of the world, therfore speake they of the worlde, and the worlde heareth them.

6 Wee are of God, * hee that knoweth God, [e] heareth vs: hee that is not of God, heareth vs not. Hereby knowe wee the spirite of trueth, and the spirit of errour.

7 Beloued, let vs loue one another: for loue commeth of God, and euery one that loueth, is borne of God, and knoweth God.

8 He that loueth not, knoweth not God: for God is loue.

9 * In [f] this appeared the loue of God toward vs, because God sent his onely begotten Sonne into the worlde, that wee might liue through him.

10 Herein is loue, not that wee loued God, but that he loued vs, & sent his Sonne to be a [g] reconciliation for our sinnes.

11 Beloued, if God so loued vs, we ought also to loue one another.

12 * No man hath seene God at any time. If wee loue one another, God dwelleth in vs, and his loue is perfect in vs.

13 Hereby knowe wee that wee dwell in him, and he in vs: because he hath giuen vs of his Spirit.

14 And wee haue seene, and doe testifie, that the Father sent the Sonne to bee the Sauiour of the world.

15 Whosoeuer [h] confesseth that Iesus is the Sonne of God, in him dwelleth God, and he in God.

WHosoeuer beleeueth that Iesus is the Christ, is a borne of God, and euery one that loueth him which begate, loueth him also which is begotten of him.

2 In this wee knowe that wee loue the children of God, when we loue b God, and keepe his commandements.

3 For this is the loue of God, that wee keepe his commandements: and his * commandements are not c grieuous.

4 For all that is borne of God, ouercommeth the worlde: and this is the victory that ouercommeth the worlde, euen our faith.

5 * Who is it that ouercommeth the worlde, but hee which beleeueth that Iesus is the Sonne of God?

6 This is that Iesus Christ that came by d water, e and blood, not by water onely, but by water & blood: and it is the f spirit, that beareth witnesse: for the spirit is g trueth.

7 For there are three, which beare record in heauen, the Father, the Word, and the holy Ghost: and these three are one.

8 And there are three, which beare record in the earth, the spirite, and the water, and the blood: and these three agree in one.

9 If we receiue the witnesse of men, the witnesse of God is greater: for this is the witnesse of God, which hee testified of his Sonne.

14 And this is the assurance, that wee haue in him, * that if we aske any thing according to his will, he heareth vs.

15 And if wee knowe that hee heareth vs, whatsoeuer wee aske, wee knowe that wee haue the petitions that we haue desired of him.

16 If any man see his brother sinne a sinne, that is not vnto death, let him aske, and he shall giue him life for them that sinne not h vnto death. * There is a sinne i vnto death: I say not that thou shouldest pray for it.

17 All vnrighteousnesse is sinne, but there is a sinne not vnto death.

The second Epistle of Iohn.

He writeth vnto a certaine Ladie, 4 Reioycing that her children walke in the trueth, 5 And exhorteth them vnto loue, 7 Warneth them to beware of such deceiuers as denie that Iesus Christ is come in the flesh, 8 Prayeth them to continue in the doctrine of Christ, 10 And to haue nothing to doe with them that bring not the true doctrine of Christ Iesus our Sauiour.

2 For the trueths sake which dwelleth in vs, and shalbe with vs for euer:

3 Grace bee with you, mercie and peace from God the Father, and from the Lord Iesus Christ the Sonne of the Father, with b trueth and loue.

b We cannot receiue the grace of God, except wee haue the true knowledge of him, of the which knowledge loue proceedeth.

4 I reioyced greatly, that I founde of thy children walking c in trueth, as we haue receiued a commandement of the father.

5 And now beseech I thee Lady, (not as writing a newe commandement vnto thee, but that same which wee had from the beginning) that we * loue one another.

6 And this is the loue, that wee should walke after his b commandements. This commandement is, that as yee haue heard from the beginning, ye should walke in it.

11 For he that biddeth him, God speede, is partaker of his euil deedes. Although I had many things to write vnto you, yet I would not write with paper and inke: but I trust to come vnto you, and speake mouth to mouth, that our ioy may be full.

8 We therfore ought to receiue such, that we might be helpers to the trueth.
9 I wrote vnto the Church: but Diotrephes which loueth to haue the preeminence among them, receiueth vs not.
10 Wherefore if I come, I will declare his deedes c which hee doeth, prating against vs with malicious words, and not therewith content, neither he himselfe receiueth the brethren, but forbiddeth them that would, and thrusteth them out of the Church.
11 Beloued, followe not that which is euil, but that which is good: hee that doeth well, is of God: but he that doeth euil, hath not ‖ seene God.
12 Demetrius hath good report of all men, and of the trueth it selfe: yea, and we our selues beare record, and ye knowe that our record is true.
13 I haue many things to write: but I wil not with inke and pen write vnto thee.

THE ARGVMENT.

SAint Iude admonisheth all Churches generally to take heede of deceiuers, which go about to draw away the hearts of the simple people, from the trueth of God, and willeth them to haue no societie with such, whome he setteth forth in their liuely colours, shewing by diuers examples of the Scriptures, what horrible vengeance is prepared for them: finally he comforteth the faithful, and exhorteth them to persevere in the doctrine of the Apostles of Iesus Christ.

IVDE a seruaunt of Iesus Christ, and brother of Iames, to them which are called and sanctified a of GOD the Father, and b reserued to Iesus Christ:
2 Mercie vnto you, and peace, and loue be multiplied.
3 Beloued, when I gaue all diligence to write vnto you of the common saluation, it was needefull for me to write vnto you, to exhort you, that ye shoulde earnestly c contend for the mainteinance of the faith, which was d once giuen vnto the Saints.
4 For there are certaine men crept in which were before of old e ordained to this condemnation: vngodly men they are which turne the grace of our God into wantonnesse, and * denie God the onely Lorde, and our Lord Iesus Christ.
5 I will therefore put you in remembrance, forasmuch as yee once knewe this, howe that the Lorde, after that he had deliuered the people out of Egypt, * destroyed them afterwarde which f beleeued not.

THE ARGVMENT.

IT is manifest, that the holy Ghost would as it were gather into this most excellent booke a summe of those prophecies, which were written before, but should be fulfilled after the comming of Christ, adding also such things as should be expedient, as well to forewarne vs of the dangers to come, as to admonish vs to beware some, and encourage vs against others. Herein therefore is liuely set forth the diuinitie of Christ, & the testimonies of our redemption: what things the Spirit of God alloweth in ỹ ministers, and what things he reproueth: the prouidence of God for his elect, and of their glorie and consolation in the day of vengeance: howe that the hypocrites which sting like Scorpions the members of Christ, shall be destroyed. But the Lambe Christ shall defend them, which beare witnesse to the trueth, who in despite of the beast and Satan will raigne ouer all. The liuely description of Antichrist is set foorth, whose time and power notwithstanding is limitted, and albeit that hee is permitted to rage against the elect, yet his power stretcheth no further then to the hurt of their bodyes: and at length he shall bee destroyed by the wrath of God, when as the elect shall giue prayse to God for the victorie: neuertheless for a season God wil permit this Antichrist, and strumpet, vnder colour of faire speach and pleasant doctrine, to deceiue the world: wherefore he aduertiseth the godly (which are but a small portion) to auoyde this harlots flatteries, and bragges, whose ruine without mercy they shall see, and with the heauenly companies sing continuall prayses: for the Lambe is married: the worde of God hath gotten the victorie: Satan that a long time was vntyed, is nowe cast with his ministers into the pit of fire to be tormented for euer, whereas contrarywise the faithfull (which are the holy citie of Ierusalem, and wife of the Lambe) shall enioy perpetuall glory. Reade diligently, iudge soberly, and call earnestly to God for the true vnderstanding thereof.

3 Blessed is hee that readeth, and they that heare the words of this [d] prophecie, and keepe those things which are written therein: for the time is at [e] hand.

4 John, to the [f] seuen Churches which are in Asia, Grace be with you, & peace from him, Which * is, and Which was, & Which is to come, & from the [g] seuen spirits which are before his throne,

5 And frō Iesus Christ, which is a* faithfull witnesse, and * the first begotten of the dead, and Prince of the Kings of the earth, vnto him that loued vs, and washed vs from our sinnes in his * blood,

6 And made vs * Kings and Priests vnto God, euen his Father, to him be glory and dominion for euermore, Amen.

7 Behold, he commeth with* clouds, and euery eye shall see him: yea, euen they which [h] pearced him through: and all kinreds of the earth shall wayle ‖ before him. Euen so, Amen.

8 I* am [i] Alpha and Omega, the beginning and the ending, sayth the Lord, Which is, and Which was, and Which is to come, euen the Almighty.

9 I John, euen your brother, and companion in tribulation, and in the kingdome and patience of Iesus Christ, was in the yle called Patmos, for the word of God, and for the witnessing of Iesus Christ.

10 And I was rauished in spirit on [k] the Lords day, and heard behinde me a great voyce, as it had bene of a trumpet, 11 Saying, I am [l] Alpha and Omega, the first and the last: and that which thou seest, write in a booke, and send it vnto the [m] seuen Churches which are in Asia, vnto Ephesus, and vnto Smyrna, and vnto Pergamus, and vnto Thyatira, and vnto Sardi, and vnto Philadelphia, and vnto Laodicea.

12 Then I turned back to see the [n] voyce that spake with me: and when I was turned, I saw [o] seuen golden candlesticks, 13 And in the middes of the seuen candlesticks, one like vnto the [p] Sonne of man, clothed with a garment downe to the feete, and girded about [r] the paps with a golden girdle.

14 His head, and haires were [s] white as white wooll, and as snow, and his eyes were as a [t] flame of fire.

15 And his feete like vnto ‖ fine [u] brasse, burning as in a furnace: and his [x] voyce as the sound of many waters.

16 And hee had in his right hand seuen [y] starres: & out of his mouth went a [z] sharpe two edged sword: and his face shone as the sunne shineth in his strength.

17 And when I saw him, I fell at his feete as * dead: then he laid his right [a] hand vpon me, saying vnto me, Feare not: I am the [b] first and the last,

18 And am aliue, but I was dead: and behold, I am aliue for euermore, Amen: and I haue the [c] keyes of hell and of death.

19 Write the things which thou hast seene, & the things which are, & the things which shall come [d] hereafter.

20 The mystery of [e] the seuen starres which thou sawest in my right hand, and the seuen golden candlesticks, is this, The seuen starres are the [f] Angels of the seuen Churches: and the seuen candlesticks which thou sawest, are the seuen Churches.

He exhorteth foure Churches 5 To repentance, 10 To perseuerance, patience & amendement, 5. 14. 20. 23. Aswel by threatnings, 7. 10. 17. 26. As promises of reward.

VNto the [a] Angell of the Church of Ephesus write, these things saith he that [b] holdeth the seuē starres in his right hand, and [d] walketh in the middes of the seuen golden candlesticks.

2 I know thy workes, and thy labour, and thy patience, and how thou canst not forbeare them which are euill, and hast examined them which say they are Apostles, and are not, and hast found them liars.

3 And thou hast suffered, and hast patience, and for my Names sake hast laboured, and hast not fainted.

4 Neuertheles I haue somewhat against thee, because thou hast left thy first [e] loue.

5 Remember therefore frō whence thou art fallen, & repent, & do the first works: or els I will come against thee shortly, and will remoue thy [f] candlestick out of his place, except thou amend.

d According to his promise, Mat. 28.20. he will be with them to the ende of the world.
e Thy first loue that thou haddest towarde God and thy neighbour at the first preaching of the Gospel.
f The office of the Pastor is compared to a candlestick or lampe, for as much as he ought to shine before men.

6 But this thou hast, that thou hatest the workes of the [g]Nicolaitanes, which I also hate.

7 ¶ He that hath an eare, heare what the Spirit saith vnto the Churches, To him that ouercommeth, will I giue to eate of the tree of [h] life, which is in the middes of the Paradise of God.

8 ¶ And vnto the [i] Angel of the Church of the Smyrnians write, These things saith he that is first, and last, which was dead, and is [k] aliue.

9 I knowe thy workes and [l] tribulation, and pouertie, (but thou art [m] rich) and I knowe the blasphemy of them, which say they are Iewes, and are [n] not, but are the Synagogue of Satan.

10 Feare none of those things, which thou shalt suffer: beholde, it shall come to passe, that the [o] deuill shall cast some of you into prison, that yee may be [p] tryed, and yee shall haue tribulation [q] ten dayes: bee thou faithfull vnto the death, and I will giue thee the crowne of life.

11 He that hath an eare, heare what the Spirit saith to the Churches. He that ouercommeth shall not be hurt of the [r] second death.

12 And to the Angel of [s] the Church which is at Pergamus write, Thus saith hee which hath the sharpe [t] sworde with two edges, 13 I know thy workes and where thou dwellest, euen where Satans [u] throne is, and thou keepest my Name, and hast not denyed my faith, [x] euen in those dayes when Antipas my faithfull martyr was slaine among you, where Satan dwelleth.

14 But I haue a few things against thee, because thou hast there them that maintaine the [x] doctrine of [y] Balaam, which taught Balac to put a stumbling block before the children of Israel, that they should eate of things sacrificed vnto idoles, and commit fornication.

15 Euen so hast thou them, that maintaine the doctrine of [y] Nicolaitans, which thing I hate.

16 Repent thy selfe, or else I will come vnto thee shortly, and will fight against them with the sword of my mouth.

17 He that hath an eare, heare what the Spirit saith vnto the Churches. To him that ouercommeth, will I giue to eate of the [o] Manna that is hid, and will giue him a [z] white stone, and in the stone a [a] new name written, which no man knoweth sauing he that receiueth it.

18 ¶ And vnto the Angel of the Church which is at Thyatira write, These things saith the Sonne of God, which hath his eies like vnto a flame of fire, and his feete like ‖ fine brasse.

19 I knowe thy workes and thy loue, and [b] seruice, and faith, and thy patience, and thy workes, and that they are moe at the last then at the first.

20 Notwithstanding, I haue a few things against thee, that thou sufferest the woman [c] Iezabel, which calleth her selfe a Prophetesse, to teach and to deceiue my seruants, to make them [d] commit fornication, and to eate meates sacrificed vnto idoles.

21 And I gaue her space to repent of her fornication, and she repented not.

22 Behold, I wil cast her into a bed, and them that commit fornication with her, into great affliction, except they repent them of their workes.

23 And I will kill her [e] children with death: and all the Churches shall knowe that I am he which [f] search the reines and hearts: and I will giue vnto euery one of you according vnto your workes.

24 And vnto you, I say, the rest of them of Thyatira, As many as haue not this learning, neyther haue knowen the [g] deepenesse of Satan (as they speake) I will put vpon you none other burden.

25 But that which ye haue already, hold fast till I come.

26 For he that ouercommeth and keepeth my workes vnto the ende, to him will I giue power ouer nations, 27 * And he shall rule them with a rod of yron: and as the vessels of a potter shall they be broken.

28 Euen as I receiued of my Father, so will I giue him the morning starre.

29 Let him that hath an eare, heare what the Spirit saith to the Churches.

He exhorteth the Churches or ministers to the true profession of faith, and to watching, 12 With promise to them that persewere.

AND write vnto the Angel of ỳ Church which is at Sardi, These things saith he that hath the seuen Spirits of God, and the seuen starres, I knowe thy workes: for thou hast a name that thou [a] liuest, but thou art dead.

a The minister liueth when he bringeth forth good fruits, els he is dead.

5 He that ouercommeth, shall be clothed in white aray, and I will not put out his name out of the * Booke of life, but I will confesse his name before my Father, and before his Angels.

6 Let him that hath an eare, heare what the Spirit saith vnto the Churches.

7 ¶ And write vnto the Angell of the Church which is of Philadelphia, These thinges sayeth hee that is Holy and True, which hath the * key of Dauid, which openeth and no man shutteth, and shutteth and no man openeth,

8 I knowe thy workes: behold, I haue set before thee an open [d] doore, and no man can shut it: for thou hast a little strength, and hast kept my word, and hast not denied my Name.

9 Beholde, I will make them of the Synagogue of Satan, which call themselues Iewes and are not, but doe lie: behold, I say, I will make them that they shall come and [e] worship before thy feete, and shall knowe that I haue loued thee.

10 Because thou hast kept the worde of my patience, therefore I will deliuer thee from the houre of tentation, which will come vpon all the worlde, to trie them that dwell vpon the earth.

11 Beholde, I come shortly: holde that which thou hast, that no man take thy [f] crowne.

12 Him that ouercommeth, will I make a pillar in the Temple of my God, and hee shall goe no more out: and I will write vpon him the Name of my God, and the Name of the citie of my God, which is the newe Ierusalem, which commeth downe out of heauen from my God, and I will write vpon him my new Name.

13 Let him that hath an eare, heare what the Spirit saith vnto the Churches.

14 And vnto the Angel of the Church of the Laodiceans write, These things sayeth [g] Amen, the faithfull and true witnesse, the [h] beginning of the creatures of God, 15 I knowe thy workes, that thou art neither cold nor hot: I would thou werest colde or hot.

16 Therefore, because thou art luke warme, and neither colde nor hot, it will come to passe, that I shall spewe thee out of my mouth.

17 For thou sayest, I am [i] rich and increased with goods, and haue [k] neede of nothing, and knowest not how thou art wretched and miserable, and poore, and blinde, and naked.

18 I counsel thee to buy of me gold tried by the fire, that thou mayest be made rich, and white rayment, that thou mayest bee clothed, and that thy filthy nakednesse doe not appeare: and [l] anoint thine eyes with eye salue, that thou mayest see.

19 As many as I loue, I * rebuke and chasten: be [m] zealous therefore and amend.

20 Beholde, I stand at the doore, and knocke. If any man heare my voyce and open the doore, I will come in vnto him, and will sup with him, and he with me.

21 To him that ouercommeth, will I graunt to sit with me in my [n] throne, euen as I ouercame, and sit with my Father in his throne.

1 The vision of the maiestie of God. 2 He seeth the throne and one sitting vpon it, 8 and 24. seates about it with 24. elders sitting vpon them, and foure beastes, praysing God day and night.

AFter this I looked, and behold, a [a] doore was open in heauen, and the first voyce which I heard, was as it were of a trumpet talking with me, saying, Come vp hither, and I will shew thee things which must be done hereafter.

2 And immediatly I was rauished in the spirit, and beholde, a throne was set in heauen, and one sate vpon the throne.

3 And [b] he that sate, was to looke vpon like vnto a Iasper stone, & a Sardine, and there was a rainebow round about [c] the throne in sight like to an Emeraud.

4 And round about [c] throne were foure and twentie seates, and vpon the seates I sawe [c] foure and twentie Elders sitting, clothed in white raiment, and had on their heads crownes of golde.

5 And out of [c] throne [d] proceeded [e] lightnings, and thunderings, and voyces, and there were seuen lampes of fire burning before the throne, which are the seuen spirits of God.

6 And before the throne there was a [f] sea of glasse like vnto [e] christall: & in the midst of the throne, and round about the throne were foure [b] beastes full of eyes before and behind.

7 And the first beast was like a lyon, and the second beast like a calfe, and the third beast had a face as a man, and the fourth beast was like a flying egle.

8 And the foure beastes had each one of them sixe wings about him: and they were full of eyes within, and they ceased not day nor night, saying, [i] * Holy, holy, holy, Lord God almightie, [k] Which was, and [k] Which is, and [k] Which is to come.

9 And when those beastes gaue glory, & honour, and thankes to him that sate on the throne, which liueth for euer and euer,

CHAP. V.

1 He seeth the Lambe opening the booke, 8.14 And therefore the foure beastes, the 24. Elders, and the Angels praise the Lambe, and doe him worship, 9 For their redemption and other benefits.

AND I sawe in the right hande of him that sate vpon the throne, a a Booke written within, and on the backeside, sealed with b seuen seales,

2 And I sawe a strong Angel, which preached with a loude voyce, Who is worthie to open the Booke, and to loose the seales thereof?

3 And no man in heauen, nor in earth, neither vnder the earth was able to open the Booke, neither to looke thereon.

4 Then I wept much, because no man was founde worthie to open, and to reade the Booke, neither to looke thereon.

5 And one of the Elders said vnto me, Weepe not: beholde, the *Lion which is of the tribe of Iuda, the roote of Dauid, hath obteined to open the Booke, & to loose the seuen seales thereof.

6 Then I beheld, and loe, in the middes of the throne, and of the foure beastes, & in the middes of the Elders, stoode a Lambe, as though hee had bene killed, which had d seuen hornes, and e seuen eyes, which are the seuen spirits of God, sent into all the world.

7 And he came, and tooke the Booke out of the right hand of him that sate vpon the throne.

8 And when hee had taken the Booke, the foure beasts, and the foure and twentie Elders f fell downe before the Lambe, hauing euery one harpes and golden vials full of odours, which are the g prayers of the Saints.

9 And they sung a newe song, saying, Thou art worthie to take the Booke, and to open the seales thereof, because thou wast killed, and hast h redeemed vs to God by thy blood out of euery kinred, and tongue, and people, and nation,

10 And hast made vs vnto our God *Kings and Priestes, and we shall i reigne on the earth.

11 Then I beheld, and I heard the voyce of many Angels rounde about the throne, and about the beastes and the Elders, and there were * thousand thousands,

12 Saying with a loude voyce, Worthie is the *Lambe that was killed, to receiue power, and riches, and wisedome, and strength, and honour, and glory, and praise.

13 And all the creatures which are in heauen, and on the earth, and vnder the earth, and in the sea, & all that are in them, heard I, saying, Praise, and honour, and glory, and power be vnto him, that sitteth vpon the throne, and vnto the Lambe for euermore.

14 And the foure beastes saide, Amen, and the foure & twentie Elders fell downe, and worshipped him that liueth for euermore.

CHAP. VI.

The Lambe openeth the fiue seales, and many things follow the opening thereof, so that this conteineth a generall prophecie to the end of the world.

AFter, I beheld when the Lambe had opened one a of the seales, and I heard one of the foure beastes say, as it were the b noyse of thunder, Come and see.

2 Therefore I beheld, and loe, there was a c white horse, and hee that d sate on him, had a bowe, and a crowne was giuen vnto him, and he went forth conquering that hee might ouercome.

3 And when hee had opened the second seale, I heard the second beast say, Come and see.

4 And there went out another horse, that was e red, and power was giuen to him that f sate thereon, to take peace from the earth, and that they should kill one another, and there was giuen vnto him a great sword.

5 And when hee had opened the third seale, I heard the third beast say, Come and see. Then I beheld, and loe, g a blacke horse, and he that sate on him, had balances in his hand.

6 And I heard a voyce in the middes of the foure beastes say, A h measure of wheate for a i peny, and three measures of barley for a peny, and oyle, and wine hurt thou not.

7 And when hee had opened the fourth seale, I heard the voyce of the fourth beast say, Come and see.

8 And I looked, and beholde, a k pale horse, and his name that sate on him was Death, and ‖Hell followed after him, and power was giuen vnto them ouer the fourth part of the earth, to kil with sword, and with hunger, and with death, and with the beasts of the earth.

9 And when hee had opened the l fift seale, I sawe vnder the altar m the soules of them that were killed for the worde of God, and for the testimony which they maintained.

10 And they cryed with a loude voyce, saying, How long, Lord, holy and true, doest not thou iudge and auenge our blood on the that dwell on the earth?

11 And long white robes were giuen vnto euery one, and it was said vnto them, that they should rest for a little season vntill their fellow seruaunts, and their brethren that shoulde bee killed euen as they were, were fulfilled.

12 And I beheld when hee had opened the fift seale, and loe, there was a great n earthquake, and the o sunne was as blacke as sackecloth of haire, and the q moone was like blood.

a The opening of the seale is the declaration of Gods will, and the executing of his iudgements.

l The continuall persecution of the Church noted by the fift seale.
m The soules of the Saints are vnder the altar, which is Christ, meaning that they are in his safe custodie in the heauens.

o That is, the brightnesse of the Gospel.
p The traditions of men.
q The Church miserably defaced with idolatrie, and afflicted by tyrants.

13 And the *starres of heauen fell vnto the earth, as a figge tree casteth her greene figs, when it is shaken of a mightie winde.

14 And [f]heauen departed away, as a scrole when it is rolled, and euery mountaine and Ile were mooued out of their places.

15 And the kings of the earth, and the great men, and the rich men, and the chiefe captaines, and the mightie men, and euery bond man, and euery free man, hid themselues in dennes, and among the rockes of the mountaines,

16 And sayde to the [t]mountaines and rocks, *[u] Fall on vs, and hide vs from the presence of him that sitteth on the throne, and from the wrath of the Lambe.

17 For the great day of his wrath is come, and who can stand?

CHAP. VII.

4. 9 He seeth the seruants of God sealed in their foreheads out of all nations and people, 15 Which though they suffer trouble, yet the Lambe feedeth them, leadeth them to the fountaine of liuing water, 17 And God shall wipe away all teares from their eyes.

AND after that, I sawe foure Angels stand on the foure corners of the earth, holding the foure *winds of the [b]earth, that the windes shoulde not blowe on the earth, [c]neither on [d]the sea, neither on any [d]tree.

2 And I sawe another ‖Angel come vp from the East, which had the seale of the liuing God, and he cried with a loude voyce to the foure Angels to whome power was giuen to hurt the earth, and the sea,

3 Saying, [e]Hurt ye not the earth, neither the sea, neither the trees, till wee haue [f]sealed the seruantes of our God in their foreheads.

4 And I heard the number of them, which were sealed, [g]there were sealed an hundreth and foure and fourtie thousande of all the tribes of the children of Israel.

5 Of the tribe of Iuda were sealed twelue thousand. Of the tribe of Reuben were sealed twelue thousand. Of the tribe of Gad were sealed twelue thousand.

6 Of the tribe of Aser were sealed twelue thousand. Of the tribe of Nephthalt were sealed twelue thousand. Of the tribe of Manasses were sealed twelue thousand.

7 Of the tribe of Simeon were sealed twelue thousand. Of the tribe of [h]Leui were sealed twelue thousand. Of the tribe of Issachar were sealed twelue thousand. Of the tribe of Zabulon were sealed twelue thousand.

8 Of the tribe of [i]Ioseph were sealed twelue thousand. Of the tribe of Beniamin were sealed twelue thousand.

9 After these things I beheld, and loe, a great multitude, which no man could number of all nations, and kinreds, and people, and tongues, stoode before the throne, and before the Lambe, clothed with long [k]white robes, and [l]palmes in their handes.

10 And they cryed with a loude voyce, saying, [m]Saluation commeth of our God, that sitteth vpon the throne, and of the Lambe.

11 And all the Angels stoode round about the throne, and about the Elders, and the foure beastes, and they fell before the throne on their faces, and worshipped God, 12 Saying, Amen. Prayse and glory, and wisedome, and thankes, and honour, and power, and mught be vnto our God for euermore, Amen.

13 And one of the Elders spake, saying vnto me, What are these which are arayed in long white robes? and [n]whence came they?

14 And I sayde vnto him, Lorde, thou knowest. And he said to me, These are they, which came out of great tribulation, and haue washed their long robes, and haue made their long robes white in *the blood of the Lambe.

15 Therefore are they in the presence of the throne of [o]God, and serue him day and [p]night in his Temple, and hee that sitteth on the throne, will dwell among them.

16 *They shall [q]hunger no more, neither thirst any more, neither shall the sunne [r]light on them, neither any heate.

17 For the [s]Lambe, which is in the [t]mids of the throne, shall gouerne them, and shall leade them vnto the [u]liuely fountaines of waters, and *God shall wipe away all teares from their eyes.

a The Spirit is compared to winde, and the doctrine also: and though there be one spirite and one doctrine, yet foure are here named in respect of the diuersitie of the foure quarters of the earth where the Gospel is spred, and for the foure writers thereof, and the preachers of the same through the whole world.

f Those that are sealed by the Spirit of God, and marked with the blood of the Lambe, and lightened in faith by the word of God, so that they make open profession of the same, are exempted from euill. g Though that this blindnesse bee brought into the world by the malice of Satan, yet the mercies of God reserue to himselfe an infinite number which shall bee saued, both of the Iewes and Gentiles through Christ. h He omitteth Dan, and putteth Leui in, whereby hee meaneth the twelue tribes.

CHAP. VIII.

1 The seuenth seale is opened: there is silence in heauen, 6 The foure Angels blowe the trumpets, and great plagues followe vpon the earth.

AND when hee had opened the *seuenth [a]seale, there was [b]silence in heauen about halfe an houre.

2 And I sawe the seuen Angels, which stoode [c]before God, and to them were giuen seuen trumpets.

3 Then another Angel came and stood before the altar hauing a golden censer, and a Vnder the sixt seale hee touched in generall the corruption of the doctrine: but vnder the seuenth he shweth the great danger thereof, and what troubles, sectes, and heresies haue bene and shalbe brought into the Church thereby. b That the hearers might be more attentiue. c He sheweth the onely remedy in our affliction, to wit, to appeare before the face of God by the meanes of Iesus Christ, who is the Angel, the sacrifice, and the Priest which presenteth our prayers, which remaine yet in earth, before the altar, and diuine maiestie of God.

much odours was giuen vnto him, that he should offer with the prayers of all Saints vpon the golden altar, which is before the throne.

4 And the smoke of the odours with the prayers of the Saints, went vp before God, out of the Angels hand.

5 And the Angel tooke the censer, and filled it with [d] fire of the altar, and cast it into the [e] earth, and [f] there were voyces, and thundrings, and lightnings, and earthquake.

6 Then the seuen Angels, which had the seuen trumpets, prepared themselues to blowe the trumpets.

7 So the first Angelsblew the trumpet, and there was haile and fire, mingled with blood, and they were cast into the earth, and the third part of [h] trees was burnt, and all greene [i] grasse was burnt.

8 And the second Angel blew the trumpet, and as it were a great [k] mountaine, burning with fire, was cast into the sea, and the third part of the sea became blood.

9 And the third part of the creatures, which were in the sea, & had life, died, and the third part of [l] ships were destroyed.

10 Then the third Angel blew the trumpet, and there fell [m] a great starre from heauen burning like a torch, and it fell into the third part of the riuers, and into the fountaines of waters.

11 And the name of the starre is called Wormewood: therefore the third part of the waters became wormewood, & many men died of the waters, because they were made bitter.

12 And the fourth Angel blew the trumpet, and the third part of the [o] sunne was smitten, and the third part of the [p] moone, and the third part of the [q] starres, so that the third part of them was [r] darkened: and the day was smitten, that the third part of it could not shine, and likewise the night.

13 And I beheld, and heard one Angell flying thorow the middes of heauen, saying with a loud voyce, [s] Woe, woe, woe to the inhabitants of the earth, because of the sounds to come of the trumpet of the three Angels, which were yet to blowe the trumpets.

d He meaneth by fire the grace of God whereby we are purged and made cleane, Isai.6.6.

e He powreth the graces of the holy Ghost into the hearts of the faithfull.

f When this grace is declared, marueilous rebellions arise against it by reason of the wicked, which can neither abide to heare their sinnes touched, nor mercy offered.

g That is, proclameth warre against the Church, and troubles by false doctrine, and so admonisheth them to watch.

h That is, the most part of men were seduced.

k Diuers sects of heretikes were spred abroad in the world.

l Meaning, the shipmasters, and so them that had any gouernment.

m That is, some excellent minister of the Church, which shall corrupt the Scriptures.

n Which here signifie false and corrupt doctrine.

o That is, of Christ who is the Sunne of iustice, meaning that men by boasting of their workes and merits, obscure Christ, and treade his death vnder feete.

p That is, of the Church.

q Of the ministers and teachers, which haue not taught as they ought to doe.

r They are plagues for the contempt of the Gospel.

s Horrible threatnings against the infidels and rebellious persons.

CHAP. IX.

1 The fift and sixt Angel blow their trumpets: the starre falleth from heauen. 3 The locusts come out of the smoke. 12 The first woe is past. 14 The foure Angels that were bound, are loosed. 18 And the thirde part of men is killed.

AND the fift Angel blewe the trumpet, and I sawe [a] a starre which was fallen from heauen vnto the earth, and to him was giuen the [b] keye of the bottomlesse pitte.

2 And hee opened the bottomelesse pit, and there arose the smoke of the pit, as the [c] smoke of a great fornace, and the sunne, and the ayre were darkened by the smoke of the pit.

3 And there came out of the smoke [d] Locusts vpon the earth, and vnto them was giuen [e] power, as the [f] scorpions of the earth haue power.

4 And it was commaunded them, that they should not hurt the [g] grasse of the earth, neither any greene thing, neither any tree: but onely those [h] men which haue not the seale of God in their foreheads.

5 And to them was commaunded that they should not [i] kill them, but that they should bee [k] vexed fiue moneths, and that their paine should bee as the paine that commeth of a [l] scorpion, when hee hath stung a man.

6 * Therefore in those dayes shall men [m] seeke death, and shall not finde it, and shall desire to die, and death shall flee from them.

7 * And the forme of the locusts was like vnto [n] horses prepared vnto battel, and on their heads were as it were [o] crownes like vnto golde, and their faces [p] were like the faces of men.

8 And they had haire as the [q] haire of women, and their teeth [r] were as the teeth of lions.

9 And they had [t] habergions, like to habergions of yron: and the sound of their [u] wings was like the sound of charets when many horses runne vnto battell.

10 And they had tayles like vnto scorpions, and there were [a] stings in their tayles, and their power was to hurt men fiue moneths.

11 And they haue a king ouer them, which a That is, the bishops and ministers, which forsake the word of God, and so fall out of heauen, and become angels of darkenesse.

b This authoritie chiefly is committed to the Pope, in signe whereof he beareth the keyes in his armes.

c Abundance of heresies and errours, which couer with darkenesse Christ and his Gospel.

d Locusts are false teachers, heretikes, and worldly subtile Prelates, with Monkes, Friers, Cardinals, Patriarkes, Archbishops, Bishops, Doctours, Bachelers, and Masters which forsake Christ, to maintein false doctrine.

e False and deceiueable doctrine, which is pleasant to the flesh.

f That is, secretly to persecute and to sting with their tayle as Scorpions doe: such is the fashion of the hypocrites.

g For the false prophets can not destroy the elect, but such as are ordeined to perdition.

h That is, the infidels, whom Satan blindeth with the efficacie of errour, 2. Thessalo. 2. 11.

i Though the elect be hurt, yet they cannor perish.

k The elect for a certaine space and at times are in troubles: for the grasshoppers endure but from April to September, which is fiue moneths.

l For at the beginning the sting of their conscience seemeth as nothing, but except they soone seeke remedie, they perish Isa.2.19, hosea 10.8. luke 23.30. chap.6.16.

m Such is the terrour of the vnbeleeuing conscience, which hath no assurance of mercy, but feeleth the iudgement of God against it, when men embrace errour, and refuse the true simplicitie of Gods word. Wisd.16.9.

n Which signifieth that the Popes clergie shall be proude, ambitious, bolde, stoute, rash, rebellious, stubburne, cruell, lecherous, and authours of warre and destruction of the simple children of God.

o They pretend a certaine title of honour, which in deede belongeth nothing vnto them, as the priestes by their crownes and strange apparell declare.

p That is, they pretend great gentlenesse and loue: they are wise, politike, subtill, eloquent, and in worldly craftinesse passe all in all their doings.

q That is, effeminate, delicate, idle, trimming themselues to please their harlots.

r Signifying their oppression of the poore, & crueltie against Gods children.

s, Which signifieth their hardnesse of heart and obstination in their errours, with their assurance vnder the protection of worldly princes.

t For as though they had wings, so are they lifted vp aboue the common sort of men, and esteemed most holy, and doe all things with rage and fiercenesse.

u To infect and kill with their venemous doctrine.

x Which is Antichrist the Pope, king of hypocrites, and Satans Ambassadour.

y That is, destroyer: for Antichrist the sonne of perdition destroyeth mens soules with false doctrine, and the whole worlde with fire and sword.

z Which was the voyce of Christ, sitting on the right hand of the Father.

a Meaning, the enemies of the East countrey, which should afflict the Church of God, as did the Arabians, Saracens, Turkes, and Tartarians.

b This signifieth the great readines of the enemies.

c Which signifieth their false doctrine and hypocrisie.

d And therefore were iustly destroyed. Psalm 115.4. and 135.15.

is the x Angel of the bottomlesse pit, whose name in Hebrewe, is y Abaddon, and in Greeke he is named Apollyon.

12 One woe is past, and behold, yet two woes come after this.

13 ¶ Then ỹ first Angel blew the trumpet, & I heard a z voice from the foure horns of the golden altar, which is before God,

14 Saying to the first Angel, which had the trumpet, Loose ỹ foure a Angels which are bound in the great river Euphrates.

15 And the foure Angels were loosed, which were prepared at an b houre, at a day, at a moneth, at a yeere, to slay the third part of men.

16 And ỹ number of horsemen of warre were twenty thousand times ten thousand: for I heard the number of them.

17 And thus I sawe the horses in a vision, and them that sate on them, having fiery habergions, and of Iacinth, and of brimstone, and the heads of the horses were as ỹ heads of lyons: & out of their mouthes went forth fire and smoke and brimstone.

18 Of these three was the third part of men killed, that is, of the fire, & of the smoke, and of the brimstone which came out of their mouthes.

19 For their power is in their c mouthes, and in their tailes: for their tailes were like vnto serpents, and had heads, wherewith they hurt.

20 And the remnant of the men which were not killed by these plagues, d repented not of the workes of their handes that they should not worship deuils, & * idoles of gold and of siluer, and of braße, and of stone, and of wood, which neither can see, neither heare, nor goe.

21 Also they repented not of their murder, and of their sorcerie, neither of their fornication, nor of their theft.

CHAP. X.

1 The Angel hath the booke open. 6 He sweareth there shall be no more time. 9 He giueth the booke vnto Iohn, which eateth it vp.

a Which was Iesus Christ that came to comfort his Church against the furious assaults of Satan and Antichrist: so that in all their troubles, the faithfull are sure to finde consolation in him.

b Iesus Christ beareth the testimonie of Gods loue towards vs.

c It ouercame all the darkenesse of the Angel of the bottomelesse pit. d Straight, strong and pure from all corruptions. e Meaning the Gospel of Christ, which Antichrist cannot hide, seeing Christ bringeth it open in his hand. f Which declareth that in despite of Antichrist the Gospel should be preached through all the world: so that the enemies shall be astonied. g The whole graces of Gods Spirite bent themselues against Antichrist. *Dan.*12.4. h Beleeue that that is written: for there is no neede to write more for the vnderstanding of Gods children.

A Nd I sawe another mightie a Angel come downe from heauen, clothed with a cloud, and the b rainebow vpon his head, and his face was as the c sunne, & his d feete as pillars of fire.

2 And he had in his hand a little e booke open, and he put his right foot vpon the sea, and his left on the earth,

3 And cryed with a f loude voyce, as when a lyon roareth: and when he had cryed, seuen s thunders vttred their voyces.

4 And when the seuen thunders had vttered their voyces, I was about to write: but I heard a voyce from heauen saying vnto me, * h Seale vp those things which the seuen thunders haue spoken, and write them not.

5 And the Angel which I sawe stand vpon the sea, and vpon the earth, lift vp his hand to heauen,

6 And sware i by him that liueth for euermore, which created heauen, and the things that therein are, and the earth, and the things that therein are, and the sea, and the things which therein are, that time should be no more.

7 But in the dayes of the voyce of the seuenth Angel, when he shall begin to blow the trumpet, euen the k mysterie of God shall be finished, as he hath declared to his seruants the Prophets.

8 And the voyce which I heard from heauen, spake vnto l me againe and saide, Goe and take the little booke which is open in the hand of the m Angel, which standeth vpon the sea and vpon the earth.

9 So I went vnto the Angel, and saide to him, Giue me ỹ little n booke. And he said vnto me, * Take it, and o eate it vp, and it shall make thy belly bitter, but it shall bee in thy mouth as sweete as hony.

10 Then I tooke the little booke out of the Angels hand, and ate it vp, and it was in my mouth as q sweete as honie: but when I had eaten it, my belly was bitter.

11 And he said vnto me, Thou must prophecie q againe among the people and nations, and tongues, and to many kings.

i That is, by God with whome Christ by his diuinitie is equall.

k The faithfull shall vnderstand and see this mysterie of the last iudgement, the damnatiõ of Antichrist and infidels, and also the glory of ỹ iust at the resurrection.

l As S. Iohn vnderstood this by reuelation, so is the same reuciled to the true preachers, to discouer the Pope and Antichrist.

m Meaning Christ.

n That is, the holy Scriptures: which declareth that the Minister must receiue them at the hand of God, before he can preach them to others.

*Ezek.*3.1. o Which signifieth that the ministers ought to receiue the word into their hearts, and to haue graue and and diligently to study it, and with zeale to vtter it. p Signifying that albeit that the minister haue consolation by the word of God, yet shal he haue sore & grieuous enemies, which shal be troublesome vnto him. q Not only meaning in his life time, but that this booke after his death should be as a preaching vnto all nations.

CHAP. XI.

1 The Temple is measured. 3 The witnesses raised vp by the Lord, are murthered by the beast, 11 But after receiued to glory. 15 Christ is exalted, 16 And God praysed by the xxiiii. Elders.

THen was giuen me a reede, like vnto a rodde, and the Angel stoode by, saying, Rise & a mete the Temple of God, and the altar, and them that worship therein.

2 But b the court which is without the Temple cast out, and mete it not: for it is giuen vnto the Gentiles, and the holy c citie shall they tread vnder foote d two and fourtie moneths.

3 But I will giue power vnto my e two witnesses, and they shall prophecie a a Which declareth that Christ Iesus wilt builde his Church and not haue it destroyed: for he measureth out his spirituall Temple.

b The Iewish Temple was deuided into three partes: the body of ỹ Temple which is called ỹ court, wherein to euery man entred: the holy places where the Leuites were: and the holiest of all, whereinto the high Priest once a yeere entred: in respect therefore of these two latter, the first is saide to bee cast out, because as a thing prophane it is neglected when ỹ Temple is measured, and yet the aduersaries of Christ boast that they are in the Temple, and that none are of the Temple but they. c That is, the Church of God. d Meaning, a certaine time: for God hath limited the times of Antichrists tyranny. e By two witnesses hee meaneth all the preachers that shoulde builde vp Gods Church, alluding to Zerubbabel and Iehoshua, which were chiefly appointed for this thing, and also to this saying, In the mouthof two witnesses standeth euery word.

n That is, the Pope which hath his power out of hell, and cõmeth thence.

o Heſheweth how the Pope gaineth the victorie, not by Gods word, but by cruell warre.

p Meaning, the whole iuriſdiction of the Pope which is compared to Sodom for their abominable ſinne, and to Egypt becauſe the true libertie to ſerue God is taken away from the faithfull, and Chriſt was condemned by Pilate, who repreſented the Romane power which ſhoulde bee enemie to the godly.

q The infidels are tormented by hearing the trueth preached.

r Which ſhall bee at the laſt reſurrection.

s For it ſeemed that Antichriſt had chaſed them out of the earth.

t Of the power of Antichriſt.

u When they ſhall vnderſtand by Gods worde the glory of his, and the puniſhment of his enemies, they ſhall fall from the Pope, and glorifie God.

x Albeit Satan by the Pope, Turke, and other inſtruments troubleth the world neuer ſo much, yet Chriſt ſhall reigne.

y Ieſus Chriſt.

z This declareth the office of the godly, which is to giue God thankes for the deliuerance of his, and to praiſe his iuſtice for puniſhing of his enemies.

f thouſand two hundreth and threeſcore dayes, clothed in g ſackecloth.

4 Theſe are two h olyue trees, and two candleſtickes, ſtanding before the God of the i earth.

5 And if any man will hurt them, fire proceedeth out of their mouthes, and deuoureth their enemies: for if any man would hurt them, k thus muſt he be killed.

6 Theſe haue power to ſhut l heauen, y it raine not in the dayes of their prophecying, and haue power ouer waters to turne them into m blood, & to ſmite the earth with all maner plagues, as often as they will.

7 And when they haue finiſhed their teſtimonie, the n beaſt that commeth out of the bottomleſſe pit, ſhall make warre againſt them, and ſhal o ouercome them, and kill them.

8 And their corpſes ſhall lie in y ſtreetes of the great p citie, which ſpiritually is called Sodome and Egypt, where our Lorde alſo was crucified.

9 And they of the people and kindreds, and tongues, & Gentiles ſhall ſee their corpſes three dayes and an halfe, and ſhall not ſuffer their carkeſes to be put in graues.

10 And they y dwell vpon y earth, ſhall reioyce ouer them, and be glad, & ſhall ſend gifts one to another: for theſe two Prophets q vexed them that dwel on the earth.

11 But after three dayes and an halfe, the ſpirite of life comming from God, ſhall enter into them, and they ſhall r ſtand vp vpon their feete: and great feare ſhall come vpon them which ſawe them.

12 And they ſhall heare a great voyce frõ heauen, ſaying vnto them, ſ Come vp hither. And they ſhall aſcend vp to heauen in a cloud, and their enemies ſhall ſee them.

13 And the ſame houre ſhall there bee a great earthquake, and the tenth part of the citie t ſhall fall, and in the earthquake ſhall be ſlaine in number ſeuen thouſand: & the remnant ſhall be afeaide, u and giue glorie to the God of heauen.

14 The ſecond woe is paſt, and beholde, the third woe will come anon.

15 And the ſeuenth Angel blew y trumpet, and there were great voyces in heauen, ſaying, The x kingdomes of this world are our Lordes, and his Chriſts, and he ſhal reigne for euermore.

16 Then the foure and twentie Elders, which ſate before God on their ſeates, fell vpon their faces and worſhipped y God, 17 Saying, z We giue thee thanks, Lord God Almightie, Which art, and Which waſt, and Which art to come: for thou haſt receiued thy great might, and haſt obteined thy kingdome.

18 And the Gentiles were angrie, and thy wrath is come, and the time of the dead, that they ſhould be iudged, and that thou ſhouldeſt giue reward vnto thy ſeruants the Prophets, and to the Saints, and to them that feare thy Name, to ſmall and great, and ſhouldeſt deſtroy them, which deſtroy the earth.

19 Then the Temple of God was opened in heauen, and there was ſeene in his Temple the arke of his couenant: & there were a lightnings, and voyces, and thundrings, and earthquake, and much hatle.

CHAP. XII.

1 There appeareth in heauen a woman clothed with the ſunne. 7 Michael fighteth with the Dragon, which perſecuteth the woman. 11 The victorie is gotten, to the comfort of the faithfull.

AND there appeared a great wonder in heauen: A a woman clothed with the ſunne, and the b moone was vnder his feete, and vpon her head a c crowne of twelue ſtarres.

2 And ſhe was with childe, and d cryed trauailing in birth, and was pained ready to be deliuered.

3 And there appeared another wonder in heauen: for behold, a great e red Dragon hauing f ſeuen heads, and tenne hornes, and ſeuen crownes vpon his heads.

4 And his taile drewe the g third part of the ſtarres of heauen, and caſt them to the earth. And the Dragon ſtood before the woman, which was ready to be deliuered, to deuoure her child when ſhee had brought it foorth.

5 So ſhe brought foorth a h man childe, which ſhould rule all nations with a * rod of yron: and her ſonne was taken vp vnto God and to his throne.

6 And the woman fledde into i wildernes, where ſhee hath a place prepared of God, that they ſhoulde feede her there a thouſande, two hundreth and threeſcore dayes.

7 And there was a battell in heauen, k Michael and his Angels fought againſt the Dragon, and the Dragon fought and his Angels.

10 Then I heard a loude voyce, saying, Now is saluation in heauen, and strength, and the kingdome of our God, and the power of his Christ: for the accuer of our brethren is cast downe, which accused them before our God day and night.

11 But they ouercame him by the blood of the Lambe, and by the worde of their testimonie, and they [m] loued not their liues vnto the death.

12 Therefore reioyce, ye heauens, and ye that dwell in them. Woe to the [n] inhabitants of the earth, and of the sea: for the deuill is come downe vnto you, which hath great wrath, knowing that hee hath but a shorte time.

13 And when the dragon sawe that hee was [o] cast vnto the earth, he persecuted the woman which had brought forth the man childe.

14 But to the woman were giuen two wings of a great egle, that shee might flie into the wildernesse, into [p] her place where shee is nourished for a time, and times, and halfe a time, from the presence of the serpent.

15 And the serpent cast out of his mouth water after the woman like a flood, that hee might cause her to be carryed away of the flood.

16 But the [q] earth holpe the woman, and the earth opened her mouth, and swalowed vp the flood, which the dragon had cast out of his mouth.

17 Then the dragon was wroth with the woman, and went and made warre with the [r] remnant of her seede, which keepe the commandements of God, and haue the testimonie of Iesus Christ.

18 And I stood on the sea sand.

m They put their liues in danger so oft as neede required.

o And was ouercome of Christ, then he fought against his members.
p Which the Lord had appointed for her.
q God giueth meanes to his Church to escape the fume of Satan, making his creatures to serue to the support thereof.
r Satan was not able to destroy the head nor the body, and therefore sheweth his rage against the members.

1. 8. The beast deceiueth the reprobate. 2. 4. 12. And is confirmed by another beast. 17 The priuiledge of the beastes marke.

a Here is the description of the Romane empire which standeth in crueltie and tyrannie.
b Meaning Rome, because it was first gouerned by seuen Kings or Emperours after Nero, and also is compassed about with seuen mountaines.
c Which signifie many prouinces.
d By these beastes are signified the Macedonians, Persians and Caldeans, whome the Romanes ouercame.
e That is, the deuill.
f This may bee vnderstoode of Nero, who mooued the first persecution against the Church, and after slewe himselfe, so that the family of the Cæsars ended in him.
g For the Empire was established againe by Vespasian.
h By receiuing the statutes, ordinances, decrees, ceremonies, and religion of the Romane empire.

AND I sawe a [a] beast rise out of the sea, hauing [b] seuen heads, and ten hornes, and vpon his hornes were tenne crownes, and vpon his heads the name of blasphemie.

2 And the beast which I sawe, was like a [d] leopard, and his feete like a beares, and his mouth as the mouth of a lion: and the [e] dragon gaue him his power, & his throne, and great authoritie.

3 And I sawe one of his [f] heads as it were wounded to death, but his [g] deadly wound was healed, and all the world wondered and followed the beast.

4 And they worshipped the dragon which gaue power vnto the beast, and they [h] worshipped the beast, saying, Who is like vnto the beast? who is able to warre with him?

i Antichristes time and power is limitted.
k In their bodies, not in soule.
l He meaneth that vniuersall departing whereof S. Paul speaketh to the Thessalonians.
m Antichrist hath no power ouer the elect. Chap. 3. 5.
n As God ordained from before all beginning, and all the sacrifices were as signes and sacraments of Christes death.
o They which led soules captiues goe themselues into captiuitie.
p As the kingdome of Christ is from heauen, and bringeth men thither: so the Popes kingdome is of the earth, & leadeth to perdition, and is begun and established by ambition, couetousnesse, beastlines, craft, treason and tyrannie.
q Which signifie the Priesthood & the kingdome, and therefore he giueth in his armes two keies, and hath two swordes caried before him. So Boniface the eight which first ordeined the Iubile, shewed himselfe one day in apparel as a Pope, & the next day in harnesse as the Emperour, and the two hornes in the Bishops mitre are signes thereof.
r He spake diuilish doctrine, accused Gods worde of imperfection, set vp mans traditions, and spake things contrary to God and his worde.
s For the Pope in ambition, crueltie, idolatrie and blasphemie did follow and imitate the ancient Romanes.
t Brought them to idolatrie, and astonished them with the name of that holy Empire (as he termeth it.)
u The man of sinne, according to the operation of Satan shall be with all power, signes and myracles of lyes, 2. Thess. 2. 9, 10.
x Before the whole Empire which representeth the first beast, and is the image thereof.
y For the first Empire Romane was as the paterne, and this second Empire is but an image & shadowe thereof.
z For except the Pope confirme the authoritie of the king of Romanes, he is not esteemed worthy to be made Emperour.
a The same things which the Pope, or false prophets instruct him in.
b Receiue the ordinances and decrees of the seate of Rome, & to kisse the villains foote, if he were put thereunto.

5 And there was giuen vnto him a mouth, that spake great things and blasphemies, and power was giuen vnto him, to doe [i] two and fourtie moneths.

6 And hee opened his mouth vnto blasphemie against God, to blaspheme his Name and his tabernacle, and them that dwell in heauen.

7 And it was giuen vnto him to make warre with the Saints, and to [k] ouercome them, and power was giuen him ouer euery [l] kinred and tongue, and nation.

8 Therefore all that dwel vpon the earth, shall worshippe him, whose [m] names are not [*] written in the booke of life of the Lambe, which was slaine [n] from the beginning of the world.

9 If any man haue an eare, let him heare.

10 If any leade into captiuitie, hee shall goe [o] into captiuitie: if any kill with a sword, he must be killed by a sword: here is the patience, and the faith of the Saints.

11 And I beheld another beast, comming vp out of the [p] earth, which had two [q] hornes like the Lambe, but he [r] spake like the dragon.

12 And hee did all that the first beast [s] could doe before him, and he caused the earth, and them which dwell therein, to worship the first [t] beast, whose deadly wound was healed.

13 And [u] he did great wonders, so that he made fire to come downe from heauen on the earth, in the sight of men,

14 And deceiued them that dwell on the earth by the [x] signes, which were permitted to him to doe in the [x] sight of the beast, saying to them that dwell on the earth, that they should make the [y] image of the beast, which had the wound of a sworde, and did liue.

15 And it was permitted to him to giue a [z] spirit vnto the image of the beast, so that the image of the beast should [a] speake, and should cause that as many as would not [b] worship the image of the beast, should be killed.

16 And he made all, both small & great, riche and poore, free and bond, to receiue c Whereby he renounceth Christ: for as faith, the word, and the Sacraments are the Christians markes: so this Antichrist will accept none but such as wil approue his doctrine: so that it is not inough to confesse Christ and to beleeue the Scriptures, but a man must subscribe to the Popes doctrine: moreouer their chrismatories, greasings, vowes, othes, and shauings are signes of this marke, in so much as no nation was accepted that had not many of these marked beastes.

d He that is not sealed with Antichrists marke, cannot be suffered to liue among men.

e Such as may be vnderstood by mans reason: for about 666 yeeres after this reuelation, the Pope or Antichrist began to bee manifest in the world: for these characters χξς signifie 666: and this nomber is gathered of the smal nomber, λατεινος, which in the whole make 666, and signifieth Lateinus, or Latin, which noteth the Pope or Antichrist, who vsethin all things the Latin tongue, and in respect thereof he contemneth the Hebrewe and Greeke, wherein the word of God was first and best written: and because Italie in olde time was called Latinum, the Italians are called Latini, so that hereby he noteth of what countrey chiefly hee should come.

a marke in their right hand or in their foreheads.

17 And d that no man might buie or sell, saue he that had the marke, or the name of the beast, or the nomber of his name.

18 Here is wisedome. Let him that hath wit, count the nomber of the beast: for it is the nomber e of a man, and his nomber is fiue hundreth threescore and fiue.

CHAP. XIIII.

1 The notable companie of the Lambe. 6 One Angel announceth the Gospel, 8 Another the fall of Babylon, 9 And the third warneth to flee from the beast. 13 Of their blessednesse which die in the Lord. 18 Of the Lordes haruest.

a Iesus Christ ruleth in his Church to defend and comfort it, though the beast rage neuer so much: and seeing Christ is present euer with his Church, there can be no vicar: for where there is a vicar, there is no Church.

b Meaning a great and ample Church.

c Which was the marke of their election, to wit, their faith.

d Signifying, that the nomber of the Church should be great, & that they should speake boldly, & aloud, and so glorifie the Lord.

THen I looked, and loe, a a Lambe stood on mount Sion, and with him an b hundreth, fourtie and foure thousand, hauing his fathers c Name written in their foreheads.

2 And I heard a voyce from heauen, as the sound of many d waters, & as the sound of a great thunder: and I heard the voyce of harpers harping with their harpes,

3 And they sung as it were a newe song before the throne & before the foure beastes, and the Elders, and no e man could learne that song, but the hundreth fourtie and foure thousand, which were bought from the earth.

4 These are they which are not f defiled with women: for they are virgins: these followe the Lambe whithersoeuer he goeth: these are bought from men, being the b first fruites vnto God, and to the Lambe.

5 And in their mouthes was found no guile: for they are without i spot before the throne of God.

6 ¶ Then I saw another k Angel flie in the middes of heauen, hauing an euerlasting Gospel, to preach vnto them that dwell on the earth, and to euery nation, and kinred, and tongue, and people,

7 * Saying with a loude voyce, l Feare God, and giue glory to him: for the houre of his iudgement is come: and worship him that made * heauen and earth, and the sea, and the fountaines of waters.

8 And there followed another Angel, saying, *It is fallen, it is fallen, m Babylon the great citie: for shee made all nations to drinke of the wine of the n wrath of her fornication.

9 ¶ And the third Angel folowed them, saying with a loud voyce, If any man worship the beast and his image, and receiue his marke in his forehead, or on his hand,

10 The same shall drinke of the wine of the wrath of God, yea, of the o pure wine, which is powred into the cup of his wrath, and hee shalbe tormented in fire and brimstone before the holy Angels, and before the Lambe.

11 And the smoke of their torment shall ascend euermore: and they shall haue no rest day nor night, which worship the beast and his image, and whosoeuer receiueth the print of his name.

12 Here is the patience of p Saints: here are they that keepe the commandements of God, and the faith of Iesus.

13 Then I heard a voyce from heauen, saying vnto mee, Write, q blessed are the dead, which hereafter die ‖ in the r Lorde. Euen so sayth the spirit: for they rest from their labours, & their workes follow them.

14 ¶ And I looked, and beholde, a white s cloud, and vpon the cloude one sitting like vnto the Sonne of man, hauing on his head a golden crowne, and in his hand a sharpe sickle.

15 And another Angel came out of the Temple, crying with a loude voyce to him that sate on the cloud, * t Thrust in thy sickle, & reape: for the time is come to reape: for the haruest of the earth is ripe.

16 And he that sate on the cloud, u thrust in his sickle on the earth, and the earth was reaped.

17 Then another Angel came out of the Temple which is in heauen, hauing also a sharpe sickle.

18 And another Angel came out from x altar, which had power ouer fire, and cryed with a loude crye to him that had the sharpe sickle, and sayd, Thrust in thy sharpe sickle, and gather the clusters of the vineyarde of the earth: for her grapes are ripe.

19 And y Angel thrust in his sharpe sickle into the earth, and gathered the vine of the earth, and cast it into the great wine presse of the wrath of God.

chap. 18.2.

m Signifying Rome: for almuch as the vices which were in Babylon are found in Rome in great abundance, as persecution of ỹ Church of God, oppression and slaueric, with destruction of the people of God, confusion, superstition, idolatrie, impietie: and as Babylon the first Monarchie was destroyed, so shall this wicked kingdome of Antichrist haue a miserable ruine, though it bee great and seemeth to extend throughout all Europa.

n By the which fornication God is prouoked to wrath: so that he suffreth many to walke in the way of the Romish doctrine to their destruction.

o That is, of his terrible iudgement.

p The faithfull are exhorted to patience.

q For they are deliuered from the horrible troubles which are in the Church, & rest with God. ‖ Or, for the Lords cause. r Which are ingraffed in Christ by faith, which rest and stay only on him, & reioyce to be with him: for immediatly after their death they are receiued into ioy. f Signifying that Christ shall come to iudgement in a cloud, euen as he was seene to go vp. Ioel 3.13. mat. 13.39. t The ouerthrow of the people is compared to an harueft, Isa. 19.5. also to a vintage, Isa. 6.3. u This is spoken familiarly for our capacitie, alluding vnto an husbandman who suffreth himself to be aduertised by his seruants when his harueft is ripe, and not that Christ hath neede to be tolde when he should come to iudgement for the comfort of his Church, and destruction of his enemies. x This was Christ who is also the altar, the Priest, and sacrifice.

e None can prayse God, but the elect whom he hath bought. f By whoredome: and vnder this vice he comprehendeth all other: but this is chiefly meant of Idolatrie, which is the spirituall whoredome. g For their whole delight is in the Lambe Iesus, and they loue none but him. h Which declareth that the faithfull ought to liue iustly and holily, that they may be the first fruites, and an excellent offring of the Lord. i Forasmuch as their sinnes are pardoned, and they are clad with the iustice of Christ. k By this Angel are meant the true ministers of Christ which preach the Gospel faithfully.

kle on the earth, and cut downe the vines of the vineyarde of the earth, and cast them into the great wine presse of the wrath of God.

y That is, a certaine place appointed, and not in the heauen.

20 And the y wine presse was troden without the citie, and blood came out of the wine presse, vnto the z horse bridles by the space of a thousande and sixe hundred furlongs.

z By this similitude he declareth the horrible confusion of the tyrants and infidels, which delight in nothing but warres, slaughters, persecutions and effusion of blood.

CHAP. XV.

1 Seuen Angels haue the seuen last plagues. 3 The song of them that ouercome the beast. 7 The seuen vials full of Gods wrath.

a That is, the fourth vision, which conteineth the doctrine of Gods iudgements for the destruction of the wicked and comfort of the godly.

AND I sawe another a signe in heauen, great and marueilous, b seuen Angels hauing the seuen last plagues: for by them is fulfilled the wrath of God.

b Meaning an infinite number of Gods ministers, which had infinite maners and sorts of punishments.

2 And I saw as it were a c glassie sea, mingled with fire, & them that had gotten victorie of the beast, and of his image, and of his marke, and of the number of his name, stand at the glassie sea, hauing the harpes of God, c Signifying this brittle & inconstant world mixt with fire, that is, troubles and afflictions, but the Saints of God ouercome them all, and sing diuine songs vnto God, by whose power they get the victorie. Exod. 15. 1. Psal. 145. 17. ‖Or, acts and deeds. Iere. 10. 7.

3 And they sung the song of Moses the * seruant of God, & the song of the Lambe, saying, Great and marueilous are thy workes, Lord God almighty: iust and true are thy * ‖ wayes, King of Saints.

4 *Who shal not feare thee, O Lord, and glorifie thy Name? for thou onely art holy, and all nations shall come & worship before thee: for thy iudgements are made manifest.

5 And after that I looked, and beholde, the temple of the tabernacle of testimony was open in heauen.

6 And the seuen Angels came out of the temple, which had the seuen plagues, clothed in pure and d bright linnen, and hauing their e breasts girded with golden girdles.

7 And one of the f foure beasts gaue vnto the seuen Angels seuen golden vials full of the wrath of God, which liueth for euermore.

8 And the temple was full of the smoke of the glory of God, and of his power, and no man was able to g enter into the Temple, till the seuen plagues of the seuen Angels were fulfilled.

d Which is to declare that Gods iudgements are cleare, iust, and without spot. e As ready to execute the vengeance of God. f By the foure beastes are meant all the creatures of God, which willingly serue him for the punishment of the infidels. g God giueth vs full entry into his church by destroying his enemies: for the Saints cannot clearely know all Gods iudgements before the full end of all things.

CHAP. XVI.

1 The Angels powre out their vials full of wrath, 6 And what plagues follow thereof. 15 Admonition to take heed and watch.

a This was like the sixt plague of Egypt, which was sores and boiles, or pocks: and this reigneth commonly among Canons, Monkes, Friers, Nunnes, Priestes and such filthy vermine which beare the marke of the beast.

AND I heard a great voyce out of the Temple, saying to the seuen Angels, Goe your wayes, and powre out the seuen vials of the wrath of God vpon the earth.

2 And the first went, and powred out his vial vpon the earth: and there fell a noysome and a grieuous a sore vpon the men, which had the marke of the beast, and vpon them which worshipped his image.

3 And the second Angel powred out his vial vpon the sea, and it became as the b blood of a c dead man: and euery liuing thing died in the sea.

b This is like to the first plague of Egypt, which signifieth all kindes of pestilences and contagious diseases.

4 And the third Angell powred out his vial vpon the riuers & fountaines of waters, and they became d blood.

c That is, corrupt and infect. d The first plague of Egypt was like vnto this.

5 And I heard the Angel of the e waters say, Lorde, thou art iust, (Which art, and (Which wast, and Holy, because thou hast iudged these things.

e He bringeth forth these two Angels: the one which is gouernour of the waters, and the other from vnder the altar, as witnesses and commenders of Gods iust iudgements.

6 For they shed the blood of the Saints, and Prophets, and therefore hast thou giuen them blood to drinke: for they are worthie.

7 And I heard another out of the Sanctuarie say, Euen so, Lorde God almighty, f true and righteous are thy iudgements.

f For as much as thou destroyest the rebels, and preseruest thine.

8 And the fourth Angel powred out his vial on the Sunne, and it was giuen vnto him to torment men with g heate of fire.

g Signifying famine, drought, and hote diseases, which proceede thereof.

9 And men boyled in great heate, and h blaspheined the name of God, which hath power ouer these plagues, and they repented not, to giue him glory.

h The wicked were hard hearted, and stubburne when God punished them.

10 And the fifth Angel powred out his vial vpon the throne of the i beast, and his kingdome waxed darke, and they k gnewe their tongues for sorowe, i This answereth to the ninth plague of Egypt, which signifieth that the Popes doctrine is an horrible plague of God, which keepeth men still in darke ignorance and errours.

11 And blaspheined the God of heauen for their paines, and for their sores, and repented not of their works.

12 And the first Angell powred out his vial vpon the great riuer l Euphrates, and the water thereof dryed vp, that the way of the Kings of the East shoulde bee prepared.

13 And I sawe three m vncleane spirites like frogges come out of the mouth of the dragon, and out of the mouth of the beast, and out of the mouth of the false prophet.

14 For they are the spirites of n deuils, working miracles, to goe vnto the o Kings of the earth, and of the whole world, to gather them to the battell of that great day of God almightie.

15 (*Behold, I come as a theefe. Blessed is he that watcheth, and keepeth his p garments, least hee walke naked, and men see his filthinesse) place called in Hebrew q Arma-gedon.

17 ¶ And the seuenth Angell powred out his viall into the aire: and there came a loude voyce out of the Temple of heauen from the throne, saying, r It is done.

18 And there were voyces, and thundrings, and lightnings, and there was a great earthquake, such as was not since men were vpon the earth, euen so mighty an earthquake.

19 And the great citie was deuided into three partes, and the cities of the nations fell: and great Babylon came in remembrance before God, *to giue vnto her the cup of the wine of the fiercenesse of his wrath.

20 And euery yle fledde away, and the mountaines were not found.

21 And there fell a great hayle, like talents, out of heauen vpon the men, and men blasphemed God, because of the plague of the hayle: for the plague thereof was exceeding great.

f Meaning, the whole number of them that shall call themselues Christians, whereof some are so in deede, some are Papists, and vnder pretence of Christ, serue Antichrist, and some are Neuters, which are neither on the one side nor of the other.

t Signifying all strange religions, as of the Iewes, Turkes & others, which then shal fall with the great whore of Rome, and be tormented in eternall paines. Iere. 25.15.

CHAP. XVII.

3 The description of the great whore. 8 Her sinnes & punishment. 14 The victory of the Lambe.

THen there came a one of the seuen Angels, which had the seuen vials, & talked with me, saying vnto me, Come: I wil shew thee the damnation of the great b whore that sitteth vpon many c waters, a Which was Christ Iesus, who will take vengeance on this Romish harlot.

b Antichrist is compared to an harlot, because he seduceth the world with vaine wordes, doctrines of lies, and outward appearance.

c Meaning diuers nations and countreyes.

2 With whom haue committed fornication the kings of the earth), and the inhabitants of the earth are dronken with the wine of her fornication.

3 So he carried me away into the wildernesse d in the Spirit, and I saw a woman sit vpon a scarlet coloured b beast, full of names of c blasphemy, which had seuen heads, and ten hornes.

d The beast signifieth the ancient Rome: the woman that sitteth thereon, the newe Rome which is the Papistrie, whose cruelties and bloodthedding is declared by scarlet.

4 And the e woman was arayed in purple and scarlet, and guilded with golde, and precious stones, and pearles, and had a cup of golde in her hand, full of a abominations, and filthinesse of her fornication.

e Full of idolatrie, superstition and contempt of the true God.

5 And in her forehead was a name written, f A mysterie, great Babylon, the mother of whoredomes, and abominations of the earth.

6 And I saw the woman dronken with the blood of Saints, and with the blood of the Martyrs of Iesus: and when I sawe her, I wondred with great maruaile.

7 Then the Angel said vnto me, Wherefore marueilest thou? I will shewe thee the mysterie of the woman, and of the beast that beareth her, which hath seuen heads, and ten hornes.

f This woman is the Antichrist, that is, the Pope with the whole body of his filthy creatures, as is expounded, Verse 18. whose beautie onely standeth in outward pompe and impudencie, and craft like a strumpet. g Of false doctrines and blasphemies. h Which none can know to auoyde, but the elect.

8 The i beast that thou hast seene, was, and is not, and shall ascend out of the bottomlesse pit, and shall goe into perdition, and they that dwell on the earth, shall wonder (whose names are not written in the Booke of life from the foundation of the worlde) when they beholde the beast that was, and is not, and yet is.

i This is the Romane empire, which being fallen into decay, the whore of Rome vsurped authoritie, and proceeded from the deuill: and thither shall returne.

9 Here is the minde that hath wisedome. The seuen heads are k seuen mountaines, whereon the woman sitteth; they are also l seuen Kings.

k Which are about Rome.

10 Fiue are fallen, and one is, and another is not yet come: and when hee commeth, he must continue a short space.

l For after that the empire was decayed in Nero, Galba, Otho, Vitellius, Vespasian & Titus died in lesse then fourteene yeeres, and reigned as Kings: Domitian then reigned, and after him Coceius Nerua which was the seuenth.

11 And the beast that was, and is not, is euen the m eight, and is one of the seuen, and shall goe into destruction.

m He meaneth Traiane the Emperour, who was a Spaniard and adopted by Nerua, but because he persecuted the faithfull, he goeth also to perdition.

12 And the ten hornes which thou sawest, are ten kings, which yet haue not receiued a kingdome, but shall receiue power as Kings at one houre with the beast.

13 n These haue one minde, and shal giue their power and authoritie vnto the beast.

n He signifieth the horrible persecutions which haue bene vnder the empire of Rome, and in all other realmes subiect to the same.

14 These shal fight with the Lambe, and the Lambe shall o ouercome them: * for he is Lord of Lords, and King of kings: and they that are on his side, called, and chosen, and faithfull.

o And breake them to shiuers as a potters pot. 1. Tim. 6.15. chap. 19.16.

15 And he sayde vnto me, The waters which thou sawest, where the whore sitteth, are people, and multitudes, and nations, and tongues.

16 And the p tenne hornes which thou sawest vpon the beast, are they that shall hate the whore, and shall make her desolate and naked, and shall eate her flesh, & burne her with fire.

p Diuers nations, as the Gothes, Vandales, Hunnes and other nations which were once subiect to Rome, shall rise against it, and destroy it.

17 For God hath q put in their hearts to fulfill his wil, and to do with one consent for to giue their kingdome vnto the beast, vntill the words of God be fulfilled.

q That in steade of doing homage to Christ Iesus, they should be cast into a reprobate sense to serue Antichrist, and to dedicate themselues and theirs wholy vnto him.

18 And the woman which thou sawest, is the great citie, which reigneth ouer the kings of the earth.

CHAP. XVIII.

3. 9 The louers of the world are sorie for the fall of the whore of Babylon. 4 An admonition to the people of God, to flee out of her dominion. 20 But they that be of God, haue cause to reioyce for her destruction.

AFter these things, I sawe another Angel come downe from heauen, hauing great power, so that the earth was lightned with his glory. Ier. 51.8. chap. 14.8.

2 And hee cryed out mightily with a loude voyce, saying, * a It is fallen, it is fallen, Babylon the great citie, and is become the habitation of b deuils, and the holde of al foule spirits, and a cage of euery vncleane and hatefull bird.

a This description of the ouerthrowe of the great whore, is like to Ier. 51. where by the Prophets vse to declare the destruction of Babylon. b He describeth Rome to be the sinke of al abomination and deuilishnesse, and a kinde of hell.

c The greatest part of the world hath bene abused and seduced by this spirituall whoredome.

d When God threatneth the wicked, he euer comforteth and counselleth his what they ought to doe, that is, that they doe not communicate with the sinnes of the wicked.

e The Greeke worde is, that her sinnes so followe one another, and so rise one after another, that they grow to such an heape, that at length they touch the very heauen.

f Blessed is hee that can repay to the whore the like, as is written, Psal. 137. 8, 9. Isa. 47. 8.

g The glorious boasting of the strumpet.

h But ful of people and mightie.

i Both they that temporally haue had profit by the strumpet, & also the spirituall marchants shall for sorowe and want of their gaine, cry out and despaire.

k Which is very odoriferous and precious.

l Such as the wantons vse at Rome.

m This is the vilest ware that these merchants sel, & best cheap, which soules notwithstanding the Sonne of God redeemed with his precious blood, 1. Pet. 1. 19.

n That is, the things which thou louedst best.

o And so shewe signes of great sorowe.

3 For[c] all nations haue dronken of the wine of the wrath of her fornication, and the Kings of the earth haue committed fornication with her, and the merchants of the earth are waxed riche of the abundance of her pleasures.

4 And I heard another voyce from heauen say, [d] Go out of her, my people, that yee be not partakers in her sinnes, and that yee receiue not of her plagues.

5 For her sinnes are[e] come vp vnto heauen, & God hath remembred her iniquities.

6 [f] Reward her, euen as she hath rewarded you, and giue her double according to her workes: and in the cup that shee hath filled to you, fill her the double.

7 In[g] asmuch as she glorified her selfe, and liued in pleasure, so much giue ye to her torment and sorowe: for she saith in her heart, * I sit being a Queene, and am no [h] widowe, and shall see no mourning.

8 Therefore shall her plagues come at one day, death, and sorow, and famine, and she shalbe burnt with fire: for strong is the Lord God which will condemne her.

9 And the Kings of the earth shall bewaile her, and lament for her, which haue committed fornication, and liued in pleasure with her, when they shall see the smoke of her burning,

10 And shall stand afarre off for feare of her torment, saying, Alas, alas, the great citie Babylon, the mightie citie: for in one houre is thy iudgement come.

11 And the [i] merchants of the earth shall weepe and waile ouer her: for no man buyeth their ware any more.

12 The ware of golde and siluer, and of precious stone, and of pearles, and of fine linen, and of purple, and of silke, and of skarlet, and of all maner of Thyne [k] wood, and of all vessels of yuorie, and of all vessels of most precious wood, and of brasse, and of yron, and of marble,

13 And of cynamom, and odours, and ointments, and frankincense, and wine, and oyle, and fine floure, and wheate, & beasts, and sheepe, and horses, and [l] charets, and seruants, and [m] soules of men.

14 (And the [n] apples that thy soule lusted after, are departed from thee, and all things which were fat & excellent, are departed fro thee, and thou shalt finde them no more)

15 The merchants of these things which were waxed rich, shal stand a farre off from her, for feare of her torment, weeping and wayling,

16 And saying, Alas, alas, the great citie, that was clothed in fine linen, and purple, and skarlet, and gilded with golde, and precious stone, and pearles.

17 For in one houre so great riches are come to desolation. And euery shipmaster, and all the people that occupie ships, and shipmen, and whosoeuer traualle on the sea, shall stand afarre off, 18 And cry, when they see the smoke of her burning, saying, What citie was like vnto this great citie?

19 And they shall cast [o] dust on their heads, and cry weeping and wayling, and say, Alas, alas, the great citie, wherein were made riche all that had ships on the sea by her ‖costlines: for in one houre she is made desolate.

20 O heauen, reioyce of her, and ye holy Apostles and Prophets: for God hath [p] giuen your iudgement on her.

21 Then a mightie Angel tooke vp a stone like a great milstone, * and cast it into the sea, saying, With such violence shall the great citie Babylon be cast, and shall be [q] found no more.

22 And the voyce of harpers, and musicians, and of pipers, and trumpetters shall be heard no more in thee, and no craftes man, of whatsoeuer craft he be, shall be found any more in thee: and the sound of a milstone shall be heard no more in thee.

23 And the light of a candle shal shine no more in thee: and the voyce of the bridegrome and of the bride shalbe heard no more in thee: for thy [r] merchants were the great men of the earth: and with thine inchantments were deceiued all nations.

24 And in her was found the blood of the Prophets, and of the Saints, & of all that were slaine vpon the earth.

‖ Or, noble estate.

p And hath reuenged your cause in punishing her.

Iere. 51. 63.

q It shall not be like to other cities which may be builded againe, but it shall be destroyed without mercy.

r The Romish prelates and merchants of soules are as kings and princes: so that their couetousnesse and pride must be punished: secondly their crafts and deceits: and thirdly their cruelty.

CHAP. XIX.

1 Prayses are giuen vnto God for iudging the whore, and for auenging the blood of his seruants. 10 The Angel will not be worshipped. 17 The foules and birds are called to the slaughter.

AND after these things I heard a great voyce of a great multitude in heauen, saying, [a] Hallelu-iah, saluation, and glory, and honour, and power be to the Lorde our God.

2 For [b] true and righteous are his iudgements: for he hath condemned the great whore, which did corrupt the earth with her fornication, and hath auenged the blood of his seruants shed by her hand.

3 And againe they sayd, Hallelu-iah: and her [c] smoke rose vp for euermore.

4 And the foure & twentie Elders, and the foure [d] beasts fell downe, and worshipped God that sate on the throne, saying, [e] Amen, Hallelu-iah.

5 Then a voyce came out of the throne, saying, Prayse our God, all ye his seruants, and ye that feare him, both smal and great.

6 And I heard like a voyce of a great multitude, and as the voyce of many waters, and as the voyce of strong thundrings, saying, Hallelu-iah: for our Lorde God almightie hath reigned.

7 Let vs be glad and reioyce, and giue glory to him: for the [f] marriage of the Lambe is come, and his wife hath made her selfe ready.

8 And to her was graunted, that she should be arayed with pure fine linen and shining: for the fine linen is the righteousnes of Saints.

11 And I saw heauen open, and behold, a white [l] horse, and he that sate vpon him, was called, [m] Faithfull and true, and hee [n] iudgeth and fighteth righteously.

12 And his eyes were as a flame of fire, and on his head were [o] many crownes: and he had a name written, [p] no man knewe but himselfe.

16 And he hath vpon his garment, and vpon his [u] thigh a name written, * THE KING OF KINGS, AND LORD OF LORDS.

18 That ye may eate the flesh of Kings, and the flesh of the captaines, and the flesh of mightie men, and the flesh of horses, and of them that sit on them, and the flesh of all free men and bondmen, and of small and great.

19 And I saw the beast, & the Kings of the earth, and their [y] warriers gathered together to make battel against him that sate on the horse, and against his souldiers.

20 But the beast was [z] taken, and with him that false prophet that wrought miracles before him, wherewith he deceiued them that receiued the beastes marke, and them that worshipped his image. These both were alue cast into a lake of fire burning with brimstone.

CHAP. XX.

2 Satan being bound for a certaine time, 7 And after let loose, vexeth the Church grieuously. 10.14 And after the world is iudged, hee and his are cast into the lake of fire.

AND I saw an [a] Angel come downe frō heauen, hauing the [b] key of the bottomlesse pit, and a great chaine in his hand.

2 And he tooke the dragon that old serpent, which is the deuil and Satan, and he bound him [c] a thousand yeeres,

3 And cast him into the bottomlesse pit, and he shut him vp, and sealed the doore vpon him, that he should deceiue the people no more, till the [d] thousand yeeres were fulfilled: for after that he must be loosed for a litle season.

4 And I saw [e] seates: and they sate vpon them, and iudgement was giuen vnto them, and I sawe the soules of them, that were beheaded for the witnesse of Iesus, and for the worde of God, and which did not worship the beast, neither his image, neither had taken his marke vpon their foreheads, or on their handes: and they liued, and reigned with Christ a [f] thousand yeere.

9 And they went vp into the playne of the earth, which compassed the tents of the Saints about, and the beloued citie: but fire came downe from God out of heauen, and deuoured them.

10 And the deuill that deceiued them, was cast into a lake of fire and brimstone, where the beast and the false prophet shall be tormented euen day and night for euermore.

AND I ſawe * a new heauen, and a new earth: a for * the firſt heauen, and the firſt earth were b paſſed away, and there was no more ſea.

2 And I John ſaw the c holy citie newe Ieruſalem come d downe from God out of heauen, prepared as a bride trimmed for her husband.

3 And I heard a great voyce out of heauen, ſaying, Behold, the Tabernacle of God is with men, and he will dwell with them: and they ſhall be his people, and God himſelfe ſhalbe their God with them.

4 * And God ſhall wipe e away all teares from their eyes: and there ſhall be no more death, neither ſorowe, neither crying, neither ſhall there bee any more paine: for the firſt things are paſſed.

5 And he that ſate vpon the throne, ſaid, * Beholde, I make all things newe: and he ſayde vnto me, Write: for theſe wordes are faithfull and true.

6 And he ſayde vnto me, It is done, * I am Alpha and Omega, the beginning and the ende. I will giue to him that is athirſt, of the f well of the water of life freely.

8 But the g fearful, and vnbeleeuing, and the h abominable, and murtherers, and whoremongers, and ſorcerers, and idolaters, and all lyers ſhall haue their part in the lake, which burneth with fire and brimſtone, which is the ſecond death.

9 And there came vnto me one of the ſeuen Angels, which had the ſeuen vials full of the ſeuen laſt plagues, and talked with mee, ſaying, Come: I will ſhew thee the i bride, the Lambes wife.

10 And he carried me away in the ſpirit to a great and an hie mountaine, and he ſhewed me the great k citie, holie Ieruſalem, l deſcending out of heauen from God,

11 Hauing the glorie of God: & her ſhining was like vnto a ſtone moſt precious, as a m Iaſper ſtone cleare as Cryſtall, 12 And had a great n wall and hie, and had twelue o gates, and at the gates twelue Angels, and the names written, which are the twelue Tribes of the children of Iſrael.

13 On the Eaſt part there were three gates, and on the Northſide three gates, on the Southſide three gates, and on the Weſt ſide three gates.

14 And the wall of the citie had twelue foundations, and in them the names of the Lambes twelue p Apoſtles.

15 And he that talked with mee had a golden reede to meaſure the citie withall, and the gates thereof, and the wall therof.

16 And the citie lay foure ſquare, & the length is as large as the breadth of it, and hee meaſured the city with the reed, twelue thouſand furlongs: and the length, and the breadth, and the height of it are equall.

17 And he meaſured the wall thereof, an hundred, fourtie and foure cubites, by the meaſure of man, that is, of the Angel.

18 And the building of the wal of it was of Iaſper: and the citie was pure golde like vnto cleare glaſſe.

19 And the foundations of the wall of the citie were garniſhed with all maner of precious ſtones: the firſt foundation was Iaſper: the ſeconde of Saphir: the third of a Chalcedonie: the fourth of an Emerande:

20 The fift of a Sardonix: the ſixt of a Sardius: the ſeuenth of a Chryſolite: the eight of a Beryl: the ninth of a Topaz: the tenth of a Chryſopraſus: the eleuenth of a Jacinth: the twelfth an Amethiſt:

21 And the twelue gates were twelue pearles, and euery gate is of one pearle, and the ſtreete of the citie is pure golde, as ſhining glaſſe.

22 And I ſawe no Temple therein: for the Lorde God almightie and the q Lambe are the Temple of it.

23 * And the citie had no neede of the ſunne, neither of the moone to ſhine in it: for the glory of God did light it: and the Lambe is the light of it.

24 * And the people which are ſaued, ſhall walke in the light of it: and the r kings of the earth ſhall bring their glory and honour vnto it.

25 * And the gates of it ſhall not be ſhut by day: for there ſhalbe no night there.

26 And the glory & honour of the Gentiles ſhalbe brought vnto it.

¶THE PREFACE TO THE Christian Reader, touching the two Alphabets ensuing.

GOOD Christian Reader, because thou mayest enioy and reape the profite of these two Alphabets of directions vnto Common places hereafter following, which I haue in maner of a briefe Concordance, or large & ample Index, collected, digested, and caused to be imprinted for thy commoditie: I thought it not amisse to aduertise thee somewhat touching the principall contents, vse, and commoditie of them. Wherefore be it knowen vnto thee, that in the first of the fayde Alphabets, I haue together placed by themselues in a maner, all the strange names and wordes which are scatteringly to be founde here and there throughout the whole Bible, remayning written in the Hebrewe, Chaldean, Syrian, Greeke, or Latine languages: to the ende thou mayst by that meanes, learne to be conduced vnto so much of the interpretation, Historie, Common places, and knowledge of them, and euery of them, as I trust thou shalt thinke needefull. And for that in diuers translations these strange names & wordes are written diuersly, I haue, in respect thereof, only in this Alphabet, folowed ỹ Geneua translation, as most allowed in that behalfe, and yet haue placed in the Margent thereof, how in writing, other Translations differ from the same: to the ende not onely such corruptions as are found for want of the true Orthographie of them, may appeare vnto those that are skilfull in those languages, to be amended, when time shall minister occasion (as some of them are already) but also the vnskilfull Readers be not defrauded of such commodity, as might grow vnto them thereby, especially if they should haue occasion to looke for any worde in the same Alphabet, after the same maner of writing, that they had seene or read in other Copies, and not finde the same accordingly. Secondly, in the other of the saide Alphabets, I haue likewise by themselues placed all, and as many proper and vsuall English words, as are conteined in the same Byble, conducing to the finding out of the most fittest sentences, and best common places, tending to the prouing or verifying of any article and doctrine, concerning our Christian fayth and Religion, or belonging to any other godly or necessarie instructiō: so as if thou wouldest vnderstand what is to be learned in the Scriptures touching God or his power, his wisedome, or his loue, his mercie, or his trueth, his iustice, his promises, his plagues, or his punishments, &c. either else concerning Christ, or the holy Ghost, Angel, or Man, Nature, or Lawe, Sinne, or Grace, Faith, or Vnbeliefe, Predestination, or Reprobation, Iustification, Regeneration, Church or Sacraments, &c. or to be briefe, if thou wouldest vnderstande what is necessarily to be learned in the same Scriptures, touching the estate, authoritie, office or duetie of Kings or Princes, Iudges or Magistrates, Bishops and Pastors, Elders or Ministers, Fathers and Mothers, Masters and Mistresses, Subiects, and Parishioners, Husbands and Wiues, Children and seruants, and how euery one, of what degree, estate, condition, or profession soeuer, he, she, or they be of, ought to behaue themselues towards God, and one towards another, and what is to be spoken and not spoken, and what is to be done and left vndone of them or any of them, by the rule of Gods worde: thou art not voide of competent knowledge or directions in this Alphabet to ayde thee. Thirdly, to further thee to finde out in these two Alphabets, any thing whereof I haue before made mention, thou art to resort Alphabetically vnto the first of them, with the name of any Man, Woman, Countrey, Citie, Place, Riuer, Idole, &c. in the same conteyned: and also vnto the second of them, with the chiefe word of any sentence or common place therein mētioned, which thou art most affected vnto, or desirest to be satisfied of: and by that meanes in euery of them shalt thou, by Gods grace, without fayle be conduced, and to thy great ease directed, and as it were, ledde by the hand, euen to the Booke, Chapter, and Verse, where the same, (or so much thereof, as for a godly, Christian, and necessarie knowledge shall be thought requisite) is to be found out most readily: alwayes remembring, that whatsoeuer conuenient knowledge wanteth in these Alphabets, as touching the text whereunto it directeth thee, is there supplied by the Annotations, or quotations in the Margent. Moreouer, good Christian Reader, thou hast also to obserue how that the first Figure, or Figures, which followe next after any Booke whereunto thou shalt be guided, signifieth or signifie the Chapter, and the other the verse or verses of the same Chapter, where any of the foresaid things is to be sought for. Againe, where as thou shalt after a Chapter, and otherwhiles after some verse or verses of a Chapter, finde this marke or Starre * quoted, thou art to vnderstand, how that the whole Chapter, or from the verse of that Chapter where the same Starre is placed forward vnto the end thereof, entreateth, or in some good respects chiefly belongeth, and may be applyed to the same Historie, matter, or common place thou seekest for, except there be any verses following the same *, for then the common place is to be vnderstoode, not to exceede those verses. Finally, whereas I haue sometimes in these Alphabets partly set downe the sense, and that which may properly be gathered of the text, which thou art directed vnto, & not the very wordes them selues, and otherwhiles repeated one thing in diuers places, but yet to diuers ends: I trust that will not offend thee, sith I haue so done for the vnlearneds sake, because the same coulde, ne can be made too plaine for them, and therefore haue vsed not so great a curiositie and abbreuiation in that behalfe, as perhaps some other would haue had me: and yet cõsidering to what a great quantitie these two Alphabets are growen vnto, (ouer that I thought they would) I haue bin forced to leaue out somewhat, that otherwise I would haue added vnto them, which hereafter by Gods grace I will supply: thus much touching the principall contentes, commoditie, and vse of the aforesaid Alphabets, which with such other doubts as may trouble thee, I mistrust not, but by well perusing of the same, and practise (with the diuersitie of letter, which is vsed in them) will soone appeare very easie, plaine, and apparant vnto thee, albeit I particularly touch not euery of them. Now therefore to conclude, if my simple trauaile and paines taken herein shalbe well accepted of thee, I meane, of the more skilful and learned Readers, to be polished and amended of them (if they shall so deeme necessarie and conuenient) to the better edification of the Church of God, whereof they are or ought to be ioynt members, helpers, and furtherers, so farre foorth as their Talents wil stretch vnto, and that in the spirit of meekenesse, sobrietie, and charitie: and of the lesse learned or vnlearned Reader, (vnto whome I confesse my selfe the greatest debtour) as anayd and helpe to their godly studies, and honest trade of life, and withall Christianly to be construed of al men, as a means and furtherance, and not an hinderance vnto any, I shal for my part thinke my selfe wel requited, and more then sufficiently rewarded, in that I shal enioy my desire, & that which I longed for. And so beseeching Almightie God to giue vs his grace to be studious of vnitie, and bringing forth such fruites, as may declare our vndoubted election in Christ Iesus, I take my leaue of thee, this xxij. of December.

Anno Domini.

Thine in the Lord, Robert F. Herrey.
